FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

STEWART & STEVENSON ANNOUNCES AMENDED MERGER AGREEMENT WITH ARMOR HOLDINGS, RAISING PRICE TO $36.50 PER SHARE IN CASH

S&S Board Unanimously Recommends Acceptance of New Per Share Price Of $36.50
Offered Through May 25, 2006

Special Meeting of Shareholders Rescheduled For May 25, 2006

Houston, TX May 15, 2006 Stewart & Stevenson Services, Inc. (NYSE: SVC) today announced that its previously announced merger agreement with Armor Holdings, Inc. (NYSE: AH) has been amended. Under the terms of the amended agreement, Armor Holdings will acquire all of the outstanding shares of Stewart & Stevenson common stock for $36.50 per share in cash.

If Stewart & Stevenson shareholders fail to approve the amended merger agreement at the special meeting of shareholders to be held on May 25, 2006, under the terms of the amended merger agreement the merger proposal price will revert to the original merger price of $35.00 per share in cash. The amended agreement has been unanimously approved by Stewart & Stevenson's Board of Directors.

Stewart & Stevenson also announced its intention to adjourn its previously scheduled special meeting of shareholders to vote on the merger, from May 16, 2006 until May 25, 2006 at 9:00 a.m. Houston Time at The Fulbright Tower, 1301 McKinney, Houston, Texas 77010. The record date for shareholders entitled to vote at the special meeting remains April 5, 2006. The Company noted that shareholders that have previously voted may change their vote, but need not vote again.

Max L. Lukens, President and Chief Executive Officer of Stewart & Stevenson, said, "The Board of Directors unanimously believes that the significant cash premium presented by Armor Holdings' amended merger proposal is the best way to deliver enhanced value to shareholders. If they have not done so already, we urge Stewart & Stevenson shareholders to vote "FOR" the proposed merger with Armor Holdings at the May 25, 2006 special meeting. We expect to close the transaction promptly after receipt of shareholder approval."

As previously announced, on April 19, 2006, the U.S. Department of Justice and the U.S. Federal Trade Commission granted early termination of the waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, in connection with the proposed transaction. This allows the transaction to close promptly after receipt of shareholder approval.

The Company also noted that three leading proxy advisory firms Institutional Shareholder Services, Glass Lewis and Proxy Governance endorsed Stewart & Stevenson's merger with Armor Holdings and recommended that Stewart & Stevenson shareholders vote in favor of the proposed merger.

Stewart & Stevenson shareholders are reminded that their vote is important, and a failure to vote has the same effect as a vote against the merger proposal. Shareholders may vote their shares by telephone or by the Internet, and are advised that if they have any questions or need any assistance in voting their shares, they should contact Stewart & Stevenson's proxy solicitor, MacKenzie Partners, Inc. Toll-Free at 800-322-2885. Shareholders are urged to act promptly as the meeting is less than two weeks away.

Shareholders are encouraged to read Stewart & Stevenson's definitive proxy materials in their entirety as they provide, among other things, a detailed discussion of the process that led to the proposed merger and the reasons behind the Stewart & Stevenson Board of Directors' unanimous recommendation that shareholders vote FOR the approval and adoption of the amended merger agreement and the merger.

STEWART & STEVENSON SERVICES, INC. COMMENTS ON OSHKOSH LAWSUIT

HOUSTON, TX May 15, 2006 Stewart & Stevenson Services, Inc. (NYSE: SVC) today announced that on May 12, 2006 Oshkosh Truck Corporation (NYSE:OSK) filed a lawsuit in the Civil District Court of Harris County, Texas, asking the court to declare that the confidentiality and standstill agreement between Stewart & Stevenson and Oshkosh is unenforceable. Stewart & Stevenson has removed this lawsuit to the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas, Houston Division, and it plans to file a motion to dismiss Oshkosh's claims. Stewart & Stevenson also intends to assert a third-party claim against Oshkosh for breach of the confidentiality and standstill agreement, filed in the separate shareholder litigation still pending in the same federal district court.

The Company issued the following statement:

We strongly believe that the lawsuit is wholly without merit. During the auction process, all of the bidders, including Oshkosh, had been allowed two months' access to Stewart & Stevenson's management and its confidential and proprietary information in return for an agreement that each bidder would abide by the rules of the auction and its confidentiality agreement's standstill provisions. The auction process was carefully constructed to obtain the best transaction for our shareholders. Specifically, the standstill provisions were designed to provide each bidder an opportunity, and motivate each bidder, to make its best offer during the sale process.
