Shareholders of record at the close of business on April 2, 2003 are entitled to notice of and to vote at the meeting.

Provisions of the Bylaws of Commerce Corp govern nominations for election of members of the Board of Directors, as follows:

Nominations for election of members of the Board of Directors may be made by the Board of Directors or by any holder of any outstanding class of capital stock of the corporation entitled to vote for the election of directors. Notice of intention to make any nominations (other than for persons named in the notice of any meeting called for the election of directors) are required to be made in writing and to be delivered or mailed to the president of the corporation by the later of: (i) the close of business 21 days prior to any meeting of stockholders called for the election of directors, or (ii) ten days after the date of mailing of notice of the meeting to stockholders. Such notification must contain the following information to the extent known to the notifying stockholder: (a) the name and address of each proposed nominee; (b) the principal occupation of each proposed nominee; (c) the number of shares of capital stock of the corporation owned by each proposed nominee; (d) the name and residence address of the notifying stockholder; (e) the number of shares of capital stock of the corporation owned by the notifying stockholder; (f) the number of shares of capital stock of any bank, bank holding company, savings and loan association or other depository institution owned beneficially by the nominee or by the notifying stockholder and the identities and locations of any such institutions; (g) whether the proposed nominee has ever been convicted of or pleaded nolo contendere to any criminal offense involving dishonesty or breach of trust, filed a petition in bankruptcy or been adjudged bankrupt; and (h) a statement regarding the nominee's compliance with Section 2.3 [Qualification of Directors] of the Company's Bylaws. The notification shall be signed by the nominating stockholder and by each nominee, and shall be accompanied by a Nominations not made in accordance with these procedures are to be disregarded by the Chairman of the meeting, and upon his instructions, the inspectors of election are to disregard all votes cast for each such nominee. The foregoing requirements do not apply to the nomination of a person to replace a proposed nominee who has become unable to serve as a director between the last day for giving notice in accordance with this paragraph and the date of election of directors if the procedure noted in this paragraph was followed with respect to the nomination of the proposed nominee.

Nominees for the Board of Directors must meet certain qualifications set forth in Section 2.3 of the Company's Bylaws, which prohibit the election as a director of any person who is a director, executive officer, branch manager or trustee for any unaffiliated commercial bank, savings bank, trust company, savings and loan association, building and loan association, industrial bank or credit union that is engaged in business in (i) any city, town or village in which the corporation or any affiliate or subsidiary thereof has offices, or (ii) any city, town or village adjacent to a city, town or village in which the corporation or any affiliate or subsidiary thereof has offices.

PROXY STATEMENT OF
HERITAGE Commerce Corp

150 Almaden Boulevard · San Jose, California 95113
Telephone (408) 947-6900 · Fax (408) 947-6910

This statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies to be used by the Board of Directors of Heritage Commerce Corp ("Commerce Corp") at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders of Commerce Corp to be held at Commerce Corp's offices, 150 Almaden Boulevard, San Jose, California, on May 22, 2003, at 3:00 p.m., and at any adjournments or postponements thereof (the "Meeting").

This Proxy Statement and the accompanying form of proxy are being mailed to shareholders on or about April 9, 2003.

A form of proxy for voting your shares at the Meeting is enclosed. Any shareholder who executes and delivers a proxy has the right to revoke it at any time before it is voted by filing with the Corporate Secretary of Commerce Corp, an instrument revoking said proxy or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date. In addition, the powers of the proxyholders will be revoked if the person executing the proxy is present at the Meeting and advises the Chairman of his or her election to vote in person. Unless revoked, all shares represented by a properly executed proxy received prior to the Meeting will be voted as specified by each shareholder in the proxy. If no specifications are given by a shareholder, then the proxy will be voted in favor of election of nominees specified, in favor of the ratification of the Board's selection of independent accountants, and in the discretion of the Board, on such other business as may properly come before the Meeting as described below.

The proxy also confers discretionary authority to vote the shares represented thereby on any matter that was not known at the time this Proxy Statement was mailed which may properly be presented for action at the Meeting and may include: action with respect to procedural matters pertaining to the conduct of the Meeting and election of any person to any office for which a bona fide nominee is named herein, if such nominee is unable to serve or for good cause will not serve.

The enclosed proxy is being solicited by Commerce Corp's Board of Directors and the cost of the solicitation is being borne by Commerce Corp. The principal solicitation of proxies is being made by mail, although additional solicitation may be made by telephone, email, facsimile or personal visits by directors, officers and employees of Commerce Corp and its subsidiary bank.

The Meeting is being held for the following purposes:

1. To elect four directors to serve a three-year term as Class II directors until the annual meeting of shareholders of 2006 and until their successors shall be elected and qualified.
2. To ratify the Board of Directors' selection of Deloitte & Touche LLP, independent certified public accountants, to serve as Commerce Corp's auditors for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2003.
3. To consider and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

Shareholders of record as of the close of business on April 2, 2003 ("Record Date") will be entitled to notice of and to vote at the Meeting. As of April 2, 2003, the Company had 11,222,564 shares of common stock outstanding. Unless otherwise noted, all per share information has been adjusted to reflect a three for two stock split paid to shareholders of record as of February 5, 1999, and a ten percent stock dividend paid to shareholders of record as of February 7, 2000.

Each shareholder of record is entitled to one vote, in person or by proxy, for each share held on all matters to come before the meeting.

In the election of directors, the four candidates receiving the highest number of votes will be elected. Ratification of the selection of Deloitte & Touche LLP as the Company's auditors requires the affirmative vote of a majority of all shares represented and voting at the Meeting. Broker non-votes (i.e., shares held by brokers or nominees which are represented at the meeting but with respect to which the broker or nominee is not authorized to vote on a particular proposal) and abstentions will not be counted, except for quorum purposes, and will have no effect on the election of directors. In determining whether the requisite shareholder approval has been received for ratification of the selection of the Company's auditors, if the number of shares voted in favor of ratification constitutes a majority of the required quorum, broker non-votes and abstentions will have no effect on the matter. However, if the number of shares voted in favor of ratification does not constitute a majority of the required quorum, broker non-votes and abstentions will have the same effect as a vote against the matter.

PROPOSAL 1

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Bylaws of Commerce Corp provide that the number of directors shall not be less than 11 nor more than 21. By resolution, the Board of Directors has fixed the number of directors at 13.

This procedure is printed in full in the Notice of Annual Meeting of Shareholders accompanying this Proxy Statement. Nominations not made in accordance with the procedures may be disregarded by the Chairman of the Meeting, and upon his instructions, the Inspector of Election shall disregard all votes cast for such nominees.

NOMINEES FOR DIRECTOR

The Board of Directors is classified into three classes with staggered three-year terms. The four persons named below will be nominated for election as Class II directors to serve until the Annual Meeting in the year 2006 and until their successors are duly elected and qualified. Some of Commerce Corp's directors and executive officers, as well as their immediate family and associates, are customers of, and have had banking transactions with, Commerce Corp's subsidiary Heritage Bank of Commerce (the "Bank") in the ordinary course of business, and the Bank expects to have such ordinary banking transactions with these persons in the future. In the opinion of management of Commerce Corp and the Bank, all loans and commitments to lend included in such transactions were made in the ordinary course of business on the same terms, including interest rates and collateral, as those prevailing for comparable transactions with other persons of similar creditworthiness, and do not involve more than the normal risk of collectability or present other unfavorable features. Loans to individual directors and officers must comply with the Bank's lending policies and statutory lending limits. In addition, prior approval of the Banks' Boards of Directors is required for all such loans.

Management is not aware of any arrangements, including the pledge by any person of shares of Commerce Corp, the operation of which may at a subsequent date result in a change in control of Commerce Corp.

The following information is furnished with respect to each executive officer of the Company whose aggregate cash compensation during 2002 exceeded $100,000.

Stock Option Plan

In 1994 the Board of Directors adopted the Heritage Bank of Commerce 1994 Tandem Stock Option Plan ("Plan") in order to promote the long- term success of the Bank and the creation of shareholder value. In 1998 the Plan was restated and adopted by Commerce Corp as the successor corporation to Heritage Bank of Commerce. The Plan authorizes Commerce Corp to grant stock options to officers, employees and directors of Commerce Corp and its affiliates.

The following table shows options granted in 2002 to executive officers named in the Summary Compensation Table. The grant date present value dollar amount was computed in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation."

The Board of Directors has established an employee benefit plan under Section 401(k) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. The purpose of the 401(k) plan is to encourage employees to save for retirement. Eligible employees may make contributions to the plan subject to the limitations of Section 401(k) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. The Plan trustees administer the Plan. The Company matches the first $1,500 of each employee's contributions.

In 1997, Heritage Bank of Commerce initiated an employee stock ownership plan ("Stock Ownership Plan"). The Stock Ownership Plan was subsequently adopted by Commerce Corp as the successor corporation to Heritage Bank of Commerce. The Stock Ownership Plan allows Commerce Corp, at its option, to purchase shares of Commerce Corp Common Stock on the open market and award those shares to certain employees. To be eligible to receive an award of shares under the Stock Ownership Plan, an employee must have worked at least 1,000 hours during the year and must be employed by the Company on December 31. Awards under the Stock Ownership Plan generally vest over four years. During 2002, Commerce Corp contributed $358,000 to the Stock Ownership Plan, with contributions to Richard L. Conniff, Kenneth A. Corsello, Philip L. Griffin, Lawrence D. McGovern and Brad L. Smith totaling $6,000, $4,000, $4,100, $4,600 and $6,000, respectively. These amounts are included in the Summary Compensation Table in the column entitled "Bonus."

Richard L. Conniff, Commerce Corp President and Chief Operating Officer, is employed under the terms of a written three-year employment contract dated August 20, 2001 which provides for the following as of December 31, 2002: base salary of $200,000 per year; bonuses paid based upon the performance of Commerce Corp awarded in the sole discretion of the Board of Directors; a car allowance; insurance; and severance compensation benefits in the event Commerce Corp terminates Mr. Conniff's employment without cause.

Kenneth A. Corsello, Commerce Corp's Executive Vice President and Chief Credit Officer, is employed under the terms of a written three-year employment contract dated May 11, 2001 which provides for the following as of December 31, 2002: base salary of $133,000 per year; bonuses paid based upon the performance of Commerce Corp awarded in the sole discretion of the Board of Directors; a car allowance; insurance; and severance compensation benefits in the event Commerce Corp terminates Mr. Corsello's employment without cause.

Philip L. Griffin, Commerce Corp's Executive Vice President and Chief Information Officer, is employed under the terms of a written employment offer letter dated September 11, 2000 which provides for the following as of December 31, 2002: base salary of $143,000 per year; bonuses paid based upon the performance of Commerce Corp, awarded in the sole discretion of the Board of Directors; insurance; and severance compensation benefits in the event Commerce Corp terminates Mr. Griffin's employment without cause.

Lawrence D. McGovern, Commerce Corp's Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, is employed under the terms of a written three-year employment contract dated July 16, 1998 which is renewable annually and provides for the following as of December 31, 2002: base salary of $153,000 per year; bonuses paid based upon the performance of Commerce Corp, awarded in the sole discretion of the Board of Directors; a car allowance; insurance; and severance compensation benefits in the event Commerce Corp terminates Mr. McGovern's employment without cause.

Brad L. Smith, Chief Executive Officer of Commerce Corp, is employed under the terms of a written three-year employment contract dated August 20, 2001 which provides for the following as of December 31, 2002: base salary of $220,000 per year; bonuses paid based upon the performance of Commerce Corp, awarded in the sole discretion of the Board of Directors; a car allowance; insurance; and severance compensation benefits in the event Commerce Corp terminates Mr. Smith's employment without cause.

The Company has a supplemental retirement plan (the "Plan") covering key executives and directors. The Plan is a nonqualified defined benefit plan and is unsecured and unfunded and there are no Plan assets. The Company has purchased insurance on the lives of the directors and executive officers who participate in the Plan and intends to use the cash values of those policies ($23,898,000 and $22,034,000 at December 31, 2002 and 2001, respectively) to pay the retirement obligations that accrue pursuant to the plan. The Company's total accrued pension obligation was $3,475,000 and $2,596,000 as of December 31, 2002 and 2001, respectively. The formula by which benefits are determined for the executive officers and directors who participate in the Plan is based on a combination of the individual's position within the Company, their age at the time when their retirement benefits become fully vested, and the amount of their benefits available under a previous non-qualified defined contribution plan. The estimated annual benefits payable upon retirement at normal retirement age for Richard L. Conniff, Kenneth A. Corsello, Philip L. Griffin, Lawrence D. McGovern, and Brad L. Smith are $100,000, $48,000, $70,000, $68,000, and $125,000, respectively. The death benefit for participants in the Plan is an endorsement to the individual's beneficiaries of 80% of the net-at-risk insurance amount (i.e., the amount of the death benefit in excess of cash value of the underlying insurance policy).

During 2002, Commerce Corp paid retainers to twelve directors for their services during 2002, for a total of $18,000. In March 2001, the Board approved a director compensation program, effective April 1, 2001, that extended a similar plan previously adopted by the Board to include all non-executive officer directors. The plan allocates fees among participating directors, based on the extent and nature of each director's committee memberships, attendance at Board and committee meetings, and service as the chairman of a Board committee. The total annual cost of the program for 2002 was approximately $290,000.

The Board has changed the compensation paid to non-employee directors for service as directors of the Company and the Bank. Starting January 1, 2003, each director receives an annual retainer of $24,000 and $500 for each meeting of Board committees attended. The change was made to bring the Company's director compensation in line with that of comparable banking institutions. No other changes in director compensation have been made.

An option of the director compensation program is the deferral of fees ("Deferral Plan"). Under the Deferral Plan, a participating director may defer up to 100% of his or her board fees into the Deferral Plan for up to ten years from the date of the first deferral. Amounts deferred earn interest at the rate of 8% per annum. The director may elect a distribution schedule of up to ten years, with interest accruing (at the same 8%) on the declining balance. A participating director is eligible to begin receiving benefits upon retirement.

Commerce Corp has purchased life insurance policies on the lives of directors who participate in the Deferral Plan. It is expected that the earnings on these policies will offset the cost of the program. In addition, Commerce Corp will receive death benefit payments upon the death of the director. The proceeds will permit Commerce Corp to "complete" the Deferral Plan as the director originally intended if the director dies prior to the completion of the Deferral Plan. The disbursement of deferred fees is accelerated at death and commences one month after the director dies.

In the event of the director's disability prior to attainment of his benefit eligibility date, the director may request that the Board permit him to receive an immediate disability benefit equal to the annualized value of the director's deferral account.

To date, six of the directors have elected to defer their fees. For the years 2000, 2001 and 2002, Commerce Corp accrued expenses of $67,000, $73,000 and $65,000, respectively, to account for its obligation to pay deferred fees.

Compensation Committee Report

The Compensation and Benefits Committee, in accordance with applicable requirements, has provided the following report to the Board of Directors of Commerce Corp.

Report on Senior Executive Compensation By the Compensation and Benefits Committee of the Board of Directors

The Report of the Compensation and Benefits Committee shall not be deemed incorporated by reference by any general statement incorporating by reference this Proxy Statement into any filing under the Securities Act of 1933 or under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, except to the extent that Commerce Corp specifically incorporates the information contained in the report by reference, and shall not otherwise be deemed filed under such acts.

Commerce Corp's general compensation strategy for senior executive officers is to pay annual and long term compensation which is competitive with executives in similar positions at peer group companies, taking into appropriate account Commerce Corp's forward progress, its overall financial condition and its performance relative to companies in similar circumstances. In determining compensation levels, Commerce Corp obtains salary survey information regarding executive salary levels for comparable companies through many sources, including banking industry associates and independent compensation consultants. Additionally, Commerce Corp ties incentive compensation levels to financial performance goals of Commerce Corp.

The compensation policy of Commerce Corp is designed to attract and retain highly qualified personnel and to provide meaningful incentives for measurable performance. The components of executive compensation include base salary, an incentive bonus plan, non-plan bonuses, stock options and a supplemental executive retirement plan.

Commerce Corp's senior executive compensation is determined by the Compensation and Benefits Committee of the Board of Directors and by the Board itself. The Committee meets a minimum of four times per year. Salaries and other compensation are reviewed annually. Any significant increases or other changes to compensation or benefits are approved by the Board of Directors. Incentive bonus awards are determined by the Committee in January or February and recommended to the full Board for immediate action. Compensation for a newly hired executive may be established by the Committee at a special meeting.

In its discretion, Commerce Corp pays annual incentive bonuses to its senior executives after receiving a recommendation to do so by the Compensation and Benefits Committee of the Board. The decision to pay, and the amount of payment, is based upon an assessment of the institution's performance in the context of certain pre-determined performance standards and with reference to the executive's base wages, as well as to peer group patterns.

Audit Committee Report

In accordance with its written charter adopted by Heritage Commerce Corp's Board of Directors (Board), the Heritage Commerce Corp Audit Committee (Committee) assists the Board in fulfilling its responsibility for oversight of the quality and integrity of the accounting, auditing, and financial reporting practices of the Company. During fiscal 2002 the Committee met six times, and the Committee chairman, as representative of the Committee, discussed the interim financial information contained in each quarterly earnings announcement with the CFO, controller and independent auditors prior to public release.

In discharging its oversight responsibility as to the audit process, the Audit Committee obtained from the independent auditors a formal written statement describing all relationships between the auditors and the Company that might bear on the auditors' independence consistent with Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, "Independence Discussions with Audit Committees," discussed with the auditors any relationships that may impact their objectivity and independence and satisfied itself as to the auditors' independence. The Committee also discussed with management, the internal auditors and the independent auditors the quality and adequacy of the Company's internal controls and the internal audit functions, organization, responsibilities, budget and staffing. The Committee reviewed with both the independent and the internal auditors their audit plans, audit scope, and identification of audit risks.

The Committee discussed and reviewed with the independent auditors all communications required by generally accepted auditing standards, including those described in Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, as amended, "Communication with Audit Committees" and, with and without management present, discussed and reviewed the results of the independent auditors' examination of the financial statements. The Committee also discussed the results of the internal audit examinations.

Management has the responsibility for the preparation of the Company's financial statements and the independent auditors have the responsibility for the examination of those statements.

Based on the above-mentioned review and discussion with management and the independent auditors, the Committee recommended to the Board that the Company's audited financial statements be included in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002, for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
