Changes in the Contract for the Acquisition of the Nailer Business of Kanematsu-NNK Corp.

Makita concluded the final contract for the acquisition of the nailer business of Kanematsu-NNK Corp. (Head office: Tokyo; President: Norihiko Tominaga; hereinafter, Kanematsu-NNK) on December 24, 2004, and announced the contract on the same date. However, at today's Board of Directors meeting, the decision was made to postpone the acquisition.

1. Reasons for the Changes

Accompanying the issue of the recovery by Kanematsu-NNK of a portion of the interlocking screws on its own initiative, Makita received a request from Kanematsu-NNK for changes in the final contract. With the agreement of Kanematsu-NNK, it was decided to postpone the acquisition. (This decision will include changes in the company split-off agreements regarding Makita Fastenings Corporation (a subsidiary of Makita) and Kanematsu-NNK.)

Please be advised that Makita is scheduled to make available details regarding the conditions of this acquisition as soon as they are decided.

2. Impact of the Changes

These changes will have no effect on Makita's performance for the current period.
