Item 2.02. Results of Operations and Financial Condition.

On July 29, 2015, Support.com, Inc. (the “Company”) issued the press release attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 announcing its results of operations for the second quarter of 2015.

The information contained in this Current Report on Form 8-K and Exhibit 99.1 hereto shall not be deemed “filed” for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the “Exchange Act”) or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that section, nor shall it be deemed incorporated by reference to any filing under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Exchange Act, except as expressly set forth by specific reference in such filing.

This release contains “forward-looking statements” as defined under the U.S. federal securities laws, including the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, and is subject to the safe harbors created by such laws. Forward-looking statements include, for example, all statements relating to expected financial performance (including without limitation statements involving growth and projections of revenue, margin, income (loss) from continuing operations, income (loss) per share from continuing operations, cash usage or generation, cash balance, capital structure and other financial items); the plans and objectives of management for future operations, customer relationships, products, services or investments; personnel matters; and future performance in economic and other terms. Such forward-looking statements are based on current expectations that involve a number of uncertainties and risks that may cause actual events or results to differ materially including, among others, our ability to retain and grow major programs, our ability to expand and diversify our customer base, our ability to market and sell our Nexus “Software-as-a-Service” offering, our ability to maintain and grow revenue, our ability to successfully develop new products and services, our ability to manage our workforce, our ability to operate in markets that are subject to extensive regulations, such as support for home security systems, and our ability to control expenses and achieve desired margins. These and other risks may be detailed from time to time in Support.com’s periodic reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including, but not limited to, its latest Annual Report on Form 10-K and its latest Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, copies of which may be obtained from www.sec.gov. Support.com assumes no obligation to update its forward-looking statements.

Item 2.06. Material Impairments.

On July 27, 2015, in connection with the preparation and review of the Company’s financial statements for the second quarter of 2015, management determined the Company will incur a non-cash goodwill impairment charge of approximately $14.2 million, representing a full write down of the Company’s goodwill as of June 30, 2015 based on various quantitative and qualitative factors, which included, among others, the continuing decline in Company’s market capitalization. This non-cash goodwill impairment charge is reflected in the second quarter 2015 reconciliation of GAAP financial results to non-GAAP financial measures included in Exhibit 99.1 of this report and will also be included as part of the Company’s Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2015. The impairment charge is non-cash in nature and does not affect the Company’s current or future liquidity.

Item 9.01. Financial Statements and Exhibits.
