PROXY STATEMENT

FOR

ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

TO BE HELD MAY 22, 2003

This Proxy Statement is being furnished to the stockholders of BancFirst Corporation (the Company) in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of such corporation for use at its Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held May 22, 2003, and any and all adjournments thereof, for the purposes set forth in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting dated April 25, 2003. This Proxy Statement and the accompanying form of proxy are first being mailed to stockholders of the Company on or about April 25, 2003. THE SOLICITATION OF THE ACCOMPANYING PROXY IS MADE BY AND ON BEHALF OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

The cost of soliciting proxies will be borne by the Company, including expenses in connection with the preparation, printing and mailing of this Proxy Statement and all proxy soliciting material which now accompany or may hereafter supplement it. The solicitation will be made by mail; however, proxies also may be solicited by personal interview, telephone and telegram by directors, officers or employees of the Company. The Company will also supply brokers or persons holding stock in their names or in the names of their nominees with the number of proxies, proxy material and annual reports as they may require for mailing to beneficial owners, and will reimburse them for their reasonable expenses in connection therewith.

The date of this Proxy Statement is April 25, 2003.

VOTING AND REVOCABILITY OF PROXIES

The close of business on April 15, 2003 has been fixed as the record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the meeting or any adjournment thereof. On the record date, there were outstanding and entitled to vote 7,808,552 shares of the Company's common stock, par value $1.00 per share (the Common Stock). Each share of Common Stock is entitled to one vote. There is no cumulative voting with respect to the election of directors.

Under the provisions of the Oklahoma General Corporation Act and the Company's Bylaws, a majority of the shares of outstanding Common Stock, present in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum for purposes of the Annual Meeting. Except as may be specifically required by the Oklahoma General Corporation Act, the Company's Certificate of Incorporation or its Bylaws, and other than the election of directors, the affirmative vote of the majority of the shares of Common Stock present in person or represented by proxy at the Annual Meeting and entitled to vote on the subject matter (a Majority Vote) shall be the act of the stockholders. For purposes of determining whether a proposal has received a Majority Vote, abstentions will be included in the vote total, with the result that an abstention will have the same effect as a negative vote. For purposes of determining whether a proposal has received a Majority Vote, in instances where brokers are prohibited from exercising discretionary authority for beneficial holders of Common Stock who have not returned a proxy (so-called broker non-votes), those shares will not be included in the vote totals and, therefore, will have no effect on the outcome of the vote.

Common shares represented by properly executed proxies, unless previously revoked, will be voted at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders in accordance with the instructions thereon. If no direction is indicated, such shares will be voted for approval of the matters submitted, and, in connection with any other business that properly may come before such special meeting, such shares shall be voted according to the discretion of the persons named as proxies.

Any holder of the Common Stock of the Company who executes a proxy has the continuing right to revoke the proxy at any time before it has been voted. Such right may be exercised (i) by delivering written notice of revocation, bearing a later date than the proxy card, to the corporate secretary of the Company; (ii) by delivering to such corporate secretary a duly executed proxy bearing a later date; or (iii) by attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person. Any holder of the Common Stock of the Company may appear and vote at the Annual Meeting, irrespective of whether he has previously given a proxy.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

(PROPOSAL NO. 1)

Pursuant to provisions of the Company's Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws, the number of directors shall not be less than three nor more than 25; currently, the Board of Directors consists of 19 directors. The Company's Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws provide for three classes of directors serving staggered three-year terms, with each class to be as nearly equal in number as possible. The Board of Directors has nominated James R. Daniel, Robert A. Gregory, T. H. McCasland, Jr., Paul B. Odom, Jr. and H. E. Rainbolt for election as Class II directors, with terms expiring at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held in 2006, or until their successors are elected and qualified. All five nominees are incumbents whose current terms commenced upon their election by the stockholders of the Company on May 25, 2000. Proxies cannot be voted for a greater number of persons than the number of nominees named. Other directors who are remaining on the Board will continue in office in accordance with their previous elections until the expiration of their terms at the 2004 or 2005 annual meeting, as the case may be.

The Board of Directors recommends a vote FOR the nominees for election to the Board of Directors for the term so specified.

Subject to a quorum, the affirmative vote of a plurality of the shares present in person or represented by proxy at the Annual Meeting and entitled to vote is required for the election of directors. Abstentions and broker non-votes have no effect on determination of plurality except to the extent that they affect the total votes received by any particular candidate.

It is the intention of the persons named in the enclosed form of proxy to vote such proxy for the election of the nominees. The Board of Directors expects that the nominees will be available for election but, in the event that any nominees are not so available, proxies received will be voted for substitute nominees to be designated by the Board of Directors or, in the event no such designation is made by the Board, proxies will be voted for a lesser number of nominees.

The information below and the section entitled "Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners and Management" provide certain information about each nominee based on data submitted by such persons, including the principal occupation of such person for at least the last five years and any public company directorships held by such person:

Compensation of Directors

Each member of the Board of Directors receives a fee of $500 per quarter. Non-employee directors are granted 5,000 options under the Directors Stock Option Plan at the time they are first elected as a director.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

During 2002, the Compensation Committee shared responsibility with the Board of Directors for the development and implementation of the Company's executive compensation policies. The Board of Directors delegated to the Chief Executive Officer the responsibility for determining the compensation of all executive officers. The Compensation Committee determined the compensation of the Chairman of the Board and the Chief Executive Officer, and reviewed and approved the compensation for the other members of the Executive Committee as determined by the Chief Executive Officer. During 2002, the Executive Committee was composed of Dennis L. Brand, James R. Daniel, K. Gordon Greer (Chairman), Robert A. Gregory, David E. Rainbolt and H. E. Rainbolt, all of whom are directors and executive officers of the Company. During such period, the Compensation Committee was composed of J. R. Hutchens, Jr. and Melvin Moran, neither of whom are officers or employees of the Company or its subsidiaries, and H. E. Rainbolt, Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Company.

Report of the Compensation Committee and the Chief Executive Officer on Executive Compensation

The report of the Compensation Committee and the Chief Executive Officer appearing below and the information herein under "Company Performance" shall not be deemed "soliciting material" or to be "filed" with the Commission or subject to the Commission's proxy rules, except for the required disclosure herein, or to the liabilities of Section 18 of the Exchange Act, and such information shall not be deemed to be incorporated by reference into any filing made by the Company under the Act or the Exchange Act.

To our Stockholders:

The Compensation Committee of the board of Directors has responsibility for determining the compensation of the Chairman of the Board and the Chief Executive Officer, and for reviewing and approving the compensation of the other members of the Executive Committee as determined by the Chief Executive Officer. During 2002 the Compensation Committee was comprised of J. R. Hutchens, Jr., Melvin Moran and H. E. Rainbolt (Chairman). Messrs. Hutchens and Moran are nonemployee directors of the Company. The compensation of all other executive officers is determined by the Chief Executive Officer pursuant to authority delegated to them by the Board of Directors, and in consultation with the budget review committee, together with appropriate supervisory personnel.

General Executive Compensation Policies

The executive compensation policy of the Company is to provide a compensation program that will attract, motivate and retain the high-caliber executives necessary to achieve the Company's business strategies, while at the same time ensuring that an appropriate relationship exists between executive compensation and the creation of stockholder values. The Compensation Committee and the Chief Executive Officer apply this philosophy in determining the compensation of the respective executive officers over whom such committee or officer have responsibility with respect to salary, bonuses and stock options.

Each compensation element supports the Company's mission, values and culture. The compensation principles that link the individual elements into an integrated compensation strategy are as follows: (i) competitive compensation within industry and peer companies; (ii) individual compensation correlated with personal performance and stockholder value creation; and (iii) a compensation structure that directly aligns the executives with the interests and concerns of stockholders. Additionally, each executive officer's level of responsibility is considered in setting executive compensation, meaning that the Company generally pays greater compensation to persons having higher levels of responsibility.

The Company's executive officers are paid base salaries that the Compensation Committee or the Chief Executive Officer have determined to be fair for their assigned responsibilities in comparison with similar positions in other public companies in the banking industry. The Compensation Committee and the Chief Executive Officer periodically use surveys to assist them in establishing the base salaries of the executives over which such committee or officer have responsibility for setting compensation. The Compensation Committee and the Chief Executive Officer make these comparisons in an effort to determine whether the Company's executive compensation is reasonable and remains competitive enough to allow the Company to retain skilled executives. The Compensation Committee and the Chief Executive Officer believe that the compensation paid to the Company's executive officers is in the median range of compensation of executive officers of companies to which these comparisons are made. In addition to making such comparisons and considering levels of responsibility, the Compensation Committee and the Chief Executive Officer consider individual performance and the Company's performance in terms of stock price, earnings and cash flow. However, the determination of base salaries is not strictly tied to performance criteria, and, in determining base salary levels, the Compensation Committee and the Chief Executive Officer believe that they afford approximately equal weight to each of the factors described herein.

The Company's executive officers, including the Chief Executive Officer, participate in an Incentive Bonus Program. Bonus amounts earned are based on the attainment of budgeted earnings and asset quality goals, and can be in amounts of up to 20% of the executive officer's base salary, depending upon an objective review of the degree of attainment of such goals, as well as both an objective and subjective review of the respective executive officer's contribution thereto. Individual goals in each case are established by the Compensation Committee or the Chief Executive Officer, as appropriate.

The Company's executive officers also are eligible to participate in the BancFirst Corporation Stock Option Plan. Stock options provide executives the opportunity to acquire an equity interest in the Company and to share in the appreciation of the stock's value, thereby aligning their interests with those of the stockholders. The Plan currently is administered by the Board of Directors. In determining option grants, the Board does not take into account the amount and value of options currently held, and the Company does not have a target ownership level of equity holdings by its executives. During 2002, stock options for 88,500 shares were granted to employees of the Company, at varying exercise prices equal to the fair market value of the Common Stock on the date of grant. No stock options were granted to any of the Named Executive Officers in 2002.

Compensation of the Chief Executive Officer

The Chief Executive Officer's compensation is determined by the Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee believes that the compensation paid to David E. Rainbolt, the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer, is in the median range of compensation of the chief executive officers of companies to which the comparisons are made. For 2002, the base salary of the Chief Executive Officer was set at $205,000, the same as his 2001 base salary. Mr. Rainbolt also received a bonus of $41,000 for 2002, compared to a bonus of $15,375 for 2001. In making decisions regarding Chief Executive Officer compensation, the Compensation Committee took into account results of operations of the Company, conditions in the banking industry as a whole and Mr. Rainbolt's contributions to the Company.

The Internal Revenue Code limits the deductibility of certain compensation expenses in excess of $1 million. This was not applicable to the Company for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002. However, the Compensation Committee and the Board of Directors intend to monitor executive compensation levels and adopt policies, as necessary, to obtain maximum deductibility of executive compensation while providing motivational and competitive performance-based compensation. The Compensation Committee and the Board of Directors will continue to monitor the tax regulations to determine if any executive compensation program changes are necessary.

This report is respectfully submitted by the members of the Compensation Committee and the Chief Executive Officer:

RATIFICATION OF SELECTION OF INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS

(PROPOSAL NO. 2)

Ernst & Young LLP (Ernst & Young) was the Company's independent accountants for fiscal year 2002 and at the recommendation of the Audit Committee of the Board has been selected by the Board of Directors as the Company's independent accountants for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2003. REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

The following report is for the Audit Committee's activities regarding oversight of the Company's financial reporting and auditing process for fiscal year 2002.

The Audit Committee is comprised solely of independent directors, as defined in the Marketplace Rules of The Nasdaq Stock Market. The Board of Directors has adopted, and annually reviews, an audit committee charter. The composition of the Audit Committee, the attributes of its members and the responsibilities of the Committee, as reflected in its charter, are intended to be in accordance with applicable requirements for corporate audit committees.

As described more fully in its charter, the purpose of the Audit Committee is to assist the Board of Directors in its general oversight of the Company's financial reporting, internal control and audit functions. Management is responsible for the preparation, presentation and integrity of the Company's financial statements, accounting and financial reporting principles, internal controls and procedures designed to ensure compliance with accounting standards, applicable laws and regulations. The Company's independent accountants are responsible for expressing an opinion on the conformity of the Company's audited financial statements to generally accepted accounting principles.

The Audit Committee members are not professional accountants or auditors, and their functions are not intended to duplicate or to certify the activities of management and the independent accountants, nor can the Audit Committee certify that the independent accountants are independent under applicable rules. The Audit Committee serves a board-level oversight role, in which it provides advice, counsel and direction to management and the independent accountants on the basis of the information it receives, discussions with management and the auditors, and the experience of the Committee's members in business, financial and accounting matters.

Among other matters, the Audit Committee monitors the activities and performance of the Company's internal and external auditors, including the audit scope, external audit fees, auditor independence matters and the extent to which the independent accountants may be retained to perform non-audit services. The Audit Committee and the Board have ultimate authority and responsibility to select, evaluate and, when appropriate, replace the Company's independent accountants. The Audit Committee also reviews the results of the internal and external audit work with regard to the adequacy and appropriateness of the Company's financial, accounting and internal controls. Management's and independent accountants' presentations to, and discussions with, the Audit Committee also cover various topics and events that may have significant financial impact or are the subject of discussions between management and the independent auditor. In addition, the Audit Committee generally oversees the Company's internal compliance programs.

The Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed the consolidated financial statements with management and the independent accountants. Management represented to the Committee that the Company's consolidated financial statements were prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and the independent accountants represented that its presentations to the Audit Committee included the matters required to be discussed with the independent accountants by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, Communication with Audit Committees, as amended by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 90, Audit Committee Communications.

The Company's independent accountants also provided the Audit Committee with the written disclosures required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees, and the Audit Committee discussed with the independent accountants that firm's independence.

Following the Audit Committee's discussions with management and the independent accountants, the Audit Committee recommended that the Board of Directors include the audited consolidated financial statements in the Company's annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002.
