We may not sell these securities until the registration statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission is effective. This prospectus is not an offer to sell these securities and it is not soliciting an offer to buy these securities in any state where the offer or sale is not permitted.

PROSPECTUS

PUROFLOW INCORPORATED

1,533,974 Shares of Common Stock

This prospectus may be used only in connection with the resale, from time to time, of 1,533,974 shares of our common stock, par value $0.15, by the selling stockholders identified in this prospectus. Of these shares of common stock, 1,303,974 shares were issued to the selling stockholders in the private placement described under the section of this prospectus entitled "The Private Placement" and 230,000 shares are issuable upon exercise of warrants issued to certain of the selling stockholders in connection with the private placement. Certain information about the time and manner in which the selling stockholders may sell shares of our common stock under this prospectus is provided under the sections entitled "Selling Stockholders" and "Plan of Distribution" in this prospectus.

Our common stock is listed on the Boston Stock Exchange under the symbol "AGX." On October 2, 2003, the last reported sales price of our common stock was $8.00 per share.

Investing in our common stock involves risks. Beginning on page 4, we have listed several "Risk Factors" which you should consider. You should read the entire prospectus carefully before you make your investment decision.

Neither the Securities and Exchange Commission nor any state securities commission has approved or disapproved of these securities, or determined if this prospectus is truthful or complete. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offense.

The date of this prospectus is October __, 2003

PROSPECTUS SUMMARY

Because this is a summary, it may not contain all the information that may be important to you. You should read the entire prospectus carefully, including the risks of investing discussed under "Risk Factors," beginning on page 4, and the financial statements included in our other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, before making an investment decision.

Overview

We have two principal lines of business: telecommunications infrastructure services (which we refer to as our "SMC business" or "telecom business") and the manufacture and sale of filtration and related products (which we refer to as our "Puroflow business" or "manufacturing business"). We conduct our SMC business through our wholly owned subsidiary, Southern Maryland Cable (that we refer to as "SMC"), and our Puroflow business directly. SMC is a provider of telecommunications infrastructure services including project management, construction and maintenance for the Federal Government, telecommunications and broadband service providers as well as electric utilities. In our Puroflow business, we manufacture and sell a broad range of filtration and related products for original equipment manufacturers, foreign and domestic military users, government direct, automotive and aviation aftermarket users as well as a number of commercial and industrial applications.

We were organized as a Delaware corporation in May 1961. On June 13, 1983, we changed our name from Ultra Dynamics Corporation to Puroflow Incorporated. Our principal executive offices are located at One Church Street, Suite 302, Rockville, MD 20850. Our phone number at that address is (301) 315-0027. We maintain a website on the Internet at <http://www.puroflow.com>. Information contained on our website does not constitute part of this prospectus.

Unless the context otherwise requires, references in this prospectus to "Puroflow," the "Company," "we," "us" or "our" refer to Puroflow Incorporated, a Delaware corporation, and its subsidiaries. Each trademark, trade name or service mark of any other company appearing in this prospectus belongs to its holder.

The Private Placement

On December 31, 2002, we executed a non-binding term sheet with a group consisting of Rainer H. Bosselmann, H. Haywood Miller III and Arthur F. Trudel, setting forth terms for a private placement of our common stock. Pursuant to the term sheet, the group and/or its affiliates agreed to invest not less than $2 million in the private placement. Mr. Bosselmann was appointed to our Board of Directors as Vice Chairman and Mr. Miller and Mr. Trudel were appointed as corporate officers of the Company, each at a nominal annual salary of $1.00, upon execution of the term sheet. In addition, we granted to the group warrants to purchase an aggregate of 180,000 shares of our common stock at an exercise price of $7.75 per share upon execution of the term sheet. These warrants could only be exercised in the event that the private placement was consummated.

Edgar Filing: PUROFLOW INC - Form S-3

On April 29, 2003, we completed the private placement. In the private placement, we sold 1,303,974 shares of our common stock to a group of accredited investors (including Messrs. Bosselmann, Miller and Trudel) at a price of $7.75 per share. We raised a total of $10,106,000 in the private placement (before giving effect to offering expenses of approximately $472,000).

Pursuant to the terms of the private placement, Mr. Bosselmann received the right to designate four members of our Board of Directors (including himself) upon consummation of the private placement. Following the closing of the private placement, four of our existing directors (Warren Lichtenstein, Glen Kassan, Joshua Schechter and Robert Smith) resigned and were replaced by Mr. Bosselmann and three new directors designated by Mr. Bosselmann (DeSoto S. Jordan, James W. Quinn and Daniel A. Levinson). Also upon the consummation of the private placement, each of Messrs. Bosselmann, Miller and Trudel became senior officers of the Company.

Certain affiliates of MSR Advisors, Inc., a Delaware corporation, purchased 325,584 shares of our common stock in the private placement. In addition, MSR Advisors, Inc. received warrants to purchase 50,000 shares of our common stock at an exercise price of $7.75 in connection with the private placement. Daniel A. Levinson, a member of our Board of Directors, is President of MSR Advisors, Inc.

In connection with the private placement, we entered into a registration rights agreement pursuant to which the purchasers in the private placement received certain registration rights with respect to the shares of common stock purchased in the private placement. We are required to file the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part under the registration rights agreement to register the resale of the shares of our common stock purchased in the private placement. We have also agreed to include in this registration statement the shares of our common stock that are issuable upon exercise of the warrants received by Messrs. Bosselmann, Miller and Trudel and MSR Advisors, Inc. in connection with the private placement.

Other Recent Events

We are currently pursuing a strategic plan involving the diversification of our business through business acquisitions and/or other investments. We believe that this diversification strategy will provide the potential for growth and profit.

As noted above, on April 29, 2003, we completed the private placement. We used approximately $3.6 million of proceeds from the private placement in our acquisition of SMC. We intend to use the remaining proceeds from the private placement for acquisitions in growth oriented industries and for working capital.

On July 17, 2003, we acquired Southern Maryland Cable. We acquired SMC by merger of SMC with and into a wholly-owned subsidiary of ours. SMC's operations are now conducted by this wholly-owned subsidiary, which has been renamed "Southern Maryland Cable."

On August 4, 2003, our common stock began trading on the Boston Stock Exchange under the symbol "AGX." Prior to our listing on the Boston Stock Exchange, our common stock was traded on the Bulletin Board System and reported by the National Quotation Service under the symbol "PFLW.OB."

On September 3, 2003, we entered into a letter of intent with Western Filter Corporation to sell our manufacturing business to Western Filter. The consummation of the transaction is contingent upon the completion of Western Filter's due diligence, the signing of a definitive purchase and sale agreement, approval of both companies' respective boards of directors and other conditions. We can provide no assurance that the transaction contemplated under the Western Filter letter of intent will occur.

Edgar Filing: PUROFLOW INC - Form S-3

On September 18, 2003, we filed a definitive proxy statement with the Commission relating to our 2003 Annual Meeting. In addition to proposals relating to the election of directors and the ratification of our independent auditors, we submitted to our stockholders proposals to change our name from "Puroflow Incorporated" to "Argan, Inc." and to transfer all of the operating assets and liabilities relating to our Puroflow business to a new wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company which, after the transfer, would be renamed "Puroflow Incorporated."

The Offering

The following is a brief summary of the offering. You should read the entire prospectus carefully, including the "Risk Factors" section and our financial statements included in our other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Securities Offered	1,533,974 shares of common stock, par value $0.15 per share.
Use of Proceeds	We will not receive any of the proceeds of the resale of the shares of common stock by the selling stockholders. We will, however, receive proceeds of up to $1,782,500 upon exercise of the warrants held by Messrs. Bosselmann, Miller and Trudel and MSR Advisors, Inc. We plan to use proceeds received upon exercise of the warrants for acquisitions in growth oriented industries and for general working capital.
Trading	Our common stock is listed on the Boston Stock Exchange under the symbol "AGX."
Risk Factors	See "Risk Factors" and the other information in this prospectus for a discussion of the factors you should carefully consider before deciding to invest in the shares of common stock offered by the selling stockholders pursuant to this prospectus.

RISK FACTORS

You should carefully consider the following risk factors before making an investment decision. If any of the following risks actually occur, our business, financial condition, or results of operations could be materially and adversely affected. In such case, the trading price of our common stock could decline, and you may lose all or part of your investment. You should also refer to the other information set forth and incorporated by reference in this Prospectus, including our consolidated financial statements and the related notes.

Our new officers and directors have limited experience in managing our business.

Rainer H. Bosselmann recently became Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, H. Haywood Miller III recently became Executive Vice President and Arthur F. Trudel recently became Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of the Company. Upon consummation of the private placement, four of our existing directors (Warren Lichtenstein, Glen Kassan, Joshua Schechter and Robert Smith) resigned and were replaced by Mr. Bosselmann and three new directors designated by Mr. Bosselmann (DeSoto S. Jordan, James W. Quinn and Daniel A. Levinson). In addition, in June 2003, Peter L. Winslow was elected by the Board of Directors to fill a vacancy caused by the resignation of Travis Bradford. Although Messrs. Bosselmann, Miller, Trudel, Jordan, Quinn, Levinson and Winslow have experience as executive officers and directors of other public companies, they have limited experience in managing our business.

Purchasers of our common stock will be unable to evaluate future acquisitions and/or investments.

We plan to use the remaining proceeds from the private placement principally to finance future business acquisitions and/or investments. We recently completed our acquisition of Southern Maryland Cable. As of the date hereof, we have not identified any other specific acquisitions and/or investments that are probable of consummation. Accordingly, purchasers of our common stock may be unable to evaluate the business, prospects, operating results, management or other material factors relating to future acquisitions and/or investments that we make.

We may be unsuccessful at integrating companies that we acquire.

We cannot be sure that we can successfully integrate companies we acquire with our other operations without substantial costs, delays or other operational or financial problems. Integrating acquired companies involves a number of special risks which could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations, including:

- failure of acquired companies to achieve the results we expect;
- diversion of management's attention from operational matters;
- difficulties integrating the operations and personnel of acquired companies;
- inability to retain key personnel of acquired companies;
- risks associated with unanticipated events or liabilities;
- the potential disruption of our business; and
- the difficulty of maintaining uniform standards, controls, procedures and policies.

If one of our acquired companies suffers customer dissatisfaction or performance problems, the reputation of our entire company could be materially and adversely affected. In addition, future acquisitions could result in issuances of equity securities that would reduce our stockholders' ownership interest, the incurrence of debt, contingent liabilities, deferred stock based compensation or expenses related to the valuation of goodwill or other intangible assets and the incurrence of large, immediate write-offs.

We may not be able to raise additional capital to continue our business plan.

We may need to raise additional capital to finance future business acquisitions and/or investments. Additional financing may not be available on terms that are acceptable to us or at all. If we raise additional funds through the issuance of equity or convertible debt securities, the percentage ownership of our stockholders would be reduced. Additionally, these securities might have rights, preferences and privileges senior to those of our current stockholders. If adequate funds are not available on terms acceptable to us, our ability to finance future business acquisitions and/or investments and to otherwise pursue our business plan would be significantly limited.

We may be unsuccessful at generating internal growth.

Our ability to generate internal growth will be affected by, among other factors, our success in:

- expanding the range of services and products we offer to customers to address their evolving needs;
- attracting new customers;
- hiring and retaining employees; and
- reducing operating and overhead expenses.

Many of the factors affecting our ability to generate internal growth may be beyond our control, and we cannot be certain that our strategies will be successful or that we will be able to generate cash flow sufficient to fund our operations and to support internal growth. Our inability to achieve internal growth could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Our business growth could outpace the capability of our corporate management infrastructure.

We cannot be certain that our systems, procedures and controls will be adequate to support our operations as they expand. Future growth may also impose significant additional responsibilities on members of our senior management, including the need to recruit and integrate new senior level managers and executives. We cannot be certain that we will be able to recruit and retain such additional managers and executives. To the extent that we are unable to manage our growth effectively, or are unable to attract and retain additional qualified management, our financial condition and results of operations could be materially and adversely affected.

We operate in highly competitive markets.

A broad range of companies provide services or produce products or are capable of providing services and producing products that compete with services and products that we offer in our various markets. Many of these companies have significantly greater financial resources than we do.

In our SMC business, industry competitors include service providers ranging from small regional companies which service a single market to larger firms servicing multiple regions, as well as large national and multi-national contractors. In addition, there are few barriers to entry in the telecommunications infrastructure industry. As a result, any organization that has adequate financial resources and access to technical expertise may become one of our competitors. Competition in the telecommunications infrastructure industry depends on a number of factors, including price. Certain of our competitors may have lower overhead cost structures than we do and may, therefore, be able to provide their services at lower rates than we can provide the same services. In addition, some of our competitors are larger and have greater resources than us. We cannot be certain that our competitors will not develop the expertise, experience and resources to provide services that are superior in both price and quality to our services. Similarly, we cannot be certain that we will be able to maintain or enhance our competitive position within our industry. We may also face competition from the in-house service organizations of our existing or prospective customers.

In our Puroflow automotive business, Morton International, Inc. and other major domestic airbag manufacturers produce their airbag filter components in-house, and TRW Vehicle Safety Systems, Inc., a significant global manufacturer of airbag inflator assemblies, produces passenger side airbag filters for its own use. Other companies may choose to enter the automotive airbag filter market. There can be no assurances that our airbag manufacturer customers will not manufacture some or all of their airbag filters for their own use, or that we will be able to compete effectively in the future against independent manufacturers of airbag filters.

In our Puroflow aerospace business, Dover Corporation and Pall Corporation are significant providers of filtration products for manufacturers in the aerospace industry. Both of these companies have significantly greater financial and other resources than we do. There can be no assurances that we will be able to compete effectively in the future against these companies or other manufacturers of filtration products for manufacturers in the aerospace industry.

A significant portion of our business involves providing services and products to the United States government under government contracts. The United States government may limit the competitive bidding of any contract under a small business or minority set-aside, in which bidding is limited to companies meeting the criteria for a small business or minority business, respectively. We are currently qualified as a small business concern, but not a minority business.

We cannot be sure that we will be able to compete successfully against our competitors in the future. If we fail to compete successfully against our current or future competitors, our business, financial condition, and results of operations will be materially and adversely affected.

We are substantially dependent on economic conditions in the telecommunications infrastructure and automotive industries.

In our SMC business, we operate in the telecommunications infrastructure and construction industries, which can be negatively affected by rises in interest rates, downsizings in the economy, and general economic conditions. In addition, our SMC activities may be hampered by weather conditions and an inability to plan and forecast activity levels. Adverse economic conditions in the telecommunications infrastructure and construction industries may have a material adverse effect on our future operating results.

In our Puroflow business, we are a supplier to the automotive industry. As such, our Puroflow business is dependant on many factors including the level of domestic vehicle sales, which are cyclical and dependant on, among other things, the economy, consumer spending, potential work stoppages, adverse weather conditions, potential problems with obtaining supplies and other risks of production. Reduced growth or contraction in the automotive industry may have a material adverse effect on our future operating results.

The industry served by our SMC business is subject to rapid technological and structural changes that could reduce the demand for the services we provide.

The telecommunications infrastructure services industry is undergoing rapid change as a result of technological advances and deregulation that could in certain cases reduce the demand for our services or otherwise adversely affect our business. New or developing technologies could displace the systems used for voice, video and data transmissions, and improvements in existing technology may allow telecommunications infrastructure service companies to significantly improve their networks without physically upgrading them. In addition, consolidation in the telecom industry may result in the loss of one or more of our customers. Additionally, our work in the telecommunications infrastructure services industry can be negatively affected by rises in interest rates, downsizings in the economy and general economic conditions.

Our financial results are dependent on government programs and spending.

A significant portion of our SMC business relates to structured cabling work for military and other government agencies. As such, our SMC business is reliant upon military and other government programs. Our Puroflow business is reliant, to a certain extent, upon government defense and space programs. Reliance on government programs has certain inherent risks. Among others, contracts, direct or indirect, with United States government agencies are subject to unilateral termination at the convenience of the government, subject only to the reimbursement of certain costs plus a termination fee.

Our dependence upon fixed price contracts could adversely affect our business.

In our SMC business, we currently generate, and expect to continue to generate, a significant portion of our revenues under fixed price contracts. We must estimate the costs of completing a particular project to bid for these fixed price contracts. Although historically we have been able to estimate costs, the cost of labor and materials may, from time to time, vary from costs originally estimated. These variations, along with other risks inherent in performing fixed price contracts, may cause actual revenue and gross profits for a project to differ from those we originally estimated and could result in reduced profitability or losses on projects. Depending upon the size of a particular project, variations from the estimated contract costs can have a significant impact on our operating results for any fiscal quarter or year.

Many of our SMC contracts may be canceled on short notice and we may be unsuccessful in replacing our contracts as they are completed or expire.

Any of the following contingencies may have a material adverse effect on our SMC business:

- our customers cancel a significant number of contracts;
- we fail to win a significant number of our existing contracts upon re-bid; or
- we complete the required work under a significant number of non-recurring projects and cannot replace them with similar projects.

Many of our SMC customers may cancel their contracts on short notice, typically 30 to 90 days, even if we are not in default under the contract. Certain of our SMC customers assign work to us on a project-by-project basis under master service agreements. Under these agreements, the customers often have no obligation to assign work to us. Our SMC operations could be materially and adversely affected if the volume of work we anticipate receiving from these customers is not assigned to us. Many of our SMC contracts, including our master service agreements, are opened to public bid at the expiration of their terms. We cannot assure you that we will be the successful bidder on existing contracts that come up for bid.

We depend upon a limited number of suppliers for certain of our production needs.

In our Puroflow business, we are dependant on one supplier for the majority of our material needs for automotive airbag filter production. If we were unable to continue to obtain materials from this supplier, our business, financial condition, and results of operations could be materially and adversely affected.

Loss of significant customers could adversely affect our business.

Sales to three customers currently account for essentially all of our SMC business. The loss of any of these customers could have a material adverse effect on our SMC business. Sales to three customers represented approximately 58% and 59% of our net sales relating to our Puroflow business during our fiscal years ended January 31, 2003 and 2002, respectively. The loss of any of these customers could have a material adverse effect on our Puroflow business.

We are subject to significant government regulation.

In our SMC business and our Puroflow business, we provide products and services to the United States government under government contracts. United States government contracts and related customer orders subject us to various laws and regulations governing United States government contractors and subcontractors, generally which are more restrictive than for non-government contractors. These include subjecting us to examinations by government auditors and investigators, from time to time, to insure compliance and to review costs. Violations may result in costs disallowed, and substantial civil or criminal liabilities (including, in severe cases, denial of future contracts).

We may be exposed to product liability claims in the event of product failure.

We are engaged in various businesses which could expose us to claims for injury, resulting from the failure of products that we sell or services that we provide. We have product liability and other insurance, covering in such amounts and against such risk as our management believes advisable, in light of our business and the terms and cost of such insurance. There is no assurance that we will maintain the same level of insurance coverage in the future.

We could have potential exposure to environmental liabilities.

Our operations are subject to various environmental laws and regulations, including those dealing with the handling and disposal of waste products, fuel storage and air quality. As a result of past and future operations, we may incur environmental remediation costs and other cleanup expenses. In addition, we cannot be certain that we will be able to identify or be indemnified for all potential environmental liabilities relating to any acquired business.

Loss of key personnel could adversely affect our business.

Our success is dependant to a significant degree on the continued contributions of our management team and our ability to employ, train and retain skilled personnel necessary to meet our operating requirements. Competition for qualified employees in our businesses is intense and, from time to time, there are a limited number of persons with knowledge of and experience in the particular industries in which we operate. We cannot be certain that we will be able to maintain an adequate skilled labor force necessary to operate efficiently and to support our growth strategy or that our labor expenses will not increase as a result of a shortage in the supply of skilled personnel. Labor shortages as well as increased labor costs may have a material adverse affect on our ability to implement our growth strategy and our operations.

Our Board of Directors may issue preferred stock with rights that are superior to our common stock.

Our Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, permits our Board of Directors to issue shares of preferred stock and to designate the terms of the preferred stock. The issuance of shares of preferred stock by the Board of Directors could adversely affect the rights of holders of common stock by, among other matters, establishing dividend rights, liquidation rights and voting rights that are superior to the rights of the holders of the common stock.

Our common stock is thinly traded.

Since August 4, 2003, our common stock has been listed on the Boston Stock Exchange under the symbol "AGX." Prior to our listing on the Boston Stock Exchange, our common stock was traded on the Bulletin Board System and reported by the National Quotation Service under the symbol "PFLW.OB." Our common stock is thinly and sporadically traded and no assurances can be given that a larger market will ever develop, or if developed, that it will be maintained.

Our business is seasonal and our operating results may vary significantly from quarter to quarter.

Our quarterly results are affected by seasonal fluctuations in our business. Our SMC business is expected to have seasonally weaker results in the first and fourth quarters of the year, and may produce stronger results in the second and third quarters. Our Puroflow business is subject to the seasonal characteristics of the automotive industry in which there are seasonal shutdowns in the third and fourth calendar quarters of each year, which typically result in lower shipments of airbag filters during these quarters. Our quarterly results may also be materially affected by:

- variations in the margins of projects performed during any particular quarter;
- regional or general economic conditions;
- the budgetary spending patterns of customers, including government agencies;
- the timing and volume of work under new agreements;
- the termination of existing agreements;

- costs that we incur to support growth internally or through acquisitions or otherwise;
- losses experienced in our operations not otherwise covered by insurance;
- the change in mix of our customers, contracts and business;
- the timing of acquisitions;
- the timing and magnitude of acquisition assimilation costs; and
- increases in construction and design costs.

Accordingly, our operating results in any particular quarter may not be indicative of the results that you can expect for any other quarter or for the entire year.

Availability of significant amounts of our common stock for sale could adversely affect its market price.

If our stockholders sell substantial amounts of our common stock in the public market following this offering, including shares issued upon exercise of the warrants held by Messrs. Bosselmann, Miller and Trudel and MSR Advisors, Inc., the market price of our common stock could fall. As of September 5, 2003, there were 1,798,100 shares of our common stock outstanding. 1,533,974 shares of our common stock (including 230,000 shares of common stock that are issuable upon exercise of the warrants) are being registered for resale under this prospectus. A sale of all or a significant portion of these shares could have an adverse impact on our stock price.

We have experienced losses in the past and may experience additional losses in the future.

As of July 31, 2003, we had an accumulated deficit of approximately $2.1 million resulting primarily from past losses. We may experience additional losses in the future.

We do not expect to pay dividends for the foreseeable future.

We have not paid cash dividends on our common stock since our inception and intend to follow a policy of retaining earnings, if any, to finance the development and expansion of our business. Payment of dividends, if any, will depend on such factors as our future earnings, capital requirements and financial position, plans for expansion, general economic conditions and other pertinent factors.

Certain officers, directors and stockholders have substantial control over the Company.

As of September 5, 2003, Rainer H. Bosselmann, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, beneficially owned approximately 16% of our voting shares (giving effect to 60,000 shares of common stock that may be purchased upon exercise of warrants held by Mr. Bosselmann); H. Haywood Miller III, Executive Vice President, beneficially owned approximately 3.9% of our voting shares (giving effect to 60,000 shares of common stock that may be purchased upon exercise of warrants held by Mr. Miller); Arthur F. Trudel, Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, beneficially owned approximately 3.8% of our voting shares (giving effect to 60,000 shares of common stock that may be purchased upon exercise of warrants held by Mr. Trudel); Peter L. Winslow, a member of our Board of Directors, beneficially owned approximately 2.4% of our voting shares; and MSR Advisors, Inc. and certain of its affiliates beneficially owned approximately 20.3% of our voting shares (giving effect to 50,000 shares of common stock that may be purchased upon exercise of warrants held by MSR Advisors, Inc.). Daniel A. Levinson, a director of the Company, is the President of MSR Advisors, Inc. In addition, the Company believes, based upon beneficial ownership reports filed with the Commission, that as of September 5, 2003, Wheatley Partners III, LLC and certain affiliates beneficially owned approximately 14.4% of our voting shares and Steel Partners II, L.P. and certain affiliates beneficially owned approximately 9.8% of our voting shares. As a result of such ownership, Messrs. Bosselmann, Miller, Trudel, Winslow and Levinson and MSR Advisors, Inc., individually or collectively, and Wheatley Partners III, LLC and Steel Partners II, L.P., may have the power to influence corporate actions such as an amendment to our certificate of incorporation, the consummation of any merger, or the sale of all or substantially all of our assets, and may influence the election of directors and other actions requiring stockholder approval.

Provisions of our certificate of incorporation and Delaware law could deter takeover attempts.

Provisions of our certificate of incorporation and Delaware law could delay, prevent, or make more difficult a merger, tender offer or proxy contest involving us. Among other things, under our certificate of incorporation, our board of directors may issue up to 500,000 shares of our preferred stock and may determine the price, rights, preferences, privileges and restrictions, including voting and conversion rights, of these shares of preferred stock. In addition, Delaware law limits transactions between us and persons that acquire significant amounts of our stock without approval of our board of directors.

FORWARD LOOKING STATEMENTS

Statements made in this prospectus, other than statements of historical fact, are forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. These statements relate to future events or our future financial performance, including statements relating to products, customers, suppliers, business prospects and effects of acquisitions. In some cases, forward-looking statements can be identified by terminology such as "may," "will," "should," "expect," "anticipate," "intend," "plan," "believe," "estimate," "potential," or "continue," the negative of these terms or other comparable terminology. These statements involve a number of risks and uncertainties, including incomplete or preliminary information; the effects of future acquisitions and/or investments; competitive factors; business and economic conditions generally; changes in government regulations and policies; our dependence upon third-party suppliers; continued acceptance of our products in the marketplace; technological changes; and other risks and uncertainties including those set forth above under "Risk Factors" that could cause actual events or results to differ materially from any forward-looking statement. The information contained in this prospectus should be read in conjunction with the "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" beginning on page 5 of our Form 10-KSB for the fiscal year ended January 31, 2003, filed with the Commission on March 20, 2003; the "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" beginning on page 14 of our Form 10-QSB for the fiscal quarter ended July 31, 2003, filed with the Commission on September 12, 2003; and our financial statements included in our other filings with the Commission.

You are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date of this prospectus and are based on information currently and reasonably known. We undertake no obligation to release any revisions to or update these forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances which occur after the date of this prospectus or to reflect the occurrence or effect of anticipated or unanticipated events.

WHERE YOU CAN FIND MORE INFORMATION

This prospectus is part of a registration statement on Form S-3 that we filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The registration statement contains more information than this prospectus regarding the Company and our common stock, including certain exhibits and schedules. The Securities and Exchange Commission allows us to "incorporate by reference" into this prospectus information we file with the Securities and Exchange Commission in other documents. This means that we can disclose important information to you by referring to other documents that contain that information. The information may include documents filed after the date of this prospectus which update and supersede the information you read in this prospectus. We incorporate by reference the documents listed below, except to the extent information in those documents is different from the information contained in this prospectus. We also incorporate by reference all future documents filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission under Sections 13(a), 13(c), 14 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 until we terminate the offering of shares of our common stock offered by this prospectus.

USE OF PROCEEDS

We will not receive any proceeds from the sale of the shares of our common stock offered by the selling stockholders pursuant to this prospectus. The selling stockholders will receive all of the proceeds from those sales. See "Selling Stockholders." We will, however, receive proceeds of up to $1,782,500 upon exercise of the warrants held by Messrs. Bosselmann, Miller and Trudel and MSR Advisors, Inc. We plan to use proceeds received upon exercise of the warrants for acquisitions in growth oriented industries and for general working capital.

SELLING STOCKHOLDERS

In connection with the private placement, we issued shares of our common stock to the selling stockholders identified in the table below, and we agreed to register a number of their shares for resale. We have also agreed to register for resale the shares of our common stock that may be received upon exercise of the warrants held by Messrs. Bosselmann, Miller and Trudel and MSR Advisors, Inc. We have also agreed to use commercially reasonable efforts to keep the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part effective for a period ending on the first to occur of:

- (i) the date when all of the shares registered under this registration statement have been sold;
- (ii) the date when all of the shares registered under this registration statement may be freely resold without restriction under Rule 144; and
- (iii) two years after the effective time of this registration statement.

Our registration of the shares of our common stock does not necessarily mean that the selling stockholders will sell all or any of the shares or that Messrs. Bosselmann, Miller or Trudel or MSR Advisors, Inc. will exercise all or any of the warrants or sell all or any of the shares that they receive upon exercise of the warrants.

The following table sets forth certain information regarding the beneficial ownership of our common stock, as of September 5, 2003, by each of the selling stockholders. The information in the table below is provided to the best of the Company's knowledge based upon review of the Company's share transfer ledger, Commission filings and other publicly available information. Except as otherwise disclosed below, none of the selling stockholders has, or within the past three years has had, any position, office or other material relationship with us. Because the selling stockholders may sell all or some portion of the shares of common stock beneficially owned by them, we cannot estimate the number of shares of common stock that will be beneficially owned by the selling stockholders after this offering. In addition, the selling stockholders may have sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of, or may sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of, at any time or from time to time since the date on which they provided the information regarding the shares of common stock beneficially owned by them, all or a portion of the shares of common stock beneficially owned by them in transactions exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933.

Beneficial ownership is determined in accordance with Rule 13d-3(d) promulgated by the SEC under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Unless otherwise noted, each person or group identified possesses sole voting and investment power with respect to shares, subject to community property laws where applicable.

As explained below under "Plan of Distribution," we have agreed to bear all expenses of the Registration Statement of which this prospectus is a part.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The shares of common stock may be sold from time to time by the selling stockholders in one or more transactions at fixed prices, at market prices at the time of sale, at varying prices determined at the time of sale or at negotiated prices. As used in this prospectus, "selling stockholders" includes donees, pledgees, transferees and other successors in interest selling shares received from a selling stockholder after the date of this prospectus as a gift, pledge, partnership distribution or other non-sale transfer. Upon our being notified by a selling stockholder that a donee, pledgee, transferee or other successor in interest intends to sell shares, a supplement to this prospectus, if required, will be filed. The selling stockholders may offer their shares of common stock in one or more of the following transactions:

- on any national securities exchange or quotation service on which the common stock may be listed or quoted at the time of sale, including the Boston Stock Exchange;
- in the over-the-counter market;
- in negotiated transactions other than on such exchanges;
- by pledge to secure debts and other obligations;
- in connection with the writing of non-traded and exchange-traded call options, in hedge transactions, in covering previously established short positions and in settlement of other transactions in standardized or over-the-counter options; or
- in a combination of any of the above transactions.

If required, we will distribute a supplement to this prospectus to describe material changes in the terms of the offering.

The shares of common stock described in this prospectus may be sold from time to time directly by the selling stockholders. Alternatively, the selling stockholders may from time to time offer shares of common stock to or through underwriters, broker/dealers or agents. The selling stockholders and any underwriters, broker/dealers or agents that participate in the distribution of the shares of common stock may be deemed to be "underwriters" within the meaning of the Securities Act of 1933. Any profits on the resale of shares of common stock and any compensation received by any underwriter, broker/dealer or agent may be deemed to be underwriting discounts and commissions under the Securities Act of 1933. We have agreed to indemnify the selling stockholders against certain liabilities, including liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933. The selling stockholders may agree to indemnify any agent, dealer or broker-dealer that participates in the sale of shares of common stock described in this prospectus against certain liabilities, including liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933.

We entered into a registration rights agreement for the benefit of the selling stockholders to register the shares of common stock purchased in the private placement under applicable federal and state securities laws and under specific circumstances and at specific times. The registration rights agreement provides for cross-indemnification of the selling stockholders and us and their and our respective directors, officers and controlling persons against specific liabilities in connection with the offer and sale of the common stock, including liabilities under the Securities Act of 1933.

Any shares covered by this prospectus that qualify for sale pursuant to Rule 144 under the Securities Act of 1933 may be sold under Rule 144 rather than pursuant to this prospectus. The selling stockholders may choose not to sell all or any of the shares they hold. The selling stockholders may transfer, devise or gift such shares by other means not described in this prospectus.

To comply with the securities laws of certain jurisdictions, the common stock must be offered or sold only through registered or licensed brokers or dealers. In addition, in certain jurisdictions, the shares of common stock may not be offered or sold unless they have been registered or qualified for sale or an exemption is available and complied with.

Under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, any person engaged in a distribution of the common stock may not simultaneously engage in market-making activities with respect to the common stock for five business days prior to the start of the distribution. In addition, each selling stockholder and any other person participating in a distribution will be subject to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, which may limit the timing of purchases and sales of common stock by the selling stockholders or any such other person. These factors may affect the marketability of the common stock and the ability of brokers or dealers to engage in market-making activities.

All expenses of this registration will be paid by us. These expenses include the SEC's filing fees, fees under state securities or "blue sky" laws, legal fees and printing costs.

Item 15. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law (the "DGCL") provides that a corporation may indemnify its directors and officers, as well as other employees and individuals, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement in connection with specified actions, suits or proceedings, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation - a "derivative action"), if they acted in good faith and in a manner they reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. A similar standard is applicable in the case of derivative actions, except that indemnification only extends to expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred in connection with the defense or settlement of such actions, and the statute requires court approval before there can be any indemnification in which the person seeking indemnification has been found liable to the corporation. The statute provides that it is not exclusive of other indemnification that may be granted by a corporation's charter, bylaws, disinterested director vote, stockholder vote, agreement or otherwise.

Section 102(b)(7) of the DGCL permits a corporation to provide in its certificate of incorporation that a director of the corporation shall not be personally liable to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability for (i) any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders, (ii) acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) payments of unlawful dividends or unlawful stock repurchases or redemptions, or (iv) any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

The Company's Bylaws provides that the Company shall indemnify its officers and directors and may indemnify its employees and other agents to the fullest extent permitted by Delaware law. The Company's Certificate of Incorporation limits, to the maximum extent permitted by Delaware law, the personal liability of directors for monetary damages for breach of their fiduciary duties as a director. The Company has entered into indemnification agreements with its directors containing provisions which provide for the indemnification of such directors to the fullest extent permitted by Delaware law.

Item 17. Undertakings

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement;

provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) do not apply if the registration statement is on Form S-3 or Form S-8, and the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offering herein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the registrant's Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws, and the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, the registrant has been informed that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933, and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in a successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question of whether such indemnification by it is against policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

SIGNATURES

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, the registrant certifies that it has reasonable grounds to believe that it meets all of the requirements for filing on Form S-3 and has duly caused this registration statement on Form S-3 to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned, thereunto duly authorized, in Rockville, Maryland on October 6, 2003.
