GENESIS TECHNOLOGY GROUP, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
JUNE 30, 2005
(UNAUDITED)

NOTE 1 - BASIS OF PRESENTATION AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The Company

Genesis Technology Group, Inc. (the "Company" or "Genesis") is a business development firm that specializes in assisting small and mid-sized companies in entering the Chinese market. The Company currently owns 80% of Shanghai Chorry Technology Development Company, Ltd. ("Chorry"), a company operating in China which sells computer hardware and peripherals, and 60% of Extrema, LLC. The Company derives approximately 99% of its revenues from the sale of computer hardware and peripherals. The Company's consulting services division provides business development services for small public and private companies regarding public relations, corporate financing, mergers and acquisitions, e-commerce, business operations support and marketing. The Company's strategy includes marketing itself as a resource for small and mid-sized companies in marketing, distribution, manufacturing, forming joint ventures, or establishing a base in China. The strategy envisions and promotes opportunities for synergistic business relationships among all of the companies that Genesis works with, both clients and subsidiaries.

In April 2005, the Company incorporated a new subsidiary, Genesis (Hong Kong) OEM Direct, Ltd. ('GHK'). GHK's purpose is to consolidate certain sales channels and related trading activities of the Company. Management of the Company believes that GHK will be able to leverage its position as first-tier distributor and its access to superior technology to develop and market LCD,s and LCD products. GHK is engaged in the IT products business and specializes in sale and export LCD products such as Panel PC's and LCD Monitors. The business will rely upon on its close cooperation with numerous OEMs to offer high quality LCD products at the lowest cost. Management of the Company believes that GHK will have the advantage of a direct sales network, which will bypass several layers of middlemen and trading companies, to deliver the best products at the best prices. Management believes that GHK can also accommodate Genesis clients in consummating transactions with the assistance of its banking relationship with Standard & Chartered Bank.

On May 1, 2005, the shareholders of Extrema, a Miami, Florida based company which sold computer hardware and peripherals, unanimously agreed to discontinue the operations of Extrema because of (a) the disappointing performance of Extrema including continuing operating losses; (b) the Company's lack of ability to obtain working capital loans to finance the purchase of inventory and to finance accounts receivable (See Note 4); and (c) the Company's decision to consolidate all trading and sourcing activities into its new subsidiary, GHK, located in Hong Kong.

Basis of presentation

The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements have been prepared pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"). The accompanying consolidated financial statements for the interim periods are unaudited and reflect all adjustments (consisting only of normal recurring adjustments) which are, in the opinion of management, necessary for a fair presentation of the financial position and operating results for the periods presented. The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly and partially owned subsidiaries. All significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated. These consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the financial statements for the year ended September 30, 2004 and notes thereto contained on Form 10-KSB of the Company as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The results of operations for the nine months ended June 30, 2005 are not necessarily indicative of the results for the full fiscal year ending September 30, 2005.

Net loss per share

Basic loss per share is computed by dividing net loss by weighted average number of shares of common stock outstanding during each period. Diluted loss per share is computed by dividing net loss by the weighted average number of shares of common stock, common stock equivalents and potentially dilutive securities outstanding during each period. Diluted loss per common share is not presented because it is anti-dilutive. At June 30, 2005, there were options and warrants to purchase 9,990,466 shares of common stock, which could potentially dilute future earnings per share.

Inventories

Inventories, consisting of computer equipment and accessories, are stated at the lower of cost or market utilizing the first-in, first-out method, and are located in China.

Foreign currency translation

Transactions and balances originally denominated in U.S. dollars are presented at their original amounts. Transactions and balances in other currencies are converted into U.S. dollars in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 52, "Foreign Currency Translation," and are included in determining net income or loss.

JUNE 30, 2005
(UNAUDITED)

For foreign operations with the local currency as the functional currency, assets and liabilities are translated from the local currencies into U.S. dollars at the exchange rate prevailing at the balance sheet date. Revenues, expenses and cash flows are translated at the average exchange rate for the period to approximate translation at the exchange rate prevailing at the dates those elements are recognized in the financial statements. Translation adjustments resulting from the process of translating the local currency financial statements into U.S. dollars are included in determining comprehensive loss. As of June 30, 2005, the exchange rate for the Chinese Renminbi (RMB) was $1.00 US for 8.28 RMB.

The functional currency of the Company's Chinese subsidiaries is the local currency. The financial statements of the subsidiary are translated to United States dollars using period-end rates of exchange for assets and liabilities, and the average rate of exchange for the period for revenues, costs, and expenses. Net gains and losses resulting from foreign exchange transactions are included in the consolidated statements of operations and were not material during the periods presented. The cumulative translation adjustment and effect of exchange rate changes on cash at June 30, 2005 were not material.

Stock-based compensation

The Company accounts for stock options issued to employees in accordance with the provisions of Accounting Principles Board ("APB") Opinion No. 25, "Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees," and related interpretations. As such, compensation cost is measured on the date of grant as the excess of the current market price of the underlying stock over the exercise price. Such compensation amounts, if any, are amortized over the respective vesting periods of the option grant. The Company adopted the disclosure provisions of SFAS No. 123, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation" and SFAS 148, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation -Transition and Disclosure", which permits entities to provide pro forma net income (loss) and pro forma earnings (loss) per share disclosures for employee stock option grants as if the fair-value based method defined in SFAS No. 123 had been applied. The Company accounts for stock options and stock issued to non-employees for goods or services in accordance with the fair value method of SFAS 123.

(UNAUDITED)

NOTE 1 - BASIS OF PRESENTATION AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Had compensation cost for the stock option plan been determined based on the fair value of the options at the grant dates consistent with the method of SFAS 123, "Accounting for Stock Based Compensation", the Company's net loss and loss per share would have been changed to the pro forma amounts indicated below for the nine months ended June 30, 2005 and 2004:

	2005		2004
Net loss as reported	$	(2,929,081)	$	(973,673)
Less: stock-based employee compensation included in reported net loss		32,452		277,494
Add: stock-based employee compensation expense determined under fair-value based method, net of related tax effect		(57,655)		(189,309)
Pro forma net loss	$	(2,954,284)	$	(885,488)
Basic loss per share:
As reported	$	(.05)	$	(.03)
Pro forma	$	(.05)	$	(.03)

The above pro forma disclosures may not be representative of the effects on reported net earnings for future years as options vest over several years and the Company may continue to grant options to employees.

Marketable equity securities

Marketable equity securities consist of investments in equity of publicly traded and non-public domestic and foreign companies and are stated at market value based on the most recently traded price of these securities at June 30, 2005. All marketable securities are classified as available for sale at June 30, 2005. Unrealized gains and losses, determined by the difference between historical purchase price and the market value at each balance sheet date, are recorded as a component of Accumulated Other Comprehensive Income in Stockholders' Equity. Realized gains and losses are determined by the difference between historical purchase price and gross proceeds received when the marketable securities are sold. Restricted marketable equity securities are shown as long-term assets. For the purpose of computing realized gains and losses, cost is identified on a specific identification basis. For marketable securities for which there is an other-than-temporary impairment, an impairment loss is recognized as a realized loss.

NOTE 2 - RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Due to related party

In fiscal 2003, a minority shareholder of the Company's Chorry subsidiary, advanced $362,318 to this subsidiary for working capital purposes. These advances are non-interest bearing and are payable on demand.

NOTE 3 - SEPARATION AND SEVERANCE AGREEMENT

On December 13, 2004, the Company entered into a Separation and Severance Agreement with its former Chairman/President, Dr. James Wang, Yastock Investment Consulting Company, Limited ("Yastock"), and Shanghai Yastand Information Technology Company, Limited ("Yastand"). The Separation and Severance Agreement provides, effective December 13, 2004, the resignation of Dr. Wang as President, Chairman of the Board and as a director of the Company, and the termination of his Employment Agreement dated August 1, 2004, including all rights, benefits and obligations pursuant thereto. The agreement provided for the following severance provisions:

- (a) The Company transferred its ownership interest in Yastock and Yastand, free and clear of all liens, pledges, hypothecation, option, contract and other encumbrance, to the previous owners. In connection with this transfer, the Company incurred severance expense of $121,608.
- (b) Yastock/Yastand shall transfer all rights and privileges of certain agreements to the Company.
- (c) The Company issued Dr. Wang 562,500 shares of the Company's common stock pursuant to the Company's 2004 Stock Option Plan, which such shares were registered under an effective registration statement on Form S-8. In connection with issuance of these shares, the Company recorded severance expense of $61,875.
- (d) In December 2004, the Company paid Dr. Wang cash of $100,000 which was released from escrow after the Company filed its annual report on Form 10-KSB for the year ended September 30, 2004 with the SEC and the Annual Report was accepted by the SEC Edgar filing system. In connection with this cash payment, the Company recorded severance expense of $100,000.
- (e) Dr. Wang will assist the Company in maintaining a positive relationship between the Company and its subsidiary, Chorry.
- (f) Dr. Wang's options to purchase 1,500,000 shares of the Company's common stock at an exercise price of .06 cents per share received pursuant to the Employment Agreement and the Company's Non-Qualified Stock Option Plan shall terminate on December 31, 2005, unless exercised prior thereto.
- (g) For a period of three years, Dr. Wang, Yastock and Yastand agreed not to (i) without first obtaining the written consent of the Company, directly or indirectly, do business with any of the past or current customers of the Company, or (ii) directly or indirectly, solicit or proposition, or otherwise attempt to induce any of the customers of the Company to terminate their relationships with the Company.
- (h) The Company transferred to Yastock 95,000 shares of Dragon International Group Corp. restricted common stock. In connection with the transfer of these shares, the Company recorded severance expense of $22,800.

For the nine months ended June 30, 2005 and 2004, the Company derived approximately 99% and 97% of its revenue from its subsidiaries located in the People's Republic of China, respectively. Additionally, the Company's cash balances in China amounted to $107,004 or 40% of the Company's cash balances. Sales and identifiable assets by geographic areas for the nine months ended June 30, 2005 and 2004 and as of June 30, 2005, respectively, were as follows:

	Revenues
	For the Nine Months Ended June 30,				Identifiable Assets at June 30,
	2005		2004		2005
United States	$	148,825	$	451,210	$	689,793
China		18,828,265		17,604,174		1,355,588
Total	$	18,977,090	$	18,055,384	$	2,045,381

Currently, substantially all of the Company's revenues are primarily derived from sale of computer equipment and accessories to customers in the People's Republic of China (PRC). The Company hopes to expand its operations to countries outside the PRC, however, such expansion has not been commenced and there are no assurances that the Company will be able to achieve such an expansion successfully. Therefore, a downturn or stagnation in the economic environment of the PRC could have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial condition.

NOTE 6 - LOAN PAYABLE

In fiscal 2002, the Company's Chinese subsidiary, Chorry, entered into a loan agreement with a Chinese bank to borrow $120,773. The loan bears interest at a rate of 5.85% per annum and is payable prior to March 25, 2006.

NOTE 7 - STOCKHOLDERS' EQUITYCommon stock

On October 1, 2004, in connection with an employment agreement, the Company issued 1,000,000 shares of common stock to an executive. The Company valued these common shares at the fair market value on the dates of grant of $.175 per share or $170,000 based on the trading price of common shares. Accordingly, the Company recorded stock based compensation of $127,500 and deferred compensation of $42,500 which will be amortized over the remaining service period.

For the three months ended December 31, 2004, in connection with the exercise of stock options, the Company issued 463,889 shares of common stock to employees for net proceeds of $25,983 and the reduction of a subscription payable of $850.

On May 31, 2005, the Company issued 763,867 shares of common stock to two executives. The Company valued these common shares at the fair market value on the dates of grant of $.06 per share or $45,832 based on the trading price of common shares. Accordingly, for the nine months ended June 30, 2005, the Company recorded stock-based compensation expense of $45,832.

In May and June 2005, the Company issued 14,973 shares of common stock to two employees. The Company valued these common shares at the fair market value on the dates of grant of $.07 per share or $1,048 based on the trading price of common shares. Accordingly, for the nine months ended June 30, 2005, the Company recorded stock-based compensation expense of $1,048.

For the nine months ended June 30 2005, the Company recorded stock-based compensation of $255,208 from the amortization of deferred compensation.

Stock options and warrants

During the three months ended December 31, 2004, 604,319 options were granted to an employee of the Company with an exercise price of $.06 per share. The Company accounts for stock options issued to employees in accordance with the provisions of Accounting Principles Board ("APB") Opinion No. 25, "Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees," and related interpretations. As such, compensation cost is measured on the date of grant as the excess of the current market price of the underlying stock over the exercise price. In connection with these options, the Company recorded stock-based compensation of $32,452 during the nine months ended June 30, 2005 under the intrinsic value method of APB 25.

A summary of outstanding options and warrants at June 30, 2005 are as follows:

NOTE 8 - GOING CONCERN

The accompanying financial statements are prepared assuming the Company will continue as a going concern. During the nine months ended year ended June 30, 2005, the Company incurred net losses of $2,929,081 and had negative cash flows from operations in the amount of $1,250,804. While the Company is attempting to increase sales and to reduce expenses, the growth of revenues and the reduction of expenses has not been significant enough to support the Company's daily operations. Management intends to attempt to raise additional funds by way of a public or private offering. While the Company believes in the viability of its strategy to increase sales volume, to decrease expenses and in its ability to raise additional funds, there can be no assurances to that effect.

NOTE 9 - OPERATING RISK(a) Country risk

Currently, the Company's revenues are primarily derived from the sale of computer equipment and accessories to customers in the People's Republic of China (PRC). The Company hopes to expand its operations to countries outside the PRC, however, such expansion has not been commenced and there are no assurances that the Company will be able to achieve such an expansion successfully. Therefore, a downturn or stagnation in the economic environment of the PRC could have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial condition.

NOTE 9 - OPERATING RISK

(b) Products risk

In addition to competing with other computer and electronics equipment companies, the Company competes with larger US companies who have greater funds available for expansion, marketing, research and development and the ability to attract more qualified personnel. These companies may be able to offer products at a lower price. There can be no assurance that the Company will remain competitive should this occur.

(c) Political risk

Currently, the PRC is in a period of growth and is openly promoting business development in order to bring more business into the PRC. Additionally, the PRC allows a Chinese corporation to be owned by a United States corporation. If the laws or regulations are changed by the PRC government, the Company's ability to operate the PRC subsidiaries could be affected.

(d) Our future performance is dependent on its ability to retain key personnel

The Company's performance is substantially dependent on the performance of our senior management. In particular, the Company's success depends on the continued effort of our Senior Management to maintain all contact with our Chinese subsidiaries. The Company's inability to retain Senior Management could have a material adverse effect on our prospects, businesses, Chinese operations and financial condition.

ITEM 2.MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OR PLAN OF OPERATION

The following analysis of the results of operations and financial condition of the Company should be read in conjunction with the financial statements of Genesis Technology Group, Inc. for the year ended September 30, 2004 and notes thereto contained in this Report on Form 10-KSB of Genesis Technology Group, Inc.

This report on Form 10-QSB contains forward-looking statements that are subject to risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those discussed in the forward-looking statements and from historical results of operations. Among the risks and uncertainties which could cause such a difference are those relating to our dependence upon certain key personnel, our ability to manage our growth, our success in implementing the business strategy, our success in arranging financing where required, and the risk of economic and market factors affecting us or our customers. Many of such risk factors are beyond the control of the Company and its management.

OVERVIEW

We are a business development firm that specializes in assisting small and mid-sized companies in entering the Chinese market. We currently own 80% of Chorry, a Chinese company which sells computer hardware and peripherals, and derive approximately 99% of our revenues from the sale of computer hardware and peripherals. The Company's strategy includes marketing itself as a resource for small and mid-sized companies in marketing, distribution, manufacturing, forming joint ventures, or establishing a base in China. The strategy envisions and promotes opportunities for synergistic business relationships among all of the companies that Genesis works with, both clients and subsidiaries. In fiscal 2004 we purchased 60% of Extrema. In May 2005 Extrema ceased U.S. operations which will contribute to the costs savings. For the nine months ended June 30, 2005, Extrema is reported as a discontinued operation, and prior periods have been restated in the Company's financial statements and related footnotes to conform to this presentation. In connection with the closing of Extrema, we recorded a loss from discontinued operations of $719,168, including an operating loss attributable to Extrema of $341,822.

Recently, in April 2005, we incorporated a new subsidiary, Genesis (Hong Kong) OEM Direct, Ltd. ('GHK'). GHK purpose is to consolidate certain sales channels and related trading activities. Management believes that GHK will be able to leverages its position as first-tier distributor and its access to superior technology to develop and market LCD monitors and LCD products. GHK, which has not produced any revenues to date, will be engaged in the IT products business and specializes in sale and export LCD products such as Panel PC's and LCD Monitors. The business will rely on its close cooperation with numerous OEMs to offer high quality LCD products at the lowest cost. Management believes that GHK will have the advantage of a direct sales network, which will bypass several layers of middlemen and trading companies, to deliver the best products at the best prices. We anticipate minimal revenues in the fourth quarter.

The electronics market in China appears to be quite stable. However, profitability is difficult to achieve due to low margins, which are prevalent in this industry. Our revenues have remained constant. However, the cost of business is of increasing concern. If we cannot generate better margins and profits, we will act judiciously and consider selling our ownership in Chorry. Globally, electronics are increasingly competitive. We feel the best opportunities for Genesis and our shareholders may lay in other compelling industries.

We are currently evaluating our Chorry subsidiary and we may decide to sell this subsidiary in the near future. Our decision will be based on factors such as:

- Ability of Chorry to increase gross profit margins.
- Ability of Chorry to increase revenues enough to become more profitable.
- Cost/benefit relationship of maintaining Chorry as a subsidiary. Currently, we incur professional fees related to Chorry associated with our SEC filings and we incur additional administrative expenses to maintain this subsidiary.
 - Interest in purchasing Chorry from qualified parties.

We believe that as we further develop our consulting services segment, more opportunities to expand our operations through acquisitions will also be presented to us. It is critical to our long-term business model to both increase our revenues from the consulting services segment of our existing business, as well as to diversify our revenue base. By virtue of the nature of our consulting services and the professional experience of our management and directors, we interact with a number of both U.S. and Chinese companies.

The fee-based structure of our consulting services division is such that if our client company is successful in its particular venture, we can earn additional fees. These fees could range from a flat cash fee, to a fee which includes a combination of equity in our client and a success fee payable upon the completion of transactions such as acquisitions, formations of joint ventures, or licensing or selling technologies in China, to a solely performance based fee upon the completion of the project. We do not intend to operate as an investment company or become subject to the Investment Company Act of 1940.

We are engaged in a series of discussions for the purpose of entering into technology and sales alliances or possible acquisitions. Such discussions are ongoing and the Company anticipates that these negotiations will lead to the consummation of several critical contracts, agreements and/or alliances in the foreseeable future that will provide the Company with the ability to increase revenues and attain profitability through fiscal year 2005 and thereafter. While the Company has not signed any definitive agreements, the Company is actively seeking acquisitions or business opportunities to, among other things, increase revenues and improve stockholder value, which businesses or lines of business may or may not relate to the current core business of the Company.

We intend to continue to pursue acquisitions that we believe could complement or expand our business, or augment our market coverage. We seek companies or product lines that we believe have consistent historical cash flow and brand growth potential and can be purchased at a reasonable price. We also may acquire businesses that we feel could provide us with important relationships or otherwise offer us growth opportunities. We plan to fund our future acquisitions through bank financing, seller debt or equity financing and public or private equity financing. Although we are actively seeking acquisitions that will expand our existing products or add new lines of business, as of the date of this we have no agreements with respect to any such acquisitions, and there can be no assurance that we will be able to identify and acquire such businesses or obtain necessary financing on favorable terms. While we are seeking acquisitions that we believe would improve our financial results, a completed acquisition may not provide the anticipated financial results, thus leading to continuing net losses. Even if we achieve profitability, we may not be able to sustain or increase profitability on a quarterly or annual basis.

Because revenues from our operations in the PRC accounted for approximately 98% and 96% of our consolidated net revenues for the nine months ended June 30, 2005 and for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2004, respectively, how we report net revenues from our PRC-based companies is of particular importance to understanding our financial statements. Transactions and balances originally denominated in U.S. dollars are presented at their original amounts. Transactions and balances in other currencies are converted into U.S. dollars in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 52, "Foreign Currency Translation," and are included in determining net income or loss. For foreign operations with the local currency as the functional currency, assets and liabilities are translated from the local currencies into U.S. dollars at the exchange rate prevailing at the respective balance sheet date. Revenues and expenses are translated at weighted average exchange rates for the period to approximate translation at the exchange rates prevailing at the dates those elements are recognized in the financial statements. Translation adjustments resulting from the process of translating the local currency financial statements into U.S. dollars are included in determining comprehensive loss.

The functional currency of our Chinese subsidiaries is the Chinese RMB, the local currency. The financial statements of the subsidiaries are translated to U.S. dollars using year-end rates of exchange for assets and liabilities, and average rates of exchange for the period for revenues, costs, and expenses. Net gains and losses resulting from foreign exchange transactions are included in the consolidated statements of operations and were not material during the periods presented. The cumulative translation adjustment and effect of exchange rate changes on cash at each of June 30, 2005 and 2004 was not material.

Until 1994, the Renminbi experienced a gradual but significant devaluation against most major currencies, including U.S. dollars, and there was a significant devaluation of the Renminbi on January 1, 1994 in connection with the replacement of the dual exchange rate system with a unified managed floating rate foreign exchange system. Since 1994, the value of the Renminbi relative to the U.S. Dollar has remained stable and has appreciated slightly against the U.S. dollar. Countries, including the United States, have argued that the Renminbi is artificially undervalued due to China's current monetary policies and have pressured China to allow the Renminbi to float freely in world markets. On July 21, 2005, the PRC reported that it would have its currency pegged to a basket of currencies rather than just tied to a fixed exchange rate to the dollar. It also increased the value of its currency 2% higher against the dollar, effective immediately.

If any devaluation of the Renminbi were to occur in the future, returns on our operations in China, which are expected to be in the form of Renminbi, will be negatively affected upon conversion to U.S. dollars. Although we attempt to have most future payments, mainly repayments of loans and capital contributions, denominated in U.S. dollars, if any increase in the value of the Renminbi were to occur in the future, our product sales in China and in other countries may be negatively affected.

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OR PLAN OF OPERATION
(continued)RESULTS OF OPERATIONS*NINE MONTHS ENDED JUNE 30, 2005 COMPARED TO NINE MONTHS ENDED JUNE 30, 2004

The following discussion relates to our consolidated results of operations. Further discussion and analysis of operating results follows and is discussed by segment.

Revenues

For the nine months ended June 30, 2005, we had consolidated revenues of $18,977,090 as compared to $18,055,384 for the nine months ended June 30, 2004, an increase of $921,706 or 5.1%. This increase resulted from an increase in revenues from our computer hardware and accessories of $1,205,486 and a decrease in our business development segment of $283,780 as discussed below.

Cost of Sales

For the nine months ended June 30, 2005, cost of sales was directly related to our computer equipment and accessories segment and amounted to $18,186,145, or 95.8 % of revenues as compared to $17,249,843, or 95.5% of revenues for the nine months ended June 30, 2004. Overall, we recognized gross margin of 4.20% and 4.50% for the nine months ended June 30, 2005 and 2004, respectively. This increase resulted substantially from increased revenues from our computer segment offset by decrease in revenues from our business development business and is outlined below. Overall, we recognized gross margin of 4.20% and 4.50% for the nine months ended June 30, 2005 and 2004, respectively.

Operating Expenses

For the nine months ended June 30, 2005, operating expenses which include consulting fees, rent, salaries and non-cash compensation, depreciation expense and other selling, general and administrative, were $2,904,069 compared to $1,953,284 for the nine months ended June 30, 2004, an increase of $950,785 or 48.7%. As discussed below, increases in operating expenses were attributable to the recording of non-cash compensation in connection with the granting of stock and stock options to officers and employees and the amortization of deferred compensation, and the recording of severance expense related to a severance and separation agreement that we signed with a former officer/director of the Company. During the nine months ended June 30, 2005, travel related expenses increased due to increased travel to China as well as increased marketing costs associated with our Chinese round table events, and increased administrative and office expenses due to increased operations. Additionally, professional fee expenses increased attributable to legal and accounting expenses incurred in connection with our audits of our annual financial statements. Non-cash compensation increased due to the issuance of 7,250,000 restricted common shares to executives in October and November 2004, which have been valued at the fair market value on the dates of grant of $.115 to $.17 per share or $888,750 based on the trading price of common shares and which will be amortized over the service period. Additionally, at June 30, 2005, we had deferred compensation of $323,188, which will be amortized into expense during fiscal 2005. We are currently implementing cost-cutting measures to cut costs in our business development segment.

Loss from sale/disposal of marketable securities

For the nine months ended June 30, 2005, we recorded no gain or loss from the sale of marketable securities as compared to $(13,333) loss for the nine months ended June 30, 2004.

Settlement income

On December 31, 2003, we settled our litigation against Innova Holdings, Inc. (formerly Hy-Tech Technology Group, Inc.) ("Innova"). The Settlement Agreement resulted in us accepting 3,750,000 common shares of restricted Innova stock (OTCBB: IVHG). In a related matter, we conveyed 300,000 of those shares to Elite Financial Communications Group, which had initially introduced us to key principals among the IVHG parties. As of June 30, 2005, Genesis still owned the entire 3,450,000 of IVHG, which is now free trading. In connection with the settlement, we recorded settlement income of $196,650 based on the fair market value of 3,450,000 net shares that we received.

Interest expense, net

Interest income (expenses) net was $530 for the nine months ended June 30, 2005 as compared to interest expense, net of $(8,144) for the nine months ended June 30, 2004.

Loss from discontinued operations

For the nine months ended June 30, 2005, we recorded a loss from discontinued operations of $719,168 associated with the closure of our Extrema subsidiary. In connection with the closure of Extrema LLC, we wrote off intangible assets and property equipment amounting to $377,346 that were impaired due to the closure. Additionally, we incurred operating losses of $341,822 related to this discontinued operation.

OVERALL

We reported a net loss for the nine months ended June 30, 2005 of $2,929,081 compared to a net loss for the nine months ended June 30, 2004 of $973,673. This translates to an overall per-share loss available to shareholders of $.05 for the nine months ended June 30, 2005 compared to per-share loss of $.03 for nine months ended June 30, 2004.

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OR PLAN OF OPERATION

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS BY SEGMENT:

Computer Equipment and Accessories Segment

Revenues for the nine months ended June 30, 2005 were $18,828,265 as compared to $17,622,779 for the nine months ended June 30, 2004, an increase of $1,205,486 or 6.87%. This increase in sales mainly resulted from an increase in demand from the China markets during the quarter ended June 30, 2005.

Cost of sales for Chorry for the nine months ended June 30, 2005 amounted to $18,186,145 or 96.6% of net sales as compared to $17,249,843 or 98% of net sales for the nine months ended June 30, 2004, an increase of $936,302 or 5.4%. This translates in a gross profit margin of 3.4% and 2.1% for the nine months ended June 30, 2005 and 2004, respectively. We expect to continue to experience low gross profit margins on our products sales. During the quarter ended June 30, 2005, we had several sales that generated higher than normal gross profit margins. We believe this increase in gross margins is temporary and was attributable to certain sales.

For the nine months ended June 30, 2005, we incurred operating expenses of $431,669 compared to $367,422 for the nine months ended June 30, 2004, an increase of $64,247 or 17.5% and consisted of the following:

	2005		2004
Salaries	$	130,149	$	108,845
Rent		124,957		111,464
Other selling, general and administrative		176,563		147,113
Total operating expenses	$	431,669	$	367,422

During the nine months ended June 30, 2005, we incurred additional rent of $13,493 due to our growing need for warehouse space. Additionally, during the nine months ended June 30, 2005, we incurred increased salary expenses of $21,304 due to increases in our workforce. Other selling, general and administrative expenses incurred by Chorry increased by $29,450 due to an increase in freight charges, technology expenses and general administrative expenses.

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OR PLAN OF OPERATIONS

Revenue for the nine months ended June 30, 2005 was $148,825 as compared to $432,605 for the nine months ended June 30, 2004, a decrease of $283,780 or 66%. During the nine months ended June 30, 2005, we spent a substantial amount of time on administrative tasks related to a severance and separation agreement that was executed in December 2004, to our discontinued Extrema subsidiary, and to discussion with potential candidates for acquisition. This diversion of time had a negative effect on our consulting revenues. We expect our revenues to increase during fiscal 2005 as we refocus our attention.

For the nine months ended June 30, 2005, we incurred operating expenses of $2,472,400 as compared to $1,585,862 for the nine months ended June 30, 2004, an increase of $886,538 or 56%. For the nine months ended June 30, 2005, operating expenses consisted of rent of $57,650, consulting fees of $162,754, salaries and non-cash compensation of $1,426,144, severance expense of $329,343, and other selling, general and administrative expenses of $496,509. For the nine months ended June 30, 2004, operating expenses consisted of rent of $35,991, consulting fees of $250,739, salaries and non-cash compensation of $889,561, other selling, general and administrative expenses of $409,571.

The increase in operating expenses was primarily attributable to the following:

- * Rent expense increased to $57,650 for the nine months ended June 30, 2005 from $35,991 for nine months ended June 30, 2004, an increase of $21,659 or 60.2%. The increase in rent was attributable to the leasing of a residential apartment in China for an employee amounting to $3,000 and the leasing of office space for our China offices of $ 9,685 during the nine months ended June 30, 2005.
- * Our consulting expense decreased to $162,754 for the nine months ended June 30, 2005 from $250,739 for the nine months ended June 30, 2004. The decrease was due to decreased non-cash consulting expenses recorded during the nine months ended June 30, 2005 in connection with the grant of stock options to consultants for services rendered. For the nine months ended June 30, 2005, non-cash consulting expense amounted to $68,625 as compared to $105,153 in the 2004 period. Additionally, during the nine months ended June 30, 2004, we transferred to consultants 165,000 common shares received by a client for work performed and accordingly recorded consulting expense of $107,750 related to the transfer of these shares.
- * Salaries and non-cash compensation expense increased to $1,426,144 for the nine months ended June 30, 2005 from $889,561 for nine months ended June 30, 2004, an increase of $536,583 or 61%. The increase in salaries and non-cash compensation expense was attributable to the recording of non-cash compensation in connection with the granting of stock and stock options to officers and employees which accounted for $541,249 of the increase, including the amortization of deferred compensation from fiscal 2004. This was offset by a decrease of $4,666 attributable to a decrease in staff in our China business development offices and an increase in executive salaries under employment agreements.

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OR PLAN OF OPERATIONS (continued)

* During the nine months ended June 30, 2005, we recorded severance expense of $332,533 related to a severance and separation agreement we signed with a former officer/director of the Company. In connection with this agreement, we paid cash of $100,000, issued common shares with a value of $61,875, reduced a subscription receivable of $26,250, distributed marketable securities with a value of $22,800, and incurred severance expense of $121,608 related to the distribution of the net assets of Yastock.

* Other selling, general and administrative expenses increased to $496,509 for the nine months ended June 30, 2005 from $409,571 for the nine months ended June 30, 2004, an increase of $86,938 or 21.2%. We incurred expenses of $31,630 related to our new China offices including telephone, travel and entertainment other office expenses, increases in health insurance costs of approximately $10,000, increases in marketing costs associated with our Chinese round table events, and increased administrative and office expenses due to increased operations. We expect our selling, general and administrative expenses to decrease as we look to cut costs which may include staff reductions.

For the nine months ended June 30, 2005, we incurred interest income, net of $2,911 as compared to interest expense of $(8,144) for the nine months ended June 30, 2004.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

At June 30, 2005, we had a cash balance of $271,583. As of June 30, 2005, our cash position by geographic area is as follows:

United States	$	164,579
China		107,004
Total	$	271,583

On January 16, 2004, we consummated a securities purchase agreement under which we agreed to issue $2,000,000 stated value of our newly created Series A 6% Cumulative Convertible Preferred Stock to several institutional investors. The stated value of the Series A 6% Cumulative Convertible Preferred Stock is $10.00 per share. We had sold 200,000 Series A 6% Cumulative Preferred shares for net proceeds of $1,902,475. We are using these proceeds for working capital purposes and to seek acquisition candidates. We do not intend to sell any more Series A shares. These funds are being used for working capital purposes.

As of June 30, 2005, we had marketable securities with a fair market value of $341,953 which we intend on selling to obtain cash for working capital purposes.

Net cash used in operations was $1,250,804 for the nine months ended June 30, 2005 as compared to net cash used in operations of $417,012 for the nine months ended June 30, 2004. For the nine months ended June 30, 2005, we used cash to fund our net loss of $2,929,081 ($2,209,913 from continuing operations and $719,168 from discontinued operations) and recorded income from the receipt of marketable securities for services of $114,000 offset by non-cash items such as stock-based compensation of $1,216,093, depreciation and amortization expense of $14,895, settlement expense of $232,533, impairment losses related to our discontinued operations of $441,328, as well as changes in assets and liabilities of $(200,742). For the nine months ended June 30, 2004, we used cash to fund our net loss of $973,673 offset by non-cash items such as stock-based compensation of $611,632, depreciation expenses of $19,392 and settlement income of $(196,650) as well as other non-cash items and changes in assets and liabilities of $122,287.

Net cash used in investing activities for the nine months ended June 30, 2005 was $9,461 as compared to net cash provided by investing activities for the nine months ended June 30, 2004 of $221,118. For the nine months ended June 30, 2005, we used cash for capital expenditures of $9,461. For the nine months ended June 30, 2004, we received cash from the sale of marketable securities of $233,551 offset by cash used for capital expenditures of $(12,433).

Net cash used in financing activities was $146,891 for the nine months ended June 30, 2005 as compared to net cash provided by financing activities of $ 2,158,588 for the nine months ended June 30, 2004. For the nine months ended June 30, 2005, net cash used in financing activities related primarily to the repayment of related party advances of $172,874 offset by proceeds received from the exercise of stock options of $25,983. For the nine months ended June 30, 2004, net cash provided by financing activities related primarily to proceeds from the exercise of stock options and related party loans of $346,324 and $13,208, respectively, proceeds from the sale of preferred stock of $1,902,475 and proceeds from notes payable of $97,500. This increase was offset by cash used in financing activities of $120,919 for the repayment of notes payable and $80,000 for the repayment of related party notes payable.

We currently have no material commitments for capital expenditures.

Our future growth is dependent on our ability to raise capital for expansion, and to seek additional revenue sources. If we decide to pursue any acquisition opportunities or other expansion opportunities, we may need to raise additional capital, although there can be no assurance such capital-raising activities would be successful. There are no assurances that such capital will be available to us when needed or upon terms and conditions which are acceptable to us. If we are able to secure additional working capital through the sale of equity securities, the ownership interests of our current stockholders will be diluted. If we raise additional working capital through the issuance of debt or additional dividend paying securities our future interest and dividend expenses will increase. If we are unable to secure additional working capital as needed, our ability to grow our sales, meet our operating and financing obligations as they become due and continue our business and operations could be in jeopardy and we could be forced to limit or cease our operations. If we should pursue the sale of Chorry, we can not estimate at this time what proceeds, if any, we would receive in that transaction.

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OR PLAN OF OPERATIONS

A summary of significant accounting policies is included in Note 1 to the audited consolidated financial statements included in our filing on Form 10-KSB as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission for the year ended September 30, 2004. Management believes that the application of these policies on a consistent basis enables the Company to provide useful and reliable financial information about the company's operating results and financial condition.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results may differ from those estimates.

Accounting for Stock Based Compensation - We account for stock based compensation utilizing Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation" ("SFAS 123"), which encourages, but does not require, companies to record compensation cost for stock-based employee compensation plans at fair value. We have chosen to account for stock-based compensation using the intrinsic value method prescribed in Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 25, "Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees", and related interpretations. Accordingly, compensation cost for stock options is measured as the excess, if any, of the estimated fair market value of our stock at the date of the grant over the amount an employee must pay to acquire the stock. We have adopted the "disclosure only" alternative described in SFAS 123 and SFAS 148 (See Recent Accounting Pronouncements), which require pro forma disclosures of net income and earnings per share as if the fair value method of accounting had been applied. Because of this election, we continue to account for our employee stock-based compensation plans under Accounting Principles Board (APB) Opinion No. 25 and the related interpretations. We are required to comply with SFAS No. 123 (revised 2004) starting on the first day of our fiscal year 2006. We are currently evaluating the effect that the adoption of SFAS No. 123 (revised 2004) will have on our consolidated operating results and financial condition.

Marketable equity securities consist of investments in equity of publicly traded and non-public domestic companies and are stated at market value based on the most recently traded price of these securities at June 30, 2005. All marketable securities are classified as available for sale at June 30, 2005. Unrealized gains and losses, determined by the difference between historical purchase price and the market value at each balance sheet date, are recorded as a component of Accumulated Other Comprehensive Income in Stockholders' Equity. Realized gains and losses are determined by the difference between historical purchase price and gross proceeds received when the marketable securities are sold. Realized gains or losses on the sale or exchange of equity securities and declines in value judged to be other than temporary are recorded in gains (losses) on equity securities, net. Marketable equity securities are presumed to be impaired if the fair value is less than the cost basis continuously for three consecutive quarters, absent evidence to the contrary.

RECENT ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

The Financial Accounting Standards Board has recently issued several new accounting pronouncements:

In December 2004, the FASB issued FASB Statement No. 123R, "Share-Based Payment, an Amendment of FASB Statement No. 123" ("FAS No. 123R"). FAS No. 123R requires companies to recognize in the statement of operations the grant-date fair value of stock options and other equity-based compensation issued to employees. FAS No. 123R is effective beginning in the Company's second quarter of fiscal 2006. We are in process of evaluating the impact of this pronouncement on our financial position.

In May 2005, FASB issued FASB Statement 154, "Accounting Changes and Error Corrections — a replacement of APB Opinion No. 20 and FASB Statement No. 3" ("FAS 154"). FAS 154 changes the requirements for the accounting for and reporting of a change in accounting principle. The provisions of FAS 154 require, unless impracticable, retrospective application to prior periods' financial statements of (1) all voluntary changes in principles and (2) changes required by a new accounting pronouncement, if a specific transition is not provided. FAS 154 also requires that a change in depreciation, amortization, or depletion method for long-lived, non-financial assets be accounted for as a change in accounting estimate, which requires prospective application of the new method. FAS 154 is effective for all accounting changes made in fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2005.

OPERATING RISK

(a) Country risk

Currently, the Company's revenues are primarily derived from the sale of computer equipment and accessories to customers in the People's Republic of China (PRC) and to customers in Brazil. The Company hopes to expand its operations to countries outside the PRC and Brazil, however, such expansion has not been commenced and there are no assurances that the Company will be able to achieve such an expansion successfully. Therefore, a downturn or stagnation in the economic environment of the PRC and Brazil could have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial condition.

(b) Products risk

In addition to competing with other computer and electronics equipment companies, the Company competes with larger US companies who have greater funds available for expansion, marketing, research and development and the ability to attract more qualified personnel. These companies may be able to offer products at a lower price. There can be no assurance that the Company will remain competitive should this occur.

(c) Political risk

Currently, the PRC is in a period of growth and is openly promoting business development in order to bring more business into the PRC. Additionally, the PRC allows a Chinese corporation to be owned by a United States corporation. If the laws or regulations are changed by the PRC government, the Company's ability to operate the PRC subsidiaries could be affected.

(d) Our future performance is dependent on its ability to retain key personnel

Our performance is substantially dependent on the performance of our senior management. In particular, the Company's success depends on the continued effort of our Senior Management to maintain all contact with our Chinese subsidiaries. The Company's inability to retain Senior Management could have a material adverse effect on our prospects, businesses, Chinese operations and financial condition.

ITEM 3. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Our Chief Executive Officer and Principal Financial Officer (collectively, the "Certifying Officers") are responsible for establishing and maintaining disclosure controls and procedures for us. Based upon such officers' evaluation of these controls and procedures as of a date as of the end of the period covered by this Quarterly Report, and subject to the limitations noted hereinafter, the Certifying Officers have concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures are effective to ensure that information required to be disclosed by us in this Quarterly Report is accumulated and communicated to management, including our principal executive officers as appropriate, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

The Certifying Officers have also indicated that there were no significant changes in our internal controls or other factors that could significantly affect such controls subsequent to the date of their evaluation, and there were no corrective actions with regard to significant deficiencies and material weaknesses.

Our management, including each of the Certifying Officers, does not expect that our disclosure controls or our internal controls will prevent all error and fraud. A control system, no matter how well conceived and operated, can provide only reasonable, not absolute, assurance that the objectives of the control system are met. In addition, the design of a control system must reflect the fact that there are resource constraints, and the benefits of controls must be considered relative to their costs. Because of the inherent limitations in all control systems, no evaluation of controls can provide absolute assurance that all control issues and instances of fraud, if any, within a company have been detected. These inherent limitations include the realities that judgments in decision-making can be faulty, and that breakdowns can occur because of simple error or mistake. Additionally, controls can be circumvented by the individual acts of some persons, by collusion of two or more people or by management override of the control. The design of any systems of controls also is based in part upon certain assumptions about the likelihood of future events, and there can be no assurance that any design will succeed in achieving its stated goals under all potential future conditions. Over time, control may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate. Because of these inherent limitations in a cost-effective control system, misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected.
