The Herzfeld Caribbean Basin Fund's investment objective is long-term capital appreciation. To achieve its objective, the Fund invests in issuers that are likely, in the Advisor's view, to benefit from economic, political, structural and technological developments in the countries in the Caribbean Basin, which consists of Cuba, Jamaica, Trinidad and Tobago, the Bahamas, the Dominican Republic, Barbados, Aruba, Haiti, the Netherlands Antilles, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, Mexico, Honduras, Guatemala, Belize, Costa Rica, Panama, Colombia and Venezuela. The fund invests at least 80% of its total assets in a broad range of securities of issuers including U.S.-based companies, which engage in substantial trade with and derive substantial revenue from operations in the Caribbean Basin Countries.

Thomas J. Herzfeld
Chairman and President

February 2, 2004

Dear Fellow Stockholders:

We are pleased to present our semi-annual report for the period ending December 31, 2003. On that date The Herzfeld Caribbean Basin Fund's net assets were $8,719,841 and its per share net asset value was $5.20*, compared with $5,741,830 or $3.42 per share a year earlier representing a gain in net asset value of 52.0% for the calendar year and 31.64% for the six month period ended December 31, 2003.

When we formed The Herzfeld Caribbean Basin Fund 10 years ago, it appeared to us at the time that the U.S. may have been considering lifting the embargo with Cuba. That event, however, has always been elusive. Knowing that, we positioned the Fund's investments in companies which we believed would do well if there were no change in U.S. policy towards Cuba; but at the same time, in companies we believe would benefit from the resumption of trade with that country. That strategy has worked quite well. For instance, our net asset value has reached a record high (adjusted for distributions) and our shares have recently been trading at a premium to net asset value. Many of our major holdings are experiencing good price performance.

Although the embargo with Cuba is still in place, it is interesting to note that the U.S. is Cuba's 8th largest trading partner. U.S. food sales to that country now account for 25% of Cuba's food imports.

The Cuban economy grew at 2.6% in 2003. Although sugar production dropped 40%, tourism was quite strong. Approximately 1.9 million foreigners visited the island, a 16% increase from the previous year.

We continue to believe that our portfolio is invested in companies throughout the Caribbean Basin which have great prospects--with or without the Cuban embargo. If trade is resumed, things should get very interesting.

*For those who like coincidences, 5/20 or May 20th is Cuban Independence Day and 5/20/04 will mark the tenth anniversary of our Fund's trading.
