WATER SCIENCE TECHNOLOGIES, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
June 30, 2001

NOTE A - DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS

Water Science Technologies, Inc. (WST or the Company) manufactures and distributes a full line of water treatment and purification systems for sale in the United States and international markets.

NOTE B - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(1) Cash and Cash Equivalents:

The Company considers all highly liquid investments with a maturity of three months or less at the time of purchase to be cash equivalents.

(2) Inventories:

Inventories are carried at the lower of cost, determined using the FIFO (first-in, first-out) method or market.

(3) Property and equipment:

Property and equipment is stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the related assets, which range from three to five years.

(4) Customer deposits:

The Company requires deposits on all large custom design projects. The deposits are a liability to the Company prior to shipping.

(5) Revenue recognition:

Edgar Filing: AQUACELL TECHNOLOGIES INC - Form 8-K/A

Revenues are recorded at the time of shipment of products or performance of services.

(6) Use of estimates:

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

(7) Income taxes:

The Company accounts for income taxes using the asset and liability method described in SFAS No. 109, "Accounting For Income Taxes", the objective of which is to establish deferred tax assets and liabilities for the temporary differences between the financial reporting and the tax bases of the Company's assets and liabilities and enacted tax rates expected to be in effect when such amounts are realized or settled. A valuation allowance related to deferred tax assets is recorded when it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized.

(8) Fair value of financial instruments:

The carrying amounts of the Company's cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, accounts payable and note payable approximate fair value because of the short maturity of these instruments.

NOTE C - INVENTORIES

Inventories consist of the following at June 30, 2001:

Raw materials	$ 82,000
Work in progress	6,000
Completed product	7,000

Note payable - other represented indebtedness to a vendor. The note was payable in monthly installments of $3,000 with interest imputed at 7%. In March 2002 the note was paid in full (see Note I).

NOTE G - INCOME TAXES

At June 30, 2001, the Company had available federal net operating loss carryforwards to reduce future taxable income, if any, of approximately $239,000. The net operating loss carryforwards expire at various dates through 2021.

The Company had deferred tax assets of approximately $100,000 at June 30, 2001, resulting primarily from net operating loss carryforwards. The deferred tax assets have been fully offset by a valuation allowance resulting from the uncertainty surrounding the future realization of the net operating loss carryforwards.
