Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On August 1, 2011, the Company entered into a First Amended and Restated Credit Agreement with Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. ("Wells Fargo"), in order to amend its existing credit facility, reset certain financial covenants and increase the underlying line of credit limit (the "Amended Credit Facility"). The revolving line of credit increased from $25 million to $35 million, and the Amended Credit Facility continues to include customary covenants.

The Amended Credit Facility allows for borrowings limited to an aggregate of 80% of the Company's current eligible Accounts Receivable and 50% of Unbilled Receivable to a cap of the lesser of $7.5 million or 30% of the Company's current eligible Accounts Receivable. Eligible Accounts Receivable include deductions for standard items such as invoices past due over 90 days, fixed price work, foreign receivables and government work. The Amended Credit Facility requires the Company to maintain certain financial covenants as of the end of each calendar quarter, including (i) EBITDA not less than $1,250,000 as of second quarter end determined as of June 30, 2011; and (ii) Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio not less than 1.75 to 1.00 as of fiscal quarter end commencing September 30, 2011.

The Amended Credit Facility contains covenants that place certain limitations on the Company including limits on capital expenditures, other indebtedness, mergers, asset sales, investment, guarantees, and restrictions on certain distributions and pledges of assets. The Amended Credit Facility matures in April 2012.

In addition to the Amended Credit Facility, with the support of Wells Fargo's Global Banking Group, ENGlobal and the Export-Import Bank of the United States ("Ex-Im Bank") agreed to a $9.5 million facility ("Ex-Im Facility") to support the Caspian Pipeline Consortium (CPC) project. To provide for working capital relating to the Ex-Im Facility, Wells Fargo and the Company entered into an Ex-Im Transaction Specific Credit Agreement dated July 13, 2011, along with a related security agreement, guaranty and note (collectively, the "Ex-Im Credit Documents").

The Ex-Im Credit Documents permit advances to the Company from Wells Fargo of up to $9.5 million, provided that the advances do not exceed an aggregate of 90% of the Company's eligible export related accounts receivable. Additionally, Wells Fargo agrees to cause one of its affiliates to issue standby letters of credit for the Company's account to provide performance guarantees for certain work to be performed by the Company or its affiliates.

As security for all indebtedness and other obligations of the Company and each guarantor to Wells Fargo under the Ex-Im Credit Documents, the Company granted to Wells Fargo a first priority security interest in (i) all the Company's accounts receivables and other rights to payment, other than those accounts receivable owed by governmental entities, relating to the specific export orders, (ii) inventory relating to the specific export orders and (iii) certain cash collateral of the Company. The Ex-Im Credit Documents mature on July 12, 2014.
