Dear Pacific Premier Bancorp Shareholders:

On September 30, 2015, Pacific Premier Bancorp, Inc., which we refer to as Pacific Premier, entered into an agreement and plan of reorganization, which we refer to as the merger agreement, to acquire Security California Bancorp, which we refer to as SCB. If the required shareholder and regulatory approvals are obtained, all closing conditions are satisfied or waived and the merger is subsequently completed, SCB will be merged with and into Pacific Premier, with Pacific Premier as the surviving entity, which we refer to as the merger. Immediately thereafter, SCB's wholly-owned bank subsidiary, Security Bank of California, will be merged with and into Pacific Premier Bank, the wholly-owned bank subsidiary of Pacific Premier, with Pacific Premier Bank as the surviving entity.

You are cordially invited to attend a special meeting of shareholders of Pacific Premier, to be held at _____ a.m., Pacific Time, on _____, 2015 at 17901 Von Karman Avenue, Suite 1200, Irvine, California 92614. At the Pacific Premier special meeting, the Pacific Premier shareholders will be asked to consider and vote upon a proposal to approve the issuance of shares of Pacific Premier common stock in connection with the merger. SCB will also hold a special meeting of shareholders to consider the proposed merger agreement and related matters. Pacific Premier and SCB cannot complete the proposed merger unless Pacific Premier's shareholders vote to approve the issuance of shares of Pacific Premier common stock in connection with the merger. This letter is accompanied by the attached joint proxy statement/prospectus, which Pacific Premier's board of directors is providing to solicit your proxy to vote for the approval of the issuance of shares of Pacific Premier common stock in connection with the merger.

If the required shareholder and regulatory approvals are obtained and the merger is subsequently completed, upon effectiveness of the merger, each outstanding share of SCB common stock will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive 0.9629 shares of Pacific Premier common stock, which we refer to as the merger consideration. The merger consideration will be subject to possible adjustment prior to the closing of the merger. Cash will be paid in lieu of any fractional share interest. The term aggregate merger consideration refers to the total consideration to be paid by Pacific Premier in connection with the merger, which consists of the consideration to be received by the SCB shareholders, plus the consideration to be paid to holders of options to purchase shares of SCB common stock.

The merger consideration is subject to possible downward or upward adjustment based on the average closing stock price of Pacific Premier common stock for the 20 trading day period ending on the fifth business day prior to the effective time of the merger, which we refer to as the Pacific Premier average share price. The merger consideration of 0.9629 shares of Pacific Premier common stock is subject to (i) downward adjustment if the Pacific Premier average share price is greater than $22.391 and (ii) upward adjustment if the Pacific Premier average share price is less than $16.550. If the Pacific Premier average share price is equal to or greater than $16.550 but less than or equal to $22.391, then no adjustment will be made to the merger consideration. The merger consideration is also subject to downward adjustment in the event certain of SCB's aggregate transaction-related expenses exceed amounts specified in the merger agreement.

The implied value of the merger consideration to be paid to SCB shareholders is based on an exchange ratio of 0.9629 shares of Pacific Premier common stock for each share of SCB common stock. The implied value on _____, 2015 was $ _____, which amount was based on the closing price per share of Pacific Premier common stock on that date. The value of the merger consideration will fluctuate based on both the market price of Pacific Premier common stock and the fact that the exchange ratio may be subject to upward or downward adjustment, as discussed in the paragraph above and in more detail in the accompanying joint proxy statement/prospectus. Consequently, the value of the merger consideration will not be known at the time you vote on the issuance of shares of Pacific Premier common stock in connection with the merger. Pacific Premier's common stock is listed on the Nasdaq Global Select Market under the symbol "PPBI." You should obtain current market quotations for the Pacific Premier common stock.

Based on our reasons for the merger described in the accompanying document, including the fairness opinion issued by our financial advisor, D.A. Davidson & Co., our board of directors believes that the issuance of shares of Pacific Premier common stock in connection with the merger is fair to the Pacific Premier shareholders and in your best interests. Accordingly, our board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote "FOR" the issuance of shares of Pacific Premier common stock in connection with the merger. The accompanying joint proxy statement/prospectus gives you detailed information about the Pacific Premier special meeting, the merger and the issuance of shares of Pacific Premier common stock in connection with the merger and related matters. In addition to being a proxy statement of Pacific Premier, this document is the proxy statement for the solicitation of proxies from SCB shareholders to vote to approve the merger agreement and is the prospectus of Pacific Premier for the shares of its common stock that will be issued to SCB shareholders in connection with the merger.

We advise you to read this entire document carefully, including the considerations discussed under "Risk Factors" beginning on page 28, and the appendices to the accompanying joint proxy statement/prospectus, which include the merger agreement.

Your vote is very important. The merger cannot be completed unless the holders of a majority of the shares for which votes are cast at the Pacific Premier special meeting vote in favor of approval of the issuance of shares of Pacific Premier common stock in connection with the merger. Whether or not you plan to attend the Pacific Premier special meeting, please take the time to vote by completing and mailing the enclosed proxy card or by following the instructions to vote via the Internet or by telephone indicated on the proxy card.

Edgar Filing: PACIFIC PREMIER BANCORP INC - Form S-4

We appreciate your continuing loyalty and support and, should you choose to attend, we look forward to seeing you at the Pacific Premier special meeting.

Sincerely,

Steven R. Gardner

President and Chief Executive Officer

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER AND THE SPECIAL MEETINGS

The following are some questions that you may have regarding the merger and the special meetings, and brief answers to those questions. Pacific Premier and SCB advise you to read carefully the remainder of this joint proxy statement/prospectus because the information in this section does not provide all of the information that might be important to you with respect to the merger and the special meetings of Pacific Premier and SCB. Additional important information is also contained in the documents incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus. See "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page .

Q:
What am I being asked to vote on?

A:
Pacific Premier and SCB have entered into an agreement and plan of reorganization, which we refer to as the merger agreement, pursuant to which Pacific Premier would acquire SCB. If the required shareholder and regulatory approvals are obtained and the merger is subsequently completed, SCB will be merged with and into Pacific Premier with Pacific Premier as the surviving entity. Immediately thereafter, SCB's wholly-owned bank subsidiary, Security Bank of California, will be merged with and into Pacific Premier Bank, the wholly-owned bank subsidiary of Pacific Premier, with Pacific Premier Bank as the surviving entity.

If you are a Pacific Premier shareholder, you are being asked to vote to approve the issuance of shares of common stock of Pacific Premier, or Pacific Premier common stock, to be issued in connection with the merger. If you are a SCB shareholder, you are being asked to vote to approve the merger agreement. As a result of the merger, SCB will cease to exist and SCB shareholders will exchange each of their shares of common stock of SCB, or SCB common stock, for the merger consideration, consisting of 0.9629 shares of Pacific Premier common stock, subject to adjustment prior to the consummation of the merger, as further described in "The Merger The Merger Consideration" beginning on page .

Each of the Pacific Premier and SCB shareholders is also being asked to consider and vote upon a proposal to grant discretionary authority to adjourn the special meeting of their respective shareholders, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of either or both special meetings to approve the matters being presented at such special meetings.

The merger cannot be completed unless the Pacific Premier shareholders approve the issuance of Pacific Premier common stock in the merger and SCB shareholders approve the merger agreement. At each of the shareholders' meetings, Pacific Premier and SCB shareholders will vote on the proposals necessary to complete the merger. Information about these shareholders' meetings, the merger agreement and the merger and the other business to be considered by shareholders at each of the shareholders' meetings is contained in this document.

This document constitutes both a joint proxy statement of Pacific Premier and SCB and a prospectus of Pacific Premier. It is a joint proxy statement because each of the boards of directors of Pacific Premier and SCB is soliciting proxies using this document for their respective shareholders. It is a prospectus because Pacific Premier, in connection with the merger, is offering shares of Pacific Premier common stock in exchange for outstanding shares of SCB common stock in the merger.

Q: Will SCB shareholders be able to trade the Pacific Premier common stock that they receive in the merger?

A: Yes. The Pacific Premier common stock issued in the merger to SCB shareholders will be listed on the NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol "PPBI." Unless you are deemed an "affiliate" of Pacific Premier, you may sell the shares of Pacific Premier common stock you receive in the merger without restriction.

Q: Why is my vote important?

A: The merger agreement must be approved by the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of SCB common stock. The issuance of the Pacific Premier common stock in connection with the merger must be approved by the holders of Pacific Premier common stock constituting at least a majority of the shares for which votes are cast at the Pacific Premier special meeting. The merger cannot be completed unless the Pacific Premier shareholders approve the issuance of Pacific Premier common stock in the merger and SCB shareholders approve the merger agreement. The Pacific Premier shareholders will vote on the applicable proposals necessary to complete the merger at the Pacific Premier special meeting and the SCB shareholders will vote on the applicable proposals necessary to complete the merger at the SCB special meeting. Information about the Pacific Premier special meeting and the SCB special meeting, the merger and the other business to be considered by shareholders at each of the special meetings is contained in this document.

If you are a SCB shareholder and you do not vote, it will have the same effect as a vote against the merger agreement. Holders of 1,841,853 shares of SCB common stock, representing approximately 30.50% of the outstanding shares of SCB common stock, have signed shareholder agreements with Pacific Premier agreeing to vote in favor of the merger agreement.

If a Pacific Premier shareholder does not vote, it will have no impact on the proposal to approve the issuance of the Pacific Premier common stock in connection with the merger.

Q: Why must the Pacific Premier shareholders approve the issuance of shares of Pacific Premier common stock in connection with the merger?

A: The Pacific Premier shareholders are required to approve the issuance of shares of the Pacific Premier common stock, which is estimated to equate to approximately % of Pacific Premier's issued and outstanding shares of common stock, in connection with the merger because Pacific Premier is listed on the NASDAQ Global Select Market and is subject to the NASDAQ Global Select Market listing rules. Because Pacific Premier will likely issue in excess of 20% of its outstanding shares of common stock to the SCB shareholders in connection with the merger, under the NASDAQ Global Select Market listing rules, the shareholders of Pacific Premier are required to approve the issuance of shares of Pacific Premier common stock in connection with the merger. The merger cannot be completed unless the Pacific Premier shareholders approve the issuance of shares of Pacific Premier common stock in the merger.

Q: What do each of the Pacific Premier and the SCB boards of directors recommend?

A: The Pacific Premier board of directors unanimously recommends that Pacific Premier shareholders vote "FOR" approval of the issuance of Pacific Premier common stock in connection with the merger and "FOR" approval of the proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies in favor of the issuance of Pacific Premier common stock in connection with the merger.

The SCB board of directors unanimously recommends that SCB shareholders vote "FOR" approval of the merger agreement and "FOR" approval of the proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies in favor of approval of the merger agreement.

Q:
Will I have dissenters' rights in connection with the merger?

A:
Only holders of SCB common stock have the right to dissent from the merger and assert dissenters' rights, provided the requirements of California law governing dissenters' rights are specifically followed. Please read the section entitled "The Merger Dissenters' Rights" beginning on page and the sections of California law, which are set forth in Appendix D to this proxy statement/prospectus.

Pacific Premier has the option to terminate the merger agreement if dissenters' rights are perfected and exercised with respect to ten percent (10%) or more of the outstanding shares of SCB common stock. Please see "The Merger Conditions to the Merger" beginning on page .

Q:
Are there any risks I should consider in deciding whether I vote for the matters required to be voted on by the respective shareholders of Pacific Premier and SCB?

A:
Yes. Set forth under the heading of "Risk Factors," beginning on page , are a number of risk factors that each of the shareholders of Pacific Premier and SCB should consider carefully.

Q:
When do Pacific Premier and SCB expect to complete the merger?

A:
The parties expect to complete the merger in the first quarter of 2016. However, there is no assurance when or if the merger will occur. Prior to the consummation of the merger, SCB shareholders must approve the merger agreement at the SCB special meeting, Pacific Premier shareholders must approve the issuance of Pacific Premier common stock in connection with the merger at the Pacific Premier special meeting and all requisite bank regulatory approvals must be obtained and other conditions to the consummation of the merger must be satisfied.

Q:
When and where is the Pacific Premier special meeting?

A:
The Pacific Premier special meeting will be held at a.m., Pacific Time, on , 201 at 17901 Von Karman Avenue, Suite 1200, Irvine, California 92614.

Q: What do I need to do now?

A: After you have carefully read this joint proxy statement/prospectus, indicate on your proxy card how you want your shares of SCB common stock or Pacific Premier common stock, as the case may be, to be voted. Then sign, date and mail your proxy card in the enclosed postage-paid return envelope as soon as possible or follow the instructions to vote via the Internet or by telephone indicated on the proxy card.

Q: If my shares are held in street name by my bank, broker, or other nominee will my bank, broker or other nominee automatically vote my shares for me?

A: No. Your bank, broker or other nominee will not be able to vote shares held by it in street name on your behalf without instructions from you. You should instruct your bank, broker or other nominee to vote your shares by following the directions your bank, broker or other nominee provides to you.

Q: What if I abstain from voting or fail to instruct my bank, broker or other nominee?

A: If you are a holder of SCB common stock and you abstain from voting or fail to instruct your bank, broker or other nominee to vote your shares and the bank, broker or other nominee submits an unvoted proxy, referred to as a broker non-vote, then the abstention or broker non-vote will be counted towards a quorum at the special meeting, but it will have the same effect as a vote against approval of the merger agreement.

Abstentions and broker non-votes of shares of SCB common stock will not have any effect on the proposal of the SCB board of directors to adjourn the special meeting, if the number of affirmative votes cast for the adjournment is a majority of the votes cast and such votes constitute a majority of the quorum required to transact business at the special meeting. However, if the number of affirmative votes cast for the adjournment proposal is a majority of the votes cast, but such votes do not constitute a majority of the quorum required to transact business at the special meeting, then abstentions and broker non-votes will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal of the SCB board of directors to adjourn the SCB special meeting.

Abstentions and broker non-votes of shares of Pacific Premier common stock will not have any effect on the approval of the issuance of Pacific Premier common stock in connection with the merger or the adjournment of the Pacific Premier special meeting.

Q: Can I attend the special meeting and vote my shares in person?

A: Yes. While not required to, all Pacific Premier shareholders are invited to attend the Pacific Premier special meeting. Likewise, all SCB shareholders are invited to attend the SCB special meeting. Shareholders of record can vote in person at their respective special meeting. If your shares are held in street name, then you are not the shareholder of record and you must bring a legal proxy from your broker, bank or other nominee confirming that you are the beneficial owner of the shares in order to vote in person at the applicable special meeting.

Q: Can I change my vote?

A: Yes. Regardless of the method used to cast a vote, you may change your vote at any time before your proxy is voted at the Pacific Premier special meeting or the SCB special meeting. You may do so in one of the following ways:

if you are a SCB shareholder, by delivering to SCB prior to the SCB special meeting a written notice of revocation addressed to Michael Vanderpool, Executive Vice President and Corporate Secretary, Security California Bancorp, 3403 Tenth Street, Suite 830, Riverside, California 92501;

if you are a Pacific Premier shareholder, by delivering to Pacific Premier prior to the Pacific Premier special meeting, a written notice of revocation addressed to Allen Nicholson, Executive Vice President, Chief Financial Officer and Corporate Secretary, Pacific Premier, 17901 Von Karman Ave., Suite 1200, Irvine, California 92614;

completing, signing and returning a new proxy card with a later date before the date of the applicable special meeting, and any earlier proxy will be revoked automatically; or attending the Pacific Premier special meeting or the SCB special meeting and voting in person, and any earlier proxy will be revoked. However, simply attending the Pacific Premier special meeting or the SCB special meeting, as the case may be, without voting will not revoke an earlier proxy voted by such person.

If you have instructed a bank, broker or other nominee to vote your shares of either SCB or Pacific Premier common stock, you must follow directions received from the bank, broker or other nominee to change such vote.

Q: Will SCB be required to submit the merger agreement to its shareholders even if the SCB board of directors has withdrawn, modified or qualified its recommendation?

A: Yes. Unless the merger agreement is terminated before the SCB special meeting, SCB is required to submit the merger agreement to its shareholders even if the SCB board of directors has withdrawn, modified or qualified its recommendation, consistent with the terms of the merger agreement.

Q: What is the procedure for sending in SCB stock certificates?

A: Promptly following the closing of the merger, SCB shareholders will be receiving a transmittal letter that will provide instructions for SCB shareholders to surrender their SCB common stock certificates in exchange for the merger consideration. SCB shareholders should follow the instructions in the transmittal letter for how to deliver their SCB common stock certificates in exchange for the merger consideration. The SCB common stock certificates should NOT be sent with your proxy card now. Instead, follow the instructions in the transmittal letter and use the separate envelope specifically provided with the transmittal letter for returning the SCB stock certificates.

Q: Who should I call with questions?

A: If you have any questions concerning the merger or this joint proxy statement/prospectus, would like additional copies of the joint proxy statement/prospectus or need help voting your shares of SCB common stock, please contact Ernest Hwang, SCB's President, at (951) 368-2265, or Michael Vanderpool, SCB's Executive Vice President and Corporate Secretary, at (951) 368-2265.

Pacific Premier's Reasons for Merger and Factors Considered by Pacific Premier's Board of Directors (Page)

As part of its business strategy, Pacific Premier evaluates opportunities to acquire bank holding companies, banks and other financial institutions, which is an important element of its strategic plan. The acquisition of SCB is consistent with this strategy. Pacific Premier believes that the acquisition of SCB will (i) create opportunities for Pacific Premier Bank to provide additional products and services to the SCB customers, (ii) strengthen Pacific Premier Bank's deposit base with low cost core deposits and (iii) solidify its brand within its existing footprint within Orange County, the Inland Empire region of Southern California and the broader Coachella Valley.

Based on Pacific Premier's reasons for the merger described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, including the fairness opinion of D.A. Davidson & Co., or Davidson, an independent investment banking firm, the Pacific Premier board of directors believes that the merger is fair to Pacific Premier's shareholders and in their best interests, and unanimously recommends that Pacific Premier shareholders vote "FOR" approval of the issuance of Pacific Premier common stock in connection with the merger. For a discussion of the circumstances surrounding the merger and the factors considered by Pacific Premier's board of directors in approving the merger agreement, see "The Merger Pacific Premier's Reasons for the Merger" beginning on page .

SCB's Reasons for Merger and Factors Considered by SCB's Board of Directors (Page)

Based on SCB's reasons for the merger described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, including the fairness opinion of Oppenheimer & Co. Inc., or Oppenheimer, an independent investment banking firm, the SCB board of directors believes that the merger is fair to SCB shareholders and in their best interests, and unanimously recommends that SCB shareholders vote "FOR" approval of the merger agreement. For a discussion of the circumstances surrounding the merger and the factors considered by SCB's board of directors in approving the merger agreement, see "The Merger SCB's Reasons for the Merger" beginning on page .

Pacific Premier's Financial Advisor Believes that the Merger Consideration payable by Pacific Premier to SCB shareholders in the Merger is Fair, From a Financial Point of View, to Pacific Premier (Page)

Davidson delivered its written opinion to Pacific Premier's board of directors that, as of September 30, 2015, and based upon and subject to assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations and qualification on the review undertaken set forth in its opinion, the merger consideration to be paid by Pacific Premier to SCB shareholders in the merger pursuant to the merger agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to Pacific Premier.

The full text of the written opinion of Davidson, dated September 30, 2015, which sets forth assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations and qualifications on the review undertaken is attached as Appendix B to this joint proxy statement/prospectus. Pacific Premier's shareholders should read the opinion in its entirety. Davidson provided its opinion for the information and assistance of Pacific Premier's board of directors in connection with its consideration of the transaction. The Davidson opinion does not address the underlying business decision to proceed with the merger and is not a recommendation as to how any holder of Pacific Premier common stock should vote on matters to be considered at the Pacific Premier special meeting.

SCB's Financial Advisor Provided a Fairness Opinion to SCB's Board of Directors in connection with the Merger (Page)

Oppenheimer delivered its written opinion to SCB's board of directors that, as of September 30, 2015, and based upon and subject to assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations and qualification on the review undertaken set forth in its opinion, the merger consideration to be paid by Pacific Premier to SCB shareholders in the merger pursuant to the merger agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to SCB and the holders of SCB common stock.

The full text of the written opinion of Oppenheimer, dated September 30, 2015, which sets forth assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations and qualifications on the review undertaken is attached as Appendix C to this joint proxy statement/prospectus. SCB's shareholders should read the opinion in its entirety. Oppenheimer provided its opinion for the information and assistance of SCB's board of directors in connection with its consideration of the transaction. The Oppenheimer opinion does not address the underlying business decision to proceed with the merger and is not a recommendation as to how any holder of SCB common stock should vote on matters to be considered at the SCB special meeting.

SCB Shareholders Will Receive Shares of Pacific Premier Common Stock for Each Share of SCB Common Stock Exchanged in the Merger (Page)

At the effective time of the merger, each outstanding share of SCB common stock (subject to certain exceptions) will, by virtue of the merger and without any action on the part of an SCB shareholder, be converted into the right to receive 0.9629 shares of Pacific Premier common stock, subject to upward or downward adjustment based on changes in the stock price of Pacific Premier common stock as described below. Cash will be paid in lieu of any fractional share interest.

Merger Consideration and Possible Adjustment.

The merger consideration of 0.9629 shares of Pacific Premier common stock is subject to possible downward or upward adjustment based on the average closing stock price of Pacific Premier common stock for the 20 trading day period ending on the fifth business day prior to the effective time of the merger, or the Pacific Premier average share price. If the Pacific Premier average share price is greater than $22.391, then the merger consideration will be adjusted downward to equal (i) $21.560 divided by (ii) the Pacific Premier average share price, rounded to the nearest ten-thousandth. If the Pacific Premier average share price is less than $16.550, then the merger consideration will be adjusted upward to equal (x) $15.936 divided by (y) the Pacific Premier average share price, rounded to the nearest ten-thousandth. The thresholds for the Pacific Premier average share price identified above of $22.391 and $16.550 were based on a 15% increase and decrease, respectively, from the 20-day average share price of Pacific Premier common stock of $19.47 as of August 31, 2015, which is the date the parties agreed upon for establishing any possible adjustment to the merger consideration. Assuming a closing date of _____, 2015, which is the date immediately prior to the date of filing of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, the Pacific Premier average share price would be calculated to be $ _____, and therefore no adjustment would occur to the merger consideration. To the extent that no adjustment occurs, the merger consideration would amount to approximately $ _____ million, based on a $ _____ closing price of Pacific Premier's common stock on _____, 2015, or $ _____ per SCB common share, and would result in _____ shares of Pacific Premier common stock being issued.

The per share stock consideration of 0.9629 shares of Pacific Premier common stock is also subject to possible downward adjustment in the event certain of SCB's aggregate transaction-related expenses exceed amounts specified in the merger agreement, as described below under "The Merger Expenses of the Merger" at page .

Aggregate Merger Consideration.

The total consideration to be paid by Pacific Premier in connection with the merger to the SCB shareholders and the holders of stock options to purchase shares of SCB's common stock is referred to in this joint proxy statement/prospectus as the aggregate merger consideration. In this joint proxy statement/prospectus, we refer to each stock option to purchase shares of SCB's common stock as an SCB option.

Upon completion of the merger and based on a $20.32 closing price of Pacific Premier's common stock on September 30, 2015 approximately $118.9 million of aggregate merger consideration will be payable to the SCB shareholders and the holders of SCB options. For SCB shareholders, this implies an aggregate consideration of $19.57 per SCB common share. The foregoing sentence assumes (i) that the holders of SCB options will receive 100% cash consideration in connection with the cancellation of their respective SCB options based on $18.75 price per share and that there are SCB options outstanding at the closing with a weighted average exercise price of $ per share, (ii) there are 6,039,257 shares of SCB common stock outstanding at the closing, and (iii) the SCB shareholders will receive an aggregate of 5,815,201 shares of Pacific Premier common stock after applying the exchange ratio of 0.9629 and that there is no adjustment to the merger consideration.

Merger Consideration Example.

The following table illustrates what the exchange ratio and aggregate merger consideration values would be depending upon changes to the Pacific Premier average share price, ranging from 20% above $20.32 per share, which was the closing price per share of Pacific Premier's common stock on September 30, 2015, the date prior to announcement of entry into the merger agreement by the parties, to 20% below $20.32 per share. The table also illustrates the values which would result to the extent that the Pacific Premier average share price reached the cap or collar price of $22.391 or $16.550, respectively, which would constitute 10.19% increase and 18.55% decrease, respectively, from a $20.32 share price of Pacific Premier common stock. The following table assumes there are 6,039,257 shares of SCB common stock outstanding as of the closing date. The table reflects that the merger consideration paid will consist of whole shares of Pacific Premier common stock and that an aggregate of $766,660 in cash will be paid to holders of outstanding options to acquire shares of SCB common stock. The table does not reflect the fact that cash will be paid in lieu of fractional shares of Pacific Premier common stock.

Following the completion of the merger, and based on _____ shares of Pacific Premier common stock outstanding as of _____, the former SCB shareholders will own approximately _____ % of the outstanding shares of Pacific Premier common stock and the current shareholders of Pacific Premier will own the remaining approximately _____ % of the outstanding shares of Pacific Premier common stock.

The examples above are illustrative only and are based on the assumptions indicated. The value of the merger consideration that an SCB shareholder actually receives will be based on the actual Pacific Premier average share price calculated prior to completion of the merger.

Each SCB shareholder will need to surrender his or her SCB common stock certificates to receive the appropriate merger consideration, but such SCB shareholder should not send any certificates now. Material Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger (Page _____)

The merger is intended to qualify as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, which is referred to in this joint proxy statement/prospectus as the Code, and it is a condition to completion of the merger that Pacific Premier and SCB receive a legal opinion to that effect. If the merger is completed, the merger consideration that will be paid to the holders of SCB common stock will consist of shares of Pacific Premier common stock (and cash for any fractional shares).

Assuming the merger qualifies as a reorganization, subject to the limitations and more detailed discussion set forth in "The Merger Material Federal Income Tax Consequences" of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, an SCB shareholder that is a U.S. holder generally will not recognize gain or loss on such exchange, other than with respect to cash received in lieu of fractional shares of Pacific Premier common stock.

Tax matters are complicated, and the tax consequences of the merger to a particular SCB shareholder will depend in part on such shareholder's individual circumstances. Accordingly, each SCB shareholder is urged to consult his or her own tax advisor for a full understanding of the tax consequences of the merger to such shareholder, including the applicability and effect of federal, state, local and foreign income and other tax laws.

Under the California General Corporation Law, or CGCL, holders of SCB common stock have the right to demand appraisal of their shares of SCB common stock, in connection with the merger and to receive, in lieu of the merger consideration, payment in cash, for the fair value of their shares of SCB common stock. Any SCB shareholder electing to exercise dissenters' rights must not have voted his, her or its shares of SCB common stock "FOR" approval of the merger agreement and must specifically comply with the provisions of the CGCL in order to perfect its rights of dissent and appraisal. Strict compliance with the statutory procedures is required to perfect dissenters' rights. These procedures are described under "The Merger Dissenters' Rights" in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, and a copy of the relevant provisions of the CGCL is attached as Appendix D.

SCB is Prohibited from Soliciting Other Offers (Page)

SCB has agreed that, while the merger is pending, it will not solicit, initiate, encourage or, subject to some limited exceptions, engage in discussions with any third party other than Pacific Premier regarding extraordinary transactions such as a merger, business combination or sale of a material amount of its assets or capital stock.

Pacific Premier and SCB Must Meet Several Conditions to Complete the Merger (Page)

Completion of the merger depends on meeting a number of conditions, including the following:

shareholders of Pacific Premier must approve the issuance of Pacific Premier common stock in connection with the merger;

shareholders of SCB must approve the merger agreement;

Pacific Premier and SCB must receive all required regulatory approvals for the merger, and any waiting periods required by law must have passed and no such approval may contain any condition that Pacific Premier's board of directors reasonably determines in good faith would materially reduce the benefits of the merger to such a degree that, had such condition been known, Pacific Premier would not have entered into the merger agreement;

there must be no law, injunction or order enacted or issued preventing completion of the merger;

the Pacific Premier common stock to be issued in the merger must have been approved for trading on the Nasdaq Global Select Market;

the representations and warranties of each of Pacific Premier and SCB in the merger agreement must be true and correct, subject to the materiality standards provided in the merger agreement; employment agreements between Pacific Premier and each of Ernest Hwang, SCB's President, and James A. Robinson, Jr., SCB's Commercial Banking Manager, must become effective on the closing date.

Unless prohibited by law, either Pacific Premier or SCB could elect to waive a condition that has not been satisfied and complete the merger. The parties cannot be certain whether or when any of the conditions to the merger will be satisfied, or waived where permissible, or that the merger will be completed.

Pacific Premier and SCB Have Filed Regulatory Applications to seek Regulatory Approvals to Complete the Merger (Page)

To complete the merger, the parties need the prior approval from the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, or the Federal Reserve, and the California Department of Business Oversight, or CA DBO. Pacific Premier and SCB have received approval from the Federal Reserve for the merger. The U.S. Department of Justice is also able to provide input into the approval process of federal banking agencies and will have between fifteen (15) and thirty (30) days following any approval of a federal banking agency to challenge the approval on antitrust grounds. Pacific Premier and SCB have filed the necessary application with the CA DBO. Pacific Premier and SCB cannot predict whether the required regulatory approval from the CA DBO will be obtained or whether such approval will have conditions which would be detrimental to Pacific Premier following completion of the merger.

Litigation Relating to the Merger (Page)

A purported shareholder of SCB has filed a complaint seeking class action status against SCB and each of its directors, and Pacific Premier alleging, among other things, that the SCB directors breached their fiduciary duties with regard to the proposed merger. Among other things, the complaint seeks class action status, a court order enjoining SCB and its directors from proceeding with or consummating the merger, and the payment of attorneys' and experts' fees. SCB intends to defend this lawsuit vigorously.

Pacific Premier and SCB may Terminate the Merger Agreement (Page)

Pacific Premier and SCB can mutually agree at any time to terminate the merger agreement before completing the merger, even if shareholders of SCB have already voted to approve it.

Pacific Premier or SCB can also terminate the merger agreement:

if the other party breaches any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements under the merger agreement that
(i) cannot be or has not been cured within thirty (30) days of the giving of written notice to the breaching party or parties and
(ii) would entitle the non-breaching party or parties not to consummate the merger;

if the merger is not consummated by June 30, 2016, except to the extent that the failure to consummate by that date is due to
(i) the terminating party's failure to perform or observe its covenants and agreements in the merger agreement, or (ii) the failure of any of the SCB shareholders (if SCB is the party seeking to terminate) to perform or observe their respective covenants under the relevant shareholder agreement;

if any required governmental approval of the merger has been denied by final non-appealable action or an application for approval of the merger has been permanently withdrawn at the request of a governmental authority, provided that no party has the right to terminate the merger agreement if the denial is due to the terminating party's failure to perform or observe its covenants in the merger agreement;

if the shareholders of Pacific Premier do not approve the issuance of Pacific Premier common stock in connection with the merger; or if the shareholders of SCB do not approve the merger agreement.

In addition, Pacific Premier may terminate the merger agreement at any time prior to the Pacific Premier special meeting if the board of directors of SCB withdraws or modifies its recommendation to the SCB shareholders that the merger agreement be approved in any way which is adverse to Pacific Premier, or breaches its covenants requiring the calling and holding of the SCB special meeting to consider the merger agreement and prohibiting the solicitation of other offers. Pacific Premier also may terminate the merger agreement if a third party commences a tender offer or exchange offer for 15% or more of the outstanding SCB common stock and the board of directors of SCB recommends that SCB shareholders tender their shares in the offer or otherwise fails to recommend that they reject the offer within a specified period.

Termination Fee (Page)

SCB must pay Pacific Premier a termination fee of $4.5 million if the merger agreement is terminated under specified circumstances.

Pacific Premier and SCB May Amend the Merger Agreement (Page)

The parties may amend or supplement the merger agreement by written agreement at any time before the merger actually takes place; provided, however, no amendment may be made after the SCB special meeting which by law requires further approval by the shareholders of SCB without obtaining such approval.

SCB directors and officers have interests in the merger as individuals that are in addition to, or different from, their interests as shareholders of SCB, which are:

SCB's directors and executive officers will receive an aggregate amount of approximately $ in connection with the cancellation of their SCB options upon the consummation of the merger;

Hwang and James A. Robinson, Jr., will enter into employment agreements with Pacific Premier, each of which will be effective as of the closing of the merger and provide compensation to those individuals for continued provision of services to, or employment with, Pacific Premier following the merger.

Shareholders of SCB will receive shares of Pacific Premier common stock in exchange for their shares of SCB common stock and become shareholders of Pacific Premier, and their rights as shareholders of Pacific Premier will be governed by Pacific Premier's amended and restated certificate of incorporation and amended and restated bylaws and the DGCL.

Upon the effective time of the merger, each share of SCB common stock will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive the merger consideration, consisting of shares of Pacific Premier common stock pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement. The value of the merger consideration to be received by SCB shareholders will be based on an exchange ratio, and will fluctuate depending on the Pacific Premier average share price. The Pacific Premier average share price may vary from the market price of Pacific Premier common stock on the date the merger was announced, on the date that this joint proxy statement/prospectus is mailed to SCB shareholders, on the date that the SCB shareholders vote on the merger agreement and on the date of the SCB and Pacific Premier special meetings. The exchange ratio of 0.9629 shares of Pacific Premier common stock for each share of SCB common stock is subject to (i) downward adjustment if the Pacific Premier average share price is greater than $22.391 and (ii) upward adjustment if the Pacific Premier average share price is less than $16.550. Any change in the price of Pacific Premier common stock prior to the date that the exchange ratio is set will affect the value of the merger consideration that the SCB shareholders will receive upon the effective time of the merger.

Because the price of Pacific Premier common stock could fluctuate during the period of time of the SCB special meeting and the time they actually receive their shares of Pacific Premier common stock as merger consideration, the SCB shareholders will be subject to the risk of a decline in the price of Pacific Premier common stock during this period. SCB does not have the right to terminate the merger agreement or to resolicit the vote of its shareholders solely because of changes in the market prices of Pacific Premier's common stock. Stock price changes may result from a variety of factors, including general market and economic conditions, changes in the values and perceptions of financial services stocks generally and Pacific Premier in particular, changes in Pacific Premier's business, operations and prospects and regulatory considerations. Many of these factors are beyond Pacific Premier's control. Accordingly, at the time of the SCB special meeting, the SCB shareholders will not know or be able to calculate the exact value of the shares of Pacific Premier common stock they will receive upon completion of the merger.

The merger consideration is also subject to downward adjustment if certain of SCB's transaction-related expenses exceed amounts specified in the merger agreement. The merger consideration is subject to possible downward adjustment in the event certain expenses related to the termination of specified contracts related to technology and data processing services provided to Security Bank, referred to as the technology expenses, exceed $3.25 million, which is referred to as the technology expense cap, and/or certain transaction-related expenses incurred by SCB, referred to as deal expenses, exceed $5.0 million, which is referred to as the deal expense cap. The aggregate of any excess amount above the technology expense cap and/or the deal expense cap is referred to as the excess expenses. The technology expense cap may exceed $3.25 million without resulting in an adjustment to the 0.9629 exchange ratio so long as, and only to the extent that, the excess expenses do not exceed $8.25 million in the aggregate, with any excess over $8.25 million resulting in a reduction in the exchange ratio. See "The Merger Expense of the Merger" beginning on page .

Directors and officers of SCB have interests in the merger that are in addition to or different than the interests of SCB shareholders.

SCB directors and officers have interests in the merger as individuals that are in addition to, or different from, their interests as shareholders of SCB, which are:

SCB's directors and executive officers will receive an aggregate amount of approximately $ in connection with the cancellation of their SCB options upon the consummation of the merger, which assumes that agreements have been entered into with Pacific Premier providing for the cash-out of outstanding SCB options;

the agreement of Pacific Premier to honor indemnification obligations of SCB for a period of six (6) years, as well as to purchase liability insurance for SCB's directors and officers for six (6) years following the merger, subject to the terms of the merger agreement;

cash payments to certain executive officers in the aggregate amount of $3.2 million, on a pre-tax basis, pursuant to the terms of their respective executive change in control severance agreements with SCB;

the appointment of Ayad Fargo and Zareh Sarrafian, each a current director of SCB, to serve on the boards of directors of Pacific Premier and Pacific Premier Bank effective upon completion of the merger; and James A. Robinson has entered into a consulting agreement with Pacific Premier, which will be effective upon the closing of the merger, and Ernest Hwang and James A. Robinson, Jr., will enter into employment agreements with Pacific Premier, which will each be effective upon the closing of the merger and provide compensation to those individuals for continued provision of services to, or employment with, Pacific Premier following the merger.

These arrangements may create potential conflicts of interest. These interests of SCB's directors and officers may cause some of these persons to view the proposed transaction differently than how other SCB shareholders view it. The SCB board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other things, in their approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. SCB shareholders should consider these interests in conjunction with the recommendation of the SCB board of directors with respect to approval of the merger. See "The Merger Interests of Certain SCB Officers and Directors in the Merger" beginning on page .

The termination fee and the restrictions on solicitation contained in the merger agreement may discourage other companies from trying to acquire SCB.

Until the closing of the merger, with some limited exceptions, SCB is prohibited from soliciting, initiating, encouraging or participating in any discussion of or otherwise considering any inquiries or proposals that may lead to an acquisition proposal, such as a merger or other business combination transaction, with any person other than Pacific Premier. In addition, SCB has agreed to pay a termination fee to Pacific Premier in specified circumstances. See "The Merger Termination Fee" beginning on page . These provisions could discourage other companies from trying to acquire SCB even though those other companies might be willing to offer greater value to SCB shareholders than Pacific Premier has offered in the merger. The payment of the termination fee could also have a material adverse effect on SCB's financial condition.

Pacific Premier may fail to realize the anticipated benefits of the merger.

The success of the merger will depend on, among other things, Pacific Premier's ability to realize the anticipated revenue enhancements and efficiencies and to combine the businesses of Pacific Premier and SCB in a manner that does not materially disrupt the existing customer relationships of SCB or result in decreased revenues resulting from any loss of customers and that permits growth opportunities to occur. If Pacific Premier is not able to successfully achieve these objectives, the anticipated benefits of the merger may not be realized fully or at all or may take longer to realize than expected.

Pacific Premier and SCB have operated and, until the completion of the merger, will continue to operate, independently. It is possible that the integration process could result in the loss of key employees, the disruption of each company's ongoing businesses or inconsistencies in standards, controls, procedures and policies that adversely affect Pacific Premier's ability to maintain relationships with clients, customers, depositors and employees or to achieve the anticipated benefits of the merger. Integration efforts between the two companies could also divert management attention and resources. These integration matters could have an adverse effect on each of Pacific Premier and SCB during the transition period and on the combined company following completion of the merger.

The market price of Pacific Premier common stock after the merger may be affected by factors different from those affecting the shares of SCB or Pacific Premier currently.

Upon completion of the merger, holders of SCB common stock will become holders of Pacific Premier common stock. Pacific Premier's business differs from that of SCB, and, accordingly, the financial condition and results of operations of the combined company and the market price of Pacific Premier common stock after the completion of the merger may be affected by factors different from those currently affecting the financial condition and results of operations of SCB.

The fairness opinion received by Pacific Premier's board of directors from its financial advisor, Davidson, and the fairness opinion received by SCB's board of directors from SCB's financial advisor, Oppenheimer, will not reflect any changes since the date of such opinions.

Changes in the operations and prospects of Pacific Premier or SCB, general market and economic conditions and other factors that may be beyond the control of Pacific Premier and SCB may alter the value of Pacific Premier or SCB or the market price for shares of Pacific Premier common stock or SCB common stock by the time the merger is completed. Neither the fairness opinion delivered by Davidson to the Pacific Premier board of directors nor the fairness opinion delivered by Oppenheimer to the SCB board of directors speaks as of any date other than the date of such opinion, which was September 30, 2015 in the case of both Davidson's opinion and Oppenheimer's opinion. The merger agreement does not require that either Davidson's or Oppenheimer's fairness opinion be updated as a condition to the completion of the merger, and neither Pacific Premier nor SCB intends to request that the respective fairness opinions be updated. Davidson's fairness opinion is attached as Appendix B to this joint proxy statement/prospectus and Oppenheimer's fairness opinion is attached as Appendix C to this joint proxy statement/prospectus. For a description of Davidson's opinion, see "The Merger Opinion of Pacific Premier's Financial Advisor" beginning on page . For a description of Oppenheimer's opinion, see "The Merger Opinion of SCB's Financial Advisor" beginning on page . For a description of the other factors considered by Pacific Premier's board of directors in determining to approve the merger, see "The Merger Pacific Premier's Reasons for the Merger" beginning on page . For a description of the other factors considered by SCB's board of directors in determining to approve the merger, see "The Merger SCB's Reasons for the Merger" beginning on page .

The merger is subject to the receipt of approvals or waivers from regulatory authorities that may impose conditions that could have an adverse effect on Pacific Premier.

Before the merger can be completed, various approvals or waivers must be obtained from bank regulatory authorities. These authorities may impose conditions on the completion of the merger or require changes to the terms of the merger. Although Pacific Premier and SCB do not currently expect that any such conditions or changes will be imposed, there can be no assurance that they will not be, and such conditions or changes could have the effect of delaying completion of the merger, imposing additional costs on, or limiting the revenues of Pacific Premier following the merger or causing the merger transaction between Pacific Premier and SCB to terminate. See "The Merger Bank Regulatory Approvals" beginning on page and "The Merger Conditions to the Merger" beginning on page .

The merger cannot be completed unless the Pacific Premier shareholders approve the issuance of Pacific Premier common stock in the merger and the SCB shareholders approve the merger agreement.

In order for the merger to be completed, the Pacific Premier shareholders must approve the issuance of Pacific Premier common stock in the merger and the SCB shareholders must approve the merger agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. While a vote of Pacific Premier's shareholders is not required to approve the merger, the approval of Pacific Premier's shareholders is required under applicable NASDAQ rules in order for Pacific Premier to be authorized to issue the shares of Pacific Premier common stock to SCB shareholders as the merger consideration. Approval of the issuance of Pacific Premier common stock to SCB stockholders under NASDAQ rules requires approval of at least a majority of the total votes cast at the Pacific Premier special meeting. The approval the merger agreement by the SCB shareholders requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of SCB common stock. If either or both of these required votes is not obtained from the shareholders of each of the respective companies, the merger may not be consummated.

The merger is subject to certain closing conditions that, if not satisfied or waived, will result in the merger not being completed, which may cause the prices of Pacific Premier common stock and SCB common stock to decline.

Consummation of the merger is subject to customary conditions to closing in addition to the receipt of the required regulatory approvals and approval of the SCB shareholders of the merger agreement and the approval of the Pacific Premier shareholders of the issuance of Pacific Premier common stock in connection with the merger. If any condition to the merger is not satisfied or waived, to the extent permitted by law, the merger will not be completed. In addition, Pacific Premier and SCB may terminate the merger agreement under certain circumstances even if the merger agreement is approved by SCB shareholders and the issuance of Pacific Premier common stock in connection with the merger is approved by Pacific Premier shareholders, including if the merger has not been completed on or before June 30, 2016. If the merger is not completed, the respective trading prices of Pacific Premier common stock on the NASDAQ Global Select Market and of SCB common stock on the OTCQB market may decline to the extent that the current prices reflect a market assumption that the merger will be completed. In addition, neither company would realize any of the expected benefits of having completed the merger. For more information on closing conditions to the merger agreement, see "The Merger Conditions to the Merger" beginning on page .

The unaudited condensed pro forma combined financial data contained in this joint proxy statement/prospectus are presented for illustrative purposes only, are based on various adjustments, assumptions and preliminary estimates and may not be an indication of the combined company's financial condition or results of operations following the merger for several reasons. The actual financial condition and results of operations of the combined company following the merger may not be consistent with, or evident from, these unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial data. In addition, the assumptions used in preparing the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial data may not prove to be accurate, and other factors may affect the combined company's financial condition or results of operations following the merger. Any potential decline in the combined company's financial condition or results of operations may cause significant variations in the stock price of the combined company.

The shares of Pacific Premier common stock to be received by SCB shareholders as a result of the merger will have different rights than shares of SCB common stock.

Upon completion of the merger, SCB shareholders will become Pacific Premier shareholders and their rights as shareholders will be governed by the Pacific Premier amended and restated certificate of incorporation, the Pacific Premier amended and restated bylaws and the DGCL. The rights associated with SCB common stock are different from the rights associated with Pacific Premier common stock. See "Comparison of the Rights of Shareholders" beginning on page .

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT CONCERNING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This joint proxy statement/prospectus contains or incorporates by reference a number of forward-looking statements regarding the financial condition, results of operations, earnings outlook and business prospects of Pacific Premier, Pacific Premier Bank and SCB and the potential combined company and may include statements for the periods following the completion of the merger. Shareholders of either Pacific Premier or SCB can find many of these statements by looking for words such as "expects," "projects," "anticipates," "believes," "intends," "estimates," "strategy," "plan," "potential," "possible" and other similar expressions. Statements about the expected timing, completion and effects of the merger and all other statements in this joint proxy statement/prospectus or in the documents incorporated by reference in this joint proxy statement/prospectus other than historical facts constitute forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements involve certain risks and uncertainties that are subject to change based on factors which are, in many instances, beyond Pacific Premier's or SCB's control. The ability of either Pacific Premier or SCB to predict results or actual effects of its plans and strategies, or those of the combined company, is inherently uncertain. Accordingly, actual results may differ materially from those expressed in, or implied by, the forward-looking statements. Some of the factors that may cause actual results or earnings to differ materially from those contemplated by the forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, those discussed under "Risk Factors" and those discussed in the filings of Pacific Premier that are incorporated into this joint proxy statement/prospectus by reference, as well as the following:

estimated revenue enhancements, costs savings and financial benefits from the merger may not be fully realized within the expected time frames or at all;

deposit attrition, customer loss or revenue loss following the merger may occur or be greater than expected; that required regulatory, shareholder or other approvals are not obtained or other closing conditions are not satisfied in a timely manner or at all;

reputational risks and the reaction of the companies' customers to the merger;

diversion of management time on merger-related issues;

competitive pressure among depository and other financial institutions may increase significantly;

costs or difficulties related to the integration of the businesses of Pacific Premier and SCB may be greater than expected;

changes in the interest rate environment may reduce interest margins;

the effects of, and changes in, trade, monetary and fiscal policies and laws, including interest rate policies of the Federal Reserve;

general economic or business conditions, either nationally or in the states or regions in which Pacific Premier and SCB do business, may be less favorable than expected, resulting in, among other things, a deterioration in credit quality or a reduced demand for credit;

legislation or changes in regulatory requirements may adversely affect the businesses in which Pacific Premier and SCB are engaged;

adverse changes may occur in the securities markets; and competitors of Pacific Premier may have greater financial resources and develop products and technology that enable those competitors to compete more successfully than Pacific Premier.

Because these forward-looking statements are subject to assumptions and uncertainties, Pacific Premier's and SCB's actual results may differ materially from those expressed or implied by these forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are predicated on the beliefs and assumptions of the management of each of Pacific Premier and SCB based on information known to them as of the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus. SCB and Pacific Premier shareholders are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these statements, which speak only as of the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus or the date of any document incorporated by reference in this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

All subsequent written and oral forward-looking statements concerning the merger or other matters addressed in this joint proxy statement/prospectus and attributable to Pacific Premier or SCB or any person acting on their behalf are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements contained or referred to in this section. Recommendation of the Pacific Premier Board of Directors

The Pacific Premier board of directors has unanimously (i) determined that each of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement is fair and reasonable, advisable and in the best interests of Pacific Premier and its shareholders; (ii) approved the merger agreement, the merger and the transactions contemplated thereby and (iii) recommends that the Pacific Premier shareholders approve the issuance of shares of Pacific Premier common stock to SCB shareholders pursuant to the merger agreement. The Pacific Premier board of directors unanimously recommends that Pacific Premier shareholders vote "FOR" the proposal to approve the issuance of shares of Pacific Premier common stock to SCB shareholders pursuant to the merger agreement. See "The Merger Pacific Premier's Reasons for the Merger" beginning on page .

The Pacific Premier board of directors also unanimously recommends that Pacific Premier shareholders vote "FOR" the proposal to adjourn the Pacific Premier special meeting, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies on the proposal to approve the issuance of shares of Pacific Premier common stock to the SCB shareholders pursuant to the merger agreement.

Shares Outstanding and Entitled to Vote; Record Date

The close of business on , 201 has been fixed by Pacific Premier as the record date for the determination of Pacific Premier shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the Pacific Premier special meeting and any adjournment or postponement of the Pacific Premier special meeting. At the close of business on the record date, there were shares of Pacific Premier common stock outstanding and entitled to vote, held by holders of record. Each share of Pacific Premier common stock entitles the holder to one vote at the Pacific Premier special meeting on all matters properly presented at the special meeting.

As of the close of business on the record date, directors of SCB own and have the power to vote approximately shares of Pacific Premier common stock, or approximately % of the outstanding shares of Pacific Premier common stock.

How to Vote Pacific Premier Shares

Shareholders of Record.

Pacific Premier shareholders of record may vote by mail, telephone, via the Internet or by attending the Pacific Premier special meeting and voting in person. If a Pacific Premier shareholder chooses to vote by mail, he or she should simply mark the enclosed proxy card, date and sign it, and return it in the postage-paid envelope provided. Internet and telephone voting is available until 11:59 p.m., Eastern Time, on .

Shares Held in "Street Name."

If a Pacific Premier shareholder's shares of Pacific Premier common stock are held through a bank, broker or other nominee, such Pacific Premier shareholder is considered the beneficial owner of such shares held in "street name." In such case, this joint proxy statement/prospectus has been forwarded by such Pacific Premier shareholder's bank, broker or other nominee, who is considered, with respect to such shares, the shareholder of record. As the beneficial owner, a Pacific Premier shareholder has the right to direct such bank, broker or other nominee how to vote the shares by following the voting instructions that they have sent, or will send, to the Pacific Premier shareholder. Without specific instructions from the Pacific Premier shareholder, the bank, broker or other nominee is not empowered to vote a Pacific Premier shareholder's shares on non-routine matters such as the proposal to approve the issuance of shares of common stock of Pacific Premier to the shareholders of SCB pursuant to the merger agreement or the proposal of the Pacific Premier board of directors to adjourn the Pacific

Pacific Premier special meeting, if necessary. Not voting these shares will not have any effect on the vote to approve the proposal to issue of shares of common stock of Pacific Premier to the shareholders of SCB pursuant to the merger agreement or the proposal of the Pacific Premier board of directors to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary. When the vote is tabulated for the proposals, broker non-votes, if any, will only be counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present. Accordingly, we advise each Pacific Premier shareholder to promptly give instructions to his or her bank, broker or other nominee to vote "FOR" approval of the issuance of shares of Pacific Premier common stock to the SCB shareholders pursuant to the merger agreement and "FOR" the proposal to adjourn the Pacific Premier special meeting, if necessary, by using the voting instruction card provided to such Pacific Premier shareholder by his or her bank, broker or other nominee. Alternatively, if a Pacific Premier shareholder is a beneficial owner and wishes to vote in person at the Pacific Premier special meeting, the Pacific Premier shareholder must provide a proxy executed in such Pacific Premier shareholder's favor by the bank, broker or other nominee.

Revocation of Proxies

A Pacific Premier shareholder can revoke a proxy at any time before his or her shares are voted. If the Pacific Premier shareholder is a shareholder of record, the Pacific Premier shareholder can revoke a proxy by:

delivering to Pacific Premier prior to the Pacific Premier special meeting a written notice of revocation addressed to:
Secretary, Pacific Premier Bancorp, Inc., 17901 Von Karman Avenue, Suite 1200, Irvine, California 92614;

completing, signing and returning a new proxy card with a later date before the date of the Pacific Premier special meeting, and any earlier dated proxy will be revoked automatically;

calling the toll-free number listed on the Pacific Premier proxy card or by accessing the Internet site listed on the Pacific Premier proxy card to change his or her vote by 11:59 p.m., Eastern Time, on _____, in which case the later submitted proxy via telephone or Internet, as the case may be, will be recorded and the earlier dated proxy will be revoked; or attending the Pacific Premier special meeting and voting in person, and any earlier proxy will be revoked. However, simply attending the Pacific Premier special meeting without voting will not revoke a Pacific Premier proxy.

If a Pacific Premier shareholder has instructed a bank, broker or other nominee to vote such Pacific Premier shareholder's shares of Pacific Premier common stock, the Pacific Premier shareholder must follow directions received from the bank, broker or other nominee to change his or her vote.

Attendance at the Pacific Premier special meeting will not, in and of itself, constitute revocation of a proxy.

Each proxy returned to Pacific Premier (and not revoked) by a holder of Pacific Premier common stock will be voted in accordance with the instructions indicated thereon. If no instructions are indicated on a signed proxy that is returned, such proxy will be voted "FOR" approval of the proposal to issue shares of Pacific Premier common stock to the SCB shareholders pursuant to the merger agreement and "FOR" the proposal to adjourn the Pacific Premier special meeting, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the Pacific Premier special meeting to approve the issuance of shares of Pacific Premier common stock in connection with the merger.

Quorum

A quorum, consisting of the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote at the Pacific Premier special meeting, must be present in person or by proxy before any action may be taken at the Pacific Premier special meeting. Once a share of Pacific Premier common stock is represented at the Pacific Premier special meeting, it will be counted for the purpose of determining a quorum not only at the Pacific Premier special meeting but also at any adjournment or postponement of the Pacific Premier special meeting. In the event that a quorum is not present at the Pacific Premier special meeting, it is expected that the Pacific Premier special meeting will be adjourned or postponed.

Abstentions and broker non-votes will not be counted for purposes of determining the number of votes cast on a proposal but will be treated as present for quorum purposes. "Broker non-votes" are shares held by banks, brokers or nominees as to which voting instructions have not been received from the beneficial owners or the persons entitled to vote those shares and the bank, broker or nominee does not have discretionary voting power under the applicable New York Stock Exchange rules. Under these rules, the proposals to approve the issuance of shares of Pacific Premier common stock to the shareholders of SCB pursuant to the merger agreement and to adjourn the Pacific Premier special meeting, if necessary, are not items on which brokerage firms may vote in their discretion on behalf of their clients if such clients have not furnished voting instructions.

Vote Required

The affirmative vote of holders of the majority of the shares for which votes are cast at the Pacific Premier special meeting is needed to approve the issuance of the shares of Pacific Premier common stock to the shareholders of SCB pursuant to the merger agreement. The affirmative vote of holders of the majority of the shares for which votes are cast at the Pacific Premier special meeting is needed to approve the proposal to adjourn the Pacific Premier special meeting, if necessary.

Abstentions and broker non-votes will not be counted as votes cast and, therefore, will not affect either proposal. Further, the failure to vote, either by proxy or in person, will not have an effect on either proposal.

Unless instructions to the contrary are specified in a proxy properly voted and returned through available channels, the proxies will be voted "FOR" approval of the issuance of shares of Pacific Premier common stock to the SCB shareholders in connection with the merger and "FOR" the proposal to adjourn the Pacific Premier special meeting, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies on the proposal to approve the issuance of shares of Pacific Premier common stock to the SCB shareholders in connection with the merger.

Solicitation of Proxies

Pacific Premier will pay the costs of soliciting its shareholders' proxies, as well as all other costs incurred by it in connection with the solicitation of proxies from its shareholders on behalf of its board of directors. In addition to solicitation by mail, directors, officers and employees of Pacific Premier may solicit proxies from shareholders of Pacific Premier in person or by telephone, facsimile or other electronic methods without compensation other than reimbursement for their actual expenses. Pacific Premier has engaged D.F. King & Co., Inc. as its proxy solicitation firm. Such firm will be paid its customary fee of $7,500.00 and out-of-pocket expenses.

Arrangements also will be made with custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for the forwarding of solicitation material to the beneficial owners of stock held of record by such persons, and Pacific Premier will reimburse such custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses in connection therewith.

Attending the Pacific Premier Special Meeting

While not required, all holders of Pacific Premier common stock, including shareholders of record and shareholders who hold their shares in street name through banks, brokers or other nominees, are invited to attend the Pacific Premier special meeting. Pacific Premier shareholders of record can vote in person at the Pacific Premier special meeting. If a Pacific Premier shareholder is not a shareholder of record and would like to vote in person at the Pacific Premier special meeting, such Pacific Premier shareholder must produce a proxy executed in his or her favor by the record holder of such Pacific Premier shareholder's shares. In addition, such Pacific Premier shareholder must bring a form of personal photo identification with him or her in order to be admitted at the Pacific Premier special meeting. Pacific Premier reserves the right to refuse admittance to anyone without proper proof of share ownership or without proper photo identification. The use of cameras, sound recording equipment, communications devices or any similar equipment during the Pacific Premier special meeting is prohibited without Pacific Premier's express written consent.

Adjournments and Postponements

Although it is not currently expected, the Pacific Premier special meeting may be adjourned or postponed, including for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies, if there are insufficient votes at the time of the Pacific Premier special meeting to approve the issuance of shares of Pacific Premier common stock to the SCB shareholders in connection with the merger pursuant to the merger agreement or if a quorum is not present at the Pacific Premier special meeting. Other than an announcement to be made at the Pacific Premier special meeting of the time, date and place of an adjourned meeting, an adjournment generally may be made without notice. Any adjournment or postponement of the Pacific Premier special meeting for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies will allow the shareholders who have already sent in their proxies to revoke them at any time prior to their use at the Pacific Premier special meeting as adjourned or postponed.

Questions and Additional Information

If a Pacific Premier shareholder has questions about the proposal to issue shares of Pacific Premier common stock to the SCB shareholders in connection with the merger, or the process for voting, or if additional copies of this document or a replacement proxy card are needed, please contact Investor Relations, Pacific Premier Bancorp, Inc., at (949) 864-8000.

Shares Outstanding and Entitled to Vote; Record Date

The close of business on , 201 has been fixed by SCB as the record date for the determination of SCB shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the SCB special meeting and any adjournment or postponement of the SCB special meeting. At the close of business on the record date, there were shares of SCB common stock outstanding and entitled to vote, held by approximately holders of record. Each share of SCB common stock entitles the holder to one vote at the SCB special meeting on all matters properly presented at the SCB special meeting.

As of the close of business on the record date for the SCB special meeting, Pacific Premier did not beneficially own any shares of SCB common stock. As of the close of business on the record date for the SCB special meeting, directors of Pacific Premier collectively own and have the power to vote approximately shares of SCB common stock, or approximately % of the outstanding shares of SCB common stock.

How to Vote SCB Shares

Shareholders of Record.

Shareholders of record may vote by mail, telephone, via the Internet or by attending the SCB special meeting and voting in person. If a SCB shareholder chooses to vote by mail, he or she should simply mark the enclosed proxy card, date and sign it, and return it in the postage-paid envelope provided. Internet and telephone voting is available until p.m., Pacific Time, on ,

Shares Held in "Street Name."

If a SCB shareholder's shares of SCB common stock are held through a bank, broker or other nominee, such SCB shareholder is considered the beneficial owner of such shares held in "street name." In such case, this joint proxy statement/prospectus has been forwarded by such SCB shareholder's bank, broker or other nominee, who is considered, with respect to such shares, the shareholder of record. As the beneficial owner, a SCB shareholder has the right to direct such bank, broker or other nominee how to vote the shares by following the voting instructions that they have sent, or will send, to the SCB shareholder. Without specific instructions from the SCB shareholder, the bank, broker or other nominee is not empowered to vote a SCB shareholder's shares on non-routine matters such as the proposal to approve the merger agreement or the proposal of the SCB board of directors to adjourn the SCB special meeting, if necessary. Not voting these shares will have the effect of voting against the approval of the merger agreement, but will not have any effect on the proposal of the SCB board of directors to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary. When the vote is tabulated for the proposals, broker non-votes, if any, will only be counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present. Accordingly, we advise each SCB shareholder to promptly give instructions to his or her bank, broker or other nominee to vote "FOR" approval of the merger agreement and "FOR" the proposal to adjourn the SCB special meeting, if necessary, by using the voting instruction card provided to such SCB shareholder by his or her bank, broker or other nominee. Alternatively, if a SCB shareholder is a beneficial owner and wishes to vote in person at the SCB special meeting, the SCB shareholder must provide a proxy executed in such SCB shareholder's favor by the bank, broker or other nominee.

Revocation of Proxies

A SCB shareholder can revoke a proxy at any time before his or her shares are voted. If the SCB shareholder is a shareholder of record, the SCB shareholder can revoke a proxy by:

delivering to SCB prior to the SCB special meeting a written notice of revocation addressed to Michael Vanderpool, Executive Vice President and Corporate Secretary, SCB, 3403 Tenth Street, Suite 830, Riverside, CA 92501; completing, signing and returning a new proxy card with a later date before the date of the SCB special meeting, and any earlier dated proxy will be revoked automatically;

calling the toll-free number listed on the SCB proxy card or by accessing the Internet site listed on the SCB proxy card to change his or her vote by _____, on _____, 201____, in which case the later submitted proxy via telephone or Internet, as the case may be, will be recorded and the earlier dated proxy revoked; or attending the SCB special meeting and voting in person, and any earlier dated proxy will be revoked. However, simply attending the SCB special meeting without voting will not revoke a SCB proxy.

If a SCB shareholder has instructed a bank, broker or other nominee to vote such SCB shareholder's shares of SCB common stock, the SCB shareholder must follow directions received from the bank, broker or other nominee to change his or her vote.

Attendance at the SCB special meeting will not, in and of itself, constitute revocation of a proxy.

Each proxy returned to SCB (and not revoked) by a holder of SCB common stock will be voted in accordance with the instructions indicated thereon. If no instructions are indicated on a signed proxy that is returned, such proxy will be voted "FOR" approval of the merger agreement and "FOR" the proposal to adjourn the SCB special meeting, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies on the proposal to approve the merger agreement.

Quorum

A quorum, consisting of the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote at the SCB special meeting, must be present in person or by proxy before any action may be taken at the SCB special meeting. Once a share of SCB common stock is represented at the SCB special meeting, it will be counted for the purpose of determining a quorum not only at the SCB special meeting but also at any adjournment or postponement of the SCB special meeting. In the event that a quorum is not present at the SCB special meeting, it is expected that the SCB special meeting will be adjourned or postponed.

Abstentions and broker non-votes will not be counted for purposes of determining the number of votes cast on a proposal but will be treated as present for quorum purposes. "Broker non-votes" are shares held by banks, brokers or nominees as to which voting instructions have not been received from the beneficial owners or the persons entitled to vote those shares and the bank, broker or nominee does not have discretionary voting power under the applicable New York Stock Exchange rules. Under these rules, the proposals to approve the merger agreement and to adjourn the special meeting are not items on which brokerage firms may vote in their discretion on behalf of their clients if such clients have not furnished voting instructions.

Vote Required

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of SCB common stock is necessary to approve the merger agreement on behalf of SCB. The proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies, must be approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of SCB common stock represented and entitled to vote at the SCB special meeting.

Because the proposal to approve the merger agreement is required to be approved by the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of SCB common stock, abstentions and broker non-votes will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal to approve the merger agreement. And for the same reason, the failure of a SCB shareholder to vote by proxy or in person at the SCB special meeting will have the effect of a vote against the proposal to approve the merger agreement.

Because the affirmative vote of a majority of shares of SCB common stock represented and entitled to vote at the SCB special meeting (which shares voting affirmatively must constitute a majority of the required quorum) is needed to approve the adjournment proposal, abstentions and broker non-votes will not have any effect on the proposal of the SCB board of directors to adjourn the special meeting, if any. However, if the number of affirmative votes cast for the adjournment proposal is a majority of the votes cast, but such votes do not constitute a majority of the quorum required to transact business at the special meeting, then abstentions and broker non-votes will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal of the SCB board of directors to adjourn the SCB special meeting.

Shares of SCB Subject to Voting Agreements

The directors and executive officers of SCB, who collectively own and have the power to vote approximately 30.50% of the outstanding shares of SCB common stock as of September 30, 2015, have entered into shareholder agreements with Pacific Premier pursuant to which they have agreed, among other things, to vote all of their shares in favor of the merger agreement. See "The Merger Shareholder Agreements" on page .

Solicitation of Proxies

SCB will pay for the costs of mailing this joint proxy statement/prospectus to its shareholders, as well as all other costs incurred by it in connection with the solicitation of proxies from its shareholders on behalf of its board of directors. In addition to solicitation by mail, the directors, officers and employees of SCB may solicit proxies from shareholders of SCB in person or by telephone, facsimile or other electronic methods without compensation other than reimbursement for their actual expenses. SCB has engaged Georgeson as its proxy solicitation firm. Such firm will be paid its customary fee of $6,500.00 and out-of-pocket expenses.

Arrangements also will be made with custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for the forwarding of solicitation material to the beneficial owners of stock held of record by such persons, and SCB will reimburse such custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses in connection therewith.

Attending the SCB Special Meeting

While not required, all holders of SCB common stock, including shareholders of record and shareholders who hold their shares in street name through banks, brokers or other nominees, are invited to attend the SCB special meeting. Shareholders of record can vote in person at the SCB special meeting. If a SCB shareholder is not a shareholder of record and would like to vote in person at the SCB special meeting, such SCB shareholder must produce a proxy executed in his or her favor by the record holder of such SCB shareholder's shares. In addition, each SCB shareholder must bring a form of personal photo identification with him or her in order to be admitted at the SCB special meeting. SCB reserves the right to refuse admittance to anyone without proper proof of share ownership or without proper photo identification. The use of cameras, sound recording equipment, communications devices or any similar equipment during the SCB special meeting is prohibited without SCB's express written consent.

Adjournments and Postponements

Although it is not currently expected, the SCB special meeting may be adjourned or postponed, including for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies, if there are insufficient votes at the time of the SCB special meeting to approve the proposal to approve the merger agreement or if a quorum is not present at the SCB special meeting. Other than an announcement to be made at the SCB special meeting of the time, date and place of an adjourned meeting, an adjournment generally may be made without notice. Any adjournment or postponement of the SCB special meeting for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies will allow the shareholders who have already sent in their proxies to revoke them at any time prior to their use at the SCB special meeting as adjourned or postponed.

Questions and Additional Information

If a SCB shareholder has questions about the merger or the process for voting or if additional copies of this document or a replacement proxy card are needed, please contact Ernest Hwang, President of SCB, at (951) 368-2265, or Michael Vanderpool, Executive Vice President and Corporate Secretary, at (951) 368-2265.

THE MERGER

The following information describes the material aspects of the merger agreement and the merger. This description does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the appendices to this joint proxy statement/prospectus, including the merger agreement which is attached as Appendix A. Stockholders of both Pacific Premier and SCB should carefully read the appendices in their entirety.

Structure of the Merger

Pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth in the merger agreement, SCB will be acquired by Pacific Premier, in a transaction in which SCB will merge with and into Pacific Premier, with Pacific Premier as the surviving corporation. Immediately following the consummation of the merger, Security Bank will be merged with and into Pacific Premier Bank, with Pacific Premier Bank as the surviving institution, which is referred to as the bank merger. Following consummation of the bank merger, Pacific Premier Bank intends to continue to operate all of the branches acquired from Security Bank and intends to consolidate the Pacific Premier Bank branches in Palm Desert, Riverside and Tustin into existing Security Bank branches.

Following the consummation of the merger, Pacific Premier's amended and restated certificate of incorporation and amended and restated bylaws as in effect immediately prior to the merger will continue as the governing corporate documents of Pacific Premier. The directors and executive officers of Pacific Premier immediately prior to the merger will continue as the directors and executive officers of Pacific Premier after the merger, in each case, until their respective successors are duly elected or appointed and qualified. In addition, pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, SCB and Pacific Premier have agreed that Mr. Ayad Fargo and Mr. Zareh Sarrafian will become directors of Pacific Premier and Pacific Premier Bank upon the effectiveness of the merger.

Background of the Merger

From time to time, the board of directors of SCB has considered strategic opportunities to continue building shareholder value, including acquiring other financial institutions, a merger of equals or being acquired by a larger financial institution in an effort to better manage, among other things, the increasing regulatory burden and attendant costs and to seek better efficiencies and economies of scale.

During late 2014, SCB, together with its financial advisor, explored a potential merger of equals with a particular financial institution. Management structures were discussed, and certain confidential information was exchanged. SCB concluded, however, that the business plans of the two institutions were not compatible and that the other party could not contribute sufficient consideration to the transaction, and the discussions were terminated.

During early 2015, SCB explored the possibility of acquiring a smaller institution in an effort to further its strategic plan. Two specific candidates were identified for further discussions, and non-disclosure agreements were signed with both institutions. Meetings were held between senior management of SCB and both institutions, and certain information was exchanged. However, after reviewing these two specific candidates and modeling costs and expenses of completing such an acquisition, the SCB board concluded that it was not in the company's or shareholders' interests to pursue such an acquisition.

The board also analyzed SCB prospects if the company remained independent, including the need for additional capital to grow. The SCB board considered the challenges facing the community banking industry, including the need for additional scale in order to offset increasing regulatory expenses and a continued low interest rate environment. The board of directors of SCB also considered the desire for greater liquidity for SCB's shareholders. In light of these factors, among others, SCB's board of directors determined it would be appropriate to explore strategic opportunities to be acquired by a larger institution.

In April 2015, the board of directors of SCB held a strategic planning retreat that was facilitated by an individual who is an experienced banking attorney and financial advisor. Various acquisition scenarios and likely acquirers were explored. Following the planning session, the board determined to engage the facilitator (hereinafter "Initial Deal Counsel") to help pursue a sale of SCB as both counsel and investment banker. SCB's board of directors established an acquisition committee (the "Acquisition Committee") comprised of directors Varner, Aronoff and Robinson. In late April 2015, a meeting was held between the Acquisition Committee and senior management of SCB and senior management of Party A and Party B, potential acquirers.

At a May 6, 2015 SCB board meeting, Jean-Luc Servat of Panoramic Capital Advisors, an experienced investment banker, was hired to serve as a financial consultant to SCB in addition to Initial Deal Counsel. With Servat's and Initial Deal Counsel's assistance, at the May 6th meeting the board reviewed a list of potential parties to a sale. At this meeting, the board and its advisors agreed upon an approach and timing of a possible sale. During mid-May 2015, at least seven potential acquirers were contacted on behalf of SCB, five of which entered into non-disclosure agreements with SCB and were provided access to a secure due diligence data room containing confidential information regarding SCB and its operations. At an SCB board of directors meeting on May 23, 2015, SCB met with its legal and financial advisors to discuss the relative merits of each of the five potential acquirers.

Meetings and conference calls with the five potential acquirers continued through early June 2015. Party A, Party B and Pacific Premier expressed significant interest in entering into a strategic transaction with SCB and continued to conduct further due diligence on SCB. SCB's senior executive officers created an acquisition team comprised of Ernest Hwang, SCB President, Michael Vanderpool, SCB Executive Vice President and Corporate Secretary, and Barbara Robinson, Security Bank Chief Operating Officer.

At SCB's request, Party A, Party B and Pacific Premier submitted initial letters of interest to SCB by June 8, 2015. The Acquisition Committee convened a meeting with its legal and financial advisors on June 9, 2015 to consider the expressions of interest. The next day, Party A subsequently provided an updated letter of interest. New Party C provided a verbal expression of interest, the price proposed in which was increased two separate times, that ultimately was rejected because it involved acquisition consideration significantly lower than the other parties' letters of interest.

The SCB board met again on June 11, 2015 and reviewed the three expressions of interest with Mr. Servat and Initial Deal Counsel. Further, on June 18, 2015, the board of directors considered separate presentations by the chief executive officer of Pacific Premier and the chief executive officer of Party A. On June 19, 2015, the chief executive officer of Party B also made a presentation to the SCB board.

On June 23, 2015, the SCB board met again. The services of the Initial Deal Counsel were terminated in an effort to avoid potential conflicts based on the recent disclosure to the SCB board of a financial investment that Initial Deal Counsel had in Party B. The board then discussed with Mr. Servat's assistance the three proposals to acquire SCB in an effort to select the best transaction partner among Party A, Party B and Pacific Premier. The letter of interest from Party A was determined to be the best offer with a per share consideration for SCB shareholders of approximately $18.24 per share of SCB common stock outstanding. The Pacific Premier and Party B offers were then valued at approximately $18.00 and $17.78, respectively, per share of SCB common stock. Additionally, the Party A proposal included an almost 50%/50% split in cash and stock consideration and the possibility of a shareholder election to receive cash, stock or both, Party A also had a long history of cash dividend payments while neither Party B nor Pacific Premier had any history of cash dividend payments on their common stock. Party A was significantly larger than either Party B or Pacific Premier and had a relatively more active, liquid trading market for its common stock as compared to the other parties. Based upon these factors, the SCB board of directors approved the acceptance and execution of Party A's letter of interest, subject to certain modifications. On June 24, 2015, an updated letter of interest was received from Party A which, among other things, increased the stock component of their proposal (which when combined with the cash component equated to approximately an $18.75 value per share of SCB common stock based on then market prices). The SCB board of directors authorized the signing of the letter of interest with Party A. Party B and Pacific Premier were notified that their letters of interest were not accepted.

Following its acceptance of Party A's letter of interest, on June 29, 2015, SCB engaged Stuart --Moore, attorneys experienced in financial institution merger and acquisition transactions, to advise SCB in connection with the potential transaction with Party A. In addition, SCB engaged Oppenheimer to render a fairness opinion in connection with the proposed transaction, and to assist with reverse due diligence matters.

On July 2, 2015, SCB received an unsolicited revised proposal from Pacific Premier that included per share acquisition consideration at a fixed price of $18.75 per share of SCB common stock. The Acquisition Committee and SCB's board of directors determined that Pacific Premier's proposal was not comparable to Party A's because of Pacific Premier's relative size compared to the larger Party A, and the significant cash component of Party A's offer. In addition, the letter of interest with Party A included an exclusivity period that did not expire until August 28, 2015, during which period SCB and its affiliates were prohibited from soliciting other proposals, inquiries or offers or entering into any discussions with any other person relating to a possible acquisition.

As due diligence and negotiations progressed with Party A through August 2015, SCB began to grow concerned with (i) the length of time for Party A to complete due diligence, (ii) a significant drop in the stock price of Party A's common stock (which would then have resulted in a value of less than $18.75 per share to SCB shareholders), (iii) the apparent lack of progress in providing written clarification of employment terms with certain officers, (iv) insistence on non-compete covenants of questionable legality from senior management, and (v) the absence of a draft definitive agreement.

On August 18, 2015, members of the Acquisition Committee, SCB senior management and Mr. Servat met with representatives of Party A and its financial advisor to discuss the status of negotiations. Party A indicated that their due diligence would result in certain non-typical conditions to closing and pricing adjustments, which SCB estimated would, when considered in light of the decline in Party A's stock price, reduce the deal value to approximately $18.10 per share of SCB common stock. Party A also requested an extension of the exclusivity period.

On the afternoon of August 19, 2015, the Acquisition Committee met with its legal and financial advisors by telephone. As a result of such meeting, Party A was informed that an extension of the exclusivity period would not be considered unless drafts of the definitive agreement and terms sheets for proposed employment and non-compete agreements were delivered by August 28, 2015. SCB also indicated that it would need several days thereafter to review the documents before considering an extension of the exclusivity period.

On August 27, 2015, a draft definitive agreement was delivered to SCB. The draft contained a number of blanks which made it impossible to determine the magnitude of Party A's proposed pricing adjustment and pricing protections. Other key information was deemed to be missing and the agreement contained conditions to closing that were deemed unacceptable to SCB.

On August 31, 2015 the Acquisition Committee met with Mr. Servat and Stuart --Moore to discuss the status of negotiations with Party A. At such meeting, the Acquisition Committee determined that the downward pricing adjustments and falling share price principally, and other non-financial issues with respect to the negotiations with Party A were making a transaction with Party A less likely, and as a result, the exclusivity period with Party A would not be extended. The Acquisition Committee instructed Mr. Servat to contact Pacific Premier and Party B to determine if there was any continuing interest in engaging in a strategic transaction with SCB. In addition, Party A was asked to provide additional information in its draft definitive agreement in order for the SCB board to evaluate the value of Party A's revised proposal and was advised that there was increased likelihood of the proposed transaction with Party A not proceeding.

On August 31, 2015, Party B reaffirmed its offer in its original letter of interest, adjusted to reflect current market prices for its common stock, which resulted in proposed acquisition consideration of $17.44 per share of SCB common stock. On that same date, Pacific Premier submitted a revised letter of interest reflecting proposed acquisition consideration of $18.75 per share of SCB common stock, with the aggregate acquisition consideration to be comprised of 10% cash and 90% shares of Pacific Premier's common stock. Pacific Premier subsequently further revised its letter of interest to change its offer from a fixed price of $18.75 per share of SCB common stock to a fixed exchange ratio of 0.9629 shares of Pacific Premier common stock per share of SCB common stock.

While proposals were being obtained from Pacific Premier and Party B, discussions continued with Party A and its advisors in order to determine the value of Party A's proposal and to otherwise obtain agreement on remaining issues. On September 2, 2015, Party A provided details of its pricing adjustments (which were more extensive than the adjustments discussed on August 18th), conditions to closing and other information for the draft definitive agreement.

On September 3, 2015, SCB's Acquisition Committee met with Mr. Servat and Stuart --Moore to discuss the status of negotiations with Party A, as well as the revised proposals from Pacific Premier and Party B. At that meeting, it was determined that significant uncertainty surrounded the negotiations with Party A, and there was concern that Party A's proposed modified price adjustments could result in a significant price reduction resulting in a per SCB share value below $18.00. The Acquisition Committee instructed Mr. Servat to present financial terms relating to pricing adjustments and protections to Party A in an attempt to restore the transaction's pricing back toward the terms of Party A's original proposal and in an effort to continue negotiations with Party A. At the same time, the Acquisition Committee discussed the relative superiority of Pacific Premier's proposal as compared to that of Party A and Party B, particularly with respect to Pacific Premier's proposed amount and composition of acquisition consideration per share of SCB's common stock. As a result, Pacific Premier's Chief Executive Officer was invited to present Pacific Premier's revised proposal to SCB's board of directors.

After further discussions with Party A's advisors on September 3, 2015, Mr. Servat presented a set of financial terms which the Acquisition Committee felt it could recommend to the SCB board to continue negotiations with Party A.

On September 7, 2015, the chief executive officer of Party A contacted Mr. Aronoff, a member of the Acquisition Committee, and informed him that Party A was no longer interested in pursuing an acquisition of SCB.

On September 8, 2015, Party B's financial advisor indicated that Party B might be willing to raise its offer to approximately $18.00 per share of SCB common stock through a fixed exchange ratio of 0.82 shares of Party B common stock for each share of SCB common stock, which was still substantially below the value offered by Pacific Premier. Later, on September 8th, the SCB board of directors met with its legal and financial advisors and reviewed the terms of Party B's original letter of interest and Pacific Premier's updated letter of interest as well as the potential value of Party A's proposal. Based on the then recent trading prices of the of the respective three institutions and applying their respective exchange ratios, Party A's offer was approximately $.075 per share lower (without taking into account Party A's proposed price adjustments that might reduce the value even further) than the Pacific Premier proposal and Party B's offer was approximately $0.75 per share lower. In light of the communication from the chief executive officer of Party A the previous day, the SCB board first decided to terminate discussions with Party A and counsel for Party A was informed of such decision that day. Given the disparity in offers, the SCB board of directors determined to sign Pacific Premier's letter of interest, subject to the modification of certain non-financial terms.

On September 9, 2015, Party B indicated that it was willing to increase its offer to a fixed exchange ratio that equated to $18.67 per share of SCB common stock.

Given the closeness of per share prices offered by Pacific Premier and Party B, the Acquisition Committee determined to invite Party B to clarify its proposal and to give both Party B and Pacific Premier until September 10, 2015, to submit their best offers.

On September 10, 2015, Party B informed SCB that it was withdrawing all prior offers, and would not submit an updated letter of interest.

On September 10, 2015, Pacific Premier submitted a revised letter of interest leaving the fixed exchange ratio the same but offering the SCB board of directors the ability to choose a 90% stock and 10% cash consideration mix, or 100% stock consideration, and including a collar on the fixed exchange ratio to ameliorate the risk of price fluctuations in Pacific Premier stock, as well as clarifying certain non-financial terms.

At a board meeting on September 11, 2015, the SCB board of directors, with Mr. Servat and representatives from Stuart --Moore present, met to discuss the proposed transaction with Pacific Premier. Following extensive discussions, including, among other things, continued discussions regarding the challenges of SCB remaining independent and Pacific Premier's conditioning of a transaction on the retention of Mr. Hwang and Mr. Jim Robinson, Jr., as employees following the closing of the merger, the board of directors of SCB voted unanimously to approve moving forward with negotiating a definitive acquisition agreement with Pacific Premier based on the updated letter of interest. The SCB board selected Pacific Premier's all stock alternative because of the relatively small amount of cash consideration otherwise available, the introduction of the collars on the exchange ratio ameliorating the risk of a significant drop in Pacific Premier's share price, and the relative liquidity of Pacific Premier common stock.

Commencing immediately following the SCB board meeting, extensive due diligence was conducted by Pacific Premier on SCB and Security Bank, and SCB, together with its legal and financial advisors, conducted extensive reverse due diligence on Pacific Premier and its wholly owned bank subsidiary.

Concurrently with the extensive due diligence process, SCB and its advisors, on the one hand, and Pacific Premier and its advisors, on the other, began negotiating a definitive acquisition agreement, with negotiations concluding on or about September 30, 2015. During the course of negotiations, the terms remained consistent with the general business terms outlined in Pacific Premier's revised letter of interest with Pacific Premier, except that the parties determined to make certain revisions to the collar such that instead of acting as a closing condition, if Pacific Premier's share price exceeded or fell below the collars, the exchange ratio would float such that the consideration value would be fixed at the upper or lower collar amounts.

On September 30, 2015, the board of directors of Pacific Premier held a special board meeting for purposes of considering the merger agreement. At that meeting, the Pacific Premier board of directors thoroughly discussed and considered the terms and conditions of the merger and the merger agreement. Holland & Knight LLP advised the Pacific Premier board of directors respecting its duties in connection with the transaction. Davidson reviewed the financial aspects of the proposed merger and rendered an opinion to the Pacific Premier board of directors to the effect that, as of such date and subject to the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered, and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Davidson as set forth in such opinion, the aggregate merger consideration to be paid by Pacific Premier to the SCB shareholders in the merger pursuant to the merger agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Pacific Premier common stock.

After deliberation, the Pacific Premier board of directors voted unanimously to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and authorized Pacific Premier management to execute the merger agreement.

On September 30, 2015, the board of directors of SCB held a special board meeting for purposes of considering the merger agreement. At that meeting, the SCB board of directors thoroughly discussed and considered the terms and conditions of the merger and the merger agreement. Stuart --Moore advised the SCB board of directors respecting its duties in connection with the transaction and the final changes made to the merger agreement. Mr. Servat reviewed the history of the transaction and the proposed merger. Further, Oppenheimer reviewed the financial aspects of the proposed merger and rendered an opinion to the board of directors to the effect that, as of such date and subject to the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered, and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Oppenheimer as set forth in such opinion, the merger consideration in the proposed merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of SCB common stock.

After deliberation, the SCB board of directors voted unanimously to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement with Pacific Premier, and authorized SCB management to execute the merger agreement.

On September 30, 2015, SCB and Pacific Premier executed the merger agreement and all related documents. Prior to the opening of the stock market on October 1, 2015, Pacific Premier issued a press release announcing the execution of the merger agreement and the terms of the proposed merger.

Pacific Premier's Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of the Pacific Premier Board of Directors

As part of Pacific Premier's business strategy, it evaluates opportunities to acquire bank holding companies, banks and other financial institutions. The acquisition of SCB and Security Bank is consistent with this strategy. In reaching its conclusion to approve the merger and to recommend to its shareholders to approve the issuance of Pacific Premier common stock in connection with the merger, Pacific Premier's board of directors consulted with its financial advisor, D.A. Davidson & Co, or Davidson, with respect to the financial aspects of the proposed acquisition and with its legal counsel, Holland & Knight LLP, as to its legal duties and the terms of the merger agreement and related agreements. Pacific Premier entered into the merger agreement with SCB because, among other things, Pacific Premier believes that the acquisition of SCB and Security Bank will:

result in a meaningful improvement in operational scale in Pacific Premier's existing footprint within Orange County, Riverside County and the broader Inland Empire market in light of the branch locations and customer base of Security Bank;

improve and strengthen Pacific Premier Bank's existing deposit base by acquiring an attractive deposit franchise, which was comprised of 81.8% non-certificates of deposit and 43.3% non-interest bearing demand deposits at August 31, 2015;

result in significant cost savings and synergies due to the consolidation of three Pacific Premier Bank branch locations in Palm Desert, Riverside and Tustin and the reduction of typical back office expenses;

enable Pacific Premier to offer its broader range of products and services to Security Bank customers;

provide Pacific Premier with significant opportunities for marketing synergies due to Security Bank's strong relationship-based business banking model; be modestly accretive to Pacific Premier's earnings per share in fiscal year 2016, excluding non-recurring deal related expenses, and result in an anticipated earnings per share accretion of approximately 5.0% in fiscal year 2017; and allow Pacific Premier to deploy a portion of its capital into what its board of directors believes is a compelling investment.

The Pacific Premier board of directors also considered the potential adverse consequences of the proposed merger, including:

the possible disruption to Pacific Premier's or SCB's business that may result from the announcement of the merger;

the risk that the cost savings, operational synergies and other benefits expected result from the merger might not be fully realized or not realized at all;

the possibility that the merger may not be completed or may be unduly delayed because conditions to closing may not be satisfied, including:

Edgar Filing: PACIFIC PREMIER BANCORP INC - Form S-4

the condition that Pacific Premier's shareholders approve the issuance of shares of Pacific Premier's common stock to SCB's shareholders in connection with the merger, the condition that SCB's shareholders approve the merger, and other conditions which are outside of Pacific Premier's control;

the risk that the merger might not be completed and the effect of the resulting public announcement of termination of the merger agreement on:

the market price of Pacific Premier's common stock, and Pacific Premier's operating results, particularly in light of the costs incurred in connection with the merger; and the potential risk of diverting management focus and resources from operational matters and other strategic opportunities while working to implement the merger.

Based on the reasons stated above, Pacific Premier's board of directors believes that the merger is in the best interest of Pacific Premier and its shareholders and unanimously recommends that the Pacific Premier shareholders vote "FOR" approval of the issuance of Pacific Premier common stock in connection with the merger.

SCB's Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of the SCB Board of Directors

After carefully considering all of its options, and cognizant of its fiduciary duty to shareholders, the current competitive and regulatory environment, and a number of other factors discussed in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, SCB's board of directors unanimously recommended approval of the merger agreement, determining that the merger, on the terms provided in the merger agreement, is SCB's best option to realize reasonable value for its shareholders in today's challenging and uncertain banking market.

In reaching its conclusion to approve the merger and recommend adoption of the merger agreement to the SCB shareholders, SCB's board of directors consulted with its financial consultant, Panoramic Capital Advisors, or Panoramic, with respect to the financial aspects of the proposed acquisition, considered an analysis and opinion from Oppenheimer as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to SCB's shareholders of the consideration offered by Pacific Premier, and consulted with its legal counsel, Stuart Moore, as to its legal duties and the terms of the merger agreement and related agreements. All material factors considered by the SCB board of directors have been disclosed in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. In approving the merger agreement, the board of directors of SCB considered a number of factors, including the following, without assigning any specific or relative weights to the factors:

the lack of opportunities to expand by acquisition of suitable smaller institutions, or through a merger of equals, on terms similarly advantageous to SCB's shareholders as the proposed merger with Pacific Premier;

the impact of succession planning on SCB and Security Bank;

the need for greater liquidity for SCB shareholders;

the belief, as of the date of the merger agreement, the aggregate merger consideration represents a fair price to SCB shareholders, including the relationship of the merger consideration to the book value of SCB common stock and the earnings of SCB, and the structure of the value of the aggregate merger consideration payable in shares of Pacific Premier common stock;

the tax-free nature of the shares of Pacific Premier common stock being offered as merger consideration;

the value of Pacific Premier common stock, including the liquidity of Pacific Premier common stock given its listing on the NASDAQ Global Select Market and information concerning the financial performance and condition, business operations, capital levels, asset quality, loan portfolio breakdown, and prospects of Pacific Premier and Pacific Premier Bank, including the stability of Pacific Premier's management team and Pacific Premier's positive financial performance trends;

the prices paid and the terms of other recent comparable combinations of banks and bank holding companies;

results that could be expected to be obtained by SCB if it continued to operate independently, and the likely benefits to SCB shareholders of such course, as compared with the value of the aggregate merger consideration being offered by Pacific Premier;

the ability of Pacific Premier's management team to successfully integrate and operate the business of the combined company after the merger, as evidenced by the success of Pacific Premier and Pacific Premier Bank in completing and integrating previous mergers of community banks;

the financial presentation, dated September 30, 2015, of Oppenheimer to the SCB board of directors and the opinion, dated September 30, 2015, of Oppenheimer to the SCB board of directors as to the fairness, from a financial point of view and as of the date of the opinion, to the holders of SCB common stock of the merger consideration in the proposed merger, as more fully described below under "Opinion of SCB's Financial Advisor;"

the likelihood that the merger will be completed on a timely basis, including the likelihood that the merger will receive all necessary regulatory approvals in a timely manner;

the merger agreement not including any unrealistic closing conditions based on the financial performance of SCB between signing and closing of the transaction;

the current and prospective economic, regulatory and competitive environment facing the financial services industry generally, and SCB in particular, including the continued rapid consolidation in the financial services industry and the competitive effects of increased consolidation on relatively smaller financial institutions such as SCB;

the advantages of being part of a larger financial institution, such as Pacific Premier, including the potential for operating efficiencies, the effect of a higher lending limit with respect to SCB's customers, and the generally higher trading multiples of larger financial institutions;

the anticipated impact on the communities served by SCB, and the increased ability to serve the communities and its customer base through a larger branch network;

the possible effects of the merger on SCB's employees and customers; and SCB's employees having more opportunities for advancement at a larger financial institution such as Pacific Premier.

The SCB board of directors also considered the potential adverse consequences of the proposed merger, including:

the interests of SCB's and Security Bank's officers and directors with respect to the merger apart from their interests as holders of SCB common stock, and the risk that these interests might influence their decision with respect to the merger;

the merger agreement's restrictions on SCB's ability to solicit or engage in discussions or negotiations with third parties, and the effect of a termination fee in favor of Pacific Premier, including the risk that the termination fee might discourage third parties from proposing an alternative transaction that may be more advantageous to SCB's shareholders;

the possibility that the merger and the related integration process could disrupt SCB's on-going business and result in the loss of customers and the fact that SCB's officers and employees will have to focus extensively on actions required to complete the merger, which will divert their attention from SCB's business, and that SCB will incur substantial transaction costs even if the merger is not consummated;

the costs already incurred by SCB in connection with the merger process;

the potential reaction of SCB's customers to Pacific Premier and Pacific Premier Bank; employee attrition and the potential effect on business and customer relationships; that while the merger is pending, SCB will be subject to certain limited restrictions on how it conducts business that could delay or prevent SCB from pursuing business opportunities or preclude it from taking actions that would be advisable if it was to remain independent;

the possible effects on SCB should the parties fail to complete the merger, including the possible effects on the price of SCB common stock, and the associated business and opportunity costs;

the risk that SCB cannot meet one or more of the financial, or other, closing conditions that operate in favor of Pacific Premier, and therefore the merger may not close; and the possible downside risk of Pacific Premier's stock performance and the risk of price volatility given that SCB does not have the right to terminate the merger if the price of the Pacific Premier common stock falls below a stated price.

Based on the reasons stated, SCB's board of directors believes that the merger is in the best interest of SCB and the SCB shareholders and unanimously recommends that the SCB shareholders vote "FOR" approval of the merger agreement.

Opinion of Pacific Premier's Financial Advisor

On September 14, 2015, Pacific Premier entered into an engagement agreement with Davidson to render financial advisory and investment banking services to Pacific Premier. As part of its engagement, Davidson agreed to assist Pacific Premier in analyzing, structuring, negotiating and, if appropriate, effecting a transaction between Pacific Premier and SCB. Davidson also agreed to provide Pacific Premier's board of directors with an opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to Pacific Premier of the consideration to be paid to the holders of SCB's common stock in the proposed merger. Pacific Premier engaged Davidson because Davidson is a nationally recognized investment banking firm with substantial experience in transactions similar to the merger and is familiar with Pacific Premier and its business. At this meeting, Davidson reviewed the financial aspects of the proposed merger and rendered an opinion to the Pacific Premier board that, as such date and based upon and subject to assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken, the consideration to be paid to the holders of SCB's common stock was fair, from a financial point of view, to Pacific Premier in the proposed merger.

The opinion has been reviewed and approved by Davidson's Fairness Opinion Committee in conformity with its policies and procedures established under the requirements of Rule 5150 of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority.
