On December 18, 2006 Alfred R. Globus notified the Board of Directors of the Registrant that he was resigning as C.E.O. in order to focus his activities on product development. It was agreed that Ken Globus, President of the Registrant, would assume Alfred Globus' executive responsibilities but would not be taking the title of C.E.O. It was also agreed that Ken Globus would resign his position as Chief Financial Officer, which position would now be assumed by Robert Rubinger, the current Secretary and Executive Vice President of the Registrant.

Item 8.01 - Other Events

On December 19, 2006, United-Guardian, Inc. issued a press release announcing that its Board of Directors had declared a cash dividend of $.22 per share to all stockholders of record as of December 27, 2006, to be payable on January 10, 2006. The press release also announced that the company's Chief Executive Officer, Alfred R. Globus, was resigning as C.E.O., but would keep his position as Director of Research and Chairman of the Board of Directors, and that his executive responsibilities will now be handled by the President of the company, Ken Globus. It was also announced that Ken Globus was resigning as Chief Financial Officer and that Robert Rubinger, who is currently the Secretary and Executive Vice President of the Registrant, would become the C.F.O. A copy of that press release is furnished as Exhibit 99.1 to this report.
