Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

As previously disclosed, on June 6, 2018, Athersys, Inc. (we or the Company), its wholly-owned subsidiary, ABT Holding Company (together with the Company, Athersys), and HEALIOS K.K. (Healios) entered into a Collaboration Expansion Agreement (the Collaboration Expansion Agreement). Under the Collaboration Expansion Agreement, Athersys granted to Healios an exclusive right of first negotiation through September 1, 2018 (the ROFN Period) with respect to an option for, among other things, an exclusive license in China to use MultiStem products for the treatment of one or more of ischemic stroke, acute respiratory distress syndrome, and either trauma or an alternative indication mutually agreed upon. On August 31, 2018, Athersys and Healios amended the Collaboration Expansion Agreement to extend the ROFN Period through December 6, 2018, and on December 6, 2018, the ROFN Period was further extended to December 14, 2018.

On December 14, 2018, the ROFN Period was extended to June 30, 2019 in exchange for a $2.0 million payment from Healios. Furthermore, Healios may make an additional payment of $3.0 million to extend the ROFN Period for another six months through December 31, 2019. All such extension payments would be creditable against the option fee payable by Healios upon execution of the China option agreement, if applicable. Additionally, Healios may, at its election by notice to Athersys, apply the extension payment amounts as credits against any regulatory approval or commercial milestones for any licensed program, subject to certain limitations.

In addition to the $10 million initial payment made in June 2018 in accordance with the Collaboration Expansion Agreement, the first three $2.5 million installment payments have been received by Athersys from Healios, comprising $17.5 million of the $20 million license fee previously agreed to. The final $2.5 million installment is due on March 1, 2019.
