PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, or the transition report portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

On May 28, 2003, the registrant announced that it was delaying the filing of its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended March 1, 2003, which was due on May 30, 2003. On May 30, 2003 the registrant filed a Notification of Late Filing on Form 12b-25 with respect to the Form 10-K. The registrant plans to file its Form 10-K and its Form 10-Q for the quarter ended May 31, 2003, which was due on July 15, 2003, as soon as practicable but does not currently expect that the Form 10-Q will be filed on or before the fifth day following the required filing date as prescribed in Rule 12b-25.

As previously disclosed, the registrant has received a request from the Securities and Exchange Commission for the voluntary production of certain information in connection with the registrant's accounting practices. As previously announced, the registrant has been informed that the SEC has issued a formal order of investigation in connection with the matters which were the subject of the request for information. The registrant is fully cooperating with the SEC. The registrant is concurrently performing its own review of its accounting practices and is therefore deferring filing of its Form 10-K and its Form 10-Q while the registrant's review proceeds. The registrant intends to file its Form 10-K and its Form 10-Q as soon as practicable.

Safe Harbor Statement Under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995: Except for the historical information contained herein, the matters set forth in this Form 12b-25, including the registrant's expectations as to the timing of filing its Form 10-K and Form 10-Q and the impact of the registrant's accounting practices review on the registrant's financial statements, are forward-looking statements within the meaning of the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements speak only as of the date hereof and are subject to risks and uncertainties that may cause actual results to differ materially. These risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to, changes in the scope and nature of the Commission's inquiry and/or investigation, the results and effect of the registrant's accounting practices review and its failure to file timely the Form 10-K and Form 10-Q, and the risks detailed from time to time in the registrant's periodic reports filed under the Exchange Act, including its quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the period ended November 30, 2002. The registrant disclaims any intent or obligation to update or revise any forward looking statements.

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof? Yes No

On June 19, 2003, the registrant issued a press release containing its unaudited condensed consolidated balance sheet as of May 31, 2003 and its statement of operations for the quarter then ended. As was disclosed in those financial statements, the registrant's results of operations for the fiscal quarter ended May 31, 2003 changed significantly from its results of operations for the fiscal quarter ended June 1, 2002. The registrant's revenues for the fiscal quarter ended May 31, 2003 decreased significantly from its revenues for the fiscal quarter ended June 1, 2002, from approximately $30.1 million to $12.7 million. The registrant's net loss for the fiscal quarter ended May 31, 2003 was $19.1 million, or $0.15 per share, a significant increase from a net loss for the fiscal quarter ended June 1, 2002 of $15.9 million, or $0.13 per share. The registrant does not know what impact, if any, the outcome of its accounting practices review described in Part III above will have on its results of operations for the fiscal quarter ended May 31, 2003 as reported in the June 19, 2003 press release.
