PART III - NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 10-Q, N-SAR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Because the Registrant has been involved in a number of other matters and projects, the Registrant requires additional time to complete the Form 10-KSB and therefore, the Registrant's Annual Report on Form 10-KSB regarding the fiscal year ended August 31, 2004 could not be timely filed without unreasonable effort or expense.

If answer is no, identity report(s).

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

As a result of the acquisition of producing properties during the fiscal year ended August 31, 2004, the Registrant anticipates that the resulting production revenue will constitute a significant change in the results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year. For the reasons set forth in Part III above, a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made at this time.
