ITEM 4.01 CHANGES IN REGISTRANT'S CERTIFYING ACCOUNTANT.

Previous Independent Auditor

On October 6, 2004, Weinberg & Company, PA ("Weinberg") resigned as our independent auditor. The decision to change accountants has been approved by our board of directors.

During the Company's two (2) most recent fiscal years and any subsequent interim period preceding the dismissal, the Company has had no disagreements with Weinberg on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedure which if not resolved to the satisfaction of Weinberg would have caused Weinberg to make reference to the matter in their report.

No accountant's report on the financial statements for either of the past two

(2) years contained an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion or was qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles; however, the reports for the years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002 contained a modification paragraph that expressed substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

The Company has provided Weinberg with a copy of the disclosures it is making herein in response to Item 304(a) of Regulation S-K, and has requested that Weinberg furnish the Company with a letter addressed to the Securities and Exchange Commission stating whether it agrees with the statements made by the Company in response to item 304(a) and, if not, stating the respects in which it does not agree. A copy of Weinberg's letter is attached hereto as an exhibit to this document.

New Independent Auditor

We have engaged A. J. Robbins ("Robbins") as our new independent accountants. We have not consulted with Robbins regarding the application of accounting principles, the type of audit opinion that might be rendered by Robbins or any other matter that was the subject of a disagreement between us and Weinberg.
