Dear (insert customer name),

I have very exciting news to share with you. This morning, before the financial markets in the US opened, LEGATO's strategic partner, EMC announced a definitive agreement to acquire LEGATO Systems. As a valued customer of LEGATO, this represents excellent news for your investment in LEGATO solutions.

Through this acquisition, LEGATO will become part of a global leader in information management solutions ensuring continued, rapid development and new innovation around the products that help you do business today. EMC's financial strength and extensive R&D will increase our ability to bring you even more advanced world-class solutions. EMC and LEGATO share a common vision in our Information Lifecycle Management (ILM) approach, specifically around ensuring that your business critical data is protected, accessible and always available. We also share a deep customer commitment in providing you leading data and storage management solutions, backed by exceptional service so we can assist you in maximizing your competitive advantage.

I believe EMC and LEGATO is a powerful combination together we can complete the full breadth of ILM solutions that our customers require. EMC is committed to open and heterogeneous software and intends to operate LEGATO as a division led by myself and other members of our current senior management team. The acquisition is expected to close in Q4, 2003. With our shared focus and complementary lines of business, we will be even better positioned to serve the emerging needs of all our customers and transform the data access and storage industry well into the future.

As always, we are steadfast in our commitment to providing you with the most robust, enterprise level software and service solutions from information protection, application availability, content management, and messaging solutions.

The LEGATO team is very excited about joining EMC and writing a new chapter in our history. We are here to serve you and we thank you for your continued business.

With Kind Regards,

David B. Wright

Chairman and CEO

LEGATO Systems, Inc.
