On March 22, 2010, Citi Trends, Inc. (the Company) amended its revolving credit facility in an aggregate principal amount of $20 million (of which $5 million will be available for the issuance of letters of credit) with Bank of America (the Credit Agreement) to extend the term until March 22, 2012. The Company also caused its subsidiary, Citi Trends Marketing Solutions, Inc., to be joined as a party to, and guarantor under, the Credit Agreement. The loans under the Credit Agreement are available for short-term working capital and other general corporate purposes of the Company. The Company has not yet had a need to borrow under the Credit Agreement.

The Credit Agreement is unsecured with an agreement not to pledge any of the assets of the Company and an agreement not to provide a negative pledge to any other party. Loans under the Credit Agreement shall bear interest at either (a) a rate equal to the highest of (i) the Federal Funds Rate plus 0.50%, (ii) LIBOR plus 1.0% and (iii) Bank of America's prime rate, plus an applicable margin; or (b) a rate equal to LIBOR plus an applicable margin. The applicable margin is dependent on the Company's adjusted leverage ratio and ranges from 0.75% to 1.25% for loans bearing interest at the rate described under (a) above and from 1.75% to 2.25% for loans bearing interest at the rate described under (b) above.

The Credit Agreement includes customary representations, warranties, affirmative and negative covenants and events of default (and related remedies, including acceleration and increased interest rates following an event of default). It also contains a financial covenant tied to the Company's adjusted leverage ratio.
