State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

j2 Global Communications, Inc. (the "Company") is unable to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006 (the "Form 10-K") by the deadline prescribed under Securities and Exchange Commission rules and regulations.

As disclosed by the Company in its Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on December 15, 2006, a special committee of the Company's Board of Directors has concluded its approximate four month independent investigation into the option grant process followed by the Company in the period since its IPO in mid-1999. As previously disclosed, based on the special committee's findings, the Company expects to incur non-cash compensation expense, cash tax and tax-related G&A expense and cash expense associated with conducting the investigation.

The Company has dedicated substantial resources to evaluate the special committee's findings and to adjust the Company's financial statements as a result of these findings. However, the Company is still in the process of completing the required work, which has resulted in the Company being unable to file the Form 10-K by the March 1, 2007 prescribed filing date without unreasonable effort or expense.

The Company will file the Form 10-K as soon as possible, and anticipates filing it and holding its 2006 year-end earnings conference call during the week of March 5, 2007 and in any event on or before March 16, 2007. The Company expects to file its Quarterly Reports for the periods ended June 30, 2006 and September 30, 2006 on the same day as it files the Form 10-K.
