Pursuant to the Definitive Agreement, Mobilisa will be acquired by Intelli-Check and the former stockholders of Mobilisa will receive a number of shares of Intelli-Check’s common stock such that the former stockholders of Mobilisa will own 50% of Intelli-Check on a post-merger basis. The former Mobilisa optionholders and warrant holders will also receive replacement options to purchase shares of Intelli-Check’s common stock with substantially equivalent value to Mobilisa’s outstanding options and warrants.

The Board of Directors of the combined company will be composed of eight members, four selected by Intelli-Check’s Board of Directors and four selected by Mobilisa’s Board of Directors. The Chief Financial Officer, Chief Technology Officer and the Chairman of the Board of Directors of the combined company would be selected by Intelli-Check’s Board of Directors and the Chief Executive Officer and the Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors of the combined company would be selected by Mobilisa’s Board of Directors.

The consummation of the transaction is subject to (i) the approval of the stockholders of Intelli-Check approving this transaction and an amendment to Intelli-Check’s certificate of incorporation to increase the number of authorized shares of Intelli-Check’s common stock and (ii) the approval of stockholders of Mobilisa to approve the transactions contemplated by the Definitive Agreement.

The Definitive Agreement may be terminated by either party if (i) the merger is not consummated before March 31, 2008 (subject to adjustment as provided in the Definitive Agreement), (ii) there is a material adverse change to the non-terminating party’s business or (iii) the non-terminating party is unable to obtain the necessary stockholder approval. If a party chooses to terminate the Definitive Agreement due to a breach of the terms of the Definitive Agreement, the terminating party would be required to pay a break-up fee of $1,000,000 over 36 months to the non-terminating party.
