Accordingly the Trustee shall not be liable for any loss sustained to the value of the Trust Fund by reason of the retention of all such rights or interests in any Special Company and for the purposes of this Clause “invest” shall be given its widest possible meaning.

- (c) For the avoidance of doubt nothing in this Clause 29 shall limit the generality of Clauses 27(c) and 28 but to the extent that there is any inconsistency between this Clause and Clause 27(c) or Clause 28, this Clause shall prevail but only to the extent of such inconsistency.

- (v) if the Trustee considers that the continued retention of any Special Company or any of its assets could have an adverse impact on the reputation of the Trustee or any Associate of the Trustee including, without limitation, where the underlying business activity invested in would or might be considered unlawful, immoral, unethical or otherwise highly controversial.

Further, the Trustee shall have no duty to inspect or review the portfolio of assets of a Special Company or to give any directions or suggestions or warnings in relation to investment matters, whether generally or in relation to particular assets, or to intervene, in particular where no action is being taken by the Directors in relation to assets which are falling in value.

- (g) Where an interested person has a complaint concerning the conduct of a Special Company's affairs, and the ground of that complaint is permitted, he may in writing call upon the Trustee to intervene in the affairs of that Special Company (an "intervention call") to deal with that complaint.
- (h) Upon receiving an intervention call, the Trustee shall, if satisfied that the complaint is reasonable, take such, if any, action as the Trustee considers appropriate to deal with the complaint in the interests of the Trust, including without limitation:
 - (i) making or procuring changes in the directorship of that Special Company;
 - (ii) procuring action by that Special Company to recover any losses caused by the conduct giving rise to the complaint; or
 - (iii) seeking such advice on the complaint and the manner of addressing it as the Trustee considers appropriate.
- (i) In considering and taking action in response to an intervention call, the Trustee shall disregard any commercial, financial, professional, trade, credit, operational or strategic risks associated with the conduct of any business of the Special Company as a commercial enterprise ("business risk") except to the extent that:-

 - (ii) the wishes of the Settlor require business risk to be considered.
- (j) After acting pursuant to an intervention call, or deciding not to act, the Trustee shall by written notice inform the relevant interested party of its decision and actions (if any) regarding the intervention call, after which notice the Trustee's obligation to intervene in that or any other Special Company shall be at an end unless and until another intervention call is made.
- (k) The Trustee shall at all times prior to the Vesting Date procure that:
 - (i) notwithstanding any purported exercise of any power or authority to the contrary (whether contained in this Deed or otherwise) the Settlor be appointed and remain a director of any Special Company so long as he or she remains alive, willing to so act and not Incapacitated;
 - (ii) upon receiving written notice from the Settlor or the Settlor's Successor requesting that any one or more directors of a Special Company named in the notice be removed from office, that such director or directors are so removed;

Following the withdrawal of a notice, no further action shall or may be taken on it, but a withdrawal shall not affect anything done or not done prior to the Trustee receiving the notice of withdrawal.
- (m) The Trustee shall not incur any liability for any loss suffered by the Trust Fund as the result of any actions taken or not taken by the Trustee pursuant to the written directions of the Protector or the Board of the relevant Special Company as the case may be pursuant to sub-clause (d) above or for any omission on the part of the Trustee to take or omit taking action in compliance with any such directions, and without prejudice to the foregoing the Trustee shall be entitled to indemnification from the Trust Fund against all and any actions, claims, demands, costs and liabilities whatsoever arising from or in connection with any action taken or not taken by the Trustees in relation to any such directions of the Protector or the Board of the Special Company.
- (n) The Settlor or the Settlor's Successor may, with the prior written consent of the Trustee, at any time and from time to time before the Vesting Date specify by notice in writing to the Trustee that a company shall no longer be considered to be a Special Company for the purposes of this Deed on and from such date as shall be specified in such notice, in which event, this Clause 29 shall cease to apply to that company on and from the date so specified provided that no such notice shall cause this Clause 29 to cease to apply to such company in relation to any period during which it was a Special Company.
