The Audit Committee does not include a financial expert as defined by the Sarbanes Oxley Act of 2002 and the Company has not named a financial expert because the Board of Directors has determined the financial acumen of each member of the Audit Committee to be very strong and capable of satisfactorily discharging their duties and responsibilities to the Board of Directors and the shareholders.

Long-Term Equity Stock Award

In 2004, the Board of Directors adopted and the shareholders approved the Colony Bankcorp, Inc. 2004 Restricted Stock Grant Plan. The plan enables our Board of Directors, or a committee thereof, to grant up to 143,500 shares of Colony Bankcorp, Inc. common stock to key officers and employees of Colony Bankcorp, Inc. and our subsidiaries. The purpose of this plan is to attract, retain and develop strong management as the Company continues to expand, and to induce key individuals who render services that contribute materially to our success to remain with us for the long-term. Shares granted vest over a three year period. During the three year vesting period and under conditions set forth in Colony Bankcorp Inc.'s 2004 Restricted Stock Grant Plan, the shares are subject to forfeiture. In the event of a change in control of the Company, as defined in the Plan, all unvested stock grants immediately become fully vested.

The Restricted Stock Grant Plan assists the Company to:

- enhance the link between the creation of stockholder value and long-term executive incentive compensation;
- provide an opportunity for increased equity ownership by executives; and
- maintain competitive levels of total compensation.

The Compensation Committee (the "Committee") recommended for the Board of Director's approval stock grant awards to be awarded for fiscal year 2009. Factors considered by the Committee in awarding stock grants were based on the overall performance of the Company and the executive officer's contribution in carrying out and meeting Company initiatives. The primary focus of the Committee is to retain key individuals and to increase equity ownership by executives with the stock grant awards. The compensation committee is motivated to keep our executive compensation packages competitive with peer companies. The compensation committee reviews, at least annually, the peer company disclosures regarding executive compensation in order to ensure that our overall compensation package compares favorably. One of the areas monitored is stock option plans or in our case a stock grant award plan. The CEO works daily with executive officers and top level officers and offers his input each year as to recommendations for stock awards based on the executive officers and top level officers' production and performance to the overall company strategy. The recommendation is for named executives other than himself and the CFO. Stock awards for the CEO and CFO are determined and set by the compensation committee, while awards for the other named executive officers and top level officers are considered upon the recommendation of the CEO. The CEO makes no recommendations in regard to his compensation. It was deemed prudent by the compensation committee to grant 2009 stock grant awards based upon the efforts of company management in their movement toward solidification of the consolidation efforts that became a company priority when the merger of the Company was approved on August 1, 2008.

Each of the named executive officers and top-level officers for the fiscal year end December 31, 2009 received the following stock grant awards in January 2009:

Name	# of Shares	Stock Award Value
Al D. Ross	3,000	$24,075
Terry L. Hester	1,000	8,025
Walter P. Patten	600	4,815
Larry E. Stevenson	600	4,815
Henry F. Brown, Jr.	500	4,013
Steve Wood	1,500	12,038

Colony Bankcorp, Inc. 401(k) Plan

The Company has adopted a 401(k) Plan which provides for the Board of Directors to make a discretionary contribution to the 401(k) Plan out of profits in an amount not to exceed 10 percent of the total annual eligible compensation of the employees eligible to participate in the plan. Employees are eligible for a Company contribution after completion of one year of service. The contribution by the Company is allocated among the participants based on participant's total eligible compensation. The employee's interest vests over a period of six years.

The Committee recommended for the Board of Director's approval that no contribution be made for fiscal year 2009. The Committee based their recommendation to not make a company contribution on the decrease in net income from $2.0 million in 2008 to a net loss of $20.5 million in 2009. Though no company contribution was paid in 2009, employees will receive their allocation portion of funds in a forfeiture account in which terminated employees had an unvested balance in their account.

Each of the named executive officers for fiscal year ended December 31, 2009 received the following 401(k) Plan allocation of terminated employees unvested balances:

Name	Amount
Al D. Ross	$ 844
Terry L. Hester	588
Walter P. Patten	596
Larry E. Stevenson	527
Henry F. Brown, Jr.	372
Steve Wood	N/A

Allocations credited to named executive officers' 401(k) accounts for fiscal year ended December 31, 2009 are included in the 2009 Summary Compensation Table. These allocations will be credited to the 401(k) accounts in March, 2010.

Perquisites and Other Personal Benefits

The Company provides named executive officers with perquisites and other personal benefits that the Company and the Committee believe are reasonable and consistent with its overall compensation program to better enable the Company to attract and retain superior employees for key positions. The Committee periodically reviews the levels of perquisites and other personal benefits provided to named executive officers.

The named executive officers are provided use of company automobiles, membership in country clubs, term life insurance coverage, director fees and dividend income as part of their perquisites and other benefits. Detailed below is an analysis of 2009 perquisites and other benefits for fiscal year ended December 31, 2009.

Name	Company Vehicle		Term Life Insurance		Country Club Membership	Director Fees	Dividend Income
Al D. Ross	$2,909	(1)	$384	(2)	$ 1,344	$30,100	$1,853

Henry F. Brown, Jr.	--		107	(2)	--	--	146
Steve Wood	345	(1)	224	(2)	--	--	146

(1) This represents dollar value as calculated in accordance with IRS guidelines on personal use of company automobile provided to named executive officers.

(2) This represents dollar value as calculated in accordance with IRS guidelines on term life insurance provided to named executive officers.

Perquisites and other personal benefits for fiscal year ended December 31, 2009 are included in column (i) of the 2009 Summary Compensation Table above.

The Committee takes into consideration the overall compensation package in making their decisions regarding the various elements of the package. The Committee views the most significant elements of the compensation package to be base salary, performance-based cash incentive payout, stock grant awards and the profit sharing contribution. Perquisites and other personal benefits are common place for executives in the banking industry and compare favorably to other peer companies. The Committee determined that the Company's executive compensation is competitive with the peer companies.

Effect of U.S. Treasury Department Capital Purchase Program

On December 4, 2008, Colony Bankcorp, Inc. received preliminary approval for participation in the U.S. Treasury Capital Program ("CPP"), and on January 9, 2009 Colony consummated the sale of $28,000,000 in preferred stock and related warrants to the U.S. Treasury Department ("Treasury"). Participation in CPP requires certain compensation standards that apply to the chief executive officer, chief financial officer, plus the next three most highly compensated executive officers. These standards include:

- ensuring that incentive compensation for senior executives does not encourage unnecessary and excessive risks that threaten the value of the financial institution;
- requiring claw back of any bonus or incentive compensation paid to a senior executive based on statements of earnings, gains, or other criteria that are later proven to be materially inaccurate;
- prohibiting the financial institution from making any golden parachute payment (based on the Internal Code provision) to a senior executive; and
- agreeing not to deduct for tax purposes executive compensation in excess of $500,000 for each senior executive.

The Committee reviewed these standards and assessed being compliant with the CPP standards set forth. No modifications were immediately necessary to the compensation programs other than requiring each Named Executive Officer ("NEO") to sign a waiver to incorporate the required claw back provisions.

Effect of Treasury Department Guidelines Announced February 4, 2009

On February 4, 2009, the Treasury announced executive compensation guidelines (the “Treasury Guidelines”). The Treasury Guidelines contain expansive new restrictions on executive compensation for financial institutions and other companies participating in the CPP. The Treasury Guidelines generally continue the existing restrictions under EESA and add substantially to them in several areas. Among other things, the Treasury Guidelines contemplate an absolute $500,000 annual compensation limit for senior executives. The Treasury Guidelines do not define which executives would be subject to this limit, but do clarify that such limit would not apply to CPP participants unless they further participated in an exceptional assistance program or further participated in a generally available capital access program.

However, the Treasury Guidelines are general in nature and appear to contemplate new rule making by Treasury before they become effective. Further, many, but not all of the elements of the Treasury Guidelines were incorporated into ARRA, discussed below.

Effect of the America Reinvestment and Recovery Act of 2009

On February 17, 2009, President Obama signed into law the America Reinvestment and Recovery Act of 2009 (“ARRA”). ARRA contains expansive new restrictions on executive compensation for financial institutions and other companies participating in the CPP. These restrictions apply to us. ARRA amends the executive compensation and corporate governance provisions of EESA. In doing so it continues all the same compensation and governance restrictions and adds substantially to the restrictions in several areas. ARRA implements many, but not all, of the restrictions in the Treasury Guidelines and in several instances goes beyond these.

Some key features of the new executive compensation restrictions in ARRA are described below.

ARRA prohibits bonus and similar payments to top employees. ARRA prohibits the payment of any “bonus, retention award, or incentive compensation” to our 5 NEOs for as long as any CPP-related obligations are outstanding. The prohibition does not apply to bonuses payable pursuant to “employment agreements” in effect prior to February 11, 2009. ARRA does not explain how to identify the most highly-compensated employees and does not define “incentive compensation.” The Treasury Guidelines do not contain a similar limit on bonuses. Instead, the Treasury Guidelines impose a $500,000 annual compensation cap for a company’s senior executive officers, but allow the cap to be waived for all companies other than those receiving “exceptional” assistance. We do not have any NEOs for whom this cap would be applicable.

Limited amount of restricted stock excluded from bonus prohibition. “Longterm” restricted stock is excluded from ARRA’s bonus prohibition, but only to the extent the value of the stock does not exceed one-third of the total amount of annual compensation of the employee receiving the stock, the stock does not “fully vest” until after all CPP-related obligations have been satisfied, and any other conditions which the Treasury may specify have been met. The Treasury Guidelines also exempt an unlimited amount of restricted stock from the $500,000 annual compensation cap described above. Neither ARRA nor the Treasury Guidelines explain how to value various items, such as equity compensation, indirect compensation such as benefits and taxes, when assessing this limit.

Shareholder “say-on-pay” vote required. ARRA requires every company receiving CPP assistance to permit a non-binding shareholder to vote to approve the compensation of executives as disclosed in the company’s proxy statement. The Treasury Guidelines contain a similar requirement but only for companies receiving “exceptional” assistance.

Stricter restrictions on “golden parachute” payments. EESA generally limited “golden parachute” payments to senior executives to 2.99 times the executives’ base compensation. ARRA prohibits any payment to a senior executive officer or any of the next five most highly-compensated employees upon termination of employment for any reason for as long as any CPP-related obligations remain outstanding. For all companies other than companies receiving “exceptional” assistance, the Treasury Guidelines limit golden parachute payments to 1 time base compensation and only apply the limit to the senior executive officers.

Broader bonus claw back requirements. EESA required CPP-participating companies to recover any bonus or other incentive payment paid to a senior executive officer on the basis of materially inaccurate financial or other performance criteria. ARRA extends this recovery requirement to the next 20 most highly compensated employees in addition to the senior executive officers. This extension is consistent with the Treasury Guidelines.

Prohibition on compensation plans that “encourage” earnings manipulation. ARRA prohibits CPP participants from implementing any compensation plan that would encourage manipulation of the reported earnings of the company in order to enhance the compensation of any of its employees. The Treasury Guidelines do not contain a similar requirement.

Board compensation committee required. ARRA requires CPP participants to establish a board compensation committee and requires the committee to meet at least semiannually to discuss and evaluate employee compensation plans in light of an assessment of any risk to the company posed by such plans. The Treasury Guidelines do not contain a similar requirement.

New reporting and certification requirements. ARRA requires the CEO and CFO of any publicly-traded CPP-participating company to provide a written certification of compliance with the executive compensation restrictions in ARRA in the company’s annual filings with the SEC (presumably its annual report on Form 10-K or proxy statement). The Treasury Guidelines require reporting and certification as well but do not detail how the reporting and certification are to be accomplished.

Policy on luxury expenditures. ARRA requires each CPP-participating company to implement a company-wide policy regarding excessive or luxury expenditures, including excessive expenditures on entertainment or events, office and facility renovations, aviation or other transportation services. This is consistent with the Treasury Guidelines which contain a similar requirement.

Treasury review of prior payments. ARRA directs the Treasury to review bonuses, retention awards, and other compensation paid to the senior executive officers and the next 20 most highly-compensated employees of each company receiving CPP assistance before ARRA was enacted, and to “seek to negotiate” with the CPP recipient and affected employees for reimbursement if it finds any such payments were inconsistent with CPP or otherwise in conflict with the public interest.

In addition to the above requirements, ARRA adopts and continues two requirements from EESA essentially unchanged:

$500,000 annual deduction limit. Like EESA, ARRA prohibits CPP participants from deducting annual compensation paid to senior executive officers in excess of $500,000. The Treasury Guidelines, in contrast, contain the $500,000 annual compensation cap for senior executives described above (which may be waived by all companies other than those receiving “exceptional” assistance) but do not specifically address the deduction limit.

No excessive risks. Like EESA, ARRA requires the Treasury Department to implement limits on compensation that exclude incentives for senior executive officers of a CPP-participating company to take unnecessary and excessive risks that threaten the value of the company for as long as any CPP-related obligation remains outstanding. The Treasury Department implemented this directive under EESA by requiring periodic compensation committee review and certification of the risk characteristics of a company’s incentive compensation arrangements, and presumably these same review and certification requirements would apply going forward under ARRA. ARRA requires that the compensation committee perform such a review at least semi-annually.

ARRA requires both the Treasury Department and the Securities and Exchange Commission to issue rules to implement these new executive compensation restrictions.

The above restrictions imposed by ARRA implement many, but not all, of the restrictions of the Treasury Guidelines. The fact that Congress in enacting ARRA endorsed much (but not all) of the Treasury Guidelines brings into question whether the other restrictions in the Treasury Guidelines will be enacted. On the other hand, ARRA in many instances provides broad rule-making authority to both Treasury and the SEC, and any requirement of the Treasury Guidelines not enacted by Congress in ARRA might be implemented by Treasury or the SEC through their rule-making authority. As a result, until Treasury and the SEC publish their new rules, many aspects of the above restrictions will not be clear.

The Committee will consider these new limits on executive compensation and determine how they impact the Company’s executive compensation program.

DIRECTOR COMPENSATION

For fiscal year ended December 31, 2009, members of the Board (except the Chairman) received $900 for each monthly board meeting attended ($800 each month not in attendance) and $200 monthly for each committee that the director serves. Subsidiary Director Compensation

Directors of the Company also receive compensation for attending local advisory board meetings as follows:

Directors of Colony Bank receive $400 for each local advisory board meeting attended.

Colony Bank, wholly-owned subsidiary, has deferred compensation plans covering certain former directors and certain former directors and certain officers choosing to participate through individual deferred compensation contracts. In accordance with terms of the contracts, the Bank is committed to pay the directors deferred compensation over a specified number of years, beginning at age 65. In the event of a director's death before age 65, payments are made to the director's named beneficiary over a specified number of years, beginning on the first day of the month following the death of the director.

Liabilities accrued under the plans totaled $1,298,572 as of December 31, 2009. Benefit payments under the contracts were $187,655 in 2009. Provisions charged to operations totaled $361,171 while income recognized on plan assets was $173,253, thus a net loss for calendar year 2009 of $(187,918). No current directors of Colony Bankcorp, Inc. or Colony Bank participate in the deferred compensation plans.

Transactions with the Company

Loans. The Company's directors and officers from time to time have borrowed funds from the Company's subsidiary for various business and personal reasons. Such loans are made in strict compliance with state and Federal statutes and regulations of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and the Georgia Department of Banking and Finance. Such loans were made in the ordinary course of business; were made on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral, as were prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with persons not related to the lender; and did not involve more than normal risk of collectibility or present other unfavorable features.

As of December 31, 2009, certain officers, executive officers, directors, and companies in which they are an executive officer or partner or in which they have a 10% or more beneficial interest, were indebted to the bank in the aggregate amount of $6,473,238. Such loans were (1) made in the ordinary course of business; (2) were made on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral, as were prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with other persons; and (3) did not involve more than normal risk of collectibility or present other unfavorable features.

The Company and its subsidiaries utilized the services of Martin Snow, LLP during 2009. Mr. Edward J. Harrell is a director of the Company and a partner in that law firm.

Legal Proceedings

There are no "material" pending legal proceedings, other than ordinary routine litigation incidental to the business of the Company, to which the Company or its subsidiary is a party or of which any of their property is subject. Material proceedings are defined as claims for damages where the amount involved, exclusive of interest and cost, exceeds ten percent of the current assets of the Company and its subsidiary on a consolidated basis.

During the previous ten (10) years, no director, person nominated to become a director, or executive officer of the Company was the subject of a legal proceeding that is material to an evaluation of the ability or integrity of any such person.

Shareholder Communication with the Board of Directors

Our Board of Directors does not have an established written policy or process from security holders to send communications to the Board of Directors. However, it has been the practice of the Company to direct any such communications to the Chairman of the Board, who would, in his or her discretion, discuss the communications with the Board at a regular Board meeting. The Board has determined this policy and process to be satisfactory in allowing security holders to communicate directly with the Board of Directors.

The Company does not have a formal policy regarding director attendance at the Company's Annual Meeting. However, directors are encouraged to attend and all were in attendance at last year's Annual Meeting.

Colony Bankcorp, Inc. 2010 Private Placement Offering

On March 1, 2010, the Company began a private placement offering of its common stock to accredited investors under an exemption from registration contained in Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933 and Rule 506 of Regulation D of the Securities Act. The Company offered a maximum of 1,216,545 shares of its common stock at a price of $4.11 per share. The Board of Directors determined the offering price by using the average of the closing price as quoted on the NASDAQ Stock Market for the twenty days preceding the beginning the offering. No underwriters or outside salespersons were retained for the offering. All offers and sales were made by the executive officers and board members, who were not paid commissions for these services.

All of the shares available in the offering were purchased for a total of $5,000,000 less estimated offering expenses of $20,000. All of the subscriptions were accepted on March 30, 2010 and the offering was closed on that day. The Company intends to use the proceeds to increase its capital and enhance its ability to serve as a source of strength for its subsidiary bank.

Compliance with Section 16(a) of the 1934 Act

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and regulations of the SEC require our executive officers and directors and persons who beneficially own more than ten percent of any class of our equity securities, as well as certain affiliates of such persons to file initial reports of ownership of any equity securities of Colony Bankcorp and subsequent reports of changes in ownership of such securities with the SEC. Such persons also are required by SEC regulations to furnish us with copies of all Section 16(a) reports they file. Based solely on our review of the copies of such reports that we have received and written representation from such reporting persons that no other reports were required, we believe that, during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2009, all Section 16(a) filing requirements applicable to our directors and executive officers were complied within a timely manner except:

- a Form 4 for Terry Coleman related to his beneficial stock ownership held directly as of March 13, 2009 was not filed until December 29, 2009.
- a Form 4 for Terry Coleman related to his beneficial stock ownership held directly as of November 27, 2009 was not filed until December 29, 2009.

The firm of McNair, McLemore, Middlebrooks & Co., LLP, Macon, Georgia, has served as our independent accountants each year since 1995, and we consider them to be well qualified. Our Audit Committee has selected McNair, McLemore, Middlebrooks & Co., LLP, to serve as our independent accountants for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2009. Representatives of that firm will be present at the Annual Meeting and will have the opportunity to make a statement if they desire to do so. They will be available to answer your questions at that time.

During fiscal years 2008 and 2009, the Company retained its principal auditor, McNair, McLemore, Middlebrooks & Co., LLP, to provide services in the following categories and amounts:

Financial Information Systems Design and Implementation Fees. The Company did not retain its principal accountant to perform Financial Information Systems Design or Implementation services in fiscal year 2009.

Changes in and Disagreement with Accountants on Accounting and Financial Disclosure. There was no accounting or disclosure disagreement or reportable event with the current auditors that would have required the filing of a report on Form 8-K.

Proposal 2 – Approval of Advisory (non-binding) Vote On Executive Compensation

The American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 requires the Company to permit a nonbinding advisory vote on the compensation of its Named Executive Officers, as described and presented in the “Executive Compensation” section of the 2009 Proxy Statement, and the accompanying tables and narrative disclosure, during the period in which any obligation arising from the Company’s participation in the CPP remains outstanding.

This proposal, commonly known as a “say-on-pay” proposal, gives the Company’s shareholders the opportunity to endorse or not endorse our executive compensation program and policies through the following resolution:

“Resolved, that the holders of common stock of Colony Bankcorp, Inc. approve the compensation of the Company’s executives, as described in the “Executive Compensation” section of the 2010 Proxy Statement, and the accompanying executive compensation tables and related discussions.”

Because your vote is advisory, it will not be binding upon the Board of Directors. However, the Compensation Committee will take into account the outcome of the vote when considering future executive compensation.

The Board of Directors unanimously recommends a vote “FOR” this proposal.

Shareholder Proposals for Next Year’s Meeting

Shareholder proposals that are intended to be presented at our 2011 Meeting of Shareholders must be received by us no later than December 23, 2010, in order to be included in our proxy statement and related proxy materials for that meeting. Any notice of a shareholder proposal not received by us on or before March 10, 2011 will not be considered timely and will not be submitted to the shareholders at the 2011 Annual Meeting. Any such proposal must comply with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Other Matters Which May Come Before the Annual Meeting

Our Board of Directors knows of no matters other than those referred to in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting of Shareholders which may properly come before the Annual Meeting. However, if any other matter should be properly presented for consideration and voting at the Annual Meeting or any adjournments thereof, it is the intention of the persons named as proxies on the enclosed form of proxy card to vote the shares represented by all valid proxy cards in accordance with their judgment of what is in Colony Bankcorp’s best interest.

Annual Reports
