SECTION 1 REGISTRANT'S BUSINESS AND OPERATIONS

Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

Forbearance and Loan Modification Agreement

Nord Resources Corporation (Nord or the Company), as borrower, and its subsidiary Cochise Aggregates and Materials, Inc. (Cochise) as guarantor, have entered into a Forbearance and Loan Modification Agreement dated September 9, 2014 (the Forbearance Agreement) with Nedbank Limited (Nedbank), as lender, in respect of approximately $52 million (the Indebtedness) due and owing to Nedbank and its affiliates under the Company's secured term loan facility, copper hedge program and interest rate swap program, and to provide for up to $350,000 in further advances by Nedbank to the Company to cover certain budgeted expenses necessary to protect the collateral securing the Indebtedness.

The Company is party to an amended and restated Credit Agreement dated March 31, 2009 with Nedbank, as administrative agent and lead arranger, which provided for a $25 million secured term loan credit facility. The Credit Agreement is collateralized by substantially all of the Company's assets. The Company is in default of its obligations under the Credit Agreement, and under the Company's copper hedge and interest rate swap programs under derivative agreements with Nedbank affiliates as counterparties. Given this default, Nedbank has full authority to exercise its rights under the credit agreement, including the acceleration of the full amount due thereunder and the institution of foreclosure proceedings against the Johnson Camp Mine.

Under the Forbearance Agreement, Nedbank has agreed to forbear from the exercise of its rights and remedies, whether at law, in equity, by agreement or otherwise, available to Nedbank as a result of the defaults under the loan and collateral agreements until the earliest of: (i) 45 days commencing from September 1, 2014; (ii) the time at which Nord is in breach or default of the Forbearance Agreement; (iii) the occurrence of any event of default under the loan documents not expressly covered by the Forbearance Agreement; or (iv) the filing of a voluntary or involuntary petition in bankruptcy or the appointment of a receiver by or against Nord or Cochise.

Item 2.03 Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant

Until the termination or expiration of the forbearance period under the Forbearance Agreement, Nedbank has agreed to lend up to a maximum of $350,000 by way of new advances (the Advances) to Nord to cover certain budgeted expenses approved by Nedbank and necessary to protect the collateral securing the Indebtedness (which shall include the new Advances and interest thereon), including to pay for insurance, to pay for utilities, to pay for supplies needed to maintain and continue Nord's operations, for certain environmental monitoring expenses, and to pay for payroll. The new Advances, in the nature of a revolving loan, will bear interest at LIBOR plus 8.5% per annum. All Advances and interest thereon shall mature and become due and payable upon the termination or expiry of the forbearance period under the Forbearance Agreement.
