PROXY STATEMENT

This proxy statement, which is being sent to stockholders on or about October 9, 2003, is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of eDiets.com, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), for use at the forthcoming Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held on Tuesday, November 4, 2003 (the "Meeting"), and at any adjournments thereof.

At the close of business on Friday, October 3, 2003, the record date for determination of stockholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Meeting, there were outstanding an aggregate of 17,854,168 shares of the Company's Common Stock, $.001 par value (the "Common Stock"), the Company's only class of securities entitled to vote at the Meeting.

Voting And Revocability Of Proxies

Each share of Common Stock is entitled to one vote on all matters to come before the Meeting. In the election of directors, assuming a quorum is present, the five nominees receiving the highest number of votes cast at the Meeting will be elected. The affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Common Stock present in person or by proxy at the Meeting is required for approval of Proposal 2, assuming that the total vote cast with respect to that Proposal represents a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock entitled to vote at the Meeting. If a proxy is marked as "withhold authority" or "abstain" on any matter, or if specific instructions are given that no vote be cast on any specific matter (a "Specified Non-Vote"), the shares represented by such proxy will not be voted on such matter. Abstentions on Proposal 2 will be included within the number of shares present at the Meeting and entitled to vote for purposes of determining whether such matter has been authorized, but broker non-votes and other Specified Non-Votes will not be so included.

Your proxy may be revoked at any time prior to its exercise by giving written notice to the Secretary of the Company at the offices of the Company set forth above, by presenting a duly executed proxy bearing a later date or by voting in person at the Meeting, but your mere attendance at the Meeting will not revoke your proxy. Your proxy, when properly executed, will be voted in accordance with the specific instructions indicated on your proxy card. Unless contrary instructions are given, your proxy will be voted for the election of the five nominees for director, as provided in Proposal 1 below; FOR ratification of the selection of Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's auditors for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2003 as provided in Proposal 2 below; and, to the extent permitted by applicable rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"), in accordance with the judgment of the persons voting the proxies upon such other matters as may come before the Meeting and any adjournments thereof. See "Other Matters" below.

Humble and Kier, members of the Company's initial Executive Committee, each received upon their appointment a one-time option grant to purchase 100,000 shares of Common Stock that vested immediately at an exercise price of $2.00 per share.

Each non-employee Director is also granted the option to purchase 25,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock, for committee service. These options vest over a two-year period and the exercise price is equal to the market price of the Common Stock on the date of the grant. No additional compensation is paid for service as a committee chair or for attendance at special meetings of the Board. Non-employee directors are reimbursed for expenses incurred in attending Board and committee meetings, including those for travel, food and lodging.

Directors who are officers of or employed by the Company are not additionally compensated for their Board and committee activities.

However, if any other matters should properly come before the meeting or any adjournments thereof, the proxies solicited hereby will be voted on such matters, to the extent permitted by applicable rules of the SEC, in accordance with the judgment of the persons voting such proxies. In the latter regard, the Company intends to avail itself, with respect to the Meeting, of the provisions of Rule 14a-4(c)(i) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, which grant the persons voting the proxies discretionary authority to vote on any shareholder proposals presented at an annual meeting if the Company has not received notice a reasonable time before it mails its proxy materials for the current year. Employment Agreements

In November 1999, the Company entered into a three-year employment agreement with Mr. Humble that automatically renews each year thereafter. He currently receives a base salary of $250,000 per year, which was increased from $150,000 in December 2000. He is also entitled to receive a bonus to be determined by the Compensation Committee, based on income before taxes. The employment agreement contains a non-competition provision for the term of employment and two years thereafter and a non-disclosure provision

On June 1, 2002, the Company entered into an employment agreement with each of Messrs. Hamilton, Caporale and Johnson and Ms. Brown. Each agreement has a term of two years commencing on the date of the agreement and provides for salaries to be reviewed on an annual basis. Each agreement provides for a base salary of $160,000. Currently, Mr. Hamilton receives a base salary of $180,000. Each agreement also provides for a lump sum payment of $150,000 plus a pro-rata portion of any earned but unpaid bonus and/or commissions in the event of termination for any reason other than cause (as defined identically in each agreement), death or disability or in the event of resignation for good reason (as defined identically in each agreement) following a change of control. Change of control is defined in each agreement to mean another person or entity owns more voting stock of the Company than Mr. Humble or Mr. Humble is no longer the Company's Chairman or Chief Executive Officer. In addition, under the terms of each agreement, in the event of a change of control, all options granted to each executive shall immediately vest and become exercisable and the exercise period of each such option will be extended until the option expires. Each agreement contains covenants regarding disclosure and assignment of discoveries to the Company, non-disclosure of confidential Company information and non-competition for the term of the agreement and for one year following termination for cause. However, if the termination is for a reason other than cause, the non-competition covenant terminates as of the executive's termination date. Report of the Audit Committee

The Audit Committee's (Committee) responsibility is one of oversight. It is the responsibility of the Company's management to prepare consolidated financial statements in accordance with applicable laws and regulations and of the Company's independent auditor to audit those financial statements. Therefore, each member of the Committee shall be entitled to rely, to the fullest extent permitted by law, on the integrity of those persons and organizations within and outside the Company from whom he or she receives information, and the accuracy of the financial information and other information provided to the Committee by such persons.

In this context, the Committee has met and held discussions with management and the independent auditors. Management represented to the Committee that the Company's consolidated financial statements for the three years ended December 31, 2002 were prepared in accordance with the Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP), and the Committee has reviewed and discussed the consolidated financial statements with management and the independent auditors. The Committee discussed with the independent auditors matters required to be discussed by Statements on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communication with Audit Committees), as amended, including the quality and acceptability of the Company's financial reporting process and controls.

The Committee has discussed with the Company's independent auditors the overall scope and plans for their respective audits. The Committee meets regularly with the independent auditors, with and without management present, to discuss the results of their examinations, the evaluations, of the Company's internal controls and the overall quality of the Company's accounting principles.

In addition, the Committee has discussed with the independent auditors the auditor's independence from the Company and its management, including the matters in the written disclosures required by the Independence Standard Board Standard No.1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees) and also considered whether the provision of any non-audit services included below under Independent Auditors and Fees is compatible with maintaining their independence.

In performing all of these functions, the Committee acts only in an oversight capacity and necessarily relies on the work and assurances of the Company's management and independent auditors, which, in their report, express an opinion on the conformity of the Company's annual financial statements to accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. In reliance on the reviews and discussions referred to in this Report and in light of its role and responsibilities, the Committee recommended to the Board of Directors, and the Board has approved, that the audited financial statements of eDiets for the three years ended December 31, 2002 be included for filing with the SEC in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-KSB for the year ending December 31, 2002. The Committee has also approved, subject to stockholder ratification, the selection of Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's independent auditors for 2003, and the Board concurred in its approval.

APPENDIX A

Audit Committee Charter

Purpose

The purpose of the Audit Committee of eDiets.com, Inc. (the Corporation) is to act on behalf of the board of directors and to oversee all material aspects of the organization's financial reporting, control and audit functions, including but not limited to, reviewing the financial information to be provided to the Corporation's shareholders, reviewing the systems of internal controls established by the Corporation's officers and board of directors and selecting and evaluating the Corporation's independent auditors. The Audit Committee does not itself prepare financial statements or perform audits, and its members are not auditors or certifiers of the Corporation's financial statements. Consistent with this purpose, the Audit Committee shall encourage continuous improvement of, and foster adherence to, the Corporation's policies, procedures and practices at all levels. The Audit Committee shall provide assistance to the directors of the Corporation in fulfilling their responsibility to the shareholders and investment community relating to corporate accounting, reporting practices of the Corporation, and the quality and integrity of the financial reports of the Corporation. In so doing, it is the responsibility of the Audit Committee to maintain free and open means of communication between the directors, the independent auditors, and the financial management of the Corporation.

Membership

The Audit Committee shall be composed of not less than three (3) directors of the Corporation, each of whom is independent as such term is described in Item 7(d)(3)(iv) of Schedule 14A. Each Audit Committee member must be, or must become within a reasonable period of time after appointment, financially literate, which qualifications shall be determined by the board of directors. In addition, at least one member of the Audit Committee shall have accounting or related financial management expertise.

Meetings

The Audit Committee shall generally hold regular meetings at least quarterly but more frequently if circumstances make that preferable. The chairperson of the Audit Committee has the power to call an Audit Committee meeting in person or by conference call whenever he or she thinks there is a need. Audit Committee agendas shall be the responsibility of the chairperson, with input from the other members of the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee may designate subcommittees of one or more of its members to report to the full Audit Committee. The majority of the members of the Audit Committee shall constitute a quorum.

Duties and Responsibilities

In carrying out its responsibilities, the Audit Committee believes its policies and procedures should remain flexible, in order to best react to changing conditions and to ensure to the directors and shareholders that the corporate accounting and reporting practices of the Corporation are in accordance with all requirements and are of the highest quality.

In carrying out these responsibilities, the Audit Committee will:

Obtain the full board of directors approval of this Charter and review and reassess this Charter as conditions dictate (at least annually).

Select the independent auditors to audit the financial statements of the Corporation and its divisions and subsidiaries. The Audit Committee will also review and set any fees paid to the independent auditor and review and approve dismissal of the independent auditor.

Analyze and discuss with the independent auditors the fees charged to the Corporation for services rendered by the independent auditor.

Conduct an annual evaluation of the independence of the outside auditor, based in part on review and discussion of a formal written statement delineating all relationships between the auditor and the Corporation and any other relationships that may adversely affect the independence of the auditor.

Have a clear understanding with the independent auditors that they are ultimately accountable to the board of directors and the Audit Committee, as the shareholders representatives, who have the ultimate authority in deciding to engage, evaluate, and if appropriate, terminate their services.

Meet with the independent auditors and financial management of the Corporation to review the scope of the proposed audit for the current year and timely review of the Corporation's quarterly reports, and the audit procedures to be utilized, and at the conclusion thereof review such audit or review, including any comments or recommendations of the independent auditors.

Review with the independent auditors and the Corporation's financial and accounting personnel, the adequacy and effectiveness of the accounting and financial controls of the Corporation, and elicit any recommendations for the improvement of such internal control procedures or particular areas where new or more detailed controls or procedures are desirable. Particular emphasis should be given to the adequacy of such internal controls to expose any payments, transactions, or procedures that might be deemed illegal or otherwise improper. Further, the Audit Committee should periodically review the Corporation's policy statements to determine their adherence to the code of conduct.

Provide sufficient opportunity for the independent auditors to meet with the members of the Audit Committee without members of management present. Among the items to be discussed in these meetings are the independent auditors' evaluation of the Corporation's financial, accounting, and auditing personnel, and the cooperation that the independent auditors received during the course of the audit.

Establish policies and procedures for the engagement of outside auditors to provide non-audit services, including procedures for pre-approval of non-audit services permitted by law to be performed by the independent auditor outside the scope of the engagement letter, and consider whether the independent auditor's performance of such services, together with any other non-audit services being performed, is compatible with the auditor's independence.

Set clear hiring policies for employees or former employees of the independent auditors that meet the SEC regulations and stock exchange listing standards.

Review any material pending legal proceedings involving the Corporation and other contingent liabilities.

Review accounting and financial human resources and succession planning within the Corporation.

Submit the minutes of all meetings of the Audit Committee to, or discuss the matters discussed at each committee meeting with, the board of directors.

Investigate any matters brought to its attention within the scope of its duties, with the power to retain outside counsel for this purpose if, in its judgment, that is appropriate.

Review management's assertion on its assessment of the effectiveness of internal controls as of the end of the most recent fiscal year and the independent auditors' report on management's assertion.

Review the quarterly financial statements with financial management and the independent auditors prior to the filing of the Form 10-QSB (or prior to the press release of results, if possible) to determine that the independent auditors do not take exception to the disclosure and content of the financial statements, and discuss any other matters required to be communicated to the committee by the auditors. The chair of the committee may represent the entire committee for purposes of this review.

Review the financial statements contained in the annual report to shareholders with management and the independent auditors to determine that the independent auditors are satisfied with the disclosure and content of the financial statements to be presented to the shareholders. Review with financial management and the independent auditors the results of their timely analysis of significant financial reporting issues and practices, including changes in, or adoptions of, accounting principles and disclosure practices, and discuss any other matters required to be communicated to the committee by the auditors. Also review with financial management and the independent auditors their judgments about the quality, not just acceptability, of accounting principles and the clarity of the financial disclosure practices used or proposed to be used, and particularly, the degree of aggressiveness or conservatism of the organization's accounting principles and underlying estimates, and other significant decisions made in preparing the financial statements.

Review and discuss with management and the independent auditor any material financial or other arrangements of the Corporation which do not appear on the financial statements of the Corporation.

Establish policies and procedures providing for Audit Committee review and approval of any transactions or courses of dealing with parties related to the Corporation.

Review and discuss with management and the independent auditors any accounting policies and estimates which may be viewed as critical to the Corporation and any significant changes in the accounting policies of the Corporation and accounting and financial proposals that may have a significant impact on the Corporation's financial reports.

On an annual basis, obtain from the independent auditors a written communication delineating all their relationships and professional services as required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees. In addition, review with the independent auditors the nature and scope of any disclosed relationships or professional services and take, or recommend that the board of directors take, appropriate action to ensure the continuing independence of the auditors.

Review the report of the Audit Committee in the annual report to shareholders and the Annual Report on Form 10-KSB disclosing whether or not the committee had reviewed and discussed with management and the independent auditors, as well as discussed within the Audit Committee (without management or the Independent auditors present), the financial statements and the quality of accounting principles and significant judgments affecting the financial statements. In addition, disclose the Audit Committee's conclusion on the fairness of presentation of the financial statements in conformity with GAAP based on those discussions.

Review the Company's disclosure in the proxy statement for its annual meeting of shareholders that describes that the Committee has satisfied its responsibilities under this Charter for the prior year. In addition, include a copy of this Charter in the annual report to shareholders or the proxy statement at least triennially or the year after any significant amendment to the Charter.

Establish procedures for the receipt, retention, and treatment of complaints received by the issuer regarding accounting, internal accounting controls, or auditing matters, and the confidential, anonymous submission by employees of the Company of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters.
