Item 1.01 Entry Into A Material Definitive Agreement.

On June 25, 2012, Lakeland Industries, Inc. (the "Company") entered into an indemnification agreement (the "Indemnification Agreement") with each of its current directors and executive officers. The Company believes that the Indemnification Agreements are necessary to attract and retain qualified persons as directors and officers.

The Indemnification Agreement provides, among other things, that the Company will indemnify each such director and executive officer (the "Indemnitee") to the fullest extent permitted by law if Indemnitee is a party to or threatened to be made a party to any proceeding (including a proceeding by or in the right of the Company to procure a judgment in its favor) against all expenses, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by Indemnitee in connection with the proceeding. In addition, and subject to certain limitations, the Indemnification Agreement provides for the advancement of expenses incurred by or on behalf of the Indemnitee in connection with any proceeding and the reimbursement to the Company of the amounts advanced (without interest) to the extent that it is ultimately determined that the Indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified by the Company.

The Indemnification Agreement is not exclusive of any other rights to indemnification or advancement of expenses to which Indemnitee may be entitled, including any rights arising under applicable law, the Company's Restated Certificate of Incorporation or Bylaws, a vote of stockholders or a resolution of directors or otherwise.

The foregoing description of the Indemnification Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the form of Indemnification Agreement attached as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and which is incorporated herein by reference.
