As of March 2004, approximately 15 Cohen Optical stores were located in the same shopping center or mall as, or in close proximity to, certain of the Company's retail optical stores. (emphasis added)

Further, the Cohen Brothers admit in Emerging Vision's proxy statement that it is possible that one or more additional Cohen Optical stores may in the future be located near one or more of the Company's retail optical stores thereby competing directly with such Company stores.

The Cohen Brothers acknowledge that they are the principal shareholders of Cohen Optical, while they hold less than 10% of the stock of Emerging Vision. In our opinion, it is inappropriate for the officers, directors and principal shareholders to have substantial interests in competing enterprises. When Emerging Vision competes for franchises, for customers, for locations or in the purchase of goods and services with other entities in which the Cohen's have a more significant interest, we believe they favor, the other entities to the detriment of Emerging Vision.

In addition, Emerging Vision subleases from Cohen Optical a portion of Cohen Optical's office space. Occupancy costs are allocated between the Company and Cohen Optical. We do not believe that it is appropriate for a public company to share office space with its competitor.

Alan Cohen and Robert Cohen and certain members of their respective immediate families also are the principal owners of General Vision Services, LLC (GVS). GVS operates approximately 24 retail optical stores principally in the New Jersey and New York metropolitan area, which stores are again said in the Company's proxy statement to be similar to the retail optical stores operated and franchised by the Company. As an additional element of competition, it is disclosed by the Cohen Brothers that GVS solicits and administers third party benefit programs similar to those being administered by the Company. The Cohens also acknowledge that it is possible that GVS stores or other retail optical stores which provide third party benefit plans administered by GVS may now or in the future be located near one or more of the Company's retail optical stores and may be competing directly with such stores. Again, we think it is totally inappropriate for the Cohens to be running Emerging Vision when such blatant conflicts of interest exist.

As if this was not enough, in October 2003, Vision World, LLC which is beneficially owned, in principal part, by Robert and Alan Cohen and members of their family, acquired substantially all the assets of Eyeglass Service Industries' third party administration business. Vision World solicits and administers third-party benefit programs similar to those being administered by the Company. The Cohens acknowledge in the Emerging Vision Proxy Statement that it is possible that a Vision World store, or another retail optical store which provides third-party benefit plans administered by Vision World, may now or in the future be located near one or more of the Company's retail optical stores and may be competing directly with such store. So, now the Cohens are the principal owners of a THIRD competitor of the Company.

Cohen Optical and GVS are privately-held companies of the Cohen Brothers, so that their financial statements are not publicly available. However, based on conversations with the Cohens, Horizons believes that both GVS and Cohen Optical are profitable enterprises, while your Company has suffered nothing but losses, despite operating in the same industry. Horizons believes that with a new Board of Directors working for you, the shareholders of Emerging Vision, and not its competitors, the Company can become profitable.

CORPORATE OPPORTUNITIES OF EMERGING VISION FOR THEIR BENEFIT

On a number of occasions, Mr. Fernandez has brought business opportunities to Emerging Vision which were unlawfully diverted by the Cohens to their other business enterprises. For instance, in or around 2003, Mr. Fernandez learned that three different New York City hospitals Metropolitan Hospital, Lincoln Hospital and Harlem Hospital had space available for retail optical stores for their patients and employees. Mr. Fernandez passed this information along to Alan and Robert Cohen believing that this presented Emerging Vision with a great opportunity to enter into new franchise agreements. However, instead of starting new Sterling Optical franchises in those hospitals, the Cohen Brothers used those hospital locations to initiate three new GVS franchises, thereby benefiting one of their competing retail optical companies at the expense of Emerging Vision.

HORIZONS HAS COMMITTED TO GOOD CORPORATE GOVERNANCE AT EMERGING VISION

Good corporate governance is critical in the United States today. As the recent spate of corporate scandals has demonstrated, proper corporate governance is critical to protecting shareholders. Recent changes in the law and corporate regulation have emphasized a need for independent directors, independent audit, compensation and nominating committees, internal controls and audits and a lack of conflicts of interest. Emerging Vision has operated with none of these corporate norms. For instance:

Emerging Vision failed to have an annual meeting of shareholders in 2003.

Three of Emerging Vision's current directors, Robert Cohen, Alan Cohen and Joel Gold, have not been elected by the shareholders since 2001. Emerging Vision's fourth director, Christopher Payan, was made a director without being elected by the shareholders.

Neither the Audit Committee nor the Compensation Committee is currently composed of a majority of independent directors. The Cohen Brothers currently constitute a majority of both committees.

The Cohen Brothers also constitute a majority of the Executive Committee of the Board.

The Company does not have a Chief Executive Officer. In the Company's Proxy Statement, Emerging Vision reports having three co-chief operating officers. However, no individual is named as the Chief Executive Officer of the Company. Who is in charge?

Mr. Fernandez had been the chair of the Audit Committee until April 2004. Prior to the issuance of the Company's 2003 audited financial statements, Mr. Fernandez sought to engage a firm to conduct an internal audit of the Company's financial statements, as he was concerned with a number of matters, including the large number of related party transactions. We believe that Mr. Fernandez's desire to have an internal audit conducted was blocked by the other directors.

We believe the Board is not interested in considering qualified candidates for Board Membership. In May 2004, Mr. Fernandez provided the Board with resumes and other information concerning each of the nominees for directors being presented by this Proxy Statement. The Board took absolutely no action to review those candidates' qualifications, interview the individuals suggested or in any way consider their nominations. Instead, one business day after receiving Mr. Fernandez's list of proposed candidates, the current Board, over Mr. Fernandez's objection, nominated its own slate of directors, set a record date, and set a date for this annual meeting. They hastily took those actions despite the fact that for the prior two years no annual meeting had been held.

To further frustrate shareholder democracy, despite three requests, and despite the status of Mr. Fernandez as the largest shareholder and a director of Emerging Vision, the Company refused to provide Mr. Fernandez with a current shareholders list so that he could pursue a free and fair election of directors. Mr. Fernandez had to resort to litigation to enable him to communicate with fellow shareholders, the most basic right of all shareholders.

AS A LARGE SHAREHOLDER OF EMERGING VISION, WE ARE COMMITTED TO MAXIMIZING VALUE FOR ALL OF EMERGING VISION'S SHAREHOLDERS

Horizons is the largest shareholder of the Company (34.1%) and owns more Common Stock than any other shareholder and more Common Stock than all of the directors on the Board combined. As such, our interests are aligned with yours. We are not interested in the positions and perks of directorship; we do not own any competitors whom we would favor over Emerging Vision. Rather, we want to maximize the value of Emerging Vision's common stock for the benefit of all shareholders. Our nominees are committed to:

Ensuring that the Company undergo a thorough and comprehensive strategic review of operations and opportunities to maximize shareholder value.

Acting like a public company. Our board will be truly independent of management. We will have annual meetings every year. Our nominees will immediately implement quarterly conference calls, and begin regular communication with the market. We will not be run for the benefit of one family.

Operating without conflicts of interest.

Having a completely independent Audit Committee.

Seeking to attract new management talent.

Edgar Filing: bin Abdullah bin Abdulrahman Khalid - Form 4

Acting responsibly. The Company's 2003 annual report lists 17 different material litigation actions to which the Company is subject, in addition to litigation in the ordinary course. As previously noted, we had to initiate litigation just to get a shareholders list. We intend to be better corporate citizens.

Our interests are clearly aligned with yours. We want to maximize value for all Emerging Vision shareholders. We seek to run the Company for the benefit of all shareholders, and not for the benefit of our competitors. In our view, the performance of the incumbent slate has not served the interests of the shareholders and raises serious questions as to whether the incumbent directors can provide the best solution to the Company's problems. Their record speaks for itself.

PENDING LITIGATION

An action, commenced by Horizons and Mr. Fernandez, is pending in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York, in which Horizon and Mr. Fernandez, Nassau County, seek injunctive and declaratory relief due to Emerging Vision's failure to provide Horizons with a complete and current copy of Emerging Vision's shareholder list as required by the New York Business Corporation Law and breaches of fiduciary duties in connection with the Annual Meeting.

PROPOSED DIRECTORS OF EMERGING VISION

Horizons has advised Emerging Vision that at the Annual Meeting it intends to nominate the six individuals named below to serve as directors of Emerging Vision. Under Emerging Vision's by-laws, directors elected at the Annual Meeting will serve in such capacity until the 2005 Annual Meeting of Shareholders in the case of the Class I Directors and until the 2006 Annual Meeting of Shareholders in the case of the Class II Directors and until their successors have been duly elected and qualified. Unless otherwise stated, each nominee has sole voting power and sole investment power with respect to the shares of Capital Stock beneficially owned by such nominee and each nominee is the beneficial owner of all shares held of record by such nominee.

Each of Horizons' nominees has consented to be named in this Proxy Statement and to serve as a director of Emerging Vision, if elected. If at the time of the Annual Meeting any nominee is unable or unwilling to serve as a director, the discretionary authority provided in the proxy will be exercised to vote for a substitute designated by Horizons. Horizons has no reason to believe that any of the nominees will be unable or unwilling to serve as a director, if elected.

Other than as described in this Proxy Statement or in Appendix A hereto, none of the nominees for director named in this Proxy Statement nor Horizons or any other person who may solicit proxies on its behalf (or, to the knowledge of such persons, any associate thereof) (i) has purchased or sold any class of securities of Emerging Vision within the past two years, (ii) has borrowed funds for the purpose of acquiring or holding any shares of Capital Stock purchased by such person within the past two years, (iii) is now or within the past year has been a party to any contract, arrangement or understanding with any person with respect to any class of any securities of Emerging Vision, (iv) has or will have a direct or indirect material interest in any transaction, or series of similar transactions, since the beginning of Emerging Vision's last fiscal year, or any currently proposed transaction, or series of similar transactions, to which Emerging Vision was or is to be a party and in which the amount involved exceeds $60,000, or (v) has any arrangement or understanding with any person with respect to any future employment with Emerging Vision or its affiliates or any future transactions to which Emerging Vision or any of its affiliates will or may be a party.

Additional information not set forth elsewhere in this Proxy Statement regarding certain transactions between Emerging Vision and Horizons and its nominees for election as directors and their associates is set forth in Appendix A hereto. There are no present plans, understandings or arrangements whereby Horizons, any of its members, or any of its nominees for election as directors (or, to the knowledge of such persons, any associate thereof) will acquire any of Emerging Vision's operations or assets.

The persons named as proxies in the accompanying BLUE proxy card of Horizons intend to vote FOR Horizons' nominees unless specifically instructed to the contrary by the person executing the proxy card. The votes cast at the Annual Meeting may result in the election to the Board of Directors of some of the persons on whose behalf Horizons is soliciting proxies and some of Emerging Vision's nominees. If the persons for whom Horizons is soliciting proxies constitute less than a majority of the full Board of Directors, Horizons may be unable to influence the direction of Emerging Vision in the future.

If some of the persons supported by Horizons and some of Emerging Vision's nominees are elected, those persons who are nominees of Horizons intend to serve their terms as directors. Horizons is unable to predict whether any nominees of Emerging Vision, will agree to serve on a Board of Directors comprised in part of Horizons nominees. In the event that vacancies on the Board of Directors are created by the refusal of any of these persons to serve with Horizons nominees, Horizons intends to take all actions necessary to fill those vacancies, subject to the requirements of New York law and the by-laws of Emerging Vision.

The persons receiving the greatest number of votes for the number of directors to be elected will be elected the directors of Emerging Vision.

YOU ARE URGED TO VOTE FOR THE ELECTION OF THE PERSONS NAMED ABOVE AS DIRECTORS OF EMERGING VISION BY COMPLETING, SIGNING, DATING AND MAILING PROMPTLY THE ENCLOSED BLUE PROXY CARD IN THE POSTAGE-PAID ENVELOPE PROVIDED.

VOTING AND REVOCATION OF PROXIES

The proxies solicited by Horizons will be voted at the Annual Meeting for the election of its nominees to the Board of Directors of Emerging Vision unless specifically directed otherwise. As of the date of this Proxy Statement, Horizons is not aware of any other matters to be presented for action at the Annual Meeting other than the election of directors. However, should any other business properly come before the Annual Meeting, Horizons enclosed BLUE proxy card will confer upon the persons named as proxies therein discretionary authority to vote the shares represented thereby in respect of such other business.

Execution of Horizons BLUE proxy card will not affect a shareholder's right to attend the Annual Meeting and to vote in person. In addition, execution of the Company's proxy card does not affect a shareholder's right to revoke that proxy and execute the BLUE proxy card provided by Horizons. A shareholder who executes and delivers a proxy may revoke it at any time prior to its exercise by filing a written notice of revocation with the Secretary of Emerging Vision prior to the Annual Meeting or with the secretary of the Annual Meeting during the Annual Meeting or by submitting a later dated proxy. Attendance at the Annual Meeting will not be sufficient to revoke a proxy unless the shareholder files a written notice of revocation with the secretary of the Annual Meeting. Whether or not you plan to attend the Annual Meeting, please complete, sign and date Horizons enclosed BLUE proxy card and return it in the accompanying envelope as soon as possible.

VOTE REQUIRED

A majority of the shares outstanding on the record date will constitute a quorum for purposes of the Annual Meeting. Assuming that a quorum is present, the election of directors will be effected by a plurality vote. For purposes of determining the votes cast with respect to any matter presented for consideration at the Annual Meeting, only those votes cast for or against are included. Abstentions and broker non-votes are counted only for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present at the Annual Meeting.

SOLICITATION EXPENSES

The expenses of preparing, printing and distributing this Proxy Statement and the accompanying form of proxy and the cost of soliciting proxies for the election of Horizons nominees will be borne by Horizons. Such expenses are estimated to be approximately $[]. If it is successful, Horizons intends to seek reimbursement from Emerging Vision, to the extent permitted by law, for expenses incurred in connection with its proxy solicitation, without the vote of the holders of the Capital Stock.

Edgar Filing: bin Abdullah bin Abdulrahman Khalid - Form 4

In addition to the use of the mails, solicitation of proxies may be made by means of personal calls upon, or telephonic, telegraphic or facsimile communications to or with, shareholders or their personal representatives by certain of Horizons' nominees for election as directors, none of whom will be specifically compensated for such services. Proxies will not be solicited via the Internet, such as Internet chat rooms and/or posting on websites. Copies of soliciting materials will be furnished to banks, brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for forwarding to the beneficial owners of shares of Capital Stock for whom they hold shares, and Horizons will reimburse them for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses in connection therewith.

Horizons has also retained The Altman Group to assist it in the solicitation of proxies. The Altman Group will solicit proxies on behalf of Horizons from individuals, brokers, bank nominees and other institutional holders in the same manner described above. The Altman Group will receive a fee of $17,500 for its services to Horizons in connection with the solicitation of the proxies, a fee of $7,500 upon the mailing of this proxy statement to Emerging Vision's shareholders and an additional fee of $12,500 if Horizons is successful in electing a majority of Emerging Vision's directors at the Annual Meeting, plus reimbursement for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses. Approximately [] persons will be employed by The Altman Group to solicit shareholders.

ABSENCE OF APPRAISAL RIGHTS

Under New York law, you do not have appraisal rights in connection with our solicitation of proxies.

PARTICIPANTS IN THE SOLICITATION

The following is based on information provided in Emerging Vision's Preliminary Proxy Statement filed May 28, 2004:

Horizons Investors Corp. and Matters Relating to Benito R. Fernandez

On December 3, 2001 and December 20, 2001, Emerging Vision borrowed from Horizons the sums of $150,000 and $300,000, respectively, each of which loans, together with interest thereon, calculated at 1% above the prime rate, were repaid by Emerging Vision, in full, on January 23, 2002.

On January 23, 2002, Emerging Vision and Horizons entered into a series of agreements pursuant to which Horizons established, in favor of Emerging Vision, a credit facility, in the maximum amount of $1,000,000 and, in connection therewith, Emerging Vision obtained from Horizons advances thereunder, totaling $450,000. In connection with the closing of Emerging Vision Rights Offering, Emerging Vision repaid these amounts, in full, on April 22, 2003.

In connection with the above financing arrangements, Emerging Vision issued to Horizons, five-year warrants to purchase up to 2,500,000 shares of Emerging Vision Common Stock at an exercise price of $0.01 per share. Horizons exercised 2,000,000, 250,000 and 250,000 of such warrants on May 1, 2002, July 22, 2002 and October 22, 2002, respectively.

Transactions Among the Company, Horizons Investors Corp. and the Cohen Family

On December 31, 2003, Emerging Vision entered into agreements, with each of Horizons and certain of the members of the Cohen Family (collectively, the Subject Shareholders), pursuant to which Emerging Vision and each of the Subject Shareholders agreed to, and effectuated, (a) the rescission, ab initio, of the exercise, by the Subject Shareholders, of 13,000,000 of the over-subscription rights of the Subject Shareholders (and, accordingly, of the issuance, to such Subject Shareholders, of the units associated therewith) granted to them in the Rights Offering, and (b) the rescission, surrender and cancellation of all of the remaining warrants (33,210,028 in the aggregate) that were acquired by the Subject Shareholders in the Rights Offering (collectively, the Rescission Transactions). In connection with the Rescission Transactions, Emerging Vision agreed to repay each Subject Shareholder the original subscription amount of $0.04 (previously paid by each Subject Shareholder) for each of the rescinded units (together with interest at a rate of 6% per annum from the date of the original acquisition thereof), which, in the aggregate for all of the Subject Shareholders, totaled $520,000. This sum (plus interest) is payable, by Emerging Vision, on or before April 14, 2007, pursuant to a series of promissory notes issued to the Subject Shareholders.

Recognizing that the Subject Shareholders suffered certain damages in connection with the Rescission Transactions, on December 31, 2003, (i) Emerging Vision and the Shareholders entered into settlement agreements with each of the Subject Shareholders, pursuant to which the Subject Shareholders released any and all claims that they may have had against Emerging Vision as a result of the consummation of the Rescission Transactions, and (ii) Emerging Vision, in consideration for such releases, granted to the Subject Shareholders, in the aggregate, new warrants to purchase 59,210,028 shares of Emerging Vision's Common Stock. The exercise prices of the new warrants issued to each of the Subject Shareholders ranged from $0.0465 to $0.0489. These exercise prices were calculated with the intention of allowing the Subject Shareholders to purchase equity of the Company on substantially the same economic terms that they would have been originally entitled pursuant to the Rights Offering, but for the Rescission Transactions. The new warrants are not exercisable until April 15, 2006, and expire on April 14, 2008.
