Item 4. Description of Securities

On June 2, 2008, the Board of Directors (the Board ) of the Company, upon recommendation of the Compensation Committee of the Board (the Committee ), approved and adopted the Plan.

Grants of Awards are made pursuant to standard terms and conditions (the Terms and Conditions) and a standard grant letter (the Grant Letter), the forms of which were approved by the Committee to be used in connection with standard grants of Awards to the Company s employees, directors and other eligible persons, including the Company s executive officers. The Terms and Conditions and Grant Letter together constitute the Form of Award agreement for purposes of the Plan (as described below).

General. The Awards, which are granted from time to time to select participants in the Plan, including directors, officers, employees and consultants of the Company and its subsidiaries, convey the right to receive an amount in cash equal to the Appreciation, which is defined as the positive difference between the fair market value of the Award on the exercise date and the fair market value of the Award on the grant date. The fair market value of an Award on the grant date or the exercise date is equal to the closing price of one share of the Company s common stock on that date. Any Appreciation will be paid solely in cash as outlined in the Plan, the Terms and Conditions and the Grant Letter.

Awards Subject to the Plan. No shares of the Company s common stock will be issued pursuant to the Plan, and payments made under the Plan, if at all, will be made only in cash. Any Awards that expire, forfeit, are cancelled or are otherwise terminated unexercised will be returned to the Award pool and may be re-awarded under the Plan. In the event of any change in capitalization of the Company, such as a stock dividend or split, recapitalization, merger, consolidation, spin off, reorganization, combination or exchange of shares, or other similar corporate change, the Committee will make the appropriate adjustments in the number of Awards reserved under the Plan and the number of Awards with respect to any participant to prevent dilution or enlargement of an Award.

Awards granted under the Plan generally expire within 10 years of grant, subject to earlier expiration upon termination of the participant s employment with the Company. No Plan participant or other person will have any claim or right to be granted an Award, and neither the Company nor the Committee is obligated to treat Plan participants uniformly. Awards do not provide participants with any dividend, voting or other shareholder rights. The terms of the Plan in no way constitute a contract of continuing employment, and all of a participant s rights with respect to an Award (except as provided in the Plan or in the Award agreement) will generally terminate upon termination of employment or service to the Company and its subsidiaries.

Vesting of Awards. Each Award, unless otherwise determined by the Committee, will partially vest in one-third increments on each of the first three anniversaries of the date on which the Award was granted. Awards will vest fully on the earliest of the following to occur: (1) the date of a Change of Control of the Company; (2) the third anniversary of the Award s grant date, provided that the participant continues to be employed by the Company; (3) the date of the participant s death while employed by the Company; or (4) the date of the participant s Total Disability (as defined in the Plan). Unless otherwise determined by the Committee, any Award not vested on the date of the participant s termination of employment will be forfeited, and no payments will be made pursuant to the Award. For purposes of the Plan, a Change of Control will occur: (a) upon (i) commencement of a public tender offer for all or any portion of the Company s common stock, (ii) the submission of a proposal to merge, consolidate or otherwise combine with another company to the Company's shareholders for approval or (iii) the approval by the Board of any transaction or event that would constitute a change of control of the Company of a nature that would be required to be reported in response to Item 6(e) of Schedule 14A under the Exchange Act; (b) if any person or group (as used in Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act) becomes the beneficial owner of securities of the Company representing more than 30% of (i) the shares of the Company s common stock then outstanding or (ii) the combined voting power (other than in the election of directors) of all voting securities of the Company then outstanding; (c) if, during any 24 consecutive-month-period, individuals who at the beginning of such period constituted the Board (and any director whose election or nomination for election by the Company s shareholders was approved by a vote of at least two-thirds (2/3) of the directors then in office who were either directors at the beginning of the period or whose election or nomination for election was previously so approved) cease for any reason (other than death or disability) to constitute at least a majority of the Board; or (d) upon the complete liquidation of the Company or the sale or disposition by the Company of all or substantially all of the Company s assets, other than a liquidation of the Company into a wholly-owned subsidiary.

Assignment and Transfer of Awards. Awards granted under the Plan are not assignable or transferable other than by will or the laws of descent and distribution. No Award or interest or right associated with any Award will be liable for the debts, contracts or engagements of the Plan participant nor will such Award be subject to disposition by transfer, alienation, anticipation, pledge, encumbrance, assignment or such other means as specified in the Plan.

The foregoing description is qualified in its entirety by reference to the terms of the Plan, the Form of Terms and Conditions for Non-Employees, the Form of Terms and Conditions for Employees and the Form of Grant Letter, copies of which are filed as Exhibits 10.1, 10.2, 10.3 and 10.4, respectively, to the Company s Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended June 30, 2008, filed with the Commission on July 31, 2008.

Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Item 6.

As permitted by Delaware law, the Company s certificate of incorporation provides that no director will be personally liable to the Company or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability for (a) any breach of duty of loyalty to the Company or its shareholders, (b) acts or omissions not in good faith or that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (c) willful or negligent violations of certain provisions of the Delaware General Corporation Law (the DGCL ) imposing certain requirements with respect to stock repurchases, redemptions and dividends, or (d) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

The Company s certificate of incorporation and bylaws provide that the Company must indemnify its directors and executive officers and may indemnify its other officers and employees and agents to the fullest extent permitted by Delaware law. Pursuant to Section 145 of the DGCL, the Company generally has the power to indemnify its current and former directors, officers, employees and agents against expenses and liabilities that they incur in connection with any suit to which they are, or are threatened to be made, a party by reason of their serving in such positions so long as they acted in good faith and in a manner they reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Company, and with respect to any criminal action, they had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. The statute expressly provides that the power to indemnify or advance expenses authorized thereby is not exclusive of any rights granted under any bylaw, agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors, or otherwise, both as to action in such person s official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office. The Company believes that indemnification under its certificate of incorporation and bylaws covers negligence and gross negligence on the part of indemnified parties. The Company also has the power to purchase and maintain insurance for such directors and officers, and currently maintains an insurance policy which, within the limits and subject to the terms and conditions thereof, covers certain expenses and liabilities that may be incurred by directors and officers in connection with actions, suits or proceedings that may be brought against them as a result of an act or omission committed or suffered while acting as a director or officer of the Company.

The Company has entered into indemnification agreements with each of its directors and executive officers. These agreements, among other things, require the Company to indemnify such directors and executive officers for certain expenses (including attorneys fees), judgments, fines and settlement amounts incurred by any such person in any action or proceeding, including any action by the Company or in its right, arising out of such person services as a director or officer of the Company, any of its subsidiaries or any other company or enterprise to which the person provides services at the Company services.

The foregoing discussion of the Company s certificate of incorporation and bylaws and Section 145 of the DGCL is not intended to be exhaustive and is qualified in its entirety by each of those documents and that statute.

In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Company of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Company in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Company will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
