Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(b) On October 27, 2011, the Company announced Randy Thurman's resignation from his position as the Chairman and as a member of the Board of Directors of CardioNet, Inc. (the Company) to pursue other interests. His resignation marks the end of a transition plan, which commenced in June 2010 and was designed to ensure a successful transition for incoming President and Chief Executive Officer, Joseph Capper. Mr. Thurman's resignation was not the result of any disagreement with the Company on any matter relating to the Company's operations, policies or practices. The Company also announced the appointment of Kirk Gorman to serve as Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Company. A copy of the Company's press release is included as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.

The Company is disclosing this information in accordance with Item 5.02(b) of Form 8-K.

(e) In connection with his departure, Mr. Thurman entered into a separation agreement with the Company outlining the details of his departure (the Separation Agreement). Pursuant to the Separation Agreement, Mr. Thurman resigned as Chairman and Director of the Company, effective October 25, 2011. The Separation Agreement provides that the Company shall accelerate the vesting of approximately 222,705 unvested restricted stock units (RSUs) that were previously awarded to Mr. Thurman during his tenure with the Company. Mr. Thurman will receive his Non-Employee Director Retainer through December 31, 2011.

In consideration for the acceleration of such RSUs described herein, Mr. Thurman has released the Company from and against any and all claims he may have against it. The foregoing description does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Separation Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit 99.2.
