Item 4. Description of Securities

Not applicable.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel

Not applicable.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Except as set forth below, there is no provision in the Bank's Constitution or any contract, arrangement or statute under which any director or officer of the Bank is insured or indemnified in any manner against any liability which he may incur in his capacity as such.

The Constitution of the Bank provides that subject to the provisions of and so far as may be permitted by applicable legislation, the Bank may:

indemnify each officer (including former officers) or employee of the Bank, or any of its wholly-owned subsidiaries, against all liabilities (whether actual or contingent and whether fixed or unascertained), including costs, damages and expenses incurred by him or her as such an officer or employee to a person, including liabilities incurred as a result of appointment or nomination by the Bank or a wholly-owned subsidiary as a trustee or as an officer or employee of another corporation; make a payment in respect of legal costs incurred by an officer in defending, or responding to, an action for liabilities incurred as an officer or employee;

enter into, and pay premiums on, a contract of insurance in respect of any person; and where the Board of Directors of the Bank considers it appropriate to do so, bind itself in any contract or deed with any officer or employee of the Bank or a wholly-owned subsidiary to indemnify the officer or employee and to enter into and pay premiums on contracts insuring the officer and employee against liability.

The Bank's Constitution specifically provides that any other rights of a person and the powers of the Bank to indemnify a person or do anything else which it may do under the applicable legislation are not limited by these provisions of the Constitution.

The Corporations Act 2001 (Commonwealth) (the "Corporations Act") contains specific provisions in relation to indemnities and insurance for officers. In relation to officers, section 199A(1) of the Corporations Act provides that a company or a related body corporate must not exempt a person from a liability to the company incurred as an officer of the company.

Section 199A(2) of the Corporations Act provides that a company or a related body corporate must not indemnify a person against any of the following liabilities incurred as an officer of the company:

a liability owed to the company or a related body corporate;

a liability for a pecuniary penalty order or compensation order under specified provisions of the Corporations Act; or a liability that is owed to someone other than the company or a related body corporate that did not arise out of conduct in good faith.

Section 199A(2) does not apply to a liability for legal costs.

Edgar Filing: AUSTRALIA & NEW ZEALAND BANKING GROUP LTD - Form S-8

Section 199A(3) provides that a company or a related body corporate must not indemnify a person against legal costs incurred in defending an action for a liability incurred as an officer of the company if the costs are incurred:

in defending or resisting proceedings in which the person is found to have a liability for which they could not be indemnified under section 199A(2); or in defending or resisting criminal proceedings in which the person is found guilty; or in defending or resisting proceedings brought by the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) or a liquidator for a court order if the grounds for making the order are found by the court to have been established (this does not apply to costs incurred in responding to actions taken by ASIC or a liquidator as part of an investigation before commencing proceedings for the court order); or in connection with proceedings for relief to the person under the Corporations Act in which the court denies the relief.

Section 199B of the Corporations Act provides that a company or a related body corporate must not pay, or agree to pay, a premium for a contract insuring a person who is or has been an officer of the company against a liability (other than one for legal costs) arising out of:

conduct involving a wilful breach of any duty in relation to the company; or a contravention of specific provisions of the Corporations Act imposing duties on officers not to improperly use their position and not to make improper use of information obtained as an officer.

For the purpose of sections 199A and 199B, an "officer" of a company includes:

a director or secretary;

a person who makes, or participates in making, decisions that affect the whole, or a substantial part, of the business of the company;

a person who has the capacity to significantly affect the company's financial standing; and a person in accordance with whose instructions or wishes the directors of the company are accustomed to act.

Directors and executive officers of the Registrant and its subsidiaries are covered by directors' and officers' insurance (subject to terms and conditions of the policy) which may provide indemnification against liability in some cases, up to the limits of the insurance coverage.

Item 9. Undertakings

- (a) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes:
- (1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:
    - (i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933 (the "Act");
    - (ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of this Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in this Registration Statement;
    - (iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in this Registration Statement or any material change to such information in this Registration Statement; provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed by the Registrant pursuant to Section 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement.

- (2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

Edgar Filing: AUSTRALIA & NEW ZEALAND BANKING GROUP LTD - Form S-8

The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Act, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act") (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
