Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

The Company is a Utah corporation. Section 16-10a-902 of the Utah Revised Business Corporation Act (the “Revised Act”) provides that a corporation may indemnify any individual who was, is, or is threatened to be made a named defendant or respondent in any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative and whether formal or informal, because he or she is or was a director of the corporation or, while a director of the corporation, is or was serving at its request as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, fiduciary or agent of another corporation or other person or of an employee benefit plan (an “Indemnifiable Person”), against any obligation incurred with respect to a proceeding, including any judgment, settlement, penalty or fine, or reasonable expenses (including attorneys’ fees), incurred in the proceeding if his or her conduct was in good faith and he or she reasonably believed that his or her conduct was in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation, and, in the case of any criminal proceeding, he or she had no reasonable cause to believe such conduct was unlawful; provided, however, that pursuant to Subsection 902(4): (i) indemnification under Section 902 in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation is limited to payment of reasonable expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred in connection with the proceeding and (ii) the corporation may not indemnify an Indemnifiable Person in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation in which the Indemnifiable Person was adjudged liable to the corporation, or in connection with any other proceeding charging that the Indemnifiable Person derived an improper personal benefit, whether or not involving action in his or her official capacity, in which proceeding he or she was adjudged liable on the basis that he or she derived an improper personal benefit.

Section 16-10a-903 of the Revised Act provides that, unless limited by its articles of incorporation, a corporation shall indemnify an Indemnifiable Person who was successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding, or in the defense of any claim, issue or matter in the proceeding, to which he or she was a Party because he or she is or was an Indemnifiable Person of the corporation, against reasonable expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred in connection with the proceeding or claim with respect to which he or she has been successful.

Section 16-10a-904 of the Revised Act provides that a corporation may pay for or reimburse the reasonable expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by an Indemnifiable Person who is a Party to a proceeding in advance of the final disposition of the proceeding, upon the satisfaction of certain conditions.

Section 16-10a-907 of the Revised Act provides that, unless a corporation's articles of incorporation provide otherwise, (i) an officer of the corporation is entitled to mandatory indemnification under Section 903 and is entitled to apply for court-ordered indemnification under Section 905, in each case to the same extent as an Indemnifiable Person, (ii) the corporation may indemnify and advance expenses to an officer, employee, fiduciary or agent of the corporation to the same extent as an Indemnifiable Person, and (iii) a corporation may also indemnify and advance expenses to an officer, employee, fiduciary or agent who is not an Indemnifiable Person to a greater extent than the right of indemnification granted to an Indemnifiable Person, if not inconsistent with public policy, and if provided for by its articles of incorporation, bylaws, general or specific action of its board of directors, or contract.

The Company's Amended Bylaws (the "Bylaws") provide that the Company shall indemnify any individual made party to a proceeding because he or she is or was one of its directors or officers against liability incurred in the proceeding, but only if the Company has determined that such indemnification is permissible and authorized in accordance with the procedures set forth in Sections 16-10a-906(2) and 16-10a-906(4) of the Revised Act, and a determination has been made that (i) the director or officer conducted himself or herself in good faith; (ii) that he or she reasonably believed that his or her conduct was in, or not opposed to, the Company's best interests; and (iii) in the case of any criminal proceeding, he or she had no reasonable cause to believe such conduct was unlawful.

The Company's Bylaws further provide that the Company shall not however extend such indemnification to an officer or director in connection with a proceeding by the Company or in its right in which such officer or director was adjudged liable to the Company, or in connection with any other proceeding charging that such person derived an improper personal benefit, whether or not involving action in his or her official capacity, in which proceeding he or she was adjudged liable on the basis that he or she derived an improper personal benefit.

The Bylaws also provide that if a determination is made by the Company that the officer or director has satisfied the requirements set forth in the Bylaws and the applicable statutory provision, then, the Company shall pay for or reimburse the reasonable expenses incurred by an officer or director who is party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of the proceeding if (i) the officer or director furnishes to the Company a written affirmation of a good faith belief that he or she has met the applicable standard of conduct under the Bylaws, (ii) the officer or director furnishes to the Company a written undertaking to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that he or she did not meet the standard of conduct, and (iii) a determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification pursuant to the Bylaws and applicable provisions of the Revised Act.

The Bylaws also provide that the Company may indemnify and advance expenses to any of its employees or agents who is not a director or officer to any extent consistent with public policy, as determined by the Company's Board of Directors. Further, the Bylaws provide that the Company may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was one of the Company's directors, officers, employees, fiduciaries or agents, against any liability asserted against or incurred by him or her in such capacity or arising out of his or her status in such capacity, whether or not the Company would have the power to indemnify him or her against such liability under applicable provisions of the Revised Act.

The Company's Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation (the "Articles") provides that the Company may indemnify and advance expenses to its directors, officers, employees, fiduciaries or agents, and to any person who is or was serving at the Company's request as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, fiduciary or agent of another corporation or other person or of an employee benefit plan, to the fullest extent permitted under Utah law. The Articles also provide that the personal liability of any of the Company's directors or officers to the Company or to its shareholders (or to any third party) is eliminated to the fullest extent permitted by Utah law.

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of this registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in this registration statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in this registration statement or any material change to such information in this registration statement; provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the Company pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in this registration statement;

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof; and

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Company pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Company has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Company of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Company in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Company will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
