On December 18, 2008, United Therapeutics Corporation (the Company) completed the transactions contemplated by several agreements it entered into on November 14, 2008, with Eli Lilly and Company and a subsidiary (collectively, Lilly). The agreements with Lilly include a stock purchase agreement, a license agreement and a manufacturing and supply agreement, the material terms of which were summarized in the Company's current report on Form 8-K filed on November 17, 2008, which is incorporated herein by reference.

Pursuant to the stock purchase agreement, the Company sold 3,150,837 shares of its common stock to Lilly for an aggregate purchase price of $150,000,000.

The license agreement and the manufacturing and supply agreement became effective upon the completion of the sale of the Company's common stock to Lilly. Pursuant to the license agreement, Lilly granted an exclusive license to the Company for the right to develop, market, promote and commercialize tadalafil for the treatment of pulmonary hypertension in the United States and Puerto Rico. Tadalafil is also the active pharmaceutical ingredient in Cialis®, developed and marketed by Lilly for the treatment of erectile dysfunction.

The Company also made one-time payments to Lilly of $125,000,000 under the manufacturing and supply agreement and $25,000,000 under the license agreement.

The foregoing description of the stock purchase agreement, license agreement and manufacturing and supply agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the text of the agreements, copies of which are attached hereto as exhibits.
