PROXY STATEMENT FOR 2010 ANNUAL MEETING

INTRODUCTION

Time and Place of the Meeting

The Board of Directors of First Reliance Bancshares, Inc. (the “Company”) is furnishing this proxy statement in connection with its solicitation of proxies for use at the annual meeting of shareholders to be held on Thursday, June 17, 2010 at 4:00 p.m. at the First Reliance Bank – Learning Center, 2148 West Palmetto Street in Florence, South Carolina and at any adjournments of the meeting.

Record Date and Mail Date

The close of business on April 15, 2010 is the record date for the determination of shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the meeting. We first mailed this proxy statement and the accompanying proxy card to shareholders on or about April 28, 2010.

Number of Common Shares Outstanding

As of the close of business on the record date, the Company had 20,000,000 shares of common stock, $0.01 par value, authorized, of which 4,043,520 shares were issued and outstanding. Each issued and outstanding share of common stock is entitled to one vote on all matters presented at the meeting.

The Company also has 10,000,000 shares of preferred stock, no par value, authorized, of which 15,349 shares of Series A Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock (the “Series A Preferred Stock”) and 767 shares of our Series B Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock (the “Series B Preferred Stock”) are authorized, issued and outstanding. The Series A Preferred Stock and the Series B Preferred Stock are not entitled to vote on the matters presented at this meeting.

VOTING AT THE ANNUAL MEETING

Proposals to Be Considered

Shareholders will be asked to elect three (3) persons to serve as Class C Directors for a three-year term, until the 2013 Annual Meeting of Shareholders and until their successors have been elected and qualified. This proposal is further described in this proxy statement. The Board of Directors recommends that you vote for approval of this proposal.

Shareholders will also be asked to consider and vote upon a non-binding resolution approving the compensation of First Reliance’s executive officers as described in this Proxy Statement. This proposal is further described in this proxy statement. The Board of Directors recommends that you vote for approval of this proposal.

Shareholders may also be asked to vote on other matters, if any, properly brought before the shareholders at the annual meeting.

Procedures for Voting by Proxy

If you properly sign, return and do not revoke your proxy, the persons appointed as proxies, who are Leonard A. Hoogenboom and F.R. Saunders, Jr., will vote your shares according to the instructions you have specified on the proxy card. If you sign and return your proxy card but do not specify how the persons appointed as proxies are to vote your shares, your proxy will be voted for the election of the nominated directors and in the best judgment of the persons appointed as proxies as to all other matters properly brought before the meeting. If any nominee for election to the Board of Directors named in this proxy statement becomes unavailable for election for any reason, the proxy will be voted for a substitute nominee selected by the Board of Directors.

You can revoke your proxy at any time before it is voted by delivering to F.R. Saunders, Jr., President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, at the main office of the Company, either a written revocation of the proxy or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date or by attending the meeting and voting in person.

Requirements for Shareholder Approval

Quorum. A quorum will be present at the meeting if a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock are represented in person or by valid proxy. We will count abstentions and broker non-votes, which are described below, in determining whether a quorum exists.

Abstentions. A shareholder who is present in person or by proxy at the annual meeting and who abstains from voting on any or all proposals will be included in the number of shareholders present at the annual meeting for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum. Abstentions do not count as votes in favor of or against a given proposal unless the proposal being voted upon requires the affirmative vote of at least a specific percentage of the shares outstanding and entitled to vote. In such a case, abstentions will count as votes against the proposal.

Broker Non-Votes. Brokers who hold shares for the accounts of their clients may vote these shares either as directed by their clients or in their own discretion if permitted by the exchange or other organization of which they are members. Proxies for which brokers fail to vote on one or more proposals are referred to as “broker non-votes” with respect to the proposal(s) not voted upon. Broker non-votes are included in determining the presence of a quorum. A broker non-vote, however, does not count as a vote in favor of or against a particular proposal for which the broker has no discretionary voting authority unless the matter being voted upon requires the affirmative vote of at least a specific percentage of the shares outstanding and entitled to vote. In such a case, broker non-votes will count as votes against the proposal.

Approval Requirements. To be elected or ratified as a director, a director nominee must receive a plurality of the votes for his or her election as a director. As a result, if you withhold your vote as to one or more nominees, it will have no effect on the outcome of the election of the director for which you withheld your vote, unless you cast that vote for a competing nominee, if any.

Any other matter that may properly come before the annual meeting, requires more votes for than against the proposal being voted upon. Abstentions and broker non-votes will not be counted as votes against any proposal and therefore will have no effect on the outcome of the proposal.

SOLICITATION OF PROXIES

The Company will pay the cost of proxy solicitation. Our directors, officers and employees may, without additional compensation, solicit proxies by personal interview, telephone, fax, or otherwise. We will direct brokerage firms or other custodians, nominees or fiduciaries to forward our proxy solicitation material to the beneficial owners of common stock held of record by these institutions and will reimburse them for the reasonable out-of-pocket expenses they incur in connection with this process.

PROPOSAL NO. 1: ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Director Nominees

The Company's Articles of Incorporation provide that the Board of Directors of the Company will be divided into three (3) classes – Class A, Class B and Class C – each of which is as nearly equal in number as possible. The directors in each class serve for staggered terms of three years each.

On February 18, 2010, the Board of Directors was informed that Director A. Joe Willis intended to retire from service to the Company's Board at the completion of his current term, which concludes at the 2010 Annual Meeting. The Board of Directors thanked Dr. Willis for his dedicated service to the Company, and elected to not nominate Dr. Willis for another term. At its May 2010 Board Meeting, the Company's Board of Directors, pursuant to the Company's bylaws, will consider a resolution to reduce the size of the Board of Directors to nine (9) directors effective as of June 17, 2010.

The Board of Directors recommends that the shareholders elect the persons identified below as nominees to the Board of Directors. Director Independence

The Board of Directors has determined that the following directors are independent pursuant to the independence standards of the Nasdaq Stock Market:

- Leonard A. Hoogenboom
- John M. Jebaily
- Andrew G. Kampiziones
- C. Dale Lusk, MD
- J. Munford Scott, Jr.

In determining that each director could exercise independent judgment in carrying out his or her responsibilities, the Board of Directors considered any transactions, relationships and arrangements between the Company or the Bank and the director and his family.

Board Leadership Structure and Role in Risk Oversight

Our Board of Directors is led by a Chairman selected by the Board from time to time. Presently, Mr. Hoogenboom, an independent director, is Chairman of the Board. Mr. F.R. Saunders, Jr. currently serves as a director and as the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer. The foregoing structure is not mandated by any provision of law, but the Board of Directors believes this structure provides for an appropriate balance of authority between management and the Board and provides an efficient decision making process with proper independent oversight. The Board of Directors, however, reserves the right to establish a different structure in the future.

The Board of Directors oversees and monitors First Reliance's risk management processes. The Board outlines our risk principles and management framework and it sets high level strategy and risk tolerances, including the creations of internal controls and safeguards relating to interest rate risk, loan concentrations, loans to one borrower and customer security. The Audit Committee is primarily responsible for overseeing the risk management function of the Company on behalf of the Board. In carrying out its responsibilities, the Audit Committee works closely with senior risk officers as well as the Board's Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee and meets regularly to review management's assessment of risk exposure and the process in place to monitor and control such exposure. Additionally, the Audit Committee meets no less than quarterly to review quarterly reports on Form 10-Q, internal audits and loan reviews, and meets in executive session with internal auditors, the Company's principal accountants, the Chief Financial Officer and the Controller, among others, to assess risk that may affect the entire Company.

Board Meetings and Committees

In 2009, the Boards of Directors of the Company and the Bank held 14 joint meetings. During 2009, all incumbent directors attended at least 75% of the aggregate of the total number of meetings of the Board of Directors and the total number of meetings held by all committees of the board on which the director served.

The Company does not have a formal policy regarding board member attendance at the annual meeting of shareholders; however, board members are encouraged to attend any and all shareholder meetings of the Company. Last year 8 of our 10 directors attended our annual meeting of shareholders.

Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee. The Company's Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee consists of Leonard A. Hoogenboom, F.R. Saunders, Jr., J. Munford Scott, Jr., and C. Dale Lusk. The committee met one time during 2009. The Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee has been formed by the Board of Directors to consider shareholders' nominations of individuals to serve as directors of the Company in accordance with the Company's Bylaws and the committee's charter. As part of its responsibilities, the committee makes a recommendation regarding any suggested nominee to the entire Board of Directors for final determination and consideration. The Company's and the Bank's Board of Directors has adopted a written charter for the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee, which is available on our website, www.firstreliance.com.

The Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee has adopted a formal process for identifying or evaluating nominees; as part of this process, it informally solicits and considers recommendations from a variety of sources, including other directors, members of the community, customers of the Bank and shareholders of the Company, and professionals in the financial services and other industries. Similarly, the committee does prescribe specific qualifications or skills that a nominee must possess, including the potential nominee's business experience; knowledge of the Company and the financial services industry; experience in serving as a director of the Company or another financial institution or public company generally; wisdom, integrity and analytical ability; familiarity with and participation in the communities served by the Company; commitment to and availability for service as a director; and any other factors the committee deems relevant.

The Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee's policy with regard to the consideration of diversity in identifying director nominees considers all aspects of diversity in identifying well-qualified director nominees. In particular, the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee attempts to identify well-qualified directors who are representative of First Reliance's market area and customers.

The Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee will consider shareholder nominations for directors that are made in writing and delivered to the Company in accordance with the Company's Bylaws. Generally, the Company's Bylaws require that such notice be given at least 120 days before the one-year anniversary of the mailing date for the prior year's proxy statement, which in our case would require that nominations be submitted prior to December 30, 2010 for next year's annual meeting.

Additionally, the nomination must state, to the extent known to the nominating shareholder, the following information:

- with respect to the nominee, all information regarding the nominee required to be disclosed in a solicitation of proxies for election of directors pursuant to Regulation 14A under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 (including the nominee's written consent to be named in a proxy statement as a nominee and to serve as a director if elected);
- any agreement or relationship between the nominee and the Company, its directors, officers, employees and independent auditors, as well as the nominating shareholder; and
 - the nominating shareholder's name, address and number of shares owned.

Shareholder nominations not made in accordance with the Company's nominating procedures may be disregarded by the chair of the meeting at which the election is to be held.

Audit Committee. The Company's Audit Committee consists of Leonard A. Hoogenboom, Andrew G. Kampiziones, J. Munford Scott, Jr., and C. Dale Lusk. The committee met four times in 2009. The Audit Committee recommends to the Bank's and the Company's Board of Directors the independent public accountants to be selected to audit the Bank's and the Company's annual financial statements and determines that all audits and exams required by law are performed fully, properly and in a timely fashion. The Audit Committee also evaluates internal accounting controls, reviews the adequacy of the internal audit budget, personnel and audit plan. The Board has determined that Mr. Hoogenboom is an "audit committee financial expert" as that term is defined in SEC regulations. The Company's and the Bank's Board of Directors has adopted a written charter for the Audit Committee, which is available on our website, www.firstreliance.com. The Audit Committee Report is found in the "Audit Committee Matters" section of this Proxy Statement.

Compensation Committee. The Company's Compensation Committee consists of Andrew G. Kampiziones, Leonard A. Hoogenboom, John M. Jebaily and J. Munford Scott, Jr. The committee met six times in 2009. The primary purpose of the Compensation Committee is to aid the Board of Directors in discharging its responsibilities relating to the compensation of the Company's executive officers, including the Chief Executive Officer. The committee has overall responsibility for evaluating and approving the Company's compensation plans, policies and programs. The committee (i) reviews and determines the annual compensation, including salary, bonus, incentive and other compensation of the Chief Executive Officer; (ii) approves corporate goals and objectives relevant to compensation of the Chief Executive Officer; (iii) evaluates performance in light of these goals and objectives, approves compensation in accordance therewith and provides a report thereon to the Board; (iv) reviews and makes recommendations to the Board with respect to incentive based compensation plans and equity based plans; (v) establishes criteria for the terms of awards granted to participants under such plans; (vi) recommends to the Board the compensation for directors (including retainer, committee and committee chair fees, stock options and other similar items, as appropriate); (vii) establishes and approves policies on employment agreements, severance arrangements and change in control agreements and provisions, as well as any special supplemental benefits; and (viii) retains outside counsel and other advisors as the committee may deem appropriate in its sole discretion. The committee has the sole authority to approve related fees and retention terms. Although the Compensation Committee did consult with legal counsel during 2009 regarding its compensation plans, it did not utilize the services of dedicated compensation consultant in 2009.

Pursuant to First Reliance's participation in the United States Department of the Treasury's ("Treasury") Troubled Asset Relief Program ("TARP"), Capital Purchase Program ("CPP"), the Compensation Committee must be comprised entirely of independent directors and is required to perform, at least every six months, a review of our incentive compensation programs with senior risk officers to (i) ensure that the programs do not encourage Senior Executive Officers (as defined in the CPP) to take unnecessary and excessive risks that threaten the value of the Company and (ii) identify and implement means of limiting such risks. The Compensation Committee is also required to discuss, evaluate and review, at least every six months, employee compensation plans to ensure that such plans do not encourage the manipulation of First Reliance's reported earnings. Finally, the Compensation Committee is required to submit to Treasury and our primary federal regulator a narrative description of how such compensation plans do not encourage, among other items, behavior focused on short-term results rather than long-term value creation.

The Company's and the Bank's Board of Directors has adopted a written charter for the Compensation Committee. A copy of the Compensation Committee charter is available on our website, www.firstreliance.com.
