accountant upon the replacement accounting firm's acceptance of its engagement and the execution of an engagement letter. On September 2, 2003, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP notified the Company to confirm that PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP had ceased to serve as its independent accountant.

The reports of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP on the Company's consolidated financial statements for the fiscal years ended July 31, 2002 and 2001 contained no adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles.

During the fiscal years ended July 31, 2002 and 2001, and through September 2, 2003, there was no disagreement with PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedures, which disagreement, if not resolved to the satisfaction of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, would have caused them to make reference thereto in their report on the consolidated financial statements for such years.

During the fiscal years ended July 31, 2002 and 2001, and through September 2, 2003, there were no reportable events as defined in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K.

The Company has provided PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP a copy of the above statements and requested that PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP furnish it with a letter addressed to the SEC stating whether or not it agrees with the above statements. The Company has not yet received this letter. When it receives this letter, the Company will file it as an exhibit to an amended Form 8-K.

The Company will file another Form 8-K when it has engaged a replacement independent accountant.
