CONCERO COMMON STOCK TO MOVE TO OVER-THE-COUNTER BULLETIN BOARD

Will Trade Temporarily on Nasdaq SmallCap Market

AUSTIN, TX, July 31, 2002 Concero Inc., a provider of interactive television solutions, today announced that it has been notified by Nasdaq that as a failure to meet the minimum bid price and market value of public float, its common stock will begin trading temporarily on the Nasdaq SmallCap Market, effective as of the opening of business on August 1, 2002. Concero has determined not to file a formal application for listing on the Nasdaq SmallCap Market. Consequently, Concero anticipates that its common stock will be delisted from the Nasdaq SmallCap Market as of the end of business on August 6, 2002. After delisting from the Nasdaq SmallCap Market, Concero anticipates that its common stock will trade on the OTC Bulletin Board (OTCBB), effective as of the opening of business on August 7, 2002.

The OTCBB is a regulated quotation service that displays real-time quotes, last-sale prices and volume information in over-the-counter equity securities. OTCBB securities are traded by a community of market makers that enter quotes and report trades. Concero's ticker symbol (CERO) will remain the same and can be viewed at www.otcbb.com.

About Concero

Concero Inc. is a provider of interactive television solutions. Concero provides systems integration consulting services that enable cable operators, content providers and application providers to deliver compelling entertainment-on-demand services and other VOD-enabled applications and intends to provide related software products. Our solutions create engaging and entertaining user experiences and drive profitable, on-demand interactive services.

Concero possesses unique delivery capabilities for supporting interactive television solutions. In conjunction with Motorola's Horizon and Scientific-Atlanta's CreativEdge developer programs, Concero operates state-of-the-art integration facilities with head-ends, set-top boxes, VOD servers, operating systems and middleware from Motorola, Scientific-Atlanta, SeaChange, Concurrent and other major technology providers. These assets combined with our dedicated and experienced team of interactive television consultants and software engineers offer customers substantial cost savings and rapid time-to-market benefits.

Forward-Looking Statements Disclosure

Safe Harbor Statement under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995: This press release contains forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties, including Concero's ability to continue to market and sell its services, to address the interactive television market and other emerging markets, and to have its common stock quoted on the Over-the-Counter Bulletin Board. Forward-looking statements are based on current information and assumptions that by their nature are dynamic and subject to change. Forward-looking statements regarding quotation of Concero's common stock on the Over-the-Counter Bulletin Board are subject to, among other things, (i) Concero remaining current on its periodic filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, and (ii) Concero's common stock being sponsored by a participating market maker that registers the common stock for quotation on the Over-the-Counter Bulletin Board.

For further discussion of these and other factors, please refer to our recent filings with the SEC, particularly the Form 10-K filed March 29, 2002 and the Form 10-Q filed May 14, 2002.
