SECTION 1 - REGISTRANT'S BUSINESS AND OPERATIONS

Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS. This current report contains certain forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended that involve risks and uncertainties. In addition, the Registrant (Heartland, Inc., a Maryland corporation, and its subsidiaries) may from time to time make oral forward-looking statements. Actual results are uncertain and may be impacted by many factors. In particular, certain risks and uncertainties that may impact the accuracy of the forward-looking statements with respect to revenues, expenses and operating results include without limitation; cycles of customer orders, general economic and competitive conditions and changing customer trends, technological advances and the number and timing of new product introductions, shipments of products and components from foreign suppliers, and changes in the mix of products ordered by customers. As a result, the actual results may differ materially from those projected in the forward-looking statements.

Because of these and other factors that may affect the Registrant's operating results, past financial performance should not be considered an indicator of future performance, and investors should not use historical trends to anticipate results or trends in future periods.

On September 26, 2005, the Registrant entered into a binding Acquisition Agreement with Robert Daniel, Karol K. Hart-Bendure, M. Lucille Daniel, and Joe M. Daniel, individually, to acquire all the outstanding issued stock of Schultz Oil Company, Inc., an Ohio corporation for Three Million Five Hundred Thousand ($3,500,000.00) Dollars, payable One Million Five Hundred Thousand ($1,500,000.00) Dollars in cash, plus one million (1,000,000) shares of common stock which shall have a value of at least $2.00 per share at the end of two (2) years or the Registrant will pay the difference.

Schultz Oil Company, is a profitable company with annual sales in excess of around 15 million US Dollars, was originally founded in 1961. Schultz Oil Company's headquarters is located at Tiffin, Ohio where it operates in addition its own convenience/gas station. The company is a petroleum marketer to retail gas stations, farms, homes and industries in the Northwest Ohio area.
