Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

Move, Inc. (the “Company”) issued a press release on April 2, 2009 announcing that its Chief Financial Officer, Lewis R. Belote, III, will be leaving the Company. Mr. Belote will continue in his current position as CFO (and as the Company’s principal financial officer and principal accounting officer) until the Company identifies a successor. The press release is filed as Exhibit 99.1 to this report and is incorporated by reference into this report.

In addition, on April 2, 2009, the Company amended Mr. Belote’s Employment Agreement, as follows: (i) in the event of Mr. Belote’s involuntary termination, termination for death or disability, or termination without cause by the Company, subject to his execution of the Acknowledgement and Release of Claims under his employment agreement and his continued cooperation with the Company as directed by the Chief Executive Officer of the Company up to such termination, all options granted to Mr. Belote with the exception of those awarded at the commencement of his employment shall be exercisable for a period of three years after the final payment of the cash severance payments (the options awarded at the commencement of his employment shall be exercisable until the expiration set forth in the option awards); and (ii) Mr. Belote shall be entitled to receive the normal health insurance, 401(k), and other benefits offered to the Company’s senior executives during the period that any cash severance payments are made to Mr. Belote under his employment agreement.

Item 9.01 Financial Statements and Exhibits.
