This Amendment No. 5 (this "Amendment") amends and supplements the Schedule 13D filed on November 21, 2000 of the Reporting Persons, as amended by Amendment No. 1 thereto, filed on April 18, 2002, Amendment No. 2 thereto, filed on June 27, 2002, Amendment No. 3 thereto, filed July 30, 2002, and Amendment No. 4 thereto, filed September 19, 2002 with respect to the common stock, par value $1.00 per share (the "Common Stock"), of Farmer Brothers Co., a California corporation (the "Issuer"). All capitalized terms used in this Amendment and not otherwise defined herein have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Schedule 13D.

Item 5 (a) and (b) of the Schedule 13D is hereby amended in its entirety as follows:

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer

Edgar Filing: FARMER BROTHERS CO - Form SC 13D/A

(a-b) One or more of FMA's advisory clients is the owner of 184,688 shares of the Common Stock. Investment advisory contracts with FMA's advisory clients grant to FMA sole voting and investment discretion over the securities owned by its advisory clients. Therefore, FMA may be deemed to be, for purposes of Rule 13d-3 under the 1934 Act (the "1934 Act"), the beneficial owner of 184,757 shares, representing approximately 9.6% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock.

FMA is an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Franklin Resources, Inc. ("FRI"). Beneficial ownership by investment advisory subsidiaries and other affiliates of FRI is being reported in conformity with the guidelines articulated by the SEC staff in Release No. 34-39538 (January 12, 1998) relating to organizations, such as FRI, where related entities exercise voting and investment powers over the securities being reported independently from each other. The voting and investment powers held by FMA are exercised independently from FRI, and from all other investment advisor subsidiaries of FRI (FRI, its affiliates and investment advisor subsidiaries other than FMA are collectively referred to herein as "FRI affiliates"). Furthermore, FMA and FRI internal policies and procedures establish informational barriers that prevent the flow between FMA and the FRI affiliates of information that relates to the voting and investment powers over the securities owned by their respective advisory clients. Consequently, FMA and the FRI affiliates are each reporting the securities over which they hold investment and voting power separately from each other.

Charles B. Johnson and Rupert H. Johnson, Jr. (the "Principal Shareholders") each own in excess of 10% of the outstanding Common Stock of FRI and are the principal shareholders of FRI. However, FMA exercises voting and investment powers on behalf of its advisory clients independently of FRI, the Principal Shareholders, and their respective affiliates. Consequently, beneficial ownership of the securities being reported by FMA is not attributed to FRI, the Principal Shareholders, and their respective affiliates other than FMA. FMA disclaims any economic interest or beneficial ownership in any of the securities covered by this statement.

Furthermore, FRI, the Principal Shareholders, and their respective affiliates including FMA, are of the view that they are not acting as a "group" for purposes of Section 13(d) under the Act and that they are not otherwise required to attribute to each other the "beneficial ownership" of securities held by any of them or by any persons or entities advised by FRI subsidiaries.

Item 7 is amended by adding the following:

Re: Farmer Bros. Co. (the "Company")

Dear Mr. Simmons and Farmer:

Confirming our discussion today, please be advised that if the Company were to make an offer available equally to all of its public shareholders to purchase shares of the Company at a price range in the low $400's per share, either in the form of cash or securities which are readily marketable at that value, we would commit to accept such offer on behalf of our advisory clients for all shares beneficially owned by such clients.

As discussed, a low $400's amount is in the median estimate for a lowest price in the April 7, 2003 "Survey Report: Ranges of Valuation Estimates" of the

Edgar Filing: FARMER BROTHERS CO - Form SC 13D/A

Forum for Shareholders of Farmer Bros. Co. Based upon this survey, we believe that this price would be acceptable to shareholders of the Company and that it would allow the Company's retention of sufficient surplus funds to satisfy any reasonable contingency requirements. (We assume that you have received a copy of the Forum's Survey Report, which is publicly available on the Forum's web site at www.shareholderforum.com.)

Please understand that this communication is without prejudice to any assertion or estimate by FMA of the Company's valuation in any other context.

We appreciate the opportunity to discuss this issue with you and we look forward to hearing from you and the remainder of the Company's board.

Sincerely,

Franklin Mutual Advisers, LLC
