Timing: November 23, 2009
Subject: SEC review completed for our proposed merger with Towers Perrin

As I announced previously, on Monday, November 9, 2009, the US Securities and Exchange Commission declared effective the registration statement on Form S-4 regarding our proposed merger with Towers Perrin. This is a key milestone in our progress toward holding shareholder meetings to vote on the merger and finalize the transaction that will bring together our two firms.

This milestone enabled both companies to commence mailing to shareholders a joint proxy statement/ prospectus to approve the proposed merger. The Watson Wyatt shareholder meeting is scheduled for Friday, December 18, 2009 at 10:00 a.m. Mailing of the proxy materials to Watson Wyatt shareholders commenced on November 9, 2009.

I strongly encourage those of you who do hold Watson Wyatt stock to vote. Please see the integration planning site if you have questions regarding how to vote [link to Q&A below]

Towers Perrin will also conduct its shareholder meeting on Friday, December 18, 2009 at 9:00 a.m. We anticipate knowing the outcome of both votes that day. Once both votes and meetings are completed, the transaction will be subject to any remaining regulatory approvals and closing conditions as described in the merger agreement. For example, clearance by the European Commission is still pending. After satisfying those conditions, we expect to close as soon as practicable thereafter.

I am excited about the future and firmly believe Towers Watson will be well positioned in the marketplace to deliver on the level of quality and results that our clients expect in the areas of Benefits, Risk & Financial Services and Talent and Reward. The business fit between the two companies is complementary and as we progress with integration planning, I continue to feel confident that the proposed merger with Towers Perrin will be a successful one, allowing us to more quickly achieve our strategy for growth, position us for marketplace success and increase our geographic footprint and services. I am proud to lead this effort, which I believe will create an organization that will be among the world's leading professional services firms.
