Enclosures: Takaful Licence - Malaysia

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Wednesday 1 February 2006

Joint venture between Prudential and BSN in Malaysia awarded new takaful licence

Prudential Holdings, part of Prudential plc, and Bank Simpanan Nasional (BSN) have been awarded a takaful licence by Bank Negara Malaysia. The new licence is one of four granted by Bank Negara, bringing the total number of companies offering Islamic insurance to nine.

Mark Norbom, Chief Executive of Prudential Corporation Asia said:

"We would like to thank Bank Negara for awarding us the takaful licence which allows the joint venture to sell takaful products. We are very excited about the opportunity to develop products that would have strong appeal to Muslim Malays who make up 60% of the population. We are also delighted to be in partnership with BSN, a well-known and well respected financial institution."

Encik Tajuddin b Atan General Manager/ Chief Executive Officer of BSN said:

"The two shareholders complement each other and the joint venture will immediately benefit from Prudential's existing distribution of more than 7,000 agents as well as BSN's nationwide network of 391 branches. We are confident that the joint venture will meet the ambition of the Government to accelerate the availability of takaful products and bring insurance to Malays residing in the cities as well as in the rural areas."

The new joint venture is expected to be operational in about four to six months.
