BARCLAYS TO ACQUIRE WALBROOK GROUP LIMITED

Barclays Bank PLC ("Barclays") announces that it has signed an agreement to acquire Walbrook Group Limited ("Walbrook"), an independent fiduciary services company. Barclays will finance the transaction out of existing cash resources.

Walbrook is based in Jersey, Guernsey, Isle of Man and Hong Kong where it serves high net worth private clients and corporate customers. As at 31st December 2006 Walbrook had gross tangible assets of GBP13.5m and GBP8.6bn of client assets. Barclays will integrate Walbrook into its Wealth Advisory business where it will build on existing Barclays Wealth operations in the Channel Islands, Isle of Man, and Hong Kong. Walbrook's executive management has committed to staying with and helping to develop the combined business.

Thomas L. Kalaris, Chief Executive of Barclays Wealth, said: "We are delighted to welcome Walbrook to Barclays Wealth. Walbrook has a strong product and client offering and geographical footprint that will complement Barclays Wealth. The acquisition is consistent with our ongoing strategy as we continue to bring a market leading Wealth Management service to our clients."

Bryan Dix, Chief Executive of Walbrook said: "We are excited by the momentum and the opportunities this transaction creates. Barclays is a great fit, and offers outstanding opportunities for our people, our business growth and, most importantly, for our clients."

Forward-looking statements

This document contains certain forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 21E of the US Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Section 27A of the US Securities Act of 1933, as amended, with respect to certain of Barclays plans and its current goals and expectations relating to its future financial condition and performance. These forward-looking statements can be identified by the fact that they do not relate only to historical or current facts. Forward-looking statements sometimes use words such as 'aim', 'anticipate', 'target', 'expect', 'estimate', 'intend', 'plan', 'goal', 'believe', or other words of similar meaning. Examples of forward-looking statements include, among others, statements regarding Barclays future financial position, income growth, impairment charges, business strategy, projected levels of growth in the banking and financial markets, projected costs, estimates of capital expenditures, and plans and objectives for future operations.

By their nature, forward-looking statements involve risk and uncertainty because they relate to future events and circumstances, including, but not limited to, global as well as US economic and business conditions, market related risks such as changes in interest rates and exchange rates, the policies and actions of governmental and regulatory authorities, changes in legislation, and the impact of competition - a number of which factors are beyond Barclays control. As a result, Barclays actual future results may differ materially from the plans, goals, and expectations set forth in Barclays forward-looking statements. Any forward-looking statements made by or on behalf of Barclays speak only as of the date they are made. Barclays does not undertake to update forward-looking statements to reflect any changes in Barclays expectations with regard thereto or any changes in events, conditions or circumstances on which any such statement is based. The reader should, however, consult any additional disclosures that Barclays has made or may make in documents it has filed or may file with the SEC.
