Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On November 3, 2006, Albert P. Stroucken notified the Board of Directors of H.B. Fuller Company (the “Company”) that he would resign as Chairman of the Board, President, Chief Executive Officer and a director of the Company effective December 1, 2006.

Mr. Stroucken has an employment agreement dated March 30, 2004 (the “Employment Agreement”) with the Company, which provides that Mr. Stroucken will be entitled to receive certain severance payments and benefits if his employment with the Company continues through March 31, 2007. Mr. Stroucken and the Company have agreed that the Employment Agreement will be modified in order to adjust or reduce such payments and benefits to take into account his earlier termination of employment. However, as of the date of this report, the new severance and benefits arrangement with Mr. Stroucken had not been finalized.

On November 3, 2006, the Company’s Board of Directors appointed Michele Volpi President and Chief Executive Officer and elected him as a director, in each case effective as of December 3, 2006.

Mr. Volpi, age 42, has served as Group President and General Manager of the Company’s Global Adhesives Group since December 2004. From June 2002 to December 2004, he was Global SBU Manager for the Company’s Assembly Business. From March 2001 to June 2002, he served as general manager of marketing and product management for the Polymershapes business unit of General Electric Company. Prior to such time, Mr. Volpi held other management positions with General Electric Company and was a management consultant with The Boston Consulting Group, where he managed projects and client teams involving strategy formulation and implementation and process improvement.

As President and Chief Executive Officer, Mr. Volpi will receive an annual base salary of $457,400. Also, he will be entitled to receive a target incentive opportunity of 100% of his base salary with a maximum incentive opportunity of up to 200% of his base salary under the Company’s short-term incentive plan for the fiscal year ending December 1, 2007. In addition, Mr. Volpi will be eligible for a stock-based award in an amount equal to $1,000,000 under the Company’s long-term incentive plan for such fiscal year.
