PROXY STATEMENT FOR 2004 ANNUAL MEETING

INTRODUCTION

Time and Place of the Meeting

The Board of Directors of First Reliance Bancshares, Inc. (the Company) is furnishing this proxy statement in connection with its solicitation of proxies for use at the annual meeting of shareholders to be held on Thursday, June 17, 2004 at 12:00 p.m. at First Reliance Bank, 2170 W. Palmetto Street, Florence, South Carolina, and at any adjournments of the meeting.

Record Date and Mail Date

The close of business on April 16, 2004 is the record date for the determination of shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the meeting. We first mailed this proxy statement and the accompanying proxy card to shareholders on or about April 26, 2004.

Number of Shares Outstanding

As of the close of business on the record date, the Company had 5,000,000 shares of common stock, $.01 par value, authorized, of which 2,504,460 shares were issued and outstanding. Each issued and outstanding share is entitled to one vote on all matters presented at the meeting.

VOTING AT THE ANNUAL MEETING

Proposals to Be Considered

Shareholders will be asked to:

Elect four (4) persons to serve as Class C Directors for a three-year term, expiring in 2007;

Ratify the appointment of Jeffrey A. Paolucci as a Class B Director for a term expiring in 2006; and Approve the proposed amendment to First Reliance Bancshares, Inc.'s Articles of Incorporation to increase the amount of authorized shares of common stock.

Each of the proposals above are further described in this proxy statement. The Board of Directors recommends that you vote for approval of these proposals.

Shareholders may also be asked to vote on other matters, if any, properly brought before the shareholders at the annual meeting.

Procedures for Voting by Proxy

If you properly sign, return and do not revoke your proxy, the persons appointed as proxies, who are Leonard A. Hoogenboom and F. R. Saunders, Jr., will vote your shares according to the instructions you have specified on the proxy card. If you sign and return your proxy card but do not specify how the persons appointed as proxies are to vote your shares, your proxy will be voted for the election or ratification of the nominated directors, for the approval of the proposed amendment to our Articles of Incorporation and in the best judgment of the persons appointed as proxies as to all other matters properly brought before the meeting. If any nominee for election to the Board of Directors named in this proxy statement becomes unavailable for election for any reason, the proxy will be voted for a substitute nominee selected by the Board of Directors.

You can revoke your proxy at any time before it is voted by delivering to F. R. Saunders, Jr., President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, at the main office of the Company, either a written revocation of the proxy or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date or by attending the meeting and voting in person.

Requirements for Shareholder Approval

Quorum. A quorum will be present at the meeting if a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock are represented in person or by valid proxy. We will count abstentions and broker non-votes, which are described below, in determining whether a quorum exists.

Abstentions. A shareholder who is present in person or by proxy at the annual meeting and who abstains from voting on any or all proposals will be included in the number of shareholders present at the annual meeting for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum. Abstentions do not count as votes in favor of or against a given proposal unless the proposal being voted upon requires the affirmative vote of at least a specific percentage of the shares outstanding and entitled to vote. In such a case, abstentions will count as votes against the proposal.

Broker Non-Votes. Brokers who hold shares for the accounts of their clients may vote these shares either as directed by their clients or in their own discretion if permitted by the exchange or other organization of which they are members. Proxies for which brokers fail to vote on one or more proposals are referred to as broker non-votes with respect to the proposal(s) not voted upon. Broker non-votes are included in determining the presence of a quorum. A broker non-vote, however, does not count as a vote in favor of or against a particular proposal for which the broker has no discretionary voting authority unless the matter being voted upon requires the affirmative vote of at least a specific percentage of the shares outstanding and entitled to vote. In such a case, broker non-votes will count as votes against the proposal.

Approval Requirements. To be elected or ratified as a director, a director nominee must receive more votes for than against his or her election as a director. As a result, if you withhold your vote as to one or more nominees, it will have no effect on the outcome of the election of the director for which you withheld your vote.

Approval of the proposed amendment to First Reliance Bancshares, Inc.'s Articles of Incorporation will require the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the shares issued and outstanding and eligible to vote in the election of directors. Abstentions and broker non-votes will be counted as votes against this proposal and will, therefore, have the effect of a vote against the proposal.

Any other matter that may properly come before the annual meeting, requires more votes for than against the proposal being voted upon. Abstentions and broker non-votes will not be counted as votes against any proposal and will, therefore, have no effect on the outcome of the proposal.

SOLICITATION OF PROXIES

Edgar Filing: FIRST RELIANCE BANCSHARES INC - Form PRE 14A

The Company will pay the cost of proxy solicitation. Our directors, officers and employees may, without additional compensation, solicit proxies by personal interview, telephone, fax, or otherwise. We will direct brokerage firms or other custodians, nominees or fiduciaries to forward our proxy solicitation material to the beneficial owners of common stock held of record by these institutions and will reimburse them for the reasonable out-of-pocket expenses they incur in connection with this process.

PROPOSAL 3: APPROVAL OF THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT

TO OUR ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

Amendment to Change Number of Authorized Shares of Common Stock

The Board of Directors has adopted, subject to shareholder approval at the annual meeting, a resolution to amend the Company's Articles of Incorporation and increase the number of its authorized shares. Currently, Article Three of the Company's Articles of Incorporation provides for a total of 5,000,000 authorized shares, which may become issued and outstanding shares of the Company. The resolution adopted by the Board of Directors would replace Article Three in its entirety with the following:

3. The total number of shares of capital stock which the corporation is authorized to issue is twenty million (20,000,000) shares, $.01 par value.

If the amendment is approved, this amendment would increase the authorized shares of the Company to 20,000,000 shares and clarify the par value of the Company's common stock. As of April 16, 2004, there were 2,504,460 issued and outstanding shares of the Company's common stock. To provide increased flexibility when raising additional capital in the future through either a private or public offering of the Company's common stock, the Board of Directors has determined that increasing the level of the Company's authorized shares is advisable. The increase to 20,000,000 authorized shares was, in the Board's view, reasonable to avoid in the foreseeable future any duplicative expenses and use of administrative resources of the Company that may result in having to readdress the adequacy of the Company's level of authorized shares.

The proposed amendment itself will not affect the book value of the Company, the actual number of shares currently issued and outstanding, or any right generally associated with the Company's common stock.

Vote Required

Under South Carolina law, approval of the proposed amendment will require the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the issued and outstanding shares of the Company as of the record date for the annual meeting. The directors and executive officers of the Company have committed to vote their shares for the approval of the proposed amendment. If approved, the proposed amendment will be effective upon notice of acceptance of the amendment by the South Carolina Secretary of State's Office. If approved, we expect that the amendment will be effective on or after July 1, 2004.

Recommendation

The Board of Directors of the Company believes that the proposed amendment is in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders and recommends that you vote for the approval of the amendment.

Employment Agreements

F. R. Saunders, Jr. has an employment agreement with the Bank and the Company providing for his employment by the Bank for a term of three years commencing on March 1, 2001 and ending on March 1, 2004, except that the agreement will be extended automatically each month for an additional month unless either party provides notice to the other to cease the automatic extensions. The employment agreement generally provides Mr. Saunders with an annual base salary of $115,000, which may (subject to specific limitations) be increased or decreased at the discretion of the Compensation Committee.

Mr. Saunders also is eligible to receive an incentive bonus equal to 5% of the Bank's consolidated pre-tax earnings for the year, if mutually agreeable individual and team performance criteria and budgeted profit targets are met. If budgeted profit is missed by 60% or more, Mr. Saunders will not receive an annual bonus. If budgeted profit is exceeded by more than 10%, an additional 5% bonus may be awarded by the Compensation Committee and the Board of Directors. In no event may Mr. Saunders' bonus amount exceed an amount equal to 100% of Mr. Saunders' annual salary for the calendar year for which the bonus was paid.

In accordance with his employment agreement, if the Company conducts a public offering of its common stock, Mr. Saunders will be granted, effective as of the date of the closing of the offering, options to purchase that number of Company common stock which is equal to 5% of the number of shares sold in the offering at the offering price.

The employment agreement also requires the Bank to provide other employee benefits, such as health and disability insurance coverage. In addition, the employment agreement requires the Bank to purchase and maintain term life insurance coverage providing a death benefit of $1,000,000 payable to any beneficiary or beneficiaries designated by Mr. Saunders. The policy is convertible to a policy owned by Mr. Saunders under specific conditions.

The employment agreement provides that if Mr. Saunders resigns from the Bank for good reason or if the Bank terminates Mr. Saunders employment other than for cause (as defined by the agreement), then the Bank shall continue to pay Mr. Saunders the annual salary he is receiving at the time plus an incentive bonus at a rate equal to the bonus Mr. Saunders received the previous year, on a monthly basis for a period of three years from the date of termination. The employment agreement further provides that if, after a Change in Control, as defined in the employment agreement, Mr. Saunders resigns from the Bank for good reason (as defined in the agreement) or if the Bank terminates Mr. Saunders employment other than for cause, then the Bank shall continue to pay Mr. Saunders 150% of the annual salary he is receiving at the time, for a period of five years and the Bank shall pay Mr. Saunders a severance payment equal to three times the annual salary he is receiving at the time plus three times the incentive bonus he received for the year prior to the year of his termination of employment.

The employment agreement also provides that Mr. Saunders agrees, for a period of two years after the termination of his employment, he will not manage, operate, be employed by, participate in or be connected in any manner with the management, operation or control of any community, commercial or consumer bank within a 25-mile radius of any branch of the Bank.

Jeffrey A. Paolucci has an employment agreement with the Bank providing for his employment by the Bank for a term of three years commencing on September 15, 2002. The employment agreement provides Mr. Paolucci with an initial base annual salary of $95,000, a signing bonus of $9,500, reimbursement of certain membership dues and eligibility for annual bonus compensation to be set by the Bank.

Mr. Paolucci's employment agreement also provides that the Bank or Mr. Paolucci may terminate the agreement at any time and for any reason. For a period of one-year after termination, Mr. Paolucci will be subject to various non-solicitation and non-compete provisions of his agreement. Additionally, the employment agreement provides that upon a change in control (as defined by the agreement), and in the event the agreement is not otherwise terminated by the Bank or Mr. Paolucci, the agreement shall either be renewed for a new three-year term or the Bank may terminate Mr. Paolucci's employment, which termination would trigger a severance payment obligation on the part of the Bank equal to Mr. Paolucci's then base salary (including benefits) and bonus for which Mr. Paolucci would have otherwise received for the three-year period beginning on the date of the change in control.

Paul C. Saunders has an employment agreement with the Bank and the Company providing for his employment by the Bank for a term of three years commencing on March 1, 2001 and ending on March 1, 2004, except that the agreement will be extended automatically each month for an additional month unless either party provides notice to the other to cease the automatic extensions. The employment agreement provides Mr. Saunders with an annual salary of $82,000, which may (subject to specific limitations) be increased or decreased at the discretion of the Compensation Committee. Mr. Saunders also is eligible to receive an incentive bonus if mutually agreeable individual and team performance criteria and budgeted profit targets are met.

In accordance with his employment agreement, if the Company conducts a public offering of its common stock, Mr. Saunders will be granted, effective as of the date of the closing of the offering, options to purchase that number of Company common stock which is equal to 5% of the number of shares sold in the offering at the offering price.

In addition, the employment agreement requires the Bank to provide other employee benefits similar to those provided to F. R. Saunders, as described above. The employment agreement also requires the Bank to purchase and maintain term life insurance coverage providing a death benefit of $500,000 payable to any beneficiary or beneficiaries designated by Mr. Saunders. The policy is convertible to a policy owned by Mr.

Saunders under specific conditions.

The employment agreement provides that if Mr. Saunders resigns from the Bank for good reason (as defined by the agreement), or if the Bank terminates Mr. Saunders' employment other than for cause (as defined by the agreement), then the Bank shall continue to pay Mr. Saunders the annual salary he is receiving at the time plus an incentive bonus at a rate equal to the bonus Mr. Saunders received the previous year, on a monthly basis for a period of three years from the date of termination. The employment agreement further provides that if, after a change in control (as defined by the agreement), Mr. Saunders resigns from the Bank for good reason or if the Bank terminates Mr. Saunders' employment other than for cause, then the Bank shall continue to pay Mr. Saunders 110% of the annual salary he is receiving at the time, for a period of two years and the Bank shall pay Mr. Saunders a severance payment equal to two times the annual salary he is receiving at the time plus two times the incentive bonus he received for the year prior to the year of his termination of employment.

The employment agreement also provides that Mr. Saunders agrees, for a period of one year after the termination of his employment, he will not manage, operate, be employed by, participate in or be connected in any manner with the management, operation or control of any community, commercial or consumer bank within a 25-mile radius of any branch of the Bank.

Thomas C. Ewart, Sr. has an employment agreement with the Bank providing for his employment by the Bank for a term of three years commencing on April 23, 2003, except that the agreement will be extended automatically for additional one-year periods unless a party gives the other party proper non-renewal notice. The employment agreement provides Mr. Ewart with an initial annual salary of $135,000, insurance coverage in the amount of at least two-times Mr. Ewart's base salary, reimbursement of certain membership dues, a $25,000 unsecured line of credit, a secured $67,025 loan, stock options equal to at least $41,639 (which are subject to a pre-determined vesting schedule) and eligibility for annual bonus compensation to be set by the Bank.

Mr. Ewart's employment agreement also provides that the Bank or Mr. Ewart may terminate the agreement at any time and for any reason. For a period of one-year after termination, Mr. Ewart will be subject to various non-solicitation and non-compete provisions of his agreement. Additionally, the employment agreement provides that upon a change in control (as defined by the agreement), and in the event the agreement is not otherwise terminated by the Bank or Mr. Ewart, the agreement shall either be renewed for a new three-year term or the Bank may terminate Mr. Ewart's employment, which termination would trigger a severance payment obligation on the part of the Bank equal to Mr. Ewart's then base salary (including benefits) and bonus for which Mr. Ewart would have otherwise received for the three-year period beginning on the date of the change in control.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act requires the Company's directors and executive officers and persons who own beneficially more than 10% of the Company's outstanding common stock to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission initial reports of ownership and reports of changes in their ownership of the Company's common stock. Directors, executive officers and greater than 10% shareholders are required to furnish the Company with copies of the forms they file. To our knowledge, based solely on a review of the copies of these reports furnished to the Company, during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003, all of our directors and executive officers, who are listed above, complied with all applicable Section 16(a) filing requirements.

RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Company and the Bank have banking and other business transactions in the ordinary course of business with directors and officers of the Company and the Bank and their affiliates, including members of their families, corporations, partnerships or other organizations in which such directors and officers have a controlling interest. These transactions take place on substantially the same terms (including price, interest rate and collateral) as those prevailing at the same time for comparable transactions with unrelated parties. In the opinion of management, these transactions do not involve more than the normal risk of collectibility or present other unfavorable features to the Company or the Bank.

INDEPENDENT PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

The Company has selected the accounting firm of Elliott Davis, LLC to serve as auditors for the Company for the current year. The firm of Elliott Davis, LLC has served as the Company's auditors since January 2, 2003.

Legislation and Securities Exchange Commission rules adopted in 2002 have significantly increased, and will continue to increase, the regulatory burdens on audit firms that audit the financial statements of companies that are subject to the reporting requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Consequently, many smaller audit firms are deciding to limit their audit practice to companies that are not subject to the Securities Exchange Act. Tourville, Simpson & Caskey, L.L.P., which served as the Company's principal independent accountant since the Company's inception, is one such firm. Accordingly, effective January 2, 2003, Tourville, Simpson & Caskey resigned as the Company's principal independent public accountant. Elliott Davis, LLC was engaged by the Company on January 2, 2003 to audit the Company's financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2002, and has also been selected to audit the Company's financial statements for the year ending December 31, 2003.

Tourville, Simpson & Caskey, L.L.P.'s reports on the Company's financial statements for each of the years ended December 31, 2001 and 2000 neither contained an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, nor were modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles. There were no disagreements with Tourville, Simpson & Caskey, L.L.P. on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which, if not resolved to Tourville, Simpson & Caskey, L.L.P.'s satisfaction, would have caused it to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement in its reports.

A representative of Elliott Davis, LLC is expected to be present at the meeting and will be given the opportunity to make a statement if he or she desires to do so and will be available to respond to appropriate questions from shareholders.

The following table shows the amounts paid by the Company to Elliott Davis, LLC, the Company's independent auditors, for the last two fiscal years.

Audit Fees

These fees include amounts paid or expected to be paid for each respective year's audit.

Audit-Related Fees

Audit-related fees represent fees billed by Elliott Davis, LLC for review of management's discussion and analysis for Form 10-KSB and review of the Company's registration statement on Form SB-2 in 2002.

Tax fees represent the aggregate fees billed in each of the last two fiscal years for professional services rendered by Elliott Davis, LLC for preparation of federal and state income tax returns and assistance with tax estimates.

For 2003, 100% of the fees incurred were pre-approved.

DIRECTOR NOMINATIONS AND SHAREHOLDER COMMUNICATIONS

Director Nominations. The Nomination Committee has not adopted a formal policy or process for identifying or evaluating nominees, but informally solicits and considers recommendations from a variety of sources, including other directors, members of the community, customers and shareholders of the bank, and professionals in the financial services and other industries. Similarly, the committee does not prescribe any specific qualifications or skills that a nominee must possess, although it considers the potential nominee's business experience; knowledge of the Company and the financial services industry; experience in serving as a director of the Company or another financial institution or public company generally; wisdom, integrity and analytical ability; familiarity with and participation in the communities served by the Company; commitment to and availability for service as a director; and any other factors the committee deems relevant.

The Nomination Committee will consider shareholder nominations for directors that are made in writing and delivered to the Company in accordance with the Company's Bylaws. Generally, the Company's Bylaws require that such notice be given at least 120 days before the one-year anniversary of the mailing date for the prior year's proxy statement, which in our case would require that nominations be submitted prior to December 26, 2004 for next year's annual meeting. Additionally, the nomination must state, to the extent known to the nominating shareholder, the following information:

Edgar Filing: FIRST RELIANCE BANCSHARES INC - Form PRE 14A

with respect to the nominee, all information regarding the nominee required to be disclosed in a solicitation of proxies for election of directors pursuant to Regulation 14A under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 (including the nominee's written consent to be named in a proxy statement as a nominee and to serve as a director if elected);

any agreement or relationship between the nominee and the Company, its directors, officers, employees and independent auditors, as well as the nominating shareholder; and the nominating shareholder's name, address and number of shares owned.

Shareholder nominations not made in accordance with the Company's nominating procedures may be disregarded by the chair of the meeting at which the election is to be held.

Shareholder Proposals. To be included in the Company's annual proxy statement, shareholder proposals not relating to the election of directors must also be received by the Company at least 120 days before the one-year anniversary of the mailing date for the prior year's proxy statement. The Company's Bylaws require that the shareholder's proposal notice describe:

the proposal and the reason it is being brought before the meeting;

the shareholder's name and address and the number of shares he or she beneficially owns; and any material interest of the shareholder in the proposal.

SEC Rule 14a-8 provides additional information regarding the content and procedure applicable to the submission of shareholder proposals to be included in the Company's 2005 proxy statement. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the Board of Directors have the discretion to determine whether a shareholder's proposal is a proper business matter. Accordingly, the Board may, if warranted under the circumstances, deny the shareholder's request upon written notice to the shareholder stating its reason for such denial.

In order for a shareholder proposal to be considered at the 2004 annual meeting, notice of the proposal was required to be delivered to the Secretary of the Company on or before December 28, 2003. The Company did not receive notice of any shareholder proposals to be presented at the 2004 meeting.

Shareholder Communications. Shareholders wishing to communicate with the Board of Directors or with a particular director may do so in writing, addressed to the Board or to the particular director, and sending it to the Secretary of the Company at the Company's principal office at 2170 W. Palmetto Street, Florence, South Carolina 29501. The Secretary will promptly forward such communications to the applicable director or to the Chairman of the Board for consideration at the next scheduled meeting.

Submission Deadline for Next Year's Annual Meeting. To be included in the Company's 2005 proxy statement, shareholder nominations and proposals submitted for consideration at the 2005 annual meeting of shareholders must be received by the Company no later than December 26, 2004. The exact date of the deadline, however, will depend on the date set for the 2005 annual meeting. Generally, the proxyholder(s) disclosed in the Company's proxy statement shall have the discretionary authority to vote upon any shareholder proposal not included in the Company's proxy materials.
