Taro to Challenge Assessment Order from Israel Income Tax Authority

Company Says Order Is Confiscatory and Reflects Double Taxation; May Seek Intervention of U.S. Government

HAWTHORNE, N.Y.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Taro Pharmaceutical Industries Ltd. ("Taro," the "Company," Pink Sheets: TAROF) said today that it has received and will immediately challenge an assessment order from the Israel Income Tax Authority ("ITA") with respect to taxes which the ITA claims should have been withheld by Taro in connection with the exercise of certain options granted in 1992 to Taro Pharmaceuticals U.S.A., Inc., Taro's United States subsidiary ("Taro USA"), to satisfy option grants made by Taro USA to officers of Taro USA who are residents of the United States.

Taro said it intends to vigorously challenge the validity of the assessment order, and assert that the order is confiscatory and will create an unjustified situation of double taxation, especially in light of the fact that full payment of all tax liabilities was already made in the United States. Taro may seek the intervention of the United States Government due to the resulting double taxation, which the Company believes is in contradiction to the Israel/U.S. Tax Treaty.

The Company will argue that no Israeli tax liability or withholding obligation arose as a result of the option exercise because both under Israeli tax law and under the Israel/U.S. Tax Treaty, no Israeli tax can be imposed on the employment or service income (including compensatory option gains) of United States residents derived from employment or services performed in the United States.

The options were granted in 1992 to Barrie Levitt, M.D., Chairman of the Board of Directors of Taro, Aaron Levitt, the Company's former President, and Daniel Moros, M.D., Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors of Taro, all of whom are, and have always been, residents and citizens of the United States. Messrs. Levitt, Levitt and Moros were granted these options by Taro USA in connection with their employment in the United States by Taro USA. The options were exercised in 2001. U.S. Federal, State, and Medicare taxes in the aggregate amount of 46.3% of income derived in connection with the exercise were paid to the United States authorities in 2002. The gains from the option exercise were treated as ordinary income for United States tax purposes and taxed at the marginal rate. The ITA has now assessed a payment of approximately $34 million nominal amount of tax and approximately $19 million in penalties and other charges to be paid by Taro.

Taro is a multinational, science-based pharmaceutical company, dedicated to meeting the needs of its customers through the discovery, development, manufacturing and marketing of the highest quality healthcare products.
