TROY Group Files Suit Against Westar

SANTA ANA, Calif. (BUSINESS WIRE) September 8, 2004 TROY Group, Inc. (Nasdaq: TROY) today announced that TROY, Dirk, Inc. and the Dirk Family Trust have commenced an action against Westar Capital LLC (Westar) in the United States District Court for the Central District of California for violations of the Williams Act, tortious interference with contract, tortious interference with prospective economic advantage, and unfair business practices. The complaint alleges that Westar s purported offers to purchase all of the outstanding stock of TROY are designed solely to disrupt the market for TROY common stock and the proposed merger between TROY and Dirk, Inc. The complaint seeks damages of an unspecified amount as well as injunctive relief.

On May 26, 2004, TROY announced that it had entered into a merger agreement (the Merger) with Dirk Inc., a company controlled by Patrick Dirk, the founder of TROY, and his family members, pursuant to which Mr. Dirk and his family will acquire the outstanding shares of TROY common stock that they do not already own at a price of $3.06 per share. The Merger is subject to approval by TROY stockholders as required under applicable state law, to completion of financing arrangements necessary to accomplish the Merger, and to certain other closing conditions.

TROY filed a preliminary proxy statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission on June 17, 2004. Prior to consummation of the merger, TROY will file a definitive proxy statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission and will distribute such proxy statement to investors and stockholders. Investors and stockholders are advised to read the proxy statement when it becomes available because it will contain important information about the parties to the merger and the terms and conditions of the merger.

Investors and stockholders may obtain copies of the proxy statement (when available) and other documents filed by the parties with the Securities and Exchange Commission, free of charge, at the Securities and Exchange Commission s website at <http://www.sec.gov>. Investors and stockholders may also obtain, free of charge, copies of the proxy statement (when available) and such other documents from TROY by directing such request to TROY Group, Inc., 2331 South Pullman Street, Santa Ana, California, 92705, 949-250-3280.

TROY and its executive officers and directors may be deemed to be participants in the solicitation of proxies from stockholders of TROY with respect to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Information regarding such executive officers and directors is included in TROY s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended November 30, 2003. This document is available, free of charge, at the Securities and Exchange Commission s website at <http://www.sec.gov> and from TROY at TROY Group, Inc., 2331 South Pullman Street, Santa Ana, California, 92705, 949-250-3280.
