Any proxy may be revoked by any stockholder who attends the meeting and gives oral notice of his or her intention to vote in person, without compliance with any other formalities. In addition, any proxy given pursuant to this solicitation may be revoked prior to the Annual Meeting by delivering an instrument revoking it or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date to the Secretary of the Company.

The following describes each committee, its current membership, the number of meetings held during fiscal year 2004 and its function.

In addition, the Board has determined that Mr. Burnaman has past employment experience as a chief executive officer or other senior officer with financial oversight responsibilities which results in the level of financial sophistication as set forth in the rules of the Nasdaq Stock Market, and qualifies him as an audit committee financial expert as defined in the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Audit Committee met six times during 2004.

The Audit Committee is responsible for the appointment, compensation and oversight of all work performed by the Company's independent auditors; the pre-approval of the audit of the Company's financial statements and the performance of services related to the audit; reviewing the scope and results of the audit with the independent auditors; reviewing with management and the independent auditors the Company's year-end operating results; considering the adequacy of the internal accounting control procedures of the Company; the pre-approval of the non-audit services to be performed by the independent auditors and considering the effect of such performance on the auditors' independence. The Audit Committee pre-approves all fees to be paid to the independent auditors in accordance with the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and the rules and regulations promulgated in accordance therewith. Additionally, the Audit Committee has adopted a policy to pre-approve all audit and permissible non-audit services provided by the independent auditors. The Audit Committee will consider annually and, if appropriate, approve the scope of the audit services to be performed during the fiscal year as outlined in an engagement letter proposed by the independent auditors. For permissible non-audit services, the Audit Committee will approve in advance all services to be provided by the independent auditors in accordance with the rules of the Nasdaq Stock Market, the Securities and Exchange Commission's rules and regulations and the federal securities laws, and will determine the amount of compensation to be paid to the independent auditors for such auditing services. The Company will routinely inform the Audit Committee as to the extent of services provided by the independent auditors in accordance with this pre-approval policy and the fees incurred for the services performed to date.

The Audit Committee operates under a written charter adopted by the Board, a copy of which was filed as Exhibit A to the Proxy Statement for the Company's 2003 Annual Meeting. The Audit Committee works closely with management and the Company's independent auditors. The Audit Committee also meets with the independent auditors in an executive session, without the presence of our management, on a quarterly basis, following completion of their quarterly reviews and annual audit and prior to our earnings announcements. The Audit Committee also meets with our independent auditors to approve the annual scope of the audit services to be performed.

The Audit Committee Report is included herein on page 12.

The Compensation Committee met two times during 2004.

The Compensation Committee Report is included herein on page 10.

Nominating Committee. The Nominating Committee consists of Messrs. Arens, Burnaman, and Sabin with Mr. Sabin serving as Chairman. The Board has determined that all members of the Nominating Committee are independent directors under the rules of the Nasdaq Stock Market. The Nominating Committee considers and periodically reports on matters relating to the identification, selection and qualification of the members of the Board and candidates nominated to the Board and its committees; and oversees the evaluation of the Board and management. The Nominating Committee held two meetings during fiscal year 2004. The Nominating Committee operates under a written charter adopted by the Board, a copy of which was filed as Appendix A to the Proxy Statement for the Company's 2004 Annual Meeting.

The Nominating Committee considers properly submitted stockholder recommendations for candidates for membership on the Board of Directors as described below under Identification and Evaluation of Director Nominees. In evaluating such recommendations, the Nominating Committee seeks to achieve a balance of knowledge, experience and capability on the Board members and to address the membership criteria set forth under Director Qualifications. Any stockholder recommendations proposed for consideration by the Nominating Committee should include the candidate's name and qualifications for membership on the Board and should be addressed to: Nominating Committee, Attention: Secretary, California Coastal Communities, Inc., 6 Executive Circle, Suite 250, Irvine, California 92614. Any such stockholder recommendations include the following information: (a) all information relating to such director nominee that is required to be disclosed pursuant to Regulation 14A under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (including such person's written consent to being named in the proxy statement as a nominee and to serving as a director if elected); (b) the name(s) and address(es) of the stockholder(s) making the nomination and the number of shares of the Company's Common Stock which are owned beneficially and of record by such stockholder(s); and (c) appropriate biographical information and a statement as to the qualification of the director nominee, and should be submitted in the time frame described under the caption Other Matters Submission of Proposals for 2006 Annual Meeting below.

Director Qualifications. The Nominating Committee uses a variety of criteria to evaluate the qualifications and skills necessary for members of the Board. Under these criteria, members of the Board should have the highest professional and personal ethics and values, consistent with the Company's longstanding values and standards. They should have broad experience at the policy-making level in business, real estate, finance, government, education, or public interest. They should be committed to enhancing stockholder value and should have sufficient time to carry out their duties and to provide insight and practical wisdom based on experience. Their service on other boards of public companies should be limited to a number that permits them, given their individual circumstances, to perform responsibly all director duties. Each director must represent the interests of the Company's stockholders.

Identification and Evaluation of Director Nominees. The Nominating Committee utilizes a variety of methods for identifying and evaluating nominees for director. The Nominating Committee regularly assesses the appropriate size of the Board, and whether any vacancies on the Board are expected. In the event that vacancies are anticipated, or otherwise arise, the Nominating Committee would consider various potential candidates for director. Candidates may come to the attention of the Nominating Committee through current members of the Board, professional search firms, stockholders or other persons. These candidates will be evaluated at regular or special meetings of the Nominating Committee, and may be considered at any point during the year. The Nominating Committee considers properly submitted stockholder recommendations for candidates for the Board of Directors. In evaluating such recommendations, the Nominating Committee uses the qualifications standards discussed above and seeks to achieve a balance of knowledge, experience and capability on the Board.

Strategic Planning Committee. The Strategic Planning Committee consists of Messers. Pacini and Sabin, with Mr. Sabin serving as Chairman. The Strategic Planning Committee is responsible for evaluating various business prospects and strategic alternatives for the Company. The Strategic Planning Committee met seven times during 2004.

Code of Ethics and Business Conduct was filed as Appendix B to the Proxy Statement for the Company's 2004 Annual Meeting. The Company will disclose any amendment to the Code of Ethics and Business Conduct or waiver of or departure from a provision thereof by filing a Current Report on Form 8-K with the Securities and Exchange Commission within five business days of any such occurrence.

The Compensation Committee, and its members are named below. No member of the Compensation Committee was at any time during the 2004 fiscal year or at any other time an officer or employee of the Company. No executive officer of the Company serves as a member of the board of directors or compensation committee of any entity which has one or more executive officers serving as a member of the Company's Board of Directors or Compensation Committee.

Report of the Compensation Committee

The following Compensation Committee report shall not be deemed to be soliciting material or to be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 nor incorporated by reference into any document so filed.

The Compensation Committee is responsible for determining the annual salary, short-term and long-term cash and stock incentive compensation, and other compensation of the executive leadership team and the overall compensation philosophy of the Company, including the executive officers named in the Summary Compensation Table set forth above. This report describes the policies and approach of the Committee in establishing executive compensation during 2004.

The overall objectives of the Company's compensation program are to retain the best possible executive talent, to motivate these executives to achieve the goals inherent in the Company's business strategy, to maximize the link between executive and stockholder interests through an equity based plan and to recognize individual contributions as well as overall business results.

The key elements of the Company's compensation program consist of fixed compensation in the form of base salary, and variable compensation in the forms of restricted stock grants, stock options, and annual incentive compensation. An executive officer's annual base salary represents the fixed component of their total compensation; however, variable compensation is intended to comprise a substantial portion of an executive's total compensation. In addition, while the elements of compensation described below are considered separately, the Compensation Committee takes into account the full compensation package afforded by the Company to the individual, including any pension benefits, insurance and other benefits, as well as the programs described below.

In determining the principal components of executive compensation, the Compensation Committee considers the following factors: (a) the overall competitive environment in executive compensation needed to attract, retain and motivate talented and experienced senior management; (b) Company performance, both year over year and in comparison to other companies within the real estate development industry, (c) comparative compensation studies; and (d) historical compensation levels at the Company.

The compensation philosophy adopted by the Compensation Committee also recognizes that distinctions in individual compensation levels are based on multiple factors, including (1) current level of contributions relative to peers; (2) expected future contributions to the Company; (3) past contributions to the Company; and (4) comparison to market value. The Compensation Committee also reviews the compensation levels for peer-level positions of other real estate development companies.

Base Salaries. Base salaries for executive officers are determined by evaluating the responsibilities of the position held and the experience of the individual, and by reference to the competitive marketplace for executive talent including, where appropriate, a comparison to base salaries for comparable positions at other companies, and to historical levels of salary paid by the Company and its predecessors. Salary adjustments are based on a periodic evaluation of the performance of the Company and of each executive officer, and also take into account new responsibilities as well as changes in the competitive market place. The Compensation Committee, where appropriate, also considers non-financial performance measures.

CEO Compensation. The base salary established for the Company's Chief Executive Officer, Mr. Pacini, reflects the Committee's policy to maintain a level of stability and certainty with respect to the CEO's base salary from year to year. The Committee initially set the CEO's base salary in 1998, and sought to closely align Mr. Pacini's compensation with the interests of stockholders in maximizing the value of the Company. Therefore, Mr. Pacini's compensation package was structured to have his base salary compensation play a less central role by reason of a restricted stock award of 100,000 shares in 1998 and grants of stock options for 189,996 and 75,000 shares in 1997 and 1999, respectively. The stock award and stock options are also intended to provide the principal bonus component of Mr. Pacini's total compensation. In March 2005, Mr. Pacini received a cash bonus of $125,000 in recognition of his contributions to the success of the Company's homebuilding business and the Company's profitability. The CEO's total cash compensation (base salary plus bonus) is below the average of the surveyed compensation data for similarly situated chief executive officers in the industry. Mr. Pacini holds no stock appreciation rights.

Annual Incentive Compensation Awards. The Compensation Committee evaluates whether to grant annual incentive compensation awards to the CEO based on the performance of both the Company and the CEO, while considering the objective of tying most of the CEO's variable compensation to the Company's stock performance through the granting of restricted stock and options described above. The variable compensation payable annually to the CEO is intended to consist principally of annual incentive compensation awards, based on various individual performance objectives established by the CEO and the Compensation Committee. The annual bonuses paid to the President and Senior Vice President of the Company's homebuilding subsidiary, Hearthside Homes, Inc., are based on 10% and 6%, respectively, of the after tax profits of this subsidiary. These bonuses are above the average of the surveyed compensation data for similarly situated executive officers in the industry because they are based on a formula designed to promote substantial growth of the Company's homebuilding business.

Other Incentive Compensation. Each option grant is designed to align the interests of the executive with those of the stockholders and provide each individual with a significant incentive to manage the Company from the perspective of an owner with an equity stake in the business. The number of shares subject to each option grant is based upon the executive's tenure, level of responsibility and relative position in the Company. The Compensation Committee has established certain general guidelines in making option grants to the executives in an attempt to target a fixed number of option shares based upon the individual's position with the Company and their existing holdings of options. However, the Company does not adhere strictly to these guidelines and will vary the size of the option grant made to each executive officer as it feels the circumstances warrant.

Report of the Audit Committee

The following Audit Committee report shall not be deemed to be soliciting material or to be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 nor incorporated by reference into any document so filed.

The purpose of the Audit Committee is to assist the Board in its oversight of management's conduct of the Company's financial reporting process, and is more fully described in its charter which the Audit Committee has adopted. The Audit Committee reviews its charter on an annual basis. The Audit Committee annually reviews the Nasdaq standard of independence for audit committees and at its most recent review determined that its members meet that standard.

The Audit Committee reviews the Company's accounting and financial reporting process on behalf of the Board of Directors. Management is responsible for the preparation, presentation, and integrity of the Company's financial statements, accounting and financial reporting principles, internal controls, and procedures designed to ensure compliance with accounting standards, applicable laws and regulations. The Company's independent auditors, Deloitte & Touche LLP, are responsible for performing an independent audit of the consolidated financial statements and expressing an opinion on the conformity of those financial statements with generally accepted accounting principles. In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, the Audit Committee discussed with management and the independent auditors the overall scope and plans for their respective audits. The Audit Committee met with the independent auditors, with and without management present, to discuss the results of their examinations, the evaluations of the Company's internal controls, and the overall quality of the Company's financial reporting.

The Audit Committee reviewed and discussed with management of the Company and Deloitte & Touche LLP the audited financial statements of the Company contained in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004 and management's assessment of the effectiveness of the Company's internal controls over financial reporting as of December 31, 2004.

The Audit Committee discussed with Deloitte & Touche LLP the matters required by Codification of Statements on Auditing Standards No. 61, as amended, Communication with Audit Committees. The Audit Committee also received and reviewed the written disclosures and the letter from Deloitte & Touche LLP required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 Independence Discussions with Audit Committees, currently in effect and discussed with that firm its independence from the Company and its management. The Audit Committee discussed with management of the Company and Deloitte & Touche LLP such other matters and received such assurances as the Audit Committee deemed appropriate, including consideration of whether certain non-audit services provided by Deloitte & Touche LLP to the Company in 2004 were compatible with maintaining auditor independence. The Audit Committee has determined that provision of those services is compatible with maintaining the independence of Deloitte & Touche LLP as the Company's independent auditors.

During fiscal 2004, the Audit Committee performed all of its duties and responsibilities under the applicable Audit Committee Charter. In reliance on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors, and the Board of Directors approved, the inclusion of the audited financial statements referred to above in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2004, which was filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on March 15, 2005.

Following a review of their performance and qualifications, the Audit Committee approved the reappointment of Deloitte & Touche LLP as the Company's independent auditors for fiscal year 2005.

Proposal 2

APPROVAL OF THE PROPOSED SALE OF THE 103-ACRE LOWER BENCH OF THE BOLSA CHICA MESA

On August 12, 2004, the Company's agreement to sell a 103-acre area of the Bolsa Chica Mesa known as the Lower Bench to the State's Wildlife Conservation Board (WCB) for $65 million was approved by the WCB. The Purchase and Sale Agreement and Escrow Instructions, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit A (the Agreement) is subject to the approval of the Company's stockholders, which is now being sought. [The terms of the Agreement, as amended on April , 2005, state that the outside closing date (the Closing Date) is , 2005, subject to such further extensions as the parties may mutually agree]. If the Company receives stockholder approval and a Coastal Development Permit (CDP) for the development of the Bolsa Chica Upper Bench (as described below) is issued before the Closing Date, the sale will be completed and the WCB's purchase of the property will be funded with bond proceeds authorized by voter-approved Proposition 50, which was passed in November 2002.

The Company agreed to the sale price, which is deeply discounted (as discussed below), in order to facilitate its pursuit of approval for development of its approximately 105-acre Upper Bench area on the Bolsa Chica Mesa. During negotiations with the WCB, the Company indicated that it would require Coastal Commission approval of the development plan for the Upper Bench prior to seeking stockholder approval, and the issuance of the CDP for that development plan before the Closing Date.

From time to time, the Company has received outside appraisals on the value of the Lower Bench. These appraisals have been made on a raw land basis and on an as developed basis . The range of those appraisals was $185 million on a raw land basis; and $240 million on an as developed basis. However, the ability to realize the value of an appraisal is subject to inherent risk, especially in the case of appraisals that are made on a raw land or on an as developed basis because these types of appraisals are based on speculative assumptions regarding the potential use of the land and the ability to overcome the substantial entitlement process risks associated therewith. Prior to entering into the WCB agreement, the Company engaged a real estate broker to investigate the prospects of making a raw land sale and found that, due to the substantial entitlement risks, there was no market for buyers at a price anywhere near approximating the $185 million appraisal. In addition, since the Agreement was announced, the Company has received no offers.

In addition, the Company believes that the protracted history of its and predecessor companies' attempts to entitle development on any part of the Bolsa Chica Mesa has demonstrated that many years of entitlement effort could be required and costs approximating $5 to $10 million could be incurred if development of the Lower Bench was pursued in an effort to realize all or a portion of the estimated developable value. Even if such effort was expended and such costs were incurred, there can be no assurance that the Company would be permitted to develop any portion of the Lower Bench on a timely basis. However, the Company could take legal action against the State for an unconstitutional taking of the Lower Bench, in the event it was denied a permit for economically viable development of the Lower Bench.

On April 6, 2005, the California Supreme Court heard oral arguments in the appeal of a case which held that the California Coastal Commission is illegally constituted and has no present authority to issue, condition, or deny coastal development permits. If the Supreme Court affirms the decision in Marine Forests Society v. California Coastal Commission, the authority to determine development of both the Upper and Lower Bench of the Bolsa Chica Mesa could revert to the County of Orange, until such time as the Coastal Commission is legally reconstituted. Given the County of Orange's past and present approvals of significantly more expansive development of the entire Bolsa Chica property, the Company could benefit greatly from a decision to affirm. Of course, there can be no assurance as to (i) how this case will be concluded, (ii) whether the County of Orange would act in a manner that is more favorable to the Company, or (iii) whether new litigation efforts would be pursued by the opponents to the Company's Bolsa Chica development efforts, which might prevent the Company from pursuing a more favorable development plan until such time as the Coastal Commission is reconstituted. The California Supreme Court is required by law to render its decision in this case by July 5, 2005. Therefore, we will mail a supplement to this Proxy Statement following the announcement of the Court's decision.

On April 14, 2005, the California Coastal Commission approved the Company's CDP application for a planned community consisting of 349 homes to be built on 68 acres of the Upper Bench. The Company believes that the agreement to sell the Lower Bench to the WCB was helpful in obtaining Coastal Commission approval and, therefore, justifies the discounted sales price; provided that the Company receives a CDP for the development plan approved by the Coastal Commission before the Closing Date. In addition, the Company believes that the agreement to sell the Lower Bench will be a disincentive to the filing of litigation by any opponents to development of the Upper Bench.

In view of the receipt of the requisite Coastal Commission approval for Upper Bench development and the high costs and uncertain process of Lower Bench development, the Company believes that the ability to sell the Lower Bench near-term for the $65 million sale price ($63.05 million net after commissions) is reasonable and should be approved. Even if stockholder approval is received, the sale will remain subject to receipt of the CDP for the Upper Bench development plan approved by the Coastal Commission before the Closing Date.

Therefore, the Company is asking that a majority of its stockholders, present in person or by proxy at the Annual Meeting, approve the sale of the Lower Bench as set forth below.

Stockholder Approval

Assuming the presence of a quorum, the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of Common Stock present and entitled to vote on this item at the Annual Meeting is required to approve the proposed sale through the adoption of the following resolution:

RESOLVED, that the stockholders of the Company do hereby approve the sale of the 103-acre Lower Bench of the Company's Bolsa Chica Mesa property for $65 million in the manner contemplated by the Agreement; provided, however, that the CDP for the Upper Bench development plan approved by the Coastal Commission on April 14, 2005 must have been received by the Company before the Closing Date.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR APPROVAL OF THE PROPOSED SALE THROUGH THE ADOPTION OF THE STOCKHOLDER RESOLUTION SET FORTH ABOVE.

Proposal 3

RATIFICATION OF APPOINTMENT OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors, has appointed Deloitte & Touche LLP as independent auditors for the 2005 fiscal year and hereby requests that stockholders ratify such appointment. Representatives of Deloitte & Touche LLP will not be present at the Annual Meeting.

The Board has also approved the decision to appoint Deloitte & Touche LLP based on the recommendation of the Audit Committee. Before making its recommendation to the Board, the Audit Committee carefully considered that firm's qualifications as independent auditors. This included a review of the qualifications of the engagement team, the quality control procedures the firm has established, and any issues raised by the most recent quality control review of the firm; as well as its reputation for integrity and competence in the fields of accounting and auditing. The Audit Committee's review also included matters required to be considered under the SEC's Rules on Auditor Independence, including the nature and extent of non-audit services, to ensure that they will not impair the independence of the accountants. The Audit Committee expressed its satisfaction with Deloitte & Touche LLP in all respects.

Although ratification by stockholders is not required by law, the Board has determined that it is desirable to request approval of this appointment by the stockholders. Notwithstanding its appointment, the Board, in its discretion, may appoint new independent auditors at any time during the year if the Board believes that such a change would be in the best interest of the Company and its stockholders. If the stockholders do not ratify the appointment of Deloitte & Touche LLP, the Board of Directors may reconsider its appointment.

Independent Auditor s Fees During 2004 and 2003

The Audit Committee appointed Deloitte & Touche LLP as the Company s independent auditors to audit the Company s financial statements for each of the fiscal years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003. The aggregate fees billed by and paid to Deloitte & Touche LLP include fees for the following services rendered during those fiscal years are as follows:

Financial information systems design and implementation fees	None	None
Tax Fees(3)	65,377	37,427
Other fees	None	None
	$ 244,058	$ 133,683

(1) Audit Fees: This category consists of fees for the audit of the Company s annual financial statements, review of the financial statements included in quarterly reports on Form 10-Q and services that are normally provided by the independent auditors in connection with statutory and regulatory filings or engagements for those fiscal years. This category also includes advice on audit and accounting matters that arose during, or as a result of, the audit or the review of interim financial statements, and the preparation of an annual management letter on internal control matters

(2) Audit-Related Fees: This category consists of assurance and related services by Deloitte & Touche LLP that are reasonably related to the performance of the audit or review of our financial statements and are not reported above under Audit Fees.

(3) Tax Fees: This category consists of professional services rendered by Deloitte & Touche LLP for tax compliance and tax planning. The services for the fees disclosed under this category include tax return preparation and technical tax advice.

The Audit Committee discussed these non-audit services with Deloitte & Touche LLP and determined that their provision would not impair Deloitte & Touche LLP s independence.

THE AUDIT COMMITTEE AND THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR THE RATIFICATION OF THE APPOINTMENT OF DELOITTE & TOUCHE LLP AS INDEPENDENT AUDITORS.
