SECTION 1 REGISTRANT'S BUSINESS AND OPERATIONS

Item 1.01.

Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

(a) On August 11, 2006, we entered into a loan and security agreement with Capital Growth Asset Based Bridge Loan Fund II, LLC. The revolving line of credit is advanced against eligible inventory subject to an overall maximum outstanding balance of $2 million dollars; provided that the initial advance is not greater than $908,000 and future advances or re-advances are subject to the lender's availability of funds. Costs associated with the loan include an annual facility fee of $30,000 and interest at 18% per annum. Security for this agreement includes all inventory and all accounts receivable, subject to the security interest granted to the factor of our accounts receivable. Additional costs associated with this agreement include 0.5% per month of the outstanding loan value as a fee for the monitoring of the inventory levels and a cost of 0.75% of cash receipts that flow through the lock box arrangement and are not included in the factoring agreement. The entire principal balance of the loan is due and payable on August 1, 2007. If we repay the entire principal balance prior to this date, we will be required to pay a prepayment penalty of (a) if the prepayment occurs during the first four months of the term, $15,000 per month for each month remaining in the initial four months of the term plus $50,000; (b) if the prepayment occurs during the second four months of the term, $7,500 per month for each month remaining in the second four months of the term plus $20,000; and (c) if the prepayment occurs during the final four months of the term, $5,000 per month for each month remaining in the term.

This description of the loan and security agreement, and the related revolving credit promissory note, is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full agreements, which are filed as exhibits to this report.

(b) In connection with entering into the loan and security agreement described above, we also entered into an amendment to the purchase and sale agreement, dated May 12, 2006, between Prestige Capital Corporation and SLS International, Inc. Pursuant to the amended purchase and sale agreement, Prestige acts as a collection and lockbox agent for SLS and agrees to forward all funds collected by Prestige on our accounts receivable within 72 hours of receipt, and we agreed to pay Prestige an administrative fee of 0.75% on all collections on non-factored accounts receivable.

This description of the amendment agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full agreement, which is filed as an exhibit to this report.
