NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
(UNAUDITED)

Note 1. Basis of Presentation and Management's Liquidity Plans

Basis of Presentation - The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated interim financial statements include the accounts of Andrea Electronics Corporation and its subsidiaries ("Andrea" or the "Company"). All intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

These unaudited, condensed consolidated interim financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America for interim financial information and with the instructions to Form 10-Q. Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and footnotes required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP") for complete financial statements. In addition, the December 31, 2007 balance sheet data was derived from the audited consolidated financial statements, but does not include all disclosures required by GAAP. In the opinion of management, all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring accruals) considered necessary for a fair presentation have been included. The results of operations of any interim period are not necessarily indicative of the results of operations to be expected for any other interim period or for the fiscal year.

These unaudited condensed consolidated interim financial statements should be read in conjunction with the audited consolidated financial statements and notes thereto for the year ended December 31, 2007 included in the Company's Form 10-KSB for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2007, filed on March 31, 2008. The accounting policies used in preparing these unaudited condensed consolidated interim financial statements are consistent with those described in the December 31, 2007 audited consolidated financial statements.

Management's Liquidity Plans - As of September 30, 2008, Andrea had working capital of $1,993,116 and cash on hand of $1,156,518. Andrea's income from operations was $23,258 for the three months ended September 30, 2008. Andrea incurred a loss from operations of $347,760 for the nine months ended September 30, 2008. Andrea plans to continue to improve its cash flows during the remainder of 2008 and in 2009 by aggressively pursuing additional licensing opportunities related to Andrea DSP Audio Software and increasing its Andrea Anti-Noise Headset Products sales through the introduction of refreshed product line which was introduced in September 2008 as well as the increased efforts the Company is dedicating to its sales and marketing efforts. However, there can be no assurance that Andrea will be able to successfully execute the aforementioned plans.

As of November 10, 2008, Andrea has approximately $1,200,000 of cash. Management projects that Andrea has sufficient liquidity available to operate through at least September 2009. While Andrea explores opportunities to increase revenues in new business areas, the Company also continues to examine additional opportunities for cost reduction and further diversification of its business. Since the third quarter of 2006, Andrea has had generated cash from operations. Although these steps are encouraging, if Andrea fails to develop additional revenues from sales of its products and licensing of its technology or to generate adequate funding from operations, or if Andrea fails to obtain additional financing through a capital transaction or other type of financing, Andrea will be required to continue to significantly reduce its operating expenses and/or operations or Andrea may have to relinquish its products, technologies or markets which could have a materially adverse effect on revenue and operations. Andrea has no commitment for additional financing and may experience difficulty in obtaining additional financing on favorable terms, if at all.

Note 2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Edgar Filing: ANDREA ELECTRONICS CORP - Form 10-Q

Earnings (loss) Per Share - Basic earnings (loss) per share is computed by dividing the net income (loss) by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the period. Diluted earnings (loss) per share adjusts basic earnings (loss) per share for the effects of convertible securities, stock options and other potentially dilutive financial instruments, only in the periods in which such effect is dilutive. Securities that could potentially dilute basic earnings (loss) per share ("EPS") in the future that were not included in the computation of the diluted EPS because to do so would have been anti-dilutive for the periods presented, consist of the following:

Cash and Cash Equivalents - Cash and cash equivalents include cash and highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less. The Company has cash deposits in excess of the maximum amounts insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation at September 30, 2008 and December 31, 2007. The Company mitigates its risk by investing in or through major financial institutions.

Concentration of Credit Risk - The following customers accounted for 10% or more of Andrea's consolidated net revenues during at least one of the periods presented below:

	For the Three Months Ended		For the Nine Months Ended
	September 30, 2008	September 30, 2007	September 30, 2008	September 30, 2007

Customer B	15%	*	*	*
Customer C	*	34%	*	20%
Customer D	15%	*	14%	*

* Amounts are less than 10%

As of September 30, 2008, two customers accounted for approximately 10% and 13% of accounts receivable and as of December 31, 2007, two customers account for approximately 20% and 15% of accounts receivable.

The following suppliers accounted for 10% or more of Andrea's purchases during at least one of the periods presented below:

Edgar Filing: ANDREA ELECTRONICS CORP - Form 10-Q

	September 30, 2008	September 30, 2007	September 30, 2008	September 30, 2007
Supplier A	*	43%	43%	66%
Supplier B	82%	48%	41%	22%

* Amounts are less than 10%

At September 30, 2008 and December 31, 2007, one supplier accounted for approximately 73% and 22%, respectively of accounts payable. The significant amount of purchases from one supplier during the three months ended September 30, 2008 relates to purchases of inventory relating to our refreshed product line. Although these products were primarily purchased from one vendor, this source is a replaceable source.

Allowance for Doubtful Accounts - The Company performs on-going credit evaluations of its customers and adjusts credit limits based upon payment history and the customer's current credit worthiness, as determined by the review of their current credit information. Collections and payments from customers are continuously monitored. The Company maintains an allowance for doubtful accounts, which is based upon historical experience as well as specific customer collection issues that have been identified. While such bad debt expenses have historically been within expectations and allowances established, the Company cannot guarantee that it will continue to experience the same credit loss rates that it has in the past. If the financial condition of customers were to deteriorate, resulting in an impairment of their ability to make payments, additional allowances may be required.

Inventories - Inventories are stated at the lower of cost (on a first-in, first-out) or market basis. The cost elements of inventories include materials, labor and overhead. Andrea reviews its inventory reserve for obsolescence on a quarterly basis and establishes reserves on inventories when the cost of the inventory is not expected to be recovered. Andrea's policy is to reserve for inventory that shows slow movement over the preceding six consecutive quarters. Andrea records charges in inventory reserves as part of cost of revenues.

	September 30, 2008	December 31, 2007
Raw materials	$ 31,441	$ 62,834
Work in Progress	50,687	-

	1,601,908	1,281,805
Less: reserve for slow moving and obsolescence	(593,463)	(566,941)
	$ 1,008,445	$ 714,864

Intangible and Long-Lived Assets - Andrea accounts for its long-lived assets in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 144, "Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets" for purposes of determining and measuring impairment of its long-lived assets (primarily intangible assets) other than goodwill. Andrea's policy is to periodically review the value assigned to its long-lived assets to determine if they have been permanently impaired by adverse conditions which may affect Andrea. If Andrea identifies a permanent impairment such that the carrying amount of Andrea's long lived assets are not recoverable using the sum of an undiscounted cash flow projection (gross margin dollars from product revenues), a new cost basis for the impaired asset will be established. If required, an impairment charge is recorded based on an estimate of future discounted cash flows. This new cost basis will be net of any recorded impairment.

Because the Andrea DSP Microphone and Audio Software Products business segment was operating at a loss for the nine months ended September 30, 2008 and because the revenues from the Andrea DSP Microphone and Audio Software Products business segment were lower than expected and this business segment was operating at a loss for the nine months ended September 30, 2007, management compared the sum of Andrea's undiscounted cash flow projections (gross margin dollars from product sales) of the Andrea DSP Microphone and Audio Software core technology to the carrying value of that technology. The results of this test indicated that there was not an impairment. This process utilized probability weighted undiscounted cash flow projections which include a significant amount of management's judgment and estimates as to future revenue. If these probability weighted projections do not come to fruition, the Company could be required to record an impairment charge in the near term and such impairment could be material.

Andrea amortizes its core technology, patents and trademarks on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of its intangible assets that range from 15 to 17 years. For the three-month periods ended September 30, 2008 and 2007, amortization expense was $119,487 and $118,130, respectively. For the nine-month periods ended September 30, 2008 and 2007, amortization expense was $356,978 and $354,127, respectively.

Revenue Recognition – Non-software related revenue, which is generally comprised of microphones and microphone connectivity product revenues, is recognized when title and risk of loss pass to the customer, which is generally upon shipment. With respect to licensing revenues, Andrea recognizes revenue in accordance with Statement of Position (“SOP”) 97-2, “Software Revenue Recognition,” as amended, and Staff Accounting Bulletin Topic 13 “Revenue Recognition in Financial Statements.” License revenue is recognized based on the terms and conditions of individual contracts (see Note 5). In addition, fee based services, which are short-term in nature, are generally performed on a time-and-material basis under separate service arrangements and the corresponding revenue is generally recognized as the services are performed.

ANDREA ELECTRONICS CORPORATION AND SUBSIDIARIES
(UNAUDITED)

Income Taxes - The provision for income taxes is a result of certain licensing revenues that are subject to withholding of income tax as mandated by the foreign jurisdiction in which the revenues are earned. For all other income taxes, Andrea accounts for income taxes in accordance with SFAS No. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes" and Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") Interpretation No. 48, "Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes – an interpretation of FASB Statement No. 109" ("FIN 48"). SFAS No. 109 requires an asset and liability approach for financial accounting and reporting for income taxes. FIN 48 establishes for all entities a minimum threshold for financial statement recognition of the benefit of tax positions, and requires certain expanded disclosures. Using the guidelines set forth in both of these statements, the provision for income taxes is based upon income or loss after adjustment for those permanent items that are not considered in the determination of taxable income. Deferred income taxes represent the tax effects of differences between the financial reporting and tax bases of the Company's assets and liabilities at the enacted tax rates in effect for the years in which the differences are expected to reverse. The Company evaluates the recoverability of deferred tax assets and establishes a valuation allowance when it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. Since cumulative losses weigh heavily in the overall assessment, Andrea provides a full valuation allowance on future tax benefits until it can sustain a level of profitability that demonstrates its ability to utilize the assets, or other significant positive evidence arises that suggests Andrea's ability to utilize such assets. If it becomes more likely than not that a tax asset will be used, the related valuation allowance on such assets would be reversed. Management makes judgments as to the interpretation of the tax laws that might be challenged upon an audit and cause changes to previous estimates of tax liability. In management's opinion, adequate provisions for income taxes have been made for all years. If actual taxable income by tax jurisdiction varies from estimates, additional allowances or reversals of reserves may be necessary. Income tax expense consists of the tax payable for the period and the change during the period in deferred tax assets and liabilities. The Company has identified its federal tax return and its state tax return in New York as "major" tax jurisdictions, as defined in FIN 48. Based on the Company's evaluation, it has concluded that there are no significant uncertain tax positions requiring recognition in the Company's financial statements. The Company's evaluation was performed for tax years ended 2003 through 2007. The Company believes that its income tax positions and deductions will be sustained on audit and does not anticipate any adjustments that will result in a material change to its financial position.

Stock-Based Compensation - At September 30, 2008, Andrea had three stock-based employee compensation plans, which are described more fully in Note 7. Andrea accounts for stock based compensation in accordance with SFAS No. 123R, "Share-Based Payment." SFAS No. 123R establishes accounting for stock-based awards exchanged for employee services. Under the provisions of SFAS No. 123R, share-based compensation cost is measured at the grant date, based on the fair value of the award, and is recognized as expense over the employee's requisite service period (generally the vesting period of the equity grant). The fair value of the Company's common stock options are estimated using the Black Scholes option-pricing model with the following assumptions: expected volatility, dividend rate, risk free interest rate and the expected life. The Company expenses stock-based compensation by using the straight-line method. In accordance with SFAS No. 123R, excess tax benefits realized from the exercise of stock-based awards are classified in cash flows from financing activities. The future realization of the reserved deferred tax assets related to these tax benefits associated with the exercise of stock option will result in a credit to additional paid in capital if the related tax deduction reduces taxes payable. The Company has elected the "with and without approach" regarding ordering of windfall tax benefits to determine whether the windfall tax benefit did reduce taxes payable in the current year. Under this approach the windfall tax benefit would be recognized in additional paid-in-capital only if an incremental tax benefit is realized after considering all other benefits presently available.

Recently Issued Accounting Pronouncements

In December 2007, the FASB issued SFAS No. 141R, "Business Combinations" ("SFAS 141R"), which replaces SFAS No. 141, "Business Combinations." SFAS 141R establishes principles and requirements for determining how an enterprise recognizes and measures the fair value of certain assets and liabilities acquired in a business combination, including noncontrolling interests, contingent consideration, and certain acquired contingencies. SFAS 141R also requires acquisition-related transaction expenses and restructuring costs be expensed as incurred rather than capitalized as a component of the business combination. SFAS 141R will be applicable to the Company for fiscal 2009. SFAS 141R would have an impact on accounting for any businesses acquired after the effective date of this pronouncement.

In December 2007, the FASB issued SFAS No. 160, "Noncontrolling Interests in Consolidated Financial Statements – An Amendment of ARB No. 51" ("SFAS 160"). SFAS 160 establishes accounting and reporting standards for the noncontrolling interest in a subsidiary (previously referred to as minority interests). SFAS 160 also requires that a retained noncontrolling interest upon the deconsolidation of a subsidiary be initially measured at its fair value. Upon adoption of SFAS 160, the Company would be required to report any noncontrolling interests as a separate component of stockholders' equity. The Company would also be required to present any net income allocable to noncontrolling interests and net income attributable to the stockholders of the Company separately in its consolidated statements of operations. SFAS 160 is effective for fiscal years, and interim periods within those fiscal years, beginning on or after December 15, 2008. SFAS 160 requires retroactive adoption of the presentation and disclosure requirements for existing minority interests. All other requirements of SFAS 160 shall be applied prospectively. SFAS 160 would have an impact on the presentation and disclosure of the noncontrolling interests of any non wholly-owned businesses acquired in the future.

NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

On February 12, 2008, the FASB issued FASB Staff Position (FSP) No. SFAS 157-2, "Effective Date of FASB Statement No. 157" (FSP SFAS 157-2). FSP SFAS 157-2 amends SFAS No. 157, to delay the effective date of SFAS 157 for nonfinancial assets and nonfinancial liabilities, except for the items that are recognized or disclosed at fair value in the financial statements on a recurring basis. For items within its scope, FSP SFAS 157-2 defers the effective date of SFAS 157 to fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2008, and interim periods within those fiscal years. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of adopting SFAS 157 and FSP SFAS 157-2 on its consolidated financial statements.

In March 2008, the FASB issued SFAS 161, "Disclosures about Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities an amendment of FASB Statement No. 133", which amends and expands the disclosure requirements of SFAS 133 to require qualitative disclosure about objectives and strategies for using derivatives, quantitative disclosures about fair value amounts of and gains and losses on derivative instruments, and disclosures about credit-risk-related contingent features in derivative agreements. This statement will be effective for the Company beginning on January 1, 2009. The adoption of this statement will change the disclosures related to derivative instruments that might be held by the Company.

Reclassifications - Certain prior year amounts have been reclassified to conform to the current year presentation.

Use of Estimates - The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period.

Management bases its estimates on historical experience and on various assumptions that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis for making judgments about the carrying value of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. The most significant estimates, among other things, are used in accounting for allowances for bad debts, inventory valuation and obsolescence, product warranty, depreciation, deferred income taxes, expected realizable values for assets (primarily intangible assets), contingencies, revenue recognition as well as the recording and presentation of the Company's convertible preferred stock. Estimates and assumptions are periodically reviewed and the effects of any material revisions are reflected in the condensed consolidated financial statements in the period that they are determined to be necessary. Actual results could differ from those estimates and assumptions.

In the event that the holder of the Series D Preferred Stock and related warrants is unable to convert these securities into Andrea Common stock the Company shall pay to each such holder of such registrable securities a Registration Delay Payment. This payment is to be paid in cash and is equal to the product of (i) the stated value of such Preferred Shares multiplied by (ii) the product of (1) .0005 multiplied by (2) the number of days that sales cannot be made pursuant to the Registration Statement (excluding any days during that may be considered grace periods as defined by the Registration Rights Agreement).

Note 7. Stock Plans and Stock Based Compensation

No further awards will be granted under the 1991 Plan.

In 1998, the Board adopted the 1998 Stock Option Plan ("1998 Plan"), which was subsequently approved by the shareholders. The fair values of each stock option grant is estimated on the date of grant using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model that uses the weighted-average assumptions noted in the following table. Expected volatilities are based on implied volatilities from historical volatility of the Company's stock. The risk-free rate for periods within the contractual life of the option is based on the U.S. Treasury yield curve in effect at the time of grant.

The fair values of the stock options granted for the three and nine-month periods ended September 30, 2008 were estimated on the date of grant using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model using the following weighted-average assumptions:

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITIDTION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Overview

Our mission is to provide the emerging "voice interface" markets with state-of-the-art communications products that facilitate natural language, human/machine interfaces.

Examples of the applications and interfaces for which Andrea DSP Microphone and Audio Software Products and Andrea Anti-Noise Products provide benefit include: Internet and other computer-based speech; telephony communications; multi-point conferencing; speech recognition; multimedia; multi-player Internet and CD ROM interactive games; and other applications and interfaces that incorporate natural language processing. We believe that end users of these applications and interfaces will require high quality microphone and earphone products that enhance voice transmission, particularly in noisy environments, for use with personal computers, mobile personal computing devises, cellular and other wireless communication devices and automotive communication systems. Our Andrea DSP Microphone and Audio Software Products use "far-field" digital signal processing technology to provide high quality transmission of voice where the user is at a distance from the microphone. High quality audio communication technologies will be required for emerging far-field voice applications, ranging from continuous speech dictation, to Internet telephony and multiparty video teleconferencing and collaboration, to natural language-driven interfaces for automobiles, home and office automation and other machines and devices into which voice-controlled microprocessors are expected to be introduced during the next several years.

We outsource to Asia high volume assembly for most of our products from purchased components. We assemble some low volume Andrea DSP Microphone and Audio Software Products from purchased components. As sales of any particular Andrea DSP Microphone and Audio Software Product increases, assembly operations are transferred to a subcontractor in Asia.

Our Critical Accounting Policies

Our unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements and the notes to our unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements contain information that is pertinent to management's discussion and analysis. The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities. Management bases its estimates on historical experience and on various other assumptions that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis for making judgments about the carrying values of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. On a continual basis, management reviews its estimates utilizing currently available information, changes in facts and circumstances, historical experience and reasonable assumptions. After such reviews, and if deemed appropriate, those estimates are adjusted accordingly. Actual results may vary from these estimates and assumptions under different and/or future circumstances. Our significant accounting policies are described in Note 2 of the Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements included in our Annual Report on Form 10-KSB for the year ended December 31, 2007. A discussion of our critical accounting policies and estimates are included in Management's Discussion and Analysis or Plan of Operation in our Annual Report on Form 10-KSB for the year ended December 31, 2007. Management has discussed the development and selection of these policies with the Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors, and the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors has reviewed the Company's disclosures of these policies. There have been no material changes to the critical accounting policies or estimates reported in the Management's Discussion and Analysis section of the 10-KSB for the year ended December 31, 2007 as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This report contains forward-looking statements that are based on assumptions and may describe future plans, strategies and expectations of the Company. These forward-looking statements are generally identified by use of the words “believe”, “expect”, “intend”, “anticipate”, “estimate”, “project” or similar expressions. The Company’s ability to predict results or the actual effect of future plans or strategies is inherently uncertain. Factors which could have a material adverse effect on the operations of the Company and its subsidiaries include, but are not limited to, changes in economic, competitive, governmental, technological and other factors that may affect our business and prospects. Additional factors are discussed below under “Risk Factors” and in Part II, “Item 6. Management’s Discussion and Analysis or Plan of Operation—Risk Factors” in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-KSB for the year ended December 31, 2007. These risks and uncertainties should be considered in evaluating forward-looking statements and undue reliance should not be placed on such statements. Except as required by applicable law or regulation, the Company does not undertake, and specifically disclaims any obligation, to release publicly the result of any revisions that may be made to any forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances after the date of the statements or to reflect the occurrence of anticipated or unanticipated events.

Risk Factors

Our operating results are subject to significant fluctuation, period-to-period comparisons of our operating results may not necessarily be meaningful and you should not rely on them as indications of our future performance.

Our results of operations have historically been and are subject to continued substantial annual and quarterly fluctuations. The causes of these fluctuations include, among other things:

- the volume of sales of our products under our collaborative marketing arrangements;
- the cost of development of our products;
- the mix of products we sell;
- the mix of distribution channels we use;
- the timing of our new product releases and those of our competitors;
- fluctuations in the computer and communications hardware and software marketplace;
- general economic conditions.

We cannot assure that the level of revenues and gross profit, if any, that we achieve in any particular fiscal period will not be significantly lower than in other fiscal periods. Our net revenues for the three months ended September 30, 2008 were $1,283,957 versus $1,049,915 for the three months ended September 30, 2007. Net income for the three months ended September 30, 2008 was $25,289, or $0.00 income per share on a basic and diluted basis, versus net loss of $194,569, or $0.00 loss per share on a basic and diluted basis for the three months ended September 30, 2008. Our revenues for the nine months ended September 30, 2008 were $3,417,848 versus $3,624,931 for the nine months ended September 30, 2007. Net loss for the nine months ended September 30, 2008 was $344,874 or $.01 loss per share on a basic and diluted basis, versus net loss of $313,214, or $.01 loss per share on a basic and diluted basis for the nine months ended September 30, 2007. We continue to explore opportunities to grow sales in other business areas; we are also examining additional opportunities for cost reduction, production efficiencies and further diversification of our business. Although we have improved cash flows by reducing overall expenses, if our revenues decline we may not continue to generate positive cash flows and our operating results may be affected.

If we fail to obtain additional capital or maintain access to funds sufficient to meet our operating needs, we may be required to significantly reduce, sell, or refocus our operations and our business, results of operations and financial condition could be materially and adversely effected.

In order to be a viable entity we need to maintain and increase profitable operations. To achieve profitable operations we need to maintain/increase current net revenues and continue to look for ways to control expenses. We might also need to sell additional assets or raise capital as a means of funding continued operations. We may have to raise capital from external sources. These sources may include private or public financings through the issuance of debt, convertible debt or equity, or collaborative arrangements. Such additional capital and funding may not be available on favorable terms, if at all. Additionally, we may only be able to obtain additional capital or funds through arrangements that require us to relinquish rights to our products, technologies or potential markets, in whole or in part, or result in our sale. As a result of past few years of performance, we believe that we have sufficient liquidity to continue our operations at least through September 2009, provided our net revenues do not continue to decline and our operating expenses do not continue to increase. Although we have revised our business strategies to reduce our expenses and capital expenditures, we cannot assure you that we will be successful in generating positive cash flows or obtaining access to additional sources of funding in amounts necessary to continue our operations. Failure to maintain sufficient access to funding may also result in our inability to continue operations.

Shares Eligible For Future Sale May Have An Adverse Effect On Market Price and Andrea Shareholders May Experience Substantial Dilution.

Sales of a substantial number of shares of our common stock in the public market could have the effect of depressing the prevailing market price of our common stock. Of the 200,000,000 shares of common stock presently authorized, 60,406,945 were outstanding as of November 10, 2008. The number of shares outstanding does not include an aggregate of 28,811,925 shares of common stock that are issuable. This number of issuable common shares is equal to approximately 48% of the 60,406,945 outstanding shares. These issuable common shares are comprised of: a) 14,676,820 shares of our common stock reserved for issuance upon exercise of outstanding awards granted under our 1991 Performance Equity Plan, 1998 Stock Plan and 2006 Stock Plan; b) 101,345 shares reserved for future grants under our 2006 Stock Plan; c) 4,103,984 shares of common stock that are issuable upon conversion of the Series C Preferred Stock; d) 4,771,432 shares of common stock issuable upon conversion of the Series D Preferred Stock; and e) 5,158,344 of common stock issuable upon exercise of warrants relating to the Series D Preferred stock.

Changes in economic and political conditions outside the United States could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

We generate revenues to regions outside the United States, particularly in Asia. For the three months ended September 30, 2008 and 2007, net revenues to customers outside the United States accounted for approximately 6% and 43%, respectively, of our net revenues. For the nine months ended September 30, 2008 and 2007, net revenues to customers outside the United States accounted for approximately 13% and 33%, respectively, of our net sales. International sales and operations are subject to a number of risks, including:

- trade restrictions in the form of license requirements;
- restrictions on exports and imports and other government controls;
- changes in tariffs and taxes;
- difficulties in staffing and managing international operations;
- problems in establishing and managing distributor relationships;
- general economic conditions; and
- political and economic instability or conflict.

To date, we have invoiced our international revenues in U.S. dollars, and have not engaged in any foreign exchange or hedging transactions. We may not be able to continue to invoice all of our revenues in U.S. dollars in order to avoid engaging in foreign exchange or hedging transactions. If we are required to invoice any material amount of international revenues in non-U.S. currencies, fluctuations in the value of non-U.S. currencies relative to the U.S. dollar may adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition or require us to incur hedging costs to counter such fluctuations.

In addition to the risk factors set forth above and the other information set forth in this report, you should carefully consider the factors discussed in Part II, “Item 6. Management’s Discussion and Analysis or Plan of Operation—Risk Factors” in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-KSB for the year ended December 31, 2007, which could materially affect our business, financial condition or future results. The risks described in this report and in our Annual Report on Form 10-KSB are not the only risks that we face. Additional risks and uncertainties not currently known to us or that we currently deem to be immaterial also may materially adversely affect our business, financial condition and/or operating results.

- (a) The significant increase of revenues of Andrea Anti-Noise Products is directly related to an Original Equipment Manufacturer (“OEM”) customer for use with speech recognition software and was a result of the OEM’s increased demand for our products associated with the timing of the launch of the OEMs updated software during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2008 as compared to the same periods in 2007. We believe that our annual revenues for 2008 and 2009 associated with this customer will be approximately $313,000 and $250,000, respectively.
- (b) The 40% and 10% increases for the nine months and three months ended September 30, 2008, respectively, of all other Andrea Anti-Noise net product revenues is associated with increased sales of products to educational customers for use with their distance learning products.
- (c) The significant decreases of revenues of microphone array products to an OEM customer for the three month and nine month periods ending September 30, 2008, relates to the decreased demand from the OEM customer. We believe that this decrease is result of the OEM deciding not to continue including a microphone array with all applicable product models. The revenues in 2007 were a result of the OEM’s introduction of the OEM’s product and the OEM customers’ need to supply all of its customers for the initial launch.
- (d) The 8% and 14% decrease in all other Andrea DSP Microphone and Audio product revenues for the three and nine month periods ended September 30, 2008, respectively, are a result of a decreased demand for our in-vehicle auto array. We believe the decline is resulting to the decline of government funding for these types of products.
- (e) The majority of the increase in licensing revenues for the three and nine month periods ended September 30, 2008 is a result of licensing revenue from two customer in the PC Audio market. The increase for the three month period was a result of these customers launch of PC’s utilizing Intel’s new platform. The increase for the nine-month period is a result of one licensing customer’s initial implementation of our technology. We expect our licensing revenues for 2008 and 2009 to be approximately $1,100,000.

Cost of Revenues

Cost of revenues as a percentage of net revenues for the three months ended September 30, 2008 decreased to 41% from 54% for the three months ended September 30, 2007. The cost of revenues as a percentage of net revenues for the three months ended September 30, 2008 for Andrea Anti-Noise Products is 61% compared to 54% for the three months ended September 30, 2007. The cost of revenues as a percentage of net revenues for the three months ended September 30, 2008 for Andrea DSP Microphone and Audio Software Products is 10% compared to 54% for the three months ended September 30, 2007. Cost of revenues as a percentage of net revenues for the nine months ended September 30, 2008 decreased to 44% from 50% for the nine months ended September 30, 2007. The cost of revenues as a percentage of net revenues for the nine months ended September 30, 2008 for Andrea Anti-Noise Products is 62% compared to 58% for the nine months ended September 30, 2007. The cost of revenues as a percentage of net revenues for the nine months ended September 30, 2008 for Andrea DSP Microphone and Audio Software Products is 19% compared to 43% for the nine months ended September 30, 2007. The changes are primarily the result of the changes in revenue as described under “Net Revenues” above. Specifically the increase in cost of revenues as a percentage of revenues for the Andrea Anti-Noise Products is a result of high volume low margin sales to an OEM customer. The decrease in cost of revenues as a percentage of revenues for the Andrea DSP Microphone and Audio Software is the result of the increase in license revenues partially offset by the decrease in the revenues of high volume low margin microphone array products to an OEM customer.

Research and Development

Research and development expenses for the three months ended September 30, 2008 increased 3% to $179,062 from $173,895 for the three months ended September 30, 2007. This small increase primarily relates to increases in employee related benefit costs. For the three months ended September 30, 2008, the increase in research and development expenses reflects a 6% decrease in our Andrea DSP Microphone and Audio Software Technology efforts to $117,670, or 66% of total research and development expenses and a 25% increase in our Andrea Anti-Noise Headset Product efforts to $61,392, or 34% of total research and development expenses. Research and development expenses for the nine months ended September 30, 2008 increased 11% to $557,807 from $502,755 for the nine months ended September 30, 2007. This increase primarily relates to increases in employee compensation and related benefit costs. For the nine months ended September 30, 2008, the increase in research and development expenses reflects a 4% increase in our Andrea DSP Microphone and Audio Software Technology efforts to $376,240, or 67% of total research and development expenses and a 29% increase in our Andrea Anti-Noise Headset Product efforts to $181,567, or 33% of total research and development expenses. With respect to DSP Microphone and Audio Software technologies, research efforts are primarily focused on the pursuit of commercializing a natural language-driven human/machine interface by developing optimal far-field microphone solutions for various voice-driven interfaces, incorporating Andrea's digital super directional array microphone technology, and certain other related technologies such as noise suppression and stereo acoustic echo cancellation. We believe that continued research and development spending should provide Andrea with a competitive advantage.

General, Administrative and Selling Expenses

General, administrative and selling expenses increased approximately 9% to $555,326 for the three months ended September 30, 2008 from $507,503 for the three months ended September 30, 2007. For the three months ended September 30, 2008, the increase reflects a less than 1% increase in our Andrea DSP Microphone and Audio Software Technology efforts to $298,964, or 54% of total general, administrative and selling expenses and a 23% increase in our Andrea Anti-Noise Headset Product efforts to $256,362, or 46% of total general, administrative and selling expenses. General, administrative and selling expenses increased approximately 8% to $1,721,773 for the nine months ended September 30, 2008 from $1,587,335 for the nine months ended September 30, 2007. For the nine months ended September 30, 2008, the increase reflects an 6% increase in our Andrea DSP Microphone and Audio Software Technology efforts to $980,414, or 57% of total general, administrative and selling expenses and a 12% increase in our Andrea Anti-Noise Headset Product efforts to $741,359, or 43% of total general, administrative and selling expenses. These increases relate to increases in sales and marketing efforts as well as to increases in employee compensation and related benefit costs.

Interest income, net

Interest income, net for the three months ended September 30, 2008 was $2,031 compared to $3,967 for the three months ended September 30, 2007. Interest income, net for the nine months ended September 30, 2008 was $6,602 compared to $4,371 for the nine months ended September 30, 2007.

Provision for Income Taxes

The provision for income taxes is a result of certain licensing revenues that are subject to withholding of income tax as mandated by the foreign jurisdiction in which the revenues are earned. Amounts are based on net revenues and are therefore subject to change.

Net income (loss)

Net income for the three months ended September 30, 2008 was $25,289 compared to a net loss of $194,569 for the three months ended September 30, 2007. Net loss for the nine months ended September 30, 2008 was $344,874 compared to a net loss of $313,214 for the nine months ended September 30, 2007. The net income (loss) for the three and nine month periods ended September 30, 2008 and the net loss for the three months and nine months ended September 30, 2007 principally reflects the factors described above.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

The Company has no off-balance sheet arrangements that have or are reasonably likely to have a current or future effect on its financial condition, changes in financial condition, revenues or expenses, results of operations, liquidity, capital expenditures or capital resources that are material to investors.

Liquidity And Capital Resources

Andrea's principal sources of funds are and are expected to continue to be gross cash flows from operations. At September 30, 2008, we had cash and cash equivalents of $1,156,518 compared with $811,403 at December 31, 2007. The balance of cash and cash equivalents at September 30, 2008 is primarily a result of our cash provided from operations during the nine months ended September 30, 2008.

Working capital balance at September 30, 2008 was $1,993,116 compared to a working capital balance of $1,837,521 at December 31, 2007. The increase in working capital reflects an increase in total current assets of $385,049 coupled with an increase in total current liabilities of $229,454. The increase in total current assets reflects an increase in cash and cash equivalents of $345,115, a decrease in accounts receivable of $267,379, an increase in inventory of $293,581, and an increase in prepaid expenses and other current assets of $13,372. The increase in total current liabilities reflects an increase in trade accounts payable of $165,382, and an increase of $64,072 in other current liabilities. The increase in cash and cash equivalents of $345,115 reflects $415,879 of net cash provided by operating activities, and $70,764 of net cash used in investing activities.

The cash provided by operating activities of $415,879, excluding non-cash charges for the quarter ended September 30, 2008, is attributable to a $267,379 decrease in accounts receivable, a $320,103 increase in inventory, a $13,732 increase in prepaid expenses and other current assets, a $165,382 increase in accounts payable, and a $64,072 increase in other current liabilities. The changes in receivables, inventory and accounts payable primarily reflect differences in the timing related to both the payments for and the acquisition of inventory as well as for other services in connection with ongoing efforts related to Andrea's various product lines.

The cash used by investing activities of $70,764 reflects an increase in property and equipment of $35,512 and an increase in patents and trademarks of $35,252. The increase in property and equipment reflects capital expenditures associated with computer purchases and tooling for some of new products. The increase in patents and trademarks reflects capital expenditures associated with our intellectual property.

We plan to continue to improve our cash flows during 2008 by aggressively pursuing additional licensing opportunities related to our Andrea DSP Audio Software and increasing our Andrea Anti-Noise Headset Products through the introduction of refreshed product line scheduled to be introduced in the second half of 2008 as well as the increased efforts we are putting into our sales and marketing efforts. However, there can be no assurance that we will be able to successfully execute the aforementioned plans. As of November 10, 2008, Andrea has approximately $1,200,000 of cash and cash equivalents. We believe that we have sufficient liquidity available to continue in operation through at least September 2009. To the extent that we do not generate sufficient cash flows from our operations in the next twelve months, additional financing might be required. Although we have improved cash flows by reducing overall expenses, if our revenues decline, these reductions may impede our ability to be cash flow positive and our net income or loss may be disproportionately affected. We have no commitment for additional financing and may experience difficulty in obtaining additional financing on favorable terms, if at all. Any financing we obtain may contain covenants that restrict our freedom to operate our business or may have rights, preferences or privileges senior to our common stock and may dilute our current shareholders' ownership interest in Andrea. We cannot assure that demand will continue for any of our products, including future products related to our Andrea DSP Microphone and Audio Software technologies, or, that if such demand does exist, that we will be able to obtain the necessary working capital to increase production and provide marketing resources to meet such demand on favorable terms, or at all.

Andrea's disclosure controls and procedures are designed to provide reasonable assurance of achieving its objectives.

There have been no changes in the Company's internal controls over financial reporting during the period covered by this Quarterly Report that have materially affected, or are reasonable likely to materially affect the Company's internal controls over financial reporting.
