BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND COMMITTEES

Meetings of the Board of Directors are held monthly and as needed. The Board of Directors held fourteen (14) meetings in the year ended December 31, 2010. The Company's policy is that all Directors make every effort to attend each meeting. For the year ended December 31, 2010, each of the Company's Directors attended at least 75% of the aggregate of the total number of meetings of Board of Directors and the total number of meetings of committees on which the respective Directors served.

A majority of the Board consists of individuals who are "independent" under the Nasdaq listing standards. Mr. Matteo, who serves as the Chairman, President and CEO is not independent. Shareholders wishing to communicate directly with the independent members of the Board of Directors may send correspondence to Cornerstone Financial Corporation, attn: Chair of Audit Committee, 6000 Midlantic Drive, Suite 120S, Mount Laurel, New Jersey 08054.

DIVERSITY

The entire Board of Directors of the Company is engaged in determining the appropriate skills and characteristics required of board members in the context of the current make-up of the Board. When we have an opening on the Board, we will always look at a diverse pool of candidates. The assessment of the Board's characteristics includes diversity, skills, such as an understanding of financial statements and financial reporting systems, and an understanding of our market area. We view and define diversity in its broadest sense, which includes gender, ethnicity, education, experience and leadership qualities.

BOARD LEADERSHIP

The Board of Directors has appointed Mr. Matteo as both the Company's chief executive officer and chairman of the board. The Board believes that the combination of these two roles provides more consistent communication and coordination throughout the organization, which results in a more effective and efficient implementation of corporate strategy, and is important in unifying the Company's strategy behind a single vision.

RISK OVERSIGHT

Risk is an inherent part of the business of banking. Risks faced by the Company include credit risk relating to its loans and interest rate risk related to its entire balance sheet. The Board of Directors oversees these risks through the adoption of policies and by delegating oversight to certain Board committees, including the audit committee. The Board exercises oversight by establishing a corporate environment that promotes timely and effective disclosure, fiscal accountability and compliance with all applicable laws and regulations.

CODE OF BUSINESS CONDUCT AND ETHICS

The Board of Directors has adopted a Code of Business Conduct and Ethics governing the Company's CEO and senior financial officers, as required by the Sarbanes-Oxley Act and SEC regulations, as well as the Board of Directors and other senior members of management. Our Code of Business Conduct governs such matters as conflicts of interest, use of corporate opportunity, confidentiality, compliance with law and the like. Our Code of Business Ethics is available on our website at <http://www.cornerstonebanknj.com/>

Edgar Filing: Cornerstone Financial Corp - Form DEF 14A

7

COMMITTEES

The Board of Directors has an Audit Committee and a Compensation Committee.

AUDIT COMMITTEE. The Audit Committee is responsible for the selection and recommendation of the independent accounting firm for the annual audit and to establish, and oversee adherence to, a system of internal controls. It reviews and accepts the reports of the Company's independent auditors and federal examiners. In 2010, the Audit Committee consisted of Directors Paparone (Chair), Carnall, Barrett, Giordano, Groody and Kennedy. Director Groody resigned from the Board of Directors and from the Audit Committee on January 19, 2011. The audit committee does not currently have any member qualifying as an "audit committee financial expert" as that term is defined in SEC Regulation S-K Item 407(d)(5). The board believes that all members of the audit committee are financially literate and experienced in business matters. Like many small companies, it is not easy for the company to attract and retain competent and diligent board members, and competition for individuals qualifying as "audit committee financial experts" is significant. The board believes that the current audit committee is able to fulfill its role under SEC regulations despite not having a designated "audit committee financial expert". The Audit Committee has adopted a written charter, which is available at <http://www.cornerstonebanknj.com>.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE. In 2010, the Compensation Committee consisted of Directors Carnall (Chair), Barrett, Giordano, Murphy, Kennedy and Baiada. Each member of the Compensation Committee is independent, as such term is defined in the Nasdaq listing standards. The purpose of the Compensation Committee is to review senior management's performance and determine compensation, and review and set guidelines for compensation of all employees. The Compensation Committee does not delegate its authority regarding compensation. Mr. Matteo, our CEO, provides input to the Committee regarding the compensation of our executive officers. Currently, no consultants are engaged or used by the Compensation Committee for purposes of determining or recommending compensation. In 2010, the Compensation Committee met four (4) times. The Compensation Committee does not have a written charter.

NOMINATION OF DIRECTORS. The Board of Directors does not have a standing nominating committee and the entire Board of Directors performs the function of a nominating committee to select persons to be nominated to serve as directors of the Company, and to fill vacancies as necessary. In connection with nominations, the full Board of Directors met four (4) times during 2010 to discuss nominations.

Because of the moderate size of the Board of Directors and the high proportion of directors who are independent, the Board of Directors believes that it is appropriate for the full Board of Directors to continue to perform the function of a nominating committee and that a standing nominating committee is not necessary. As there is no nominating committee, the Board of Directors does not have a charter addressing the director nomination process.

If a need for new directors should arise in the future, the Board of Directors would likely ask incumbent directors to identify potential candidates. To date, the Company has not engaged a third party to identify or assist in identifying or evaluating potential nominees. Pursuant to our Bylaws, the Board of Directors is required to provide written nominations for director to our Secretary at least thirty days prior to the date of the meeting at which directors are to be elected. The Board of Directors would consider recommendations for director nominations by shareholders that are received a reasonable time prior to such thirty day period and that include the name, age, address, principal occupation, prior business experience and background of the recommended individual and a written consent executed by the recommended individual stating that he or she desires to be considered as a nominee and, if elected, that he or she will serve as a director.

The Board of Directors will generally consider nominees for director recommended by shareholders in the same manner, and based on the same criteria, that the Board considers nominees for director recommended by members of the Board of Directors, by outside consultants or by other individuals or groups. However, the knowledge of one or more directors concerning a nominee may be a factor and members of the Board of Directors may have certain insights into the dynamics and chemistry of the Board of Directors that they may consider when evaluating any recommended candidate for director.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

The Audit Committee meets periodically to consider the adequacy of the Company's financial controls and the objectivity of its financial reporting. The Audit Committee meets with the Company's independent auditors and the Company's internal auditor, both of whom have unrestricted access to the Audit Committee.

In connection with this year's financial statements, the Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed the Company's audited financial statements with the Company's officers and KPMG, our independent auditors. We have discussed with KPMG the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, ("Communication with Audit Committees"). We also have received the written disclosures and letters from KPMG required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 ("Independence Discussions with Audit Committees"), and have discussed with representatives of KPMG their independence.

Based on these reviews and discussions, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on form 10-K for the fiscal year 2010 for filing with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.

prior to the anniversary date of the then-current term, or (ii) the Agreement is terminated earlier in accordance with the termination provisions in the Agreement.

We may terminate Mr. Matteo's employment "without Cause" (as such term is defined in the Agreement) upon giving thirty (30) days prior written notice to Mr. Matteo. Additionally, Mr. Matteo may resign for "Good Reason" (as such term is described below and more fully defined in the Agreement) upon giving written notice to us within forty-five (45) days after the event constituting Good Reason, provided that we have not cured such action constituting Good Reason within thirty (30) days after the event. For purposes of the Agreement, "Good Reason" includes, among other things, a reduction in title, authority, status or base salary, our failure to provide comparable benefits upon a Change in Control, or breach by us of a material provision of the Agreement. If Mr. Matteo resigns without Good Reason, he will be bound by a one year covenant not to compete with us, and a one year non-solicitation covenant with regard to our customers and employees.

D'ORAZIO EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT.

On July 16, 2009, we entered into an employment agreement with Eugene D. D'Orazio, our Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer. Under the Agreement, Mr. D'Orazio receives an annual base salary as determined from time to time by the Board. For purposes of the Agreement, "Good Reason" includes, among other things, a reduction in title, authority, status or base salary (except for a reduction not to exceed 10% applied equally to all executive vice presidents), our failure to provide comparable benefits upon a Change in Control, or breach by us of a material provision of the Agreement. Following termination, Mr. D'Orazio will be bound by a one year non-solicitation covenant with regard to our customers and employees, and a covenant not-to-compete, which will be for a period of one (1) year if termination is following a change-in-control, or otherwise for sixty (60) days.

If Mr. D'Orazio is terminated by us without Cause or resigns for Good Reason, and provided that he executed a Release, as such term is defined in the Agreement, he will be entitled to receive for the remaining term of the Agreement, but in no event greater than twelve (12) months nor less than (3) months, his base salary as of the termination of his employment (or prior to any reduction thereof preceding termination of employment), and (ii) medical insurance during the same time period, or if the Company is unable to provide such benefits, a dollar amount that will equal the after tax cost of obtaining such benefits. In addition if a change of control occurs and a change of control payment is provided to Mr. D'Orazio pursuant to the terms of the employment agreement and if the Internal Revenue Service finds that such payment constitutes an "excess parachute payment" within the meaning of Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, the Company will decrease such payment by the minimum amount necessary to result in no portion of the payments and benefits being non-deductible pursuant to section 280G of the Code.

WINCHESTER EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT.

On February 15, 1999, The Cornerstone Formation Group, LLC, the predecessor entity to the Bank and the Company, entered into an employment agreement with Keith Winchester to serve initially as a consultant prior to the opening of the Bank. Since the opening of the Bank, and pursuant to the terms of the Agreement, Mr. Winchester has served as an Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer. Under the Agreement, Mr. Winchester's annual base salary is determined from time to time by the Board. Mr. Winchester is eligible to participate in a bonus plan implemented by us. Under the Agreement, we also provide Mr. Winchester with certain fringe benefits, including an automobile allowance. The term of the Agreement shall continue until such time as Mr. Winchester's employment is terminated by written notice at least 30, but no more than 60, days prior to such termination, and otherwise in accordance with the Agreement.

We may terminate Mr. Winchester's employment "without Cause" (as such term is defined in the Agreement) upon giving no less than thirty (30) and no more than sixty (60) days prior written notice to Mr. Winchester. Additionally, Mr. Winchester may resign for "Good Reason" (as such term is described below and more fully defined in the Agreement) upon giving written notice to us after the event constituting Good Reason. For purposes of the Agreement, "Good Reason" includes, among other things, a reduction in title, position, duties, or base salary, or breach by us of a material provision of the Agreement.

If Mr. Winchester is terminated by us without Cause or resigns for Good Reason, or following a Change in Control, he will be entitled to receive for a period of one year from the date of termination of employment his base salary as of the termination of his employment (or prior to any reduction thereof preceding termination of employment) and uninterrupted health insurance coverage substantially comparable to that which was in effect at the time of termination. In addition, if a termination or change of control occurs and the payment is provided to Mr. Winchester pursuant to the terms of the employment agreement and if the Internal Revenue Service finds that such payment constitutes an "excess parachute payment" within the meaning of Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, the Company will reduce such payment to an amount one ($1) dollar less than the amount that is fully deductible for Federal tax purposes by the Company.

In addition if a change of control occurs and a change of control payment is provided to Mr. Matteo pursuant to the terms of the employment agreement and if the Internal Revenue Service finds that such payment constitutes an "excess parachute payment" within the meaning of Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, the Company will increase such change of control payment to place Mr. Matteo in his original after tax position.

Should a "Change in Control" (as defined in the Agreement) occur prior to the time when all of Mr. Matteo's non-qualified stock options have vested, such unvested options shall immediately vest upon such Change in Control.

Our directors are not compensated for service on the Company's Board of Directors. We do compensate our directors for service on the Bank's Board of Directors. For each regular meeting attended in person, the Vice Chairman receives $400 and each other non-management director receives $300. The per meeting attendance fees are paid on a quarterly basis, unless the Director elects to participate in the Directors' Fee Deferral and Death Benefit Plan described below. We also pay board directors for their service on various board committees. Directors are reimbursed for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with attendance at meetings of the Board of Directors and committees of the Board of Directors.

In addition, we adopted, effective January 1, 2006, a Directors' Fee Deferral and Death Benefit Plan ("Director Plan"), which allows each non-employee director to elect to defer receipt of payment of some or all of his or her director fees into an unfunded Plan Deferral Account. All directors other than Mr. Carnell and Ms. Barrett elected to defer their director fees in 2010. Pursuant to the prior election of each director participating in the Director Plan, at the end of each calendar year each director's Plan Deferral Account balance will be adjusted to reflect an earnings adjustment calculated as if the amount in the Plan Deferral Account were invested in either (1) an interest bearing account earning interest at the prime rate determined by the Board from time to time, or (2) our common stock. Under the Director Plan, the designated beneficiary of each non-employee director will also be entitled to a death benefit of $75,000 in the event of his or her death while still serving as a director. Payment of this death benefit will be funded solely by one or more life insurance contracts obtained by us on the life of each participant. Accordingly, if a life insurance policy is not obtained then there will be no death benefit, or if a life insurance policy is obtained in an amount less than $75,000, then the amount of the death benefit payable shall be limited to the amount of proceeds paid under any such life insurance policy. The death benefit under the Director Plan is not a vested benefit and may be terminated at any time by amendment to the Director Plan.

TRANSACTIONS WITH MANAGEMENT

We expect to engage in banking transactions in the ordinary course of business with our shareholders, Directors and employees and their affiliates, including members of their families or corporations, partnerships or other organizations in which such shareholders, Directors and employees have a controlling interest, on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral on loans, as those prevailing at the same time for comparable transactions with others.
