Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Acentia Acquisition

On March 6, 2015, MAXIMUS Federal Services, Inc. (MAXIMUS Federal), a wholly-owned subsidiary of MAXIMUS, Inc. (the Company) entered into a definitive Equity Purchase Agreement (Purchase Agreement) to acquire 100% of the outstanding Class A units of Acentia, LLC (Acentia) from certain equityholders of Acentia (the Sellers), subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions set forth in the Purchase Agreement. The Company is a guarantor of the obligations of MAXIMUS Federal under the Purchase Agreement. Upon consummation of the acquisition under the Purchase Agreement (the Acquisition), Acentia and Acentia's sixteen wholly-owned subsidiaries will become direct and indirect wholly-owned subsidiaries of the Company. The Acquisition is anticipated to close in the Company's third fiscal quarter.

At the closing of the Acquisition, the Company will pay to the Sellers, in consideration for all of the outstanding Class A units of Acentia, a cash purchase price of $300 million reduced by (i) the amount of Acentia's indebtedness, (ii) an amount to redeem certain preferred units of Acentia, (iii) an amount to cover certain Acentia transaction expenses and (iv) an amount to make certain bonus payments to certain Acentia employees. The purchase price is also subject to adjustment based on Acentia's closing date working capital and other balance sheet items.

The Company will fund the purchase price and the costs and expenses of the Acquisition through cash on hand and funds available for borrowing under the Credit Agreement described below under the caption Amendment to Credit Agreement.

Neither the Purchase Agreement nor the completion of the Acquisition is subject to the approval of the Company's shareholders. The completion of the Acquisition is subject to certain conditions, including among others, (i) the representations and warranties made by the parties in the Purchase Agreement being true and correct except, generally, where such failure to be true and correct has not had or would not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on such party, (ii) the parties' compliance, in all material respects, with their respective obligations under the Purchase Agreement, (iii) the expiration or termination of any waiting periods under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, (iv) the absence of a lawsuit or claim by a governmental authority enjoining or prohibiting the Acquisition, (v) the absence of a material adverse effect on Acentia and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, (vi) the delivery of audited financial statements for Acentia and its subsidiaries with respect to the year ended December 31, 2014 and (vii) the binding of a buyer's representations and warranties insurance policy.

The Purchase Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and covenants by the parties. During the period between the date of the Purchase Agreement and the closing of the Acquisition, the Purchase Agreement provides that, among other undertakings, Acentia and its subsidiaries will conduct their business in the ordinary course and consistent with past practice.

As security for the indemnification obligations of the Sellers, $3 million of the purchase price will be held by a third party escrow agent and a buyer's representations and warranties insurance policy with limits of $19.5 million will be put in place at closing. MAXIMUS Federal also will have the right to make claims for indemnifiable matters directly against the Sellers, on a several basis, in certain limited circumstances and subject to certain limitations.

The Purchase Agreement contains termination rights for both MAXIMUS Federal and the Sellers, including that either party may terminate the Agreement if the Acquisition has not closed by May 20, 2015.

The foregoing description of the Purchase Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby is not complete and is subject and qualified in its entirety by reference to the text of the Purchase Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 to this report and incorporated by reference in this Item 1.01. The representations and warranties of the parties in the Purchase Agreement have been made solely for the benefit of the other parties to the Purchase Agreement, and were not intended to be, and should not be, relied upon by any person other than such parties, including shareholders of the Company; should not be treated as categorical statements of fact, but rather as a way of allocating risk between the parties; in some cases have been qualified by disclosures that were made to the other parties in connection with the negotiation of the Purchase Agreement, which disclosures are not necessarily reflected in the Purchase Agreement; may apply standards of materiality in a way that may differ from standards of materiality applied by investors; and were made only as of the date of the Purchase Agreement or as of such other date or dates as may be specified in the Purchase Agreement, and are subject to developments occurring after those dates.

Amendment to Credit Agreement

On March 9, 2015, the Company entered into an amendment (the Amendment) to its unsecured five-year revolving credit agreement (the Credit Agreement), as amended by the Amendment, the Amended Credit Agreement) with SunTrust Robinson Humphrey, Inc. and Bank of America, N.A. as Joint Lead Arrangers, HSBC Bank USA, N.A. and TD Bank, N.A. as Documentation Agents and SunTrust Bank as Administrative Agent. The Amended Credit Agreement provides for a revolving line of credit up to $400 million and, subject to customary conditions, an uncommitted $200 million increase option. The facility is available for general corporate purposes, including working capital expenses, capital expenditures and certain permitted acquisitions. The arrangement terminates on the fifth anniversary of the entry into the Amendment, at which time all outstanding borrowings must be repaid.

The interest rates under the Amended Credit Agreement are floating rates that, at the Company's option, equal a base rate, a Eurodollar rate or an index rate plus, in each case, an applicable percentage based upon the Company's total leverage ratio. The Amended Credit Agreement requires the Company to comply with certain financial covenants including a maximum total leverage ratio and a minimum fixed charge coverage ratio. The Amended Credit Agreement contains customary restrictions on liens, sales of assets, agreements containing certain restrictions, affiliate transactions and other customary restrictive covenants. In the event that the Company's total leverage ratio equals or exceeds 2.5:1.0, the Amended Credit Agreement also includes restrictions or limits on our ability to guarantee or incur additional indebtedness, make loans or investments, declare dividends and buy back common stock.
