István Papp leaving Magyar Telekom

Budapest November 19, 2010 Magyar Telekom (Reuters: MTEL.BU and Bloomberg: MTELEKOM HB), the leading Hungarian telecommunications service provider announces that István Papp, currently Chief Officer for Business Services, will leave Magyar Telekom on the basis of a mutual agreement, effective November 30, 2010. He will be succeeded on an interim basis by Tibor Rékasi, currently the general manager of IQSYS, until a permanent successor can be named.

Today Magyar Telekom's Business Services business unit, including its subsidiaries KFKI, IQSYS, Dataplex and ISH, is Hungary's undisputed market leader in business telecommunications, systems integration and IT services. This is in great part thanks to István Papp's outstanding personal leadership, dedication and vision over the last three years. We wish him continued success in his further career said Chairman-CEO Christopher Mattheisen.
